A Review of Alabama's Industrial Progress During The Past Year

made in Alabama's industritl progress during 1949, Gordon Palmer, president of the Alabama State lion dollar investment of privately Chamber of Commerce, said in releasing year-end figures on the State's progress.

More than 170 million dollars has been invested in new industries and expanding existing ones during the year, Palmer continued. He said there were 74 new industries located in 36 different cities, and in 28 different counties during the year. These new industries produce a wide variety of products and 31 of them are producing a consumer product, i. e., a product that can move directly from the manufacturer to the retailer.

Tremendous strides have been | ing the year. It also includes 103 million dollars spent on expansion of existing industries, the 29 milowned public utilities in the State and seven million dollars spent by new industries.

These figures, Palmer added, were compiled using only records available in the State Chamber, of private capital invested in private enterprises and privately owned public utilities, and do not take into consideration the expenditures made by local, State and national governmental agencies.

"This not only shows a healthy industrial condition," the State Chamber president said, "but it proves that Alabama citizens and industries now in business in Alabama, have the courage, initiative, foresight and faith and confidence the 32 million dollar investment of in the future of the State to in-

Danish Gymnasts To Present Program

A team of 24 Danish gymnasts will come to Alabama College at 8:00 p.m. on Wednesday, January 11, where they will present an unusual two-hour exhibit in Palmer Auditorium.

Varying in age from 18 to 30, members of the group will demonstrate tumbling, ballet, and tight-rope walking techniques and during a 15-minute "rest period", peasant dances of the more vigorous variety.

The Danish team is at present on a year's tour of the United States and Mexico. All members of the troupe are amateurs, and have been selected from schools and clubs over Denmark for their skill and technique.

The team includes both men and women. Tickets may be obtained at the box office in Palmer Wednesday evening.

State Crop Values Dropped In 1949

Montgomery - The value the crops raised by Alabama farmers during 1949 is almost 25 per cent off from what it was the pieceding year. This estimate is based on a survey recently completed

The Co-op put the total value cline from the 1948 mark was due in the main to last year's lower production of cotton and cottonseed. In addition, the price level in 1949 was lower for most commodities.

During last year Alabama farmers realized $141,000,000 from cotton and cottonseed production, as against $214,000,000 in 1948. Boll weevils accounted for much of this reduction.

A cut in acreage last year cut the value of the state's peanut crop down from 36 million dollars in 1948 to 29 million for 1949.

The value of the state's corn crop was put at $74,693,000 for 1949. This is a nine per cent decrease from the 1948 value.

During the past crop year Alabama's pecan yield also hit the skids but a price level jump served to keep the value up.

The Co-op estimated Irish posix per cent from last year.

Alabama's sweet potato production was up somewhat from let Music from 'Alceste', by Gluckthe 1948 figure. During 1949 the production was 4,565,000 bushels of sweet potatoes.

MR. CHARLEY NORDAN

An interesting and interested visitor to Montevallo during the Christmas holidays was Mr. C. J. Nordan, of Abbeville. He was accompanied by his wife, "Miss Susie," and a son, Charley Ray, brought them on the trip in his Pontiac. They visited Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Nordan.

"Mr. Charley," as he is known by everybody in Henry County and many other places is "a page out of the old book," in spite of which he is keen, alert, fully alive and much interested in things of the present day and time. . .

He is a thin, wiry man, 80 years of age (not old, he says) and has been farmer, merchant, justice of the peace, and the chief legal light and arbiter of Henry County for more than half a century.

This was his first trip to this part of the state, and he took a great interest in seeing what is going on around these parts. The sons, Clayton and Charley Ray, carried him on a tour of the Birmingham district, his first view of Alabama's great industrial district. "I passed through there on a train one time," he said.

They do bad things to her plants and flowers and things in the yard, she says. She insists on having Rhode Island Reds - of course, they don't peck the plants and things as game chickens do."

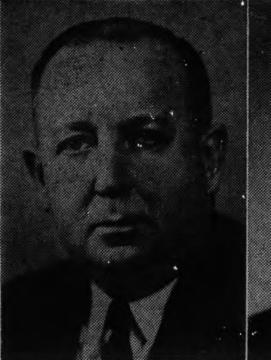

"Yes, I'm 80," he said as he took another cut from his favorite plug, "but I aint makin' no plans to leave here. I get up at five every morning - tend to the chickens, cows and hogs around the place - try all the cases that come to my court - take a nap after dinner - keep busy until night - read my paper until I go to sleep - rest well all night and get up rested and in shape for another day. His duroc farrowed last week and Jerry now has as his project the sow and a litter of 7 duroc pigs. Jerry's grade gilt also farrowed during December, and her litter is seven also. All the pigs from the first litter are already sold. Jerry lives at Pearidge.

Ed Holcombe is the champion poultryman among the FFA boys. His last brood of 200 purchased chicks is still 204 strong after the first two weeks of brooding. He has brooded 100% plus livability with his second poultry project. His 130 laying hens are going strong and have been during the high price peak for eggs. His income from the sale of eggs has reached $5.00 a day at times. Ed and Pete Holcombe have constructed two poultry houses. One is a brooder house for brooding 300 chicks at a time. The other house is a 20 by 30 laying house to house between 200 and 300 hens. Both buildings are permanent type construction with metal roof and concrete walls and floors.

School Support May Call For More State Taxes

Montgomery - Alabama taxpayers may be burdened with additional taxes if the present rate of spending for public education keeps up.

This warning was sounded this week by the Alabama Legislative Reference Service, which has just completed a study of public education finances in the state.

The reference service report said: "The State of Alabama can not continue the present rate of expenditure for public education without levying additional taxes, incurring a deficit, or reducing expenditures for other state functions."

The report also pointed out the amount spent in Alabama on public education has tripled since 1926-27. During that fiscal year $18,300,314 went out of the state till for public elementary and secondary education. In 1947-48 the amount had jumped to $60,820,332.

According to the report, the largest portion of the increase has gone for increased teachers' salaries. Twelve years ago the average annual teacher's salary was $688, while in 1947-48 teachers in the state were making on the average of $1,909 yearly. Alabama ranks seventh among the other Southern states in teacher pay, while only Mississippi ranks lower in the amount spent on each

The report stated that the total tax receipts earmarked for education have humped from $19,892,-154 to $61,013,815 in the last 12 years. The state sales tax is the largest single source of educational revenue. The other principal contributors to education are the income, tobacco and use levies.

Hadacol Helps Textile Worker Stay On Job

The great textile mills of the Carolinas are booming again with shifts working day and night to turn out the nation's finest mate-rials, and HADACOL is doing its part to keep folks on the job.

Many textile workers have reported the wonderful relief which HADACOL with its five B vitamins and four important minerals. This worker, a young father employed by the great Cannon Mills at Kannapolis, N. C.

Jay W. Barn-hardt, Route 3, Box 343, Kannapolis, N. C., is 30 years old and the proud father of two children. His work in the Cannon Mills calls for a great deal of standing up.

"I had been ill for several Mr. Barnhardt years," said Mr. Barnhardt as he explained how close he came to having to give up his work. "I suffered with a weak stomach. It became worse and worse with gastric disturbances. I just could not hold food and no food agreed with me. I could not sleep and finally I became so sick that my legs got weak as I worked in the mill each day."

Mr. Barnhardt, like so many sufferers, had tried many preparations without relief, when he heard about HADACOL

"After the second bottle of HADACOL I began to feel better an dto regain the weight I had lost," said Mr. Barnhardt. "My digestion became normal again and today I am as well as ever. My legs no longer bother me. I eat and enjoy my food. I sleep well and have plenty of energy."

Mr. Barnhardt has taken several bottles of HADACOL and now takes the famous vitamin and mineral preparation to help stay well. He has had his wife take it with wonderful results and has recommended it to his friends in the mill.

Mr. Barnhardt suffered from a lack of B vitamins and the minals which HADACOL contains HADACOL comes to you in liquid form, easily assimilated in the blood stream so that it can go to work right away.

A lack of only a small amount of B vitamins and certain minerals will cause digestive disturbances . . Your food will not agree with you . . You will have an upset stomach . . . You will suffer from heartburn, gas pains and your food will sour on your stomach and you will not be able to eat the things you like for fear of being in misery afterwards. Many people also suffer from constipation. And while these symptoms may be the results of other causes, they are surely and certainly the signs of lack of B vitamins and minerals which HADACOL contains. And if you suffer from such a deficiency disorder, there is no known cure except the administration of the vitamins and mineral, which your system lacks.

It is easy to understand, there-fore, why countless thousands have been benefited by this amazing tonic, HADACOL

Margaret Webster To Present Plays Here

The Margaret Webster Shakespeare Company will present "Julius Ceasar" and "Taming of the Shrew" in Palmer Auditorium January 23. "Julius Caesar" will be performed at 2:30 p.m., and "Taming of the Shrew" that night at 8:00. Admission tickets will be $1.50 for adults and 25 cents for high school students. Tickets will be sold at the box office in Palmer.

Headed by Louisa Horton, Kendall Clark, and David Lewis, the New York cast represents the first Broadway standard repertory company to visit the nation's colleges, universities, and public auditoriums.

The company, directed by Margaret Webster, was organized so that audiences in small communities from coast-to-coast could see "live" theatre again.

Better "Times" This Week

We are glad to present to our readers a better Montevallo Times this week. It is better because it contains more news items of local interest.

The reason: Members of Mrs. Virginia Hamilton's journalism class at Alabama College did the writing as a practical lesson in their course of newspaper study. We hope they will do this again and often. They did a good job.

While we are at it, let us drop this little hint to all our readers: If you will send in reports of your interests and activities, it will enable us to make the paper more interesting.

Episcopal Church Plans To Build

Plans for a new Episcopal Chapel are under way. The building program includes chapels for the University, Tuskeegee, and Auburn, as well as Montevallo.

Miss Ethel H. Reasoner, a local member and worker in the Episcopal Church reports pledges for these buildings went "over the top".

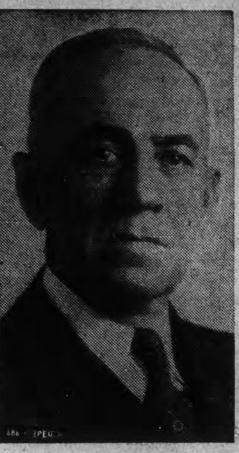

The drive for money could be pledged over a period of three years. The Chapel here can not go ahead until enough pledges are met so that construction on all the other three chapels can begin

Miss Reasoner said that they would get $55,000 out of the drive to spend on the chapel here.

Mr. Allen Bartlett, a Birming ham architect, is in charge of the local committee and is going ahead with the plans. Members think that construction will possibly be this summer.

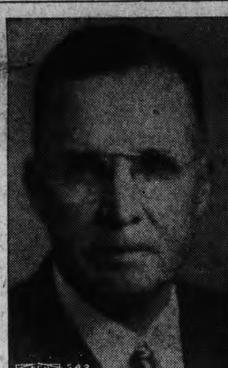

There has not been an Episcopal Church here since the last one blew away about ten years ago. Services have been held since that time in Calkins Hall on the campus of Alabama College.

The old chapel was located across the street from the present Presbyterian Church. The new one will be built on the lot across the street from the local football

Town Votes To Levy Tax On Cigarettes

Twenty voted in favor of holding a town election to vote on the two-cent cigarette tax as a means of raising more revenue for recreation at the town meeting held Thursday night, January 5, in the Elementary School Auditorium. Only the small number of 26 were present at the meeting.

At the town meeting it was generally realized that the town is in great need of improvement of its facilities at the swimming pool, as well as the need for additional recreation activities.

Mrs. E. P. Hood, a member of the Recreation Board, raised the question of whether or not the cigarette tax fund would be earmarked for recreation.

Dr. C. T. Acker said, "We have conditions to face and we should face them. We can't do too much for our children. Today there is no more popular move of obtaining money for towns than that of the cigarette tax."

Vote is 113 to 56 in Favor

By motion of Dr. W. H. Trumbauer the meeting approved a resolution asking for a vote of the people of the Town and its police jurisdiction January 9, upon the following question:

"Do you favor the Town of Montevallo levying and collecting a tax on cigarettes, smoking tobacco and cigars (not to exceed 2 cents on a package of cigarettes I cent a package on smoking bacco, and 1 cent each on cigars) with a minimum of one-half the amount of revenue derived from such tax to be appropriated by the Town Council out of the general fund of the Town for support of the Town Recreation Program?"

The election was accordingly held January 9, with the following result:

For the tax 113 votes; against the tax 56 votes.

Grammar School To Many Visitors In Have Full New Year

Montevallo Grammar School the coming year.

Mrs. Charlotte Peterson, principal, announces some of the plans for this year. In order to study the methods of teaching used at the Montevallo Grammar School, 10 Livingston State College girls are visiting the school Friday, January 13. These girls are senior education majors and are planning to study the educational system used here.

Grammar school children begin their annual March of Dimes drive January 19. Mrs. Peterson expects the students to show much enthusiasm over this drive since Montevallo Grammar School led the county in the amount of dimes collected for the drive last year.

Plans have been discussed to begin a course in home responsibilities for the children. This course will include planning, cooking and serving of meals by the students themselves. It is hoped that Alabama College home economics majors will work with the grammar school teachers in these plans.

This year a collection of creative writings composed by the students in the grammar school will be started.

Mrs. Peterson announces that much progress has been made in the violin classes offered this year. Miss Claire Ordway, assistant professor of music at Alabama College, teaches these classes. The first public appearance was the Christmas performance. Plans are being made for other concerts throughout the year.

A Picture of Progress on the Peete Farm Near Montevallo

Despite unfavorable weather for Shelby County farmers during most of 1949, Grady S. Peete, G. I. farm trainee, is well pleased with his progress and crop yields for the year just ended.

Grady lives with his mother on their 193 acre farm north of Montevallo. When he returned from service with the armed forces of World War II, he entered the On-Farm Training Program under the G. I. Bill of Rights. He is anxious to learn and put into practice improved farming methods that will bring him more returns on his labor and investment. He isn't doing bad either as his farming program for 1949 indicates. He produced 10 bales of cotton on 14 acres despite wet weather and boll weevils. On 12 acres of his land he He planted Funks G 717 and Ten- reservative to prolong their usefulness.

Other winter crops are as follows: 8 acres of Dixie Crimson Clover for grazing and seed production; 13 acres of White Dutch Clover for grazing and seed production; 4 acres of Caley peas for grazing and seed production; 25 acres of Vetch for turning in Spring; and 15 acres of Oats for grazing and grain production.

Besides the nearly $600.00 of livestock Grady sold in 1949. he has on his farm at present 2 pure bred Yorkshire (bacon type) gilts that will farrow this month, 5 cows bred to a registered Hereford sire and 5 yearlings.

Now It's Basketball At Montevallo High

Once again with the football season several weeks dead, basketball has taken over the spotlight at Montevallo High School.

At the call for the basketball team for 1949-50, 33 boys answered. Six were returning lettermen. They include Bobby Baker, Joe Hamrick, John Galloway, Gerald floor. Allen, Jack Weston, and Prude Fancher.

Coming up from last year's "B" team, and scrapping for a place on the varsity are: J. W. Cox and Horace Eddings. Joe Bradford, who was out all last season, is showing up well.

The varsity team consists of: G. Allen, B. Baker, J. Bradford, J. Cox, H. Eddings, M. Fancher, P. Fancher, J. Galloway, J. Hamrick, and J. Weston.

The boys who are out for the "B" team are: B. Rhodes, B. Lee, G. Splawn, J. Taft, B. N. Smitherman, M. Hammaker K. Rochester, J. Edwards, E. Clark, J. O'neal, G. Holditch, A. Pickett, B. McNeil, and B. Lawrence.

Franklin Kilgore and John Battles are managers of the team.

According to Coach Fisher, the prospects for the season are about the best in the three years that he has been at Montevallo; although the material, as a whole, is not up to par. However, it promises to be an interesting season.

The score boards have shown two victories and two defeats in o'clock.

the games played thus far. Victories were 27-17 over Calera and 43-42 over Centerville. Losses were 62-30 to Ensley and 37-34 to Siluria. The "B" team has also won two and lost two. Several more games to be played are listed on the schedule.

Basketball fans have been in good attendance each time the Bulldogs, in their new orange and blue outfits, have taken to the

Students Study Child Care

Child care and guidance in the high school home economics II class has been made very interesting and helpful through the cooperation of several mothers in town. Among those who furnished time, children, and materials are Mrs. Fred Frost, Mrs. Theda Nordan, and Mrs. W. M. Fuller.

The students had the opportunity to observe in the homes of Mrs. Frost and Mrs. Nordan. They watched the children in the natural environment, such as being fed and dressed, getting their baths, and playing. The mothers contributed to this study by giving their experiences with the feeding and health care of the baby, selection of clothing, and of training and play equipment.

The class was introduced to the study of older children by observing in the nursery school under the supervision of Miss Ethel Bickham, and also children in the elementary school in Miss Rice's and Mrs. Anderson's rooms.

After making these studies the students will continue their course by having a play school in their own department which will give them the opportunity to have experiences with children from 3 to 6. Those who are enrolled in the play school are Gail and Martha Price, Johnny Thornton, Virginia Love, Larry McGaughy, and Janet Rotenberry.

Dr. and Mrs. W. M. Fuller will be honored with an informal tea Thursday afternoon at the church

News Notes About Future Farmers

Joe Clark, a Montevallo FFA member, is really happy over his supervised farming program-because this week he was glad to include a fine jersy heifer which was given the FFA chapter by Fred Eagerton, a member of the Sidney Lanier chapter of Montgomery. In presenting the animal to the chapter, Fred stated that he hoped to encourage other Montevallo FFA members to begin improved programs in farming,

Three Vacancies For Naval Academy

Congressman Edward deGraffenried has announced that there are three vacancies for midshipmen at the U.S. Naval Academy to be filled by young men from the Sixth Congressional District of Alabama.

For each vacancy Mr. deGraffenried may nominate one principal candidate and three alternates. Those nominated will stand the Naval Academy entrance examination on April 19, 1950, and the three who qualify will be admitted to the Academy at Annapolis, Maryland, on July 1, 1950.

Applicants must be between the ages of 17 and 21 on April 1, 1950, except young men who have had one year of honorable service in either of the U.S. Armed Services, in which case the upper age limit is 23. Applicants must be residents of the Sixth Congressional District.

There are three methods of qualifying mentally for admission to the Naval Academy: (a) by passing the regular mental examination. Two and one-half days are required for this examination. (b) By passing the substantiating examination in mathematics and English and submitting an acceptable certificate of credits on graduation from an accredited high school. Two days are required for this examination. (c) By submission of acceptable certificates of credits from accredited high schools and colleges, without mental examination.

Applicants must also pass strict physical examination.

Mr. deGraffenried urges that all young men who wish consideration for appointment to the Naval Academy this year write him immediately giving information regarding education, date of birth, and character references. Although under the law nominations must be made by March 4 1950, the Department of the Navy has requested that they be made as early as possible.

D. A. R. Chapter Holds Meeting

The January meeting of David Lindsay Chapter, D.A.R., was held this past Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Sharp. Mrs. Bowdon and Mrs. Holcombe, of Calera, were present. Mrs. Gormley and Miss Mayfield, prospective members of the Chapter, came as Give Now To The guests.

After the business meeting a most enjoyable program of music was presented under the direction of Miss Claire Ordway, of the Music Faculty of Alabama College. In introducing Miss Ordway, Miss Reasoner, program chairman, expressed appriciation to Miss Ordway for the time and planning spent by her; and called the attention of the Chapter to the fact that she is now extra busy as a member of the Birmingham Civic Symphony. Alabama College students who performed were: Elaine Drew, violin solo; Mary Brown, piano solo; and Winifred Black, several vocal numbers. Miss Ordway read a passage from Clarence Day's "Life With Father" on the trials and tribulations of a boy attempting to master the violin! She then played a final number on her violin accompanied by Mrs.

Dr. Vickery suggested during the business meeting that Mrs. Wills' interesting discussion of revolutionary soldiers in Alabama which was presented at the December meeting, be adapted for radio broadcast.

Mrs. Sharp served delicious refreshments and everyone agreed that the evening had been an unusually pleasant one.

Plan Improvement Of Instruction In Public Schools

Miss Minnie Dunn, Alabam College Department of Education, and Miss Nona Sparks, supervisor in Montevallo Laboratory School, have returned from the work conference of Supervisors and Directors of Instruction, held in Montgomery during the week of January 8.

The work conference of Supervisors and Directors of Instruction is sponsored in cooperation with the State Department of Education. This year, as in previous years, the conference was most helpful to supervisors in planning the over-all program for improving instruction throughout the

The major emphasis of the conference changes from year to year. The theme for the work this year centered around the examination and study of various types of instructional materials now in process of development. The organization of the group for working brought about broad participation on the part of each member. There were general assemblies for addresses of small groups under the guidance and leadership of those selected because of special competencies in a particular area.

The help gained through participation in the conference will be most valuable in those attending in offering leadership to local teacher groups in the continuous improvement of instruction in the public schools.

March of Dimes

Mrs. Nell Parnell, Special Gifts Chairman for the Shelby County March of Dimes campaign, has reported a number of sizable donations which have come in so far. A $50 contribution was made by a citizen of Columbiana, a $50 contribution by a citizen of Calera, a $35 and a $25 contribution from individuals in the Siluria area, with a number of possible larger contributions yet to be reported.

These larger contributions are undoubtedly due to the fact that eight children in Shelby County, the victims of polio, were helped last year from local polio funds in the amount of practically $1,700.00. Shelby County is being asked to raise $3500 this year. Approximately $2600 was raised in the county last year.

She also made a dressing table by taking the end drawers from an old dresser to make the table and hanging the mirrow over them. After making lamp shades and rearranging the furniture, the room looks very nice.

Other improvements that have been observed in girls rooms are fluffy rugs that have been made from old sacks that were dyed. These rugs are nice to put by the bed or just any place that you might need a small rug. Can't you see these rooms sparkling with a new look after everything is finished?

Magic has been working in the sewing, too. A desire to sew was fulfilled by making clothes from discarded clothing. Attractive weskits, jackets, blouses, dresses, suits and pants were made from discarded coats and dresses. Smart suits that anyone would like to have in their wardrobe were made from men's old suits. By just looking at these suits, no one would ever guess that they were once a man's suit.

It's easy to do this magic work. First, look around the home and find clothing that is not wearable then find ways to make them into attractive 'garments.

These are only a few examples but are those observed by a student teacher on visits to the Home Economics III girls' homes.

When, in 1702, Iberville established the first permanent white settlement in Alabama, the colonists were saved from starvation that year by the Indians who brought them corn from crudely cultivated fields.

Ar Census Office Is At Clanton

HURSDAY, JAN. 19, 1950

Establishment of a district office for the 17th decennial census of the United States, in Clanton, was announced this week by Mr. Lloyd C. Warr, census district supervisor for the Clanton area. The census district office will be located at 2111/2 Sixth Street North.

Mr. Warr states that preliminary work on the 1959 census to be taken in April, will begin immediately. This includes organization of the district office, conducting publicity, interviewing applicants for jobs, and later the training of office clerks, field crew leaders and enumerators. The district supervisor, his assistant, and his administrative clerk will also be given special schooling at census area headquarters in Birmingham.

The territory included in the census district which Mr. Warr supervises includes Bibb, Chilton, Greene, Hale, Perry, Shelby, Sumter and Tuscaloosa counties. Enumeration districts will be established for each of these counties and for sections of the larger communities in each county. Approximately 268 enumerators will be employed to take the 1950 census in this area.

Bishop Cleburne Coming Sunday

Suffragan Bishop Randol p h Cleburne, of the Episcopal diocess of Alabama, will pay his first visit to St. Andrews Mission for the eleven o'clock service on Sunday next, January 22nd. This service will be held, as usual, in Calkins Music Hall, and will be a celebration of Holy Eucharist. All members of St. Andrews and interested friends are urged to come. After the service dinner will be served in Reynolds dining room for members of St. Andrews and the Canterbury Club. Those church members who do not regularly eat in the college dining room are asked to notify Mrs. Phebe Wills if they would like to be present at this dinner to meet the new suffragan Bishop. Appreciation is expressed to Miss Anna Irvin for making this dinner possible.

Bishop Cleburne has held his present office for almost a year now. He is in charge of all missions and mission stations in Alabama. St. Andrews is therefore under his direction.

Future Farmers Are In Hog Business

The first litter of seven duroc pigs produced in the supervised practice program of Jerry Moody, a Montevallo F.F.A. member. was sold to Dr. Lorraine Pierson, member of Alabama College faculty. Miss Pierson has shown unusual interest in the Montevallo F.F.A. program and states she will offer cash to be used as premiums in the F.F.A. livestock show when it is held early this spring. Dr. Pierson owns a 225 acre farm near Dothan and the Montevallo F.F.A. chapter is working with her toward developing a farm program.

Montevallo F.F.A. boys own eighteen registered gilts and it s expected that purebred pigs of several breeds will be farrowed each month during the year. The eighteen gilts were placed with the boys to promote a program to provide a better grade of hogs o be fed out for family slaughter nd use. Under the present proram it is estimated that over 200 quality pigs will be produced annually. Buddy Galloway, another F.F.A. member, owns an O.C.I. gilt that farrowed 11 pigs January 13. Edward Holcombe owns an O.C.I, from a litter of 15 and she is to farrow January 23. Bobby Jarvis expects a litter from his duroc early in March. #### Montevallo Times Veteran Farmer Raising Hogs

Reducing the acreage of cotton is not going to affect the income of Veteran on - the farm trainee, Conegie Weldon, if he can do anything about it. Conegie already has a pretty good livestock program and expects to increase it in the future. From one OIC sow Conegie produced 24 pigs in 1949. He sold 10 of the first litter for $10 each and kept two for home use. His sow farrowed 14 pigs in the last litter, but due to the fact that she did not have sufficient facilities to furnish groceries for all of them, the two weaker ones died. Conegie still has the other 12. He expects to finish them off and put them on the market when the price of pork gets better in the Spring. Conegie says he can hold them for better prices because he has 8 acres of crimson clover and oats and 12 acres of vetch and oats that they can run on. He also produced enough grain last year to supply them.

Mr. F. C. Thompson, veterans' teacher of vocational agriculture, works with Conegie in carrying out his farming program.

On The Farms Of Shelby County

B. F. Hatchett and G. C. Stracher

C. Cardes, Cooperator with the North Central Soil Conservation District, on the Dry Valley Road southeast of Montevallo, is letting Mother Nature "treat" fence post for him.

Since becoming a cooperator early in 1946, Cordes has completed much of his conservation farm plan. Field borders and disposal areas of sericea are established and furnishing hay each summer. Water is handled by a terrace system emptying into sericea or kudzu. Pasture is being improved. Eighty additional acres have been purchased and will be mapped and planned.

Mr. Cordes has none of the usual post materials on his place. He follows a simple method to fill his need of posts. He selects pine saplings that would be removed in normal thinning, but large enough for post. These are skinned of bark on four sides for more than post legnth, leaving one inch of bark between cuts, from top to bottom, to support life in the tree. This is done in winter.

The exposed wood is coated with resin by spring, protected thus from insects or weather.

After two or three years the trees are heavy with this "fat" deposited in the wood. Mr. Cordes prepares about 250 posts per year. He has cut 125 posts, and after a year in service they are very solid, and any insect injury found was in the narrow bark areas. He expects long life as well as low cost from these posts.

Asked about death and insect injury in skinned trees, Mr. Cordes replied, "I have lost a few trees. Since I select many cull trees in thinning, some weak trees die. I prevent insect injury by removing any trees that die, at once when they are seen."

As to cost, he says these cost him less than a dime each in estimated labor and pulpwood value of the saplings. That is much less than the cheapest method of chemical treating. "For my money," he says, "I'd rather have these naturally treated posts."

Another important factor on a one-man farm like Mr. Cordes' is that posts may be selected and treated almost where needed in many cases. For instance, a forty acre area planned for fencing next year has a ring of pines half ready for use, only a short distance from where each will be needed!

1949 Was Our BIGGEST YEAR In Rural Telephone Expansion

More farm families in the South got new telephones during 1949 than during any other year in history.

The 57,000 poles we erected to extend rural telephone service was a record number, too. So was the 105,000 miles of wire placed in service. Setting these new records required record expenditures of $26,000,000 for new rural facilities for the year.

Serving the rural areas of the South is one of our biggest jobs, and we're making record progress. It's good telephone service, too—backed by nearly three-quarters of a century's experience, plus the teamwork of the Bell Telephone Laboratories and the Western Electric Company in developing new methods and equipment to make the service still better.

of BAE acreage.

Under Cooley a favorably mittee, a isfied will be contained to the contained to cotton acreage allotments.

The Congressman stated that the trouble is not so much with the present law as written as with the way it is being administered. He stated that he was in favor of the Cooley amendment and hoped that the Committee would report the amendment favorably immediately and that it would be acted upon favorably by the House as soon as possible, as it would be too late to give relief unless it was quickly done. The Cooley amendment provides that no farm cotton acreage allotment shall be less than the larger of seventy percentum of the average acreage planted to cotton, or regarded as planted to cotton, under Public Law 12, 79th Congress, on the farm in 1946 1947 and 1948, or fifty percentum of the highest acreage planted to cotton, or regarded as planted to cotton on the farm in any one of such three

The Congressman stated, however, to the committee that in order for this amendment to be of material help to the farmers of his District and of the cotton states, this amendment would have to be properly administered and if it was not properly administered, it would not be of much help. He stated that if no farmer was cut more than thirty percentum of the average that he had actually had in acreage in cotton for these three years, that the farmer would be materially helped but that if BAE estimates are sed as a base on acreage, the farmers would not be materially helped. He suggested to the Committee that a provision should be contained in the amendment whereby a maximum cut of thirty percentum of the farmer's known planted acreage would be all that he be required to take.

In connection with his statement, the Congressman read a letter from a constituent of Uniontown, Alabama opposing the use

The Margaret Webster Players, outstanding Shakespearean troupe will come to Alabama College Monday, January 23, for two performances. At a 2:30 matinee the company will present "Julius Ceasar" and at 8:00 p.m. "Taming of the Shrew." Famous for bringing Shakespeare to the small towns of the nation, the company is today considered classical drama's finest aid in making big theatre popular.

Heading the cast of 21 players will be Louisa Horton, Kendall Clark and David Lewis.

Miss Horton recently starred in the Broadway hit "The Voice of the Turtle," and will be familiar to movie audiences because of her performance in "All My Sons," a current-run picture.

Kendall Clark, veteran of many Broadway productions has played opposite the nation's outstanding actresses, Ina Claire, Ethel Barrymore, Tane Cowl and Alabama's own Bankhead.

Mr. Lewis, another familiar broadway performer, was outstanding last season in touring productions of "Hamlet" and "Macbeth".

Congressman Edward DeGraf- of BAE estimates in alloting

Under a new proposal to the Cooley amendment, which may be favorably reported by the Committee, any farmer who is dissatisfied with his farm acreage allotment for the 1950 cotton crop may within fifteen days after mailing to him a notice, as provided in Section 362 of the Act, or within fifteen days after the effective date of the amendment, whichever date is later, have such allotment reviewed in accordance with the provisions of said act.

Mr. deGraffenried stated that he was for the Cooley amendment and hoped and urged that the Committee, if possible, place some provision in the amendment for its effective administration to see that each farmer really was cut no more than provided in the amendment.

Spoon Bread and Baked Apples an Old Favoriate at the St. George Hotel

By Frances Brewer Alabama College Student in Journalism

Spoon bread and baked apples-Ask any old timer in Montevallo what this brings to mind and he will immediately begin reminiscing on the old days of the St. George Hotel.

The St. George, built in 1879 by Mr. George Kroell, was the only hotel in this section of Shelby County. Mr. Jack Johnson became manager of the hotel soon after it was built. Under his supervision it became famous for its fine food and pastries.

Operated on the style of the Purefoy in Talladega, the hotel's cooking was done by Joe Prentice, a Negro man who still lives in Montevallo. Clad in white trousers and bright silk shirt, Joe would serve his specialties—spoon bread and chicken pie.

Traveling salesmen tried to make the St. George a regular Saturday night stop because of the extraordinary food. According to one salesman, they had the best spoon bread he ever ate. His wife remembers the delicious Southern fried chicken, and the most beautiful baked apples she had ever seen.

While staying in Montevallo the salesmen — then known as drummers - would put their goods on display in a room of the St. George known as the sample cinity it came to my attention room. The people of Montevallo that there was not a place of busicould come here to order their clothing.

In addition to the outstanding food, the hotel had the friendly, homely atmosphere of the old South. Entering the lobby one would come face to face with several cages of lovebirds billing and cooing. In small fish bowls around the room tiny gold fish would be swimming in the clear blue water. Adding to the homey atmosphere were stray cats whose wanderings had led them to the St. George because of the table scraps always ready for them.

Besides encouraging hearty appetites, the St. George evidently influnced affairs of the heart. As the story goes, Mrs. Johnson's neice was spending some time at the hotel when she met a young Birmingham man. This friendship grew until one afternoon the couple left the hotel to walk over to a spring on the outskirts of town. Several hours later the surprised friends and family received a call from the couple saying they had just been married in Colum-

The Johnsons managed the hotel 21 years after which it changed hands several times.

Since the old days of the St. George a few changes have been made in the original building. Four new rooms have been added and the kitchen enlarged. Due to new rules meals may not be served in the hotel to-day.

Even though the delightful aroma of Joe's food is missing and the familiar bellhop no longer lights the kerosene lamps at dusk, the St. George of today, now under the management of Mrs. Doris G. Farrington, keeps the spirit of the old St. George alive.

John Foshee Has Announced For State Senator

Mr. John Foshee, attorney, of Montevallo, has formally qualified and entered the race as a candidate for the Alabama State Senate in the 15th Senatorial District comprised of Autauga, Chilton and Shelby Counties, for the Democratic Primary to be held May 2,

Mr. Foshee, a native of Chilton County, is well-known throughout the district. For some years he practiced law at Clanton, and later at Centerville.

He was in the automobile business at Montevallo for the past six years until he sold out his business about six months ago. He is a member and chairman of the Shelby County Board of Education to which office he was elected two years ago.

Under the rotation system practiced in the three counties, our State Senator for the next four years will be chosen from Shelby County. For the past four years our Senator has been a Chilton County man, Honorable W. A. Gulledge, of Verbena.

Addition Planned For Vocational Building

According to Dr. M. L. Orr, an additional room will be added to the High School Vocational Training Building which is now nearing completion. The new addition will house the Vocational Agriculture Shop when completed. The buildng which is how nearing completion has three rooms, two of which will be used for Home Economics training, and the third for the Vocational Agriculture Department.

The County Board of Education has agreed to appropriate $10,000 toward the addition, and Alabama College will also make an appropriation. The contract has not as yet been let, however, it is anticipated that this will be done in a short time.

JOE MONEY

Joe Money, prominent Birmingham machinery dealer, has announced as a candidate for Governor.

Social Security Benefits Explained

Are Social Security benefits like money in the bank? Of course they are, with one important exception. The amount of your money in the bank will stay the same | Have You Paid until you call for it. The amount of money in your Social Security account will not stay the same if you delay in calling for it.

Old age or survivors insurance benefits under the Social Security Act are payable when a worker retires or when he dies. The monthly rate of payment never decreases, but a delay in filing claim may mean a loss of many months' checks. A regrettable ample of this came to light in our office recently. Last month a widow filed application on behalf of her three minor children as a result of her husband's death in 1943. Under the Social Security law monthly payments can not go back more than three months before the month in which the claim is filed. As a result, more than 60 months benefits were lost. The value of the lost money was approximately $1,025.

The Social Security Administration emphasizes again the duty of all workers and their families to know their rights and responsibilities regarding Social Security. According to P. J. Adamson, the field representative of the Birmingham office, who is in Calera each Thursday, there are two times when the Social Security representative should be contacted immediately:

1. When a person who has worked under Social Security reaches 65 and retires;

2. When a person who has worked under Social Security dies.

Mr. Adamson stressed that in either of these events the worker or someone in his family should report to him at the Employment Office in Calera where he is each Thursday from 9:30 to 11:00 a.m.

"Loss of benefits is a serious problem," said M. C. Folmar, the manager of the Birmingham office. Mr. Fowmar added "Records of our office show that approximately one out of every twenty there. Maybe one (Gloria's boy) claimants lose at least a part of the benefits due to him because of misunderstanding or delay in filing claim."

While DeSota and his cavaliers passed through this state four centuries ago, their written records of the journey often referred to Alabama racoons and oppossum as "little dogs that do not bark". tem in the entire country.

Two new buildings will soon be constructed on the Alabama College campus. A new 75 foot swimming pool (indoor type), and an Art Building.

Swimming Pool

The Swimming Pool will be located between Comer Hall and the Field House. It will have a glass roof and sides that will roll back to convert the pool to "open air". Also included in the building will be offices and dressing rooms. Art Building

The Art Building will be located between the King House and the King Cemetery. It will contain three studios, one classroom, offices, and storage room.

The State has appropriated one hundred thirty-eight thousand dollars for the two buildings. The Swimming Pool is to cost $80,000 and the Art Building $70,000.

Polio Head Urges Renewed Efforts

Dr. M. L. Orr, County Chairman of the March of Dimes, this week reports that he is not as yet able to say how the drive is progressing as no accurate reports have reached him. Dr. Orr requests that renewed efforts be made towards reaching the county quota of $3,500.00, as this is more than was raised last year.

For Your TB Seals?

The outlook on the 1950 fight against TB in Alabama presents a gloomy picture.

This announcement was made this week by Roy D. Hickman, Birmingham, president of the Alabama Tuberculosis Association.

"We rely on the Christmas Seal Sale for funds to fight TB the year 'round, and not enough people have paid for their 1949 seals to indicate concerted progress can be made against the disease," Mr. Hickman said.

Mr. Hickman emphasized it's never too late to pay for Christ. mas Seals. He explained that many people "just forget" or find it inconvenient to send in their money before or just after Christ-

"To those our plea is directed. Your contribution will be just as welcome now as if it had been received sooner," he said.

It tafes money to push a year round TB control program to stop the spread of a dread and needless killer, and a decrease in Seal Sale returns as compared with last year is indicated in reports being received from a number of Alabama counties, he said.

"Just remember the TB germ is on the march the whole year. For the past 10 years, more than 1000 Alabamians have died every year from this disease—died needlessly, because medical science says TB should not be allowed to exist at

"Let's get the ball rolling faster toward eradication of the disease. "The best way we all can help is by paying for Christmas Seals.

Remember, it's never too late."

It's the other fellow's Telephone ...

If your telephone were the only one in town, it wouldn't be worth very much to you. It's the people you can call and the people who can call you that makes telephone service mean so much.

The value of your telephone increases as more new telephones are installed. Today there are more than twice as many telephones in service as there were before the war and new ones continue to go in at a record rate. Probably some of your friends or relatives are among these thousands upon thousands of new subscribers. Yes, it's the other fellow's telephone that helps to make yours so valuable.

When you consider how much it does for you at the price you pay, telephone service stands out as one of today's real bargains.

Home Ec. Girls Studying Nutritions

The Home Economics I girls are really on the beam about nutrition. These girls have recently studied the importance of food in relation to good health and appearance. They found that unless a person gets enough iron in his food that Anemia, a blood disease, might be the result. Lean meat is a good source of iron. If a person feels tired and irritable in the mornings he might need more Vitamin B. Other points were discussed about how food affects one's health and appearance.

These girls were interested in knowing that young girls and boys their own ages (13-15) need more energy producing foods than any other age group. Proteins, Carbohydrates and fats are good energy producing foods.

Each girl has become very food consious and has kept records of the foods she has eaten each day to check and see if she has received the right amounts of the basic seven, in order that she has a balanced diet.

The class made a resolution that they would try to eat the right amount of the basic seven food groups each day which are: Group I, Green and Yellow vege tables. Group II, Oranges, Tomatoes and Grapefruit. Group III, Potatoes and other

Fruits and Vegetables. Group IV, Milk and Milk Pro-

Group V, Meat, Poultry, Fish and Eggs. Group VI, Bread, Flour and Cer-

Group VII, Butter and Fortified Margarine.

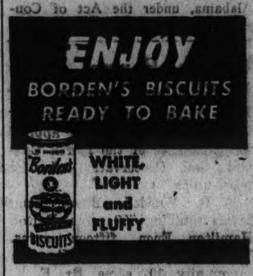

We are happy to report that Miss Ellen-Haven Gould has returned to her home from the hospital, and is improving.

Welfare Department Licenses 46 Agencies

Montgomery-In all, 46 child care institutions have received their 1950 licenses from the State Welfare Department.

Last year some 52 similar institutions were approved.

In making this disclosure, a welfare department spokesman said that under Alabama's Public Welfare Law the state is required to approve any agencies providing child-care.

The spokesman said that some 2,000 Alabama children are receiving care in the 46 establishments which recently received their licenses for this year.

In accounting for the decrease in licensed institutions this year, the welfare spokesman said that a change was brought about in the number of day nurseries. He added that legislation passed in the 1949 legislative session, authorizing the Health Department to license maternity hospitals, also contributed to the decrease in the Welfare Departmene's Licensing for 1950.

All licensing standards are set up by the State Welfare Board.

Mrs. Davis Attends Music Convention

The Alabama College delegate attending the annual convention of the National Association of Schools of Music to be held at Hotel Statler, Cleveland, February 22-26 is Mrs. Maxine Couch Davis of the School of Music faculty.

The Cleveland convention will mark the end of the 25th anniversary of the NASM, an event which was celebrated throughout th facilitate obtaining cooperation year 1949 by the organization's 180 member schools. The growth of the Association during the past quarter century has paralleled the phenomenal development of American music in all its phases. The epoch has witnessed the transformation of music from dilettantism and patronage into professional and industrial self-sufficience.

The music schools of 25 years ago, modeled largely after European conservatories, recognized at that time the need for a strong centralizing current of control, an organization capable of amalgamatingthe best interest and highest ideals of men and women in charge of music schools throughout the land. The result was the birth of the NASM which held its first formal convention in Pittsburg in October, 1924.

A highlight of the coming convention in Cleveland will be the Silver Anniversary Luncheon at one o'clock in the Euclid Room of the Statler. Dr. Burnett C. Tuthill, who has served the Association as secretary since its inception in 1924, will be master of ceremonies. Responses from Past Presidents will be given by Dr. Kenneth M. Bradley, Dr. Harold L. financial aspects of this program. Using figures which he stated to represent maxium expenses together with minimum receipts he illustrated how the program could be made to render profit.

Under the terms of the program, the grower agrees to buy chicks and provide suitable housing and give them proper care. Durbin agrees to feed the flock on credit until they reach the age of approximately six months and commence laying. He also proposes to furnish a man trained in the poultry business to assist the farmers. Feed will be delivered to the farm and after the chickens have begun to lay, the eggs will be picked up two or three times each week. Durbin emphasized that he is not in the feed business and suggested that the farmers grow their own feed, but that he would furnish on credit any feed that might be needed.

A. A. Lauderdale, County agent stated that this program would afford farmers a dependable market for their poultry products. He pointed out that the pogram was esigned to afford a supplemental cash income and that it is not intended that farmers will devote their entire efforts to this pro-

According to Mr. D. A. Thomas, president of Boothton Coal Mining Company, the company will close two of its four mines February 15, 1950.

Mines number 3 and 4, which employ approximately 170 men, will be closed. The Company will continue to operate Mines Number 1 and 2.

This action is being taken due to the unfavorable mining conditions which exist in the coal seams being worked in Mines 3 and 4.

Mr. Thomas states that it is their plan to re-employ a portion of these men in Mines 1 and 2 as it is the Company's plan to expand production in these two remaining mines. However, no pro-Durbin explained in detail the mise can be made at this time as to the number of men who will be re-employed or when they will be re-employed.

Public Contributions To Memorial Fund

The Shelby County Council of the American Legion has voted to accept contributions from the public to finance the erection of a memorial on the Court House lawn to be dedicated to the memory of service men from Shelby County who gave their lives during World War I and II. This dicision was reached at the January meeting of the Council.

Two hundred eighty dollars have been contributed thus far by veterans of Shelby County for the erection of this monument. The council plans to raise around $1,500 before undertaking the completion of this project. Citizens who desire to contribute to this fund may do so by giving their contribution to the Commander of their local Legion Post or by mailing it to Howard McEwen, Committee Chairman, Wilsonville.

The following veterans have contributed to this fund and their contribution has not been previously acknowledged:

Legislation Feb. 10-11

Montgomery - The second annual YMCA Alabama Youth Legislature has been called into session on Feburary 10-11 by the Governor.

The call was issued by excutive proclamation in which the Governor said: "Now, more than ever before, it is important for everyone to become more familiar with the workings of government on every level."

The youth legislature is comprised of school boys and girls from every section of the state. Its purpose is to give Alabama's administrator of tomorrow a better understanding of state goverment today.

do you think were installed in Alabama in 1949?

The year 1949 was such a big year in the growth of telephone facilities and service, we thought you would like to know some of the facts and figures. Here's the story of the year in brief:

New Telephones

More than 81,600 new-telephones were installed in Alabama last year! That's a lot of telephones, requiring the addition of huge quantities of wire, cable, poles, central office equipment and new buildings or building additions.

Rural Telephones

Many construction crews were busy stringing lines in rural areas throughout the state last year. During the year more than 27,200 new rural telephones were installed.

Money Spent

This vast expansion and improvement of telephone service in Alabama in 1949 cost more than $12,340,000. This was over and above other millions of dollars paid out in Alabama for operating expenses.

New Buildings

A number of new buildings and building additions were completed in the state last year and work is under way on other new building projects for 1950.

People at Work

At the close of 1949 there were more than 5,100 people employed by Southern Bell in Alabama. Wages for these men and women amounted to millions of dollars—a substantial contribution to trade and prosperity throughout the state.

Alabama and the South are growing as never before and we are continuing our all-out effort to make telephone service constantly more valuable and available to more and more people.

Phillips Is Candidate | Funeral Services For State Senate

We have the official announcement of Mr. J. T. (Tom) Phillips, of Siluria, this week that he is a candidate for the Alabama State Senate in the Fifteenth District composed of Autauga, Chilton and Shelby Counties.

Mr. Phillips is one of Shelby County's leading business men, having been for many years the owner and operator of Buck Creek Cotton Mills and its various subsidiary industrial and commercial interests. He has altogether justifiable pride in the excellent community of Siluria, its splendid schools and churches, its smooth running and successful industrial plants, and the high type of people who occupy its nice homes and carry on the work. In truth it is "The town that Tom built", and he has a right to be proud of it.

For several years Mr. Phillips has been a member of the Shelby County Board of Education.

This is the time for Shelby County to furnish the candidates for State Senator. So far we are able to offer two of our top-notch citizens, John Foshee and Tom Phillips. We might have another one or two, we can't tell yet.

We defer further comment upon Mr. Elliott and submit instead his own very worthy, dignified and convincing statement covering his experiences, training and qualifications for the office of County Superintendent of Educa-

His Statement

I have made a decision to enter the race for the office of County Superintendent of Education. In making this decision, it has taken considerable time. Many will know that I was urged by friends twelve years ago to make the race; and again eight years ago, and then again in 1946. For many reasons I could not conscientiously make the decision at those times.

In making my decision to enter this race, I am deeply grateful to many friends who were so vitally concerned with my welfare and future plans, but I wish to state that I made my own decision.

My only platform will be to serve the people of my native County to the best of my ability. Most of you are familiar with my record, and if it merits your confidence, then I shall appreciate your support. The Superintendent is the policy-making excutive of the Board of Education, and all his policies and appointments are subject to the Board's approval. It shall be my purpose to formulate these plans and policies according to my training, and experience, and in line with the best educational practices found in other good school systems.

I am thirty-seven years old and have taught 18 years in this County as follows: One year in a one-teacher school; four years years in a seven-teacher school (Junior High); one year as Assistant to the Superintendent in charge of transportation and school attendance, and eight years as Principal of Shelby County High School. I have worked for the Board of Education continuously since I was fifteen years of age with the exception of one year while in college. I started as a bus driver at the age of fifteen.

As for my record of service in community and county affairs, I leave that for other people to tell if they wish.

I attended elementary school at Harpersville, was graduated from Vincent High School in 1931, received a normal diploma from Jacksonville Teachers College in 1935, an A.B. Degree from Howard College in 1938, and a Masters Degree in Administration and Supervision from the University of Alabama in 1946. I am a member of Phi Delta Kappa, Educational Fraternity, the Masonic Lodge and a member of the Baptist Church.

If you feel that I can render a service to the people with whom I have lived and worked all my life, I shall be grateful for your

Historic City Of Colonial U.S. Still Is Growing

WILLIAMSBURG, VA. - The Colonial capital of Virginia now 250 years old is not content with its wealth of history and tradition, nor is it prone to just settle down and dwell on its past.

The past means everything, of course, to Williamsburg, but the old town isn't letting the vision of the past obscure its vision of the future. Instead, the old town is still growing.

Naturally, its growth isn't quite like that of other communities, for Williamsburg is unique in all the world. It is the restoration of an entire town, just as it looked and, nessed the first great scenes leading to U.S. independence.

New-old Buildings

To mark its 250th anniversary, two new-old bulidings were dedicated; one an arsenal dating from 1716, the other a guardhouse first erected in 1755.

Two centuries ago, Williamsburg was the center of the political, social and commercial life of Virginia-the largest, wealthiest and most populous of England's American colonies.

Following the establishment of near-by Jamestown as the first permanent English settlement in America in 1607, the harassed settlers built a tall stake palisade across the entire Tidewater peninsula in an effort to curb the Indians and protect the settlements of the peninsula.

But the palisade did not guarantee peace for Jamestown. Finally after years of pestilence, massacres, fires and other privations, the general assembly passed an act in 1699 directing the building of a capitol and the city of Williams-

That same act gave explicit directions as to how the city was to be developed, one of the earliest examples of city planning in Amer-

Streets were carefully laid out with the pleasant addition of spacious public greens to set off the imposing public buildings. A certain uniformity of building was required and the foresight of those early day planners two and a half centuries ago is evident today in the dignity of the restored city.

Two-sided Nature As capital of the colony, Williamsburg had a two-sided nature. During normal seasons it was a quiet college town, county seat and govermental center, but during the "publick times" when the house of burgesses was in session and the courts convened it became a teeming metropolis notable for "the prodigious number of coaches that crowded the deep and sandy streets." Plays, balls, entertain-the colony was transacted. Eighty years during that period saw the spark of liberty smolder and finally burst into flame as members of the house of burgesses, America's first legislative assembly, stoutly maintained the colo-ments, fairs and horse races were held and the money business of nists' rights. Such patriots and great Virginians as George Washington, Patrick Henry, Edward Pendleton and Thomas Jefferson were familiar figures along the streets. It was in the capitol building in Willamsburg that Patrick Henry made his famous "Caesar-Brutus" speech, shouting, according to tradition, "If this be treason, make the most of it," in protest to the stamp act.

The earliest navigation of Alabama's rivers was carried on in Indian canoes. When heavy cargoes had to be transported, keelboats were used.

A new men's bowling league got under way Tuesday February . The league is now composed of five teams which we think are evenly divided in strength.

The Plaza Grill did not seem as they had lost any of their strength as they took a 4 to victory from Calera. Led by J. Ward, J. Rochester, and Cunningham they won going away as Franklin, L. Comer, and Thrasher did not bowl up to expectations. Ward was high in this match with 198 and a series of 534.

Montevallo Lumber Company led by Frost, Scott, and Stephens won a hard decision over Siluria by a 3 to 1 margin. Blewster, Braswell, and L. Wilson did well for Siluria but didn't get enough help from their two enexperienced mates. Frost was high in this match with a 160 and three game total of 464.

Coca-Cola was idle this week but will make it up by bowling next Monday and Tuesday nights.

Mrs. Durden stated that some of her grammar school girls began by learning to pedal the machine Others began by learning to stitch straight lines on paper with the machine unthreaded.

The girls in the Camp Branch 4-H club have used the machine at school to make potholders, hem dish towels, and make aprons. Several of the older girls have made shoe bags, laundry bags, and other items required in their clothing projects.

Telephone Growth At High Pace

For the fourth consecutive postwar year, telephone growth and demand in Alabama during 1949 continued at an amazing pace which spotlighted the state's part in the rapidly developing new South—and the telephone's contribution to that progress.

In the homes and business offices of Alabama, the Southern Bell Telephone Company added 36,000 telephones during the year bringing to over 355,000 the total in service at the year-end. The company in four years since January 1, 1946, has added 166,000 telephones in Alabama, or a gain of 86%.

That's over four times the gain in the four prewar years 1936-1939. Likewise, the company expenditures for construction of new facilities in Alabama have been several times the 1936-1939 prewar period.

Amazing as is this record of performance, the scope of demands for new service which Alabama has made on Southern Bell are even more striking. Approximately 340,000 people have applied for telephone service in Alabama since the war, it was disclosed. "At the end of 1949, only 36,000 of the 340,000 were still waiting for service," State Manager S. H. Youngblood revealed.

Applications continue heavy
Applicants continued heavy
Mr. Youngblood disclosed—in fact, in 1949 were slightly below 1948, which was the all time high.

"Our experience is striking evidence of the economic, agricultural and industrial growth that has taken place and is still taking place throughout Alabama. These facts prove that the needs and the requests for telephone service that have been expressed to us go much deeper than the 'backlog of war'. If the telephone demand that we have experienced during these four years had been nothing more than backed-up applications from the war, we would have caught up with all service orders two or three years ago."

Goose Skins With Down On Available Soon

ST. LOUIS, MO.—Geose skins, never an important commercial item in the past, may soon prove to be of great value to the poultry farmers of the nation.

Goose skin production has been hampered by two things: Not enough geese and lack of a practical way to tan or preserve the delicate skin. Exhibitors at the international baby chick association convention showed how these two obstacles now may be overcome.

First an incubator company of Gettysburg, Ohio, displayed an incubator to hatch geese eggs. Ray Petersime, vice-president of the company, explained that before this the hatching has been up to the parent geese. Regular incubators didn't work with geese eggs, he said.

Tanning Technique

Then a goose farm of Zarephath, N.J., demonstrated a tanning process for the goose skin. To skin a goose, you first pull the feathers off carefully, leaving the thick fuzzy down in place. Next you separate the skin, with down attached, from the body of the goose. Then you tan it by the patented process.

Tanned and with the down still attached, goose skins can be used for powder puffs, baby booties, trim on women's hats and negligees, baby caps and the like. Poultrymen at the convention said there was a big future for goose skins. They said the down holds onto powder, for example, just the way it should to make an ideal puff.

The Petersime incubator has a device which turns the geese eggs. The temperature and humidity are controlled to make things ideal for the unhatched geese. And, Petersime said, the incubator has "a mild breathing air movement."

Future Bright

Other poultrymen at the convention said the future is bright in the goose business. Cotton farmers are discovering, for example, that geese will eat the grass and weeds in their fields but not the cotton.

The down on their skins, they said, can be colored pink, blue or whatever the buyer wants. A goose skin is about the size of an open telephone book and, once tanned, is fairly durable.

George Scheuffle, proprietor of the goose farm, also exhibited a method of canning goose meat. Other goose experts among the 3,200 poultrymen here for the convention said that incubator hatched, mass produced geese can be kept until they are too old to lay eggs in quantity. Then they can be killed, they said, and every part can be used. The feathers can stuff pillows, the skins can be tanned and the meat can be cooked or canned.

Shelby County Widow Came Near Losing $850 In Social Security Benefits

Are you paying the premium ber and cannot be identified by the for another person's insurance? That sounds like a silly question, doesn't it? According to M. C. Folmar, Manager of the Birmingham Social Security office, some persons are paying premiums on Old-Age and Survivors Insurance for the other fellow.

Mr. Folmar said that a mix-up in social security numbers may result in crediting wages to the wrong person under social security. There are so many persons with the same name that the Goverment felt it was necessary to assign a number to identify each person under social security.

A recent case in Shelby County was almost tragic before the truth was known. The widow and minor child of a worker applied for benefits as a result of the worker's death. The social security records showed that the deceased worker had not been employed long enough under social security for the widow and child to be entitled to benefits. Three months later the widow called on the Social Secutity representative and said that some mistake must have been made because she knw her husband had worked under social security for a long time. As a result of the widow's call, contact was made with the employer of the deceased worker. Investigation by the Social Security representative with the help of the employer brought out that the worker had been using his son's social security number. The initials of the son were the same as those of the father so that neither the father nor the employer realized the mistake. The Social Security Administration was able to correct records so that monthly payments are now being made to the widow and the minor child. The total payments will exceed $850.00.

Not every case is as fortunate. For example, some earnings are reported without the worker's number or with an incorrect num-

JIMMY McDOW

Jimmy McDow and Larry Hamilton Will Direct Shelby County Red Cross Drive

Mr. Roy Downs, president of the Shelby County Red Cross Chapter, announces that the Red Cross membership roll call in Shelby County this year will be under direction of Jimmy McDow, chairman, and Larry Hamilton, cochairman. In his selection of these two capable and energetic leaders, Mr. Downs gives us assurance that Shelby County's Red Cross fund raising campaign will have the vim, vigor and vitality necessary to put it over the top in grand style.

We give our readers a short personal sketch about these two biana from Clanton early in 1949. He is a Chevrolet automobile dealer at our county capital.

During the war he served four years in the Navy.

Last year Mr. McDow served as Red Cross fund chairman in Chilton County. Therefore, he is experienced in the job at hand and we may be sure he knows already how to go about leading the people of Shelby County in the plan and purpose to raise the quota of $2,000 which we are expected to provide.

Lowell S. Hamilton (Larry), is Director of Public Relations at Alabama College at Montevallo. He has held this important position for more than a year.

Prior to coming here Mr. Hamilton held positions with the U.S. Department of Agriculture. During the war he was in the office of Defense Transportation at Philadelphia, and also served as budget analyst for the ODT in Washington, D. C.

Mr. Hamilton is trained in the art of organizing forces to get things done.

Parenthetically we would say that not by any means the least of the worthwhile personal accomplishments of Larry Hamilton is the fact that somewhere in the process of his "coming up" he induced the lovely and accomplished journalist, Virginia Van Derveer, to become his wife. They now live in Montevallo and work together at Alabama College.

We feel assured that under the leadership of McDow and Hamilton the people of Shelby County can not escape the consciousness of our great duty and obligation to support the American Red Cross, certainly to the full extent of our quota.

Debate Team Here February 17

The Wheaton College varsity debate team is scheduled to debate the Alabama College team at Alabama College, February 17, at 3:30 p.m., according to Miss Joan Meifeld, Alabama College coach.

The Alabama College team consists of Betty Jenkins, June Hancock, Dorothy Davis and Julia Studebaker.

The Illinois team, trained by Dr. Clarence L. Nystrom of Wheaton, is composed of William Thompson, from Glen Ellyn, Illinois; George W. Johnson, whose home is in Cambridge Minnesota; Authur W. Klem, a native of Queen's Village, New York; and Donald H. Searer, who hails from Three Rivers, Michigan. All are seniors.

Located in Wheaton, Illinois, Wheaton college is the second largest liberal arts college in the state, and perhaps the most cosmopolitan. Its 1500 students this year come from 45 states and 21 foreign countries. Denominationally unrelated, the college maintains the same evengelical Christain viewpoint in education with which it was founded ninety years

Teddy Z Is Student At Duke University

Durham, N. C .- Theodore J. Ziolkowski, of Montevallo, is one of almost 100 new students to be enrolled at Dufe University in February.

Students at Duke hail from all of the 48 states and from 40 foreign countries.

The enrollment has, as in previous years, been limited to about 5000 in order to keep the classes small and maintain the ratio of approximately one faculty member to every seven students.

Additions are continually being made on the two campuses. A million dollar physics building was recently completed as well as additions to both the medical research building and the main library. The Duke library, with almost 1,000,000 volumes is the largest in the entire South.

Ziolkowski, a German major, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Ziolkowski, of Montevallo.

Former State Senator Karl C. Harrison Is Candidate For County Representative

Tom, Fore, of Helena Candidate for Sheriff

Tom Fore, of Helena, is a candidate for the office of sheriff of Shelby County.

Mr. Fore has been in the public eye to a considerable extent for some years past, and, according to those who have had a chance to observe, he has made a good record. He has been Town Marshal of Helena and also has served as a member of the Board of Trustees of the Helena School, He is a member of the American Legion, a Mason, Oddfellow, and Ingram last week the Shelby Baptist. He has served two years as Scout Master of his local Boy Scouts. In the recent war he was with the Ninth Air Force in North Africa.

ing his duties as he sees them, Mr. Fore Says: "If elected and that his record is one in Sheriff, I promise an honest, conwhich he may take pride in prescientious administration of the senting to the people of Shelby duties and obligations of this important post of public service. I will be Sheriff not only in name and state. Mrs. R. H. Mrs. Doyle have moved to Collins- I will appreciate the sincere conville where they are operating a sideration and support of the voters and citizens of our County."

Karl C. Harrison, Columbiana attorney, and former State Senator, has made his official announcement and qualification as candidate for Representative of Shelby County in the next Legislature of Alabama.

Karl Harrison is so well known in Shelby County (and in fact, over the state) that we feel it rather unnecessary in a way for us to try to give him the usual "send-off" or "knocking-down" to the voters. But we are going to do it anyhow because anybody enjoys reading about a prominent person who is well known and personally popular. To say that Karl Harrison is well known and personally popular in Shelby County is about as informative as to say that water runs down hill.

Karl was born and reared in Shelby County, If there is one among us who has not met him and enjoyed his dynamic and affable personality, it is certainly someone who has not been here very long. Moreover, all such are distined to know him right soon. When Karl runs for office he runs. He doesn't miss anybody.

Mr. Harrison was elected State Senator in this district in 1939. He worked hard in the Senate and made a good record. The know-how and experience he acquired as our Senator makes him able to step back into the legislature as one with the preliminaries already out of, his, way and thoroughly equipped and ready to get down to business.

Since he was in the Senate, Karl has served three years as a Lieutenant in the Navey. He resumed the practice of law when discharged from active service in the Navy. Along with that he has found time to devote to many worthwhile civic duties and opportunities. His public spirit has made him the natural exponent of a great many things for the betterment of his community, our county

He says if his people send him back to Montgomery he will, to the best of his ability, serve the interests of our county and state. We believe he will do that, and we add as our own opinion that his zeal for service, his experience and ability will mark him as one of the outstanding statesmen in our next law-making body.

Karl is the kind of legislator who is wise enough and able enough and brave enough to save us from total destruction by a reckless Governor if (God forbid!) we should be so unfortunate as to have another one. And if you want to know what we think, we will tell you that we are shaken by the mortal fear that we must hope and pray for a legislature that will be able to stand for another four years and defy the threats of a chief executive with the Folsom stamp upon him.

James W. Street Likes Farm Work

says: "Farming is a business that will keep a person busy, but I like it." James is a former employee of T. C. I. Company in Birmingham. He resigned in 1948 to develop his 60 acre farm near Montevallo. He says he was making good money on his former job but wasn't very happy in his work.

On his 60 acre farm, James is doing what may be called "general livestock farming". He has 190 White Leghorn pulletts in 70% production, 60 New Hampshire pullets in 65% production, 1 regis-

"Squatty" Martin Is Candidate For County Treasurer

Mr. W. W. Martin, of Columbiana, popular and well known among his many friends as "Squatty", has again thrown his hat into the ring as a candidate for the office of Treasurer of Shelby County.

Mr. Martin ran for this office four years ago and was defeated by his opponent, Frank Lyon, by the narrow margin of 72 votes.

Bronze Memorial For Mrs. Bohn

The David Lindsay Chapter, D. A. R., has purchased a bronze memorial marker for Mrs. Bohn, which is being placed at her grave in Dubuque, Iowa. The D.A.R. Chapter in that city is to hold an appropriate ceremony for the placing of this marker. Mrs. Bohn who was for many years a member of the Dubuque Chapter, and after moving to Montevallo to live with her niece, Dr. Leah Dennis, she became a member of the David Lindsay Chapter here. Her membership in the National organization was longer than that of any member in the Alabama organization at the time of her death, and until her recent illness she had taken a keen interest in D. A. R.

Ed Garrett, Deputy Is Candidate For High Sheriff

Mr. W. E. (Ed) Garrett, of Columbiana, has announced his candidacy for the office of Sheriff of Shelby County.

For the past nine years Mr. Garrett has served as a law enforcement officer, seven years of which has been chief deputy sheriff of Shelby County. He is a member of the Baptist Church and is widely known throughout the county among the people he has served for the past seven years.

Mr. Garrett asks his fellow-citizens of the county to consider his past record of public service as a law enforcement officer and as a citizen, and if you think he merits the promotion he now seeks, he will appreciate your support in his ambition to become Sheriff of Shelby County.

The first international centennial in which Alabama took part was the Universal Exibition at Vienna, Austria, in 1873. By means of a legislative appropriation of $2,000, the state was able to set up a display of cotton, minerals, marble lithographic stones, bamboo canes, yellow-ochre earth, oil coal, and certain vegetables. In addition, a quanity of printed matter was distributed among the visitors at the exposition.

D.A.R. Holds February Meeting At Napier Home

The February meeting of the David Lindsay Chapter was held e nome of Mrs. T. H. Napie this past Monday evening. Mrs. Cooper was co-hostess with Mrs. Napier. Mrs. Pittman came over from Birmingham to attend. She has never given up her membership in the local chapter and is always a welcome visitor. The program was a review by Dr. Anne Eastman of Douglas Southall Freeman's biography of George Washington. This book describes the usually neglected years of his boyhood and young manhood. Refreshments were attractively arranged to suggest Washington's birthday, and were as delicious as they were attractive.

Mr. R. Frank Lyon, of Columbiana, is a candidate for another term in the office of Treasurer of Shelby County. Mr. Lyon has held this office for some years pastwe don't recall now whether it is four or eight.

At any rate, we conclude he has made a good record. his opinion is based upon the universal truth of human reaction, to-wit: When a man does good you do not hear much about him; when he does bad, everybody seems ready to talk about him. In other words "the evil that men do lives after them; the good is oft interred with their bones."

The many friends of Mrs. Rose Klotzman are glad to see her in circulation again. About a month ago while on a visit to Montgomery she fell upon the floor while in a store and hurt herself. She was in a hospital for several days, following which she was confined to her home here for a time.

In 1820, Governor Thomas Bibb submitted a census of Alabama's 24 counties to the legislature. At that time, the state had a population of 129,227 citizens.

FFA Week Is February 18-26

National FFA Week, February 18 through 26, is being observed throughout the nation saluting the 250,000 Future Farmers representing every state in the nation. Alabama has over 11,000 members and the Montevallo Chapter has 84 members.

The FFA (Future Farmers of America) is the active organization of farm boys sponsored through the vocational agriculture department. It offers a chance for farm boys to have an outlet for their special abilities and also promotes leadership activities and training.

The program is financed jointly by the State and Federal governments and the funds for vocational personnel in our county does not affect other teachers' salaries as it is checked to the county to be handled by he county board of education. Shelby County has three vocational agriculture de partments, the first one being established at Columbiana. The departments are in the high schools located at Vincent, Columbiana and Montevallo.

The Montevallo F. F. A. boys are looking forward to the new building and facilities which are soon to be available.

To date 46 pigs have been farrowed to the first five gilts in the FFA pig chain. Gilts from these litters will be given to other FFA boys and each boy in turn will give a gilt from the first litter produced in his program. Boys owning gilts and the farrowing record: Buddy Galloway, 11; Jerry Moody, 10; Edward Holcomb, 11; Rueben Swinford, 6; and Dudley Pendleton, 8.

Applications for employment as enumerators for the 17th Decennial Census of the United States are now being accepted, according to L. C. Warr, District Supervisor, Clanton. Application forms may be obtained by writing the Census Office located at Clanton, Alaba-

Approximately 28 enumerators will be employed to take the 1950 Census in Shelby County. Other counties included in Mr. Warr's district are Tuscaloosa, Bibb, Perry, Greene, Hale, Sumpter and Applicants for enumerator jobs must be citizens of the United States, have a high school education or furnish evidence of comparable experience, be in good physical health and of excellent character, and be between the ages of 25 to 65, although preference will be given to those between 25 to 45 years. They must have sufficient financial resources to sustain themselves for approximately four weeks from the date of appointment untill their first salary check. Applicants with veteran preference who meet those requirements will be given priority over non-veteran applicants.

Applicants for enumerator jobs in rural areas must have an automobile available in good operating condition and be a licensed driver. The method of payment will provide for the cost of operating cars on official Census business.

Where Our Money Goes While the lion's snare of the 143 pillion dollars spent by Americans last year went for food, shelter and clothing, some of the incidentals bulked pretty large. We spent 2.25 billions for personal care (hair cuts, permanent waves, etc.), just slightly less than our total expenditure on medical and dental care. spent 1.8 billions on houshold help; approximately 300 million more than we spent for books and magazines. We spent 400 million for stationery and writing supplies and the same amount to ride in taxicabs.

Do You Want To Cut Your Federal Taxes?

Your Wasted Taxes

No reasonable man questions the need for taxes to pay the cost of governmental services. Everyone should be willing to pay a fair share of his income for that purpose. But nobody wants to underwrite extravagance—in the home, in business or in government.

The bi-partisan Commission on Organization of the Executive Branch of the Government, created by Congress with the approval of President Truman and headed by former President Hoover, has provided a chart for the elimination of governmental extravagance and

This past year, because of duplication and overlapping in the Armed Services we wasted about one billion dollars out of the fifteen billion spent for National Security.

In 1948 two agencies planned to build the same dam in nearly the same place at kill's Canyon, Idaho. Each set of plans cost about $250,-000. The plans differed by approximately 75 million dollars in estimated cost of erection.

It now costs the Post Office Department two and a half cents to print and deliver a penny post card.

The Veterans Administration, at the time of the Commission's survey, had 6,500 empty beds in its hospitals, yet VA and other government agencies have planned or are building additional hospitals at a cost of over a billion dollars, when 54% of the available beds are not now occupied. This is Alice in Wonderland.

It takes more than $10 worth of paper work to complete a governmental purchase order. For example, by the time the necessary paper work is completed, a 50¢ typewriter ribbon costs the taxpayer about $10.

Turnover of labor is recognized by all industry as expensive. Yet in the Federal Government labor turnover runs about 25 per cent, a rate much higher than any private business could stand. This means that every year approximately 500,000 either leave or enter a government job. The personnel system is clogged with red tape. The best men leave because of the low pay scale, and the inefficient cannot easily be discharged.

If enacted into law, the Commission recommendation to remedy these and other defects in conducting our Federal business would save the taxpayer three to four billion dollars a year.

To play your part in putting a stop to this wasteful extravagance, join the non-partisan Citizens Committee, which is working for the enactment of the Commission's suggestions. Write to the Citizens Committee for Reorganization of the Executive Branch of the Government, 1421 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia 2, Pennsylvania. Write your Congressman. Inform yourself about the Commission Report. Tell your neighbors!

First College Night Performance of 1950 Starts Tonight

Alabama College is preparing its annual show of talent for the 31st College Night, February 23-

College Night is the culmination of four weeks' creative activity by the Purples and the Golds, the two sides into which the student body is divided. Each side chooses student leaders who, in turn, select writers, costumers, staging crews, composers, and employ all the talents of their particular group.

With their $150 allotment, the Purples and the Golds each present two original skits, one a drama, the other a comical stunt. In between these presentations, they sing two original songs, a slow song and a pep song. Periodically, each team's cheerleaders leap to the stage and lead their sides into loud yells and cheers which can be heard on all four corners of the campus.

Plays are based on research provided by history majors and are written by girls in the English department. Songs are composed by music students. Impersonations are directed by speech students. Costumes are designed by girls in the home economics department. Original dances are directed by physical education majors.

During the four weeks leading to College Night, only write and produce their skits and songs, make elaborate settings and costumes, but also make professional looking manuscrips and complete records of their work for college archives.

Since it's supposed to be secret what each side is doing, a hushhush prevails on the campus the first three weeks but towards the fourth week, everybody has an inkling of what the other team is doing.

College Night activities are heightened by the homecoming celebration featuring the alumnae luncheon honoring an alumna of the year.

Dormitories are littered with gold and purple decorations, and lighted purple cows and gold mascots adorn doors and windows... Clothes are dyed purple and gold. Pep rallies are held morning, noon and night.

A dance, formally called the tea dance, is given the Saturday preceding College Night. It is always held in Bibb Graves Hall and there the leaders, cheerleaders and committees are presented in the leadtumes and scenery for both stage and screen will be presented as the Alabama College.

College Night which began with a modest observance of Washington's birthday in the college dining hall in 1919, has grown so that three nights are required to hold the event. College Night falls on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday nights nearest Washington's birthday.

She is Mary Gloster Bird, a former Dadeville, resident. Her theatrical connections have taken her to Detroit; Tampa, Florida; Cleveland, Ohio; Hollywood; and now Allegheny College at Meadville, Pennsylvania.

Alabama College faculty and Montevallo residents will remember her as Mary Graham Gloster, Class of '30, honor student and intense worker. She will receive formal award as Alumnae-of-the Year in Palmer Auditorium Friday (or Saturday) night. Saturday is Homecoming and the final presentation of College Night.

In the midst of her other activities, Mrs. Bird has found time to raise three children, to assist in club and Junior League work. She is the widow of Derry Gates Bird, American flyer who was shot down over the North Sea in 1943.

Mrs. Bird began her coorful career in Nashville, Tennessee with the Summer Theatre there. In the same theatre group where Dinah Shore got her start, the Birds did stage and costume designing.

Later they moved to Detroit where Mrs. Bird was manager of the Old Barn Theatre.

Following this, she designed th and James Kirkwood's "Chloe" interest of his candidacy.

erinarian, has been elected president of the Tennessee veterinarians association. Dr. Hayes is remembered in Shelby County as Hayes, of Calera. He is a gradin Columbiana.

"March is the traditional month set aside by Red Cross chapters throughout the country to present to the public the needs of the organization for the coming year and solicit financial support." J. T. McDow, Fund Chairman states. "The Shelby County Chapter, joining with the more than 3,500 chapters in this country, will offer everyone in Shelby County an opportunity to contribute to the Red Cross and to become a member of the organization."

Mr. McDow added that maintaining high quality service in the community by the Red Cross is dependent upon full public support in meeting the Shelby County quota, which is based on minimum needs of Red Cross services.

"Since the Red Cross is, an organization of all people everywhere, we are sure that the citizens of our own communities will meet their responsibilities by providing means for carrying out our services."

Basic services expected to require the major expenditures for next year are disaster relief, services to members of the armed forces and to veterans through the Home Service department in the chapter, and the National Blood Program. Other chapter services maintained include health, education, and safety programs.

"Disaster relief, a charter obligation of the Red Cross, continues to be one of the major items in the Red Cross budget," Mr. Mc-Dow said. During the past fiscal year, the Red Cross helped 228,500 persons in 330 disaster operations in this country, and spent a total of $6,574,741.45 for assistance to victims of disasters.

"Red Cross services to the military and to veterans continue to increase," Mr. McDow stated. "During the past year, more than 2,000 Red Cross field workers sered Army, Navy, Air Forces and Marine Corps at 1,300 military installations and 123 military hospitals in this country and overseas.

"These Red Cross workers handled 775,152 cases concerning servicemen, setting a new peacetime record. Back home in the chapters, Home Service workers handled 793,600 cases of servicemen and their dependents. Financial assistance, guidance and consultation, verifying emergency reports, and handling emergency communications, information regarding government benefits and assistance in applying for them, supplementary recreation are some of the services given to the man in uniform or members of his family."

The Red Cross is proud to stand on its past record and ask the support of the general public for continuing its many essential programs in the future.

DR. ORR IS CANDIDATE

It has been reported in the Montgomery Advertiser that Dr. M. L. Orr, Sr., has qualified with the Secretary of State as a candidate for member of the State Democratic Executive Committee in the Sixth District.

The entry of Dr. Orr gives to Shelby County a local interest in a three-pronged political objective that is fraught with intensity all over Alabama.

Paris I visous All-out effort is to be put forth to determine if the Democratic party in the state is Dixiecrat or Trumancrat, period.

Under the boiling and turbulent surface of the Dixiecrat-Trumancrat squabble there is a less perceptible but definitely purposeful and subtle current of political effort to draw the Alabama Democratic party organization into the position that is described as staying in the National Democratic party of Truman and therein defeat his civil rights program within the family circle, so to and Early IC world Every candidate for State Party Committeeman and every candidate for Governor is bound to be identified with one or the other ing farming and FFA program for lated this year. These clinics will of these political efforts. It por- the past year. tends a none too delectable political stew.

To those who yearn for the return of sane and peaceful human relations in the world our Alabama political situation is as devoid of hopeful assurance as, for instance, the coal mining muddle, our National economic riddle, or our international relationships puzzle.

The question which the people of Alabama are to decide about our politics seem about as perplexing and somewhat analagous to the problem which faced a certain judge of a court one time, to-wit:

"To whom does the warm spot in the bed belong on a cold night -the wife who first climbed between the icy sheets, or the husband who comes home later and demands the coveted place as lord of the household?"

Maybe, however, we may hope that after all is said and done, "the smoke will go up the chimney just the same".

ABSENTEE VOTING

We are reminded that over 1,200 absentee ballots were cast in the primary election in Shelby County four years ago.

Because of a new law enacted by the present legislature we may expect that the number of absentee ballots in this years primary may be only a small fraction of 1,200.

Under the present law a voter, in order to vote an absentee ballot, must appear in person before the Register in Chancery (Mrs. Pauline Bird), the required number of days before the primary and make out his ballot according to provisions of the law.

Boozer's "Capitol Caravan"

Elbert Boozer, Anniston candidate for governor, will conduct his campaign from a huge trailer built as an exact replica of the state capitol in Montgomery including the dome. The trailer is 32 feet long, eight feet wide without steps, 12 feet and six inches high to the eaves, and 20 feet high, including the dome. The massive dome is operated by a pneumatic elevator so that it can be raised and lowered to permit passage under power lines and bridges and complying with the state law.

John W. Hartley Is FFA of the Year

John W. Hartley of the Sidney Lanier FFA Chapter, Montgomery, has been named Alabama's "Future Farmer of The Year." From the 12,000 active members in the state, he has been pointed out as having the most outstand-

John has, through five years of hard work and good management, built his farming program up to an asset value of $141,640.66 of which he owes only $20,900.00. His investments have been primarily in land, farm equipment, and livestock. His farm is located at Matthews, Alabama, 20 miles southeast of Montgomery and his latest purchase of 55 acres of land is now producing some of Alabama's best alfalfa.

Girl Scout Council To Have Visitor

The Montevallo Girl Scout Council is bringing to Montevallo on March 1st, Mrs. J. T. Mittman from Laurel, Mississippi. While in Montevallo she will meet with council members, troop leaders, scout troups, parents and others interested in scouting. She will give training in the various activities of girl scouting.

WAFFLE SUPPER

Start making your plans right now for the annual Girl Scout Pan Cake and Waffle Supper. This supper will be held early in March, the date to be announced next

The new method is going to considerably cramp the style of some politicians who have for a long time, had a lot of fun manipulating the many tricks that were possible under cover of the old absentee voting law.

However, we think the new plan will result in majority control of elections by the voters of a county, rather than minority control by a few crooked and mercenary political manipulators.

The only better thing the legislature could have done is complete abolishment of absentee voting.

W. W. Kent Named Rabies Inspector

Warren Wright Kent, Veterinary student at Auburn, will return to Shelby County this summer to take charge of the rabies program. Mr Kent, son of Mr. R. W. Kent, of Siluria, was appointed Rabies Inspector at the last meeting of the County Board of Health Censors and was approved by the State Health Department, and the State Veterinanian, as was announced by Dr. E. F. Slone, county Health Officer. He will work in conjunction with the County Health Office at Columbiana.

Mr. Kent, has expressed his desire to have the full cooperation of every dog owner in Shelby County. He plans to hold a thorough round of clinics near each and every home, so that each dog owner will have very little trouble having his dog inocube held in communities and along rural mail routes which will be announced later.

Mr. Kent will begin his program the 1st of June so that he can hold a thorough inoculation program before the September 1st deadline, as set by Alabama State Law. After September 1st, the Rabies Inspector will make a county wide, house to house, check. Dog owners who have not had their dogs vaccinated by September 1 will be penalized by having to pay late inoculation fee.

Dr. Slone, county Health Officer, says, treacherous, deadly rabies can hit any community at any time. All warm blooded animals can have and transmit rabies, but it is more commonly transmitted by stray dogs. A stray dog, rabid or not, is a menace to your community, therefore, the Rabies Inspector states that during his round of clinics he will provide means to pick up these unwanted or stray dogs and find homes for them or humanely destroy them.

Easter and Hilaria

Hilaria, the festival of the Roman people celebrated March 25, indicated the rebirth of nature after the long winter. Some believe the Christian celebration of Easter has some connection with Hilaria.

1949 Was Best Year For Liberty National

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of Liberty National Life Insurance Company held on Tuesday, February 21, President Frank P. Samford reported that 1949 was one of the outstanding years of accomplishment in the history of the company. He reported that life insurance in force increased during 1949 by the sum of $52,694,444, making total insurance in force of $557,282,368. He also reported that during 1949 total resources increased by a larger amount than ever before in the history of the company-nearly $11,000,000—and that the total resources of the company are now more than $74,000,000, making it one of the larger companies domiciled in the southeastern area. Mr. Samford called his stockholders' attention to the fact that the company owns and entirely occupies its ten-story home office building and that plans are being made to add a five-story annex to take care of its expanding business; that as of the end of the year, the company had 1,431 employees in its field and home office operation and was operating in eight

Mr. Samford called attention to the fact that the service being rendered by the company could be visualized if the fact that death claims are paid at the rate of one during each twelve minutes of the working day was considered. He credited the remarkable growth to the efficiency and loyalty of the company's employees and to the high esteem in which the company is held throughout its territory as the result of the faithful and conscientious manner in which the policyholders have been served and this good will.

Chauncey Sparks Starts Campaign

CHAUNCEY SPARKS

Birmingham-Chauncey Sparks, former governor of Alabama, now seeking reelection, has launched a campaign that will take him into every corner of the state.

Feeling fit and ready for the coming weeks of intensive campaigning, the former governor, who held the post of chief state excutive from 1942 to 1946, is now visiting in various counties.

He expects to speak and visit in every one of Alabama's 67 counties during the coming weeks.

Sparks has established state headquarters at the Greystone Hotel in Montgomery and at the Moulton Hotel in Birmingham. County and district offices are being opened at various cities over the state.

Sparks was one of the first candidates for governor to qualify with the secretary of state and mised that every effort would with Gessner T. McCorvey, chairbe made to continue to warrant man of the State Democratic Executive Committee.

Statement from Karl Harrison Candidate for Representative

TO THE PEOPLE OF SHELBY COUNTY:

A number of people have asked me how I stand on the local bill setting up a new system for our Board of Revenue, which was passed at a recent session of the Legislature. In order that the people may know my position regarding this bill I am writing this letter to you. I am in favor of the people of the county voting on whether or not they wish this local law repealed, and if elected, I will carry out the wishes of the people.

My position on local laws is not new. I took the same position with reference to local laws when I was your senator twelve years ago. At that time when a group of citizens in Chilton County requested that certain local laws be passed, I advised them to submit the matter to a vote of the people and I would be guided by their vote. The people of Chilton County voted to pass the proposed laws, and I passed them. This same situation arose in Autauga County, when a group of people desired the passage of a local law, and I took the same position that it should be submitted to the people to vote upon, and I would be governed by the voters wishes. This group of citizens did not agree to submit the matter to the people, so I did not pass the law.

Within a short time I will make a more detailed statement relative to my platform, and regarding matters of interest to the people of our

AGAIN! ANOTHER AMAZING RECORD OF ACHIEVEMENT!

Financial Statement As of December 31, 1949

The year 1949 was another year of outstanding accomplishment for Liberty National Lue insurof outstanding accomplishment for Liberty National Lite Insurance Company with new high records being established. The growth of the company, as measured by the increase of its resources, was again spectacular. Resources increased during 1949 by a larger amount than ever before in the history of the company—nearly ELEVEN MILLION DOLLARS—and now stand at a record figure of more than SEVENTY-FOUR MILLION DOLLARS. Impressive proof of the outstanding service being rendered the insuring public by Liberty National Life Insurance Company in its operating territory is demonstrated by the more than TWO MILLION, TWO HUNDRED AND SEVENTY-FIVE THOUSAND individual policy contracts outstanding and by the fact that a death claim is being paid each twelve minutes of the work day. Such a record of service is evidence of the high esteem in which the company is held. Every effort will be made to continue to warrant this goodwill.

The Beecher Finleys are giving their house a "Spring Face Lifting".

They have enlarged the back porch and screened it. Large creosoted wood blocks were used for under pinning it. The porch will be used as a work and living area.

The Finleys have also painted the inside of their house. They used the following colors: one bedroom is yellow, one is dusty rose, and the other is a soft green. The living and dining rooms are in turquoise. The kitchen and bathroom are in ivory and blue.

Mrs. Finley has completed curtains of unbleached domestic for one bedroom.

Mrs. R. E. Bowdon, Jr., Community Activities Chairman, announced a Community Recreation Program to be worked out with P. T. A. meetings. The meetings will be held at night. The Home Demonstration Club will assume responsibility for the Recreational Program. The 4-H girls will assist with games for boys and girls and will take care of young children.

The next meeting will be Thursday, March 2.

Mrs. R. E. Bowdon, Jr., has completed a slip cover for a bedroom chair. She used a green floral chintz to harmonize with the color scheme.

Carolyn Johnson 4-H Club Girl

Carolyn Johnson, a member of the Calera Junior 4-H club, is doing an excellent job with her club project. She chose yards as a project because she enjoys working

With the help of her mother, Carolyn has moved hedge and other shrubbery from the side yard. She put out ten rose bushes and plans to plant other flowers in this space. Carolyn has also set thrift and verbena around the edge of the yard. She plans to put out more shrubbery and plant more flowers.

This is Carolyn's fourth year in 4-H club work. Sewing was her project the first and second years she was a member of the 4-H club. She made potholders, hemmed dish towels, and entered the skirt revue. She also made aprons, a laundry bag, and a pair of pajamas. Last year her project was her bedroom. She painted it and made scarfs.

Carolyn is 13 years old and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Johnson. She is active in school and community activities. Her mother is a member of the West Calera Home Demonstration Club.

noil Hospital Bed Need

Authorities agree that at least 45 general hospital beds per 1,000 population are required to meet the health needs of the country. There were only 3.5 beds per 1,000 civilian population in the United States in 1943, and not many more today. These beds tend to be concentrated in areas which have wealth and large population.

LEGAL NOTICE

A Resolution Declaring The Need For A Housing Authority to Function in the Town of Montevallo, Alabama.

Be it resolved by the Town Council of the Town Of Montevallo, Alabama: That a petition having been filed with the Town Clerk of said Town by fifty-two (52) residents thereof, and an area within 10 miles from the territoral boundaries thereof, setting forth that there is a need for a Housing Authority to function therein, and a public hearing having been held, upon due notice given by said Town Clerk, all pursuant to the "Housing Authorities Law" of the State of Alabama, as amended, the Town Council of said Town finds, determines and declares, that:

- 1. Insanitary and unsafe inhabited dwelling accomodations exist in the Town of Montevallo, Alabama; and
- 2. There is a lack of safe and sanitary dwelling accomodations in the Town of Montevallo, Alahama; and
- 3. There is a need for a Housing Authority to function in the Town of Montevallo, Alabama; and
- 4. A petition setting forth the need for a Housing Authority to function in the Town of Montevallo, Alabama, has not been denied by the Town Council thereof within three months of the date of the filing of the aforsaid petition; and
- 5. The Mayor of the Town of Montevallo, Alabama, be promptly notified of the adoption of this resolution; and
- 6. The Mayor be and he hereby is directed to file in the office of the Town Clerk of the Town of Montevallo, Alabama, the necessary certificate evidencing the appointment of the Commissioners and designation of the first Chairman of the Housing Authority, pursuant to Section 1297 (9) of the "Housing Authorities Law" of the State of Alabama; and
- 7. Said lack of safe and sanitary dwelling accomodations in the Town of Montevallo, Alabama, available for all the inhabitants thereof, at rents which persons of low income can afford, compels such persons to occupy overcrowded and congested dwelling accomodations; that the aforesaid conditions cause an increase in and spread of disease and crime; that the clearance and reconstruction of the areas in which insanitary or unsafe housing conditions exist are public uses and purposes, and that it is in the public interest that work on such project be instituted as soon as possible in order to relieve unemployment which now constitutes an emergency; that it is necessary to the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety that this resolution become effective without delay, and, therefore, the same shall take effect and be in force immediately upon its adoption.
- 8. This resolution shall be transmitted within forty-eight hours to the Mayor for his approval, who, if he shall approve thereof, shall sign and return same to the clerk, who shall cause it to be published.

You Have a Vital Stake in Telephone Bargaining:

It's YOUR money that pays telephone wages

Southern Bell Wages and Working Conditions Already Are Among the Best--Any Increase in Wages Would Have To Be Paid By Telephone Customers-- There Is No Other Way Wage Increases Can Be Paid

You have a vital stake in telephone wage negotiations, for it's the money you pay in to us that we pay out in telephone wages.

Telephone employees are well paid. Their wages compare favorably with the wages paid by other concerns in the community for work requiring similar skills.

Telephone wage rates have been increased 117 per cent since 1939, compared with an increase of less than 70 per cent in the cost of living.

But wages are not the whole story. Telephone employees have the advantage of steady work, with no seasonal layoffs. They have vacations with pay, up to three weeks, plus six holidays a year. In addition, they enjoy the real security provided by one of the best pension and benefit plans in any industry. Among other things, it provides:

- A pension with a minimum of $100 a month, including Social Security, at age 65, and liberal provisions for earlier retirement.
- Sickness and accident benefits, up to a full year's pay, depending on length of service.
- Death benefits up to one full year's wage, depending on length of service.

For all these benefits, the employee pays nothing--the Company pays all

Any way you look at it -wages, working conditions, pensions and benefits- telephone employees are doing all right. And thats the way we think it should be. It takes all these things to get and keep good people.

The telephone business is regulated in a way that Unions and most other businesses are not. Federal and State Commissions determine the rates we charge for service. Any increase in telephone wages would force us to ask for an increase in telephone rates.

What About The Contract

Southern Bell and CWA-CIO are engaged in collective bargaining on wages at the request of the union. We earnestly hope that a settlement can be reached that will be fair to the employees, to the telephone users and to the company. Meanwhile, the public has every right to expect un-interrupted service under the present contract between the Company and the Union, which provides that, quoting the contract itself, "UNDER NO CIRCUM-STANCES MAY IT (The Contract) BE TERMINATED EARLIER THAN JUNE 5, 1950."

Wooten Candidate For State Senator

利用は、A about which and to-

L. W. WOOTEN

This week we come to the end of qualifying time with a third candidate for State Senator in the Fifteenth District in the person of Mr. L. W. Wooten, of Montevallo.

Mr. Wooten is a well-known and greatly popular business man of Montevallo. For the past nine or ten years he has been owner and operator of Wooten Motor Company (Ford dealer for Shelby County) here until he sold out his business a few months ago to Bill Lovelady.

Montevallo Town Council, which of Shelby County. position he has held for about six

He is one of our very best and most able citizens by any and every yardstick you might wish to use in measuring him. His many friends and neighbors in Shelby County are glad to commend him to the district as a candidate for State Senate.

Wheat Candidate For Congress

Dr. H. F. Wheat, of Tuscaloosa has filed papers as a candidate for Congressman to oppose incumbent, Edward deGraffenried, in the Sixth Alabama District.

Dr. Wheat got into the race two years ago, but withdrew because a question was raised about his qualifications as a legal voter.

Table Tennis Legend

Table tennis originated about 1880. According to one legend it was invented by a group of British army officers stationed in India. Fretting because the rainy weather kept them from enjoying their regular tennis, these officers-so the story goes-piled some books across the center of a large table, fashioned some balls out of cotton batting and proceeded to adapt their favorite pastime to table-top conditions. The name table tennis became more or less official in 1926 with the organization of the International Table Tennis federation.

Solon McGraw Is Candidate For The Legislature

Solon E. (Little Bud) McGraw, of Vincent, is a candidate for Representative of Shelby County in the Legislature of Alabama. And when you read his platform and his statement to his fellow Shelby Countians, we think you will agree that his candidacy is no joke by a long shot.

He hits the nail right square on the head as to what the people of Shelby County want in the way of local self government. And when he hits you can see the sparks

Mr. McGraw is a modest man and would be the last one in the world to "brag on himself." But when you consider his record, you must admit that he deserves to be recognized as "somebody" in Shelby County.

Besides being a successful farmer and merchant, he has devoted many years to public service in our county.

He is at present a member of the County Board of Education, and a member of the County Welfare Board

He served 12 years as a member of the Town Council of Vincent, and 10 years as Mayor of Vincent. For 12 years he was a Mr. Wooten is a member of the member of the Board of Revenue

Jack Owen Makes Announcement For Public Service Commisssion

C. C. (Jack) Owen announces that he has filed qualification papers with the Secretary of State for reelection to Position No. 2, Alabama Public Service Commission to which he was originally elected in 1946. Mr. Owen stated that he would run on his record as a member of the Public Service Commission and on his performance of duty during his present

Mr. Owen was born in West Blocton, Bibb County, in 1915. He attended the Bibb County High School and Auburn, where he graduated with a B.S. degree Prior to the war Mr. Owen served as County Agricultural Agent in Calhoun and Greene counties. During the war he served as a dive bomber pilot with the U.S. Marines. He has a long record of combat service in the Pacific for which he was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross and three Air Medals. Upon his release from active duty he campaigned in 1946 for the position he now holds using the well remembered slogan "Jack's Back-Let's Back Jack!"

Four years ago Mr. Owen received an overwhelming vote of confidence that put him in office. He has made an excellent record, and we believe the voters of Alabama have their minds already Hubbard. Assisting them will be made up to give him a resounding | Mrs. W. E. Thompson, Mrs. A. L. approval on May 2. He certainly deserves it.

Hamm For Governor On Folsom Platform

PHILLIP J. HAMM

Phillip J. Hamm, former director of the State Department of Revenue, has announced as a candidate for Governor. He has been one of the main cogs in our State government machinery for the past three years. It has been said that he is "the brains of the Folsom Administration."

In making his announcement for Governor Mr. Hamm says:

"I have fought side by side with Governor Folsom for every item of this (the peoples program) your program.

"I shall fight on in the future, as I have in the past, to make Alabama a better place for all our people. I will fight to see that every man, woman, and child has ! great state."

John Thompson Candidate For Board of Revenue

John H. Thompson, of Vincent, member of the County Board of Revenue in the 4th District for the past eight years, is a candidate for re-election in the Democratic primary May 2.

Vincent is quite a distance from Montevallo, close to 50 miles. Heretofore the people of this district, No. 2, have not been concerned about voting for a Revenue Board member in the Vincent District, No. 4, and vice versa.

However the new Revenue Board law made by the present legislature, provides that the Revenue Board member in each district must be voted upon by the whole county.

Therefore, each candidate in each district must make a countywide campaign.

Mr. Thompson, while perhaps not very well known in this part of the county, will appreciate the consideration of voters hereabouts. He has already been twice elected to the Board of Revenue by the

Jean Casedesus Noted Pianist Here Friday Night

A brillant young pianist, Jean Casedesus, will be the fifth in the Concert Series at Alabama College Friday, March 3. He will play in Palmer Auditorium at 8 p.m.

Following in the footsteps of his famous father, Jean Casedesus has successfully maintained the family reputation in the world of music. His first American tour, made early in 1949 took him from Washington, D. C. to Texas. In the same year he toured Holland and Switzerland.

While still in school in 1946, Casedesus won the Philadelphia Orchestra Youth Contest-and subsequently made an appearance as guest soloist with that orchestra under the direction of Eugene Ormandy.

Born in France, the young man came with his family to this country in 1940, locating in Princeton, New Jersey, which is still the family home.

Program for the Friday evening concert will include: Fantasia, No. 3, G minor; Bach, Romance in Fsharp, Schumann; Impromptu, Aflat Major, Nocturne in C-sharp, and Grande Polonaise, Chopin.

Final concert in the 1949-50 series is that of the Cincinnati Symphony which will appear in Palmer Auditorium on the campus for a matinee performance Sunday afternoon, March 26.

Nine Local Students Get College Honors

Nine Shelby county girls are outstanding students on the campus at Alabama College this spring.

They were chosen for scholastic excellence, or for leadership in student honorary organizations.

Recognition was given Tuesday, February 28, at the annual Honors Day convocation before the entire student body in Palmer Auditorium.

Dean T. H. Napier presided, introducing presidents of the organizations.

Mildred Wooten, student government president, introduced the speaker of the day, Mrs. Herbert D. Warner. Mrs. Warner is president of Gulf States Paper Corporation in Birmingham.

Honors Day was climaxed with a formal banquet honoring the top students.

The Shelby county girls who were named were:

Joyce Farlow, a junior history major, who is the daughter of Mrs. Violet Farlow, of Montevallo.

Mildred Wooten, a senior majoring in history, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Wooten, of Montevallo. Margaret Ann Hendrick, a sophomore music major, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Hendrick of Montevallo. Dorothy Baumgartner, a junior majoring in art and English, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Baumgartner of Montevallo. Norma Joe Gilbert, a biology major, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Gilbert of Doris Youngblood, a junior majoring in secretarial Science, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Youngblood.

Margaret Kennerly, who is majoring in English, and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kennerly of Montevallo.

Catherine Bridges Smitherman, a junior majoring in secretarial science, who is the daughter of Mrs. T. Bridges of Montevallo.

NEIL STEPHENS

Everybody in Montevallo regrets that the Alabama Power Company has transferred Neil Stephens from here. He goes to Oneonta.

Mr. Stephens, during the years he was here, proved himself to be a most worthy citizen. He made a wide acquaintance among our people and every acquaintance became his friend.

He deported himself personally and professionally in a manner that was of immense value to the power company and to our community.

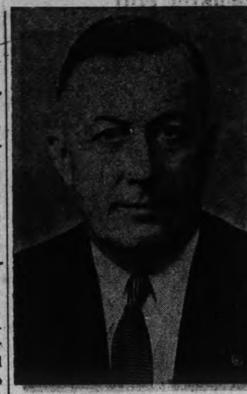

Being what might be termed a partisan friend of the Alabama Power Company, The Times is ever and always happy to see the Company represented by men who live a good life and thereby reflect wholesomeness in the field of public relations for the Company.

Such a man is Neil Stephens, and we soundly regret that he and his family are to be taken away from here. We congratulate Oneonta, but we don't like to lose such a good community asset, even if it is in favor of the home town of our good friend, Rice Howard.

By 1860, most of the cotton grown in the Tennessee Valley section of the state was shipped by rail to Memphis, Charleston, and Mobile. In the Black Belt, however, the Alabama and Tombigbee river system, though suffering from the competition afforded by the railroads, continued to operate profitably.

T. K. Lee, Birmingham, one of Alabama's greatest marksmen of all time, won more than 40 national championships in rifle, pistol, and shotgun competition.

BUD NORWOOD

Bud Norwood For Sheriff

The Times is pleased to see the many friends and former supporters of Bud Norwood again actively and forcefully backing him in his present race for Shiriff of Shelby County. We are glad to be counted among them.

Mr. Norwood has always had a strong majority of supporters among the people of this part of the county. Present indications are that his strength this time will be greater than ever before.

We have no particular objection or opposition to any of the other candidates, but we are just for Bud. We have been for him in years past, and we see no reason to quit him now. We have what we believe to be good and sufficient reasons for this attitude.

Mr. Norwood is able and capable of being a good Sheriff. He is a good citizen which is proved by his past record.

He is widely known in the county and he knows the people and conditions in the county to the extent that the same should be known and understood by one who would be a good law enforcement officer.

He has run for Sheriff twice in the past, each time failing of election by a small margin. He has not grumbled or grouched at his defeat, but has kept right on being a friend to all and taking his part as an active, honorable and progressive citizen.

No one has ever offered anything as a reason why he would not be a good Sheriff.

His friends believe he fully deserves the office. They know he is qualified and of such sound character as will make him a good official in this important position in our county government.

News Notes From Alabama College

More than two hundred and fifty alumnae attended the annual Homecoming held Saturday on the Montevallo campus.

Under the direction of Eloise Lee, Alumnae Secretary and Mrs. Willille Trumbauer, Homecoming chairman, alumnae attended College Night, an alumnae tea and the luncheon.

Mrs. Graham Gloster Bird. native of Dadeville, Alabama, and at present a member of the faculty of Allegheny College in Pennsylvania, was honored as Alumnae of the Year during the Homecoming activities.

Dedication of College Night, primary tribute of the student body, went to Mr. A. C. Anderson, professor of education and Direchas proven himself deserving body.

In a recognition ceremony last week, Dr. Lorraine Pierson of the Foreign Language Department was honored by Monsieur Lionel Vasse, French Consul General at New Orleans. The award presented Dr. Pierson was the "Officeir d' Academie avec Palmes Academiques", an honorary French award for outstanding services in the teaching of French culture and languages.

During the lifetime of Daniel Pratt, famous Alabama manufacturer of cotton gins and founder of Prattville, the sale of liquor within the city limits of the town was forbiden. Pratt contended that "no worker about machinery is worth a pinch of salt if he has liquor in his stomach".

In 1850, Alabama's 12 cotton factories employed only 736 workers. In a period of 10 years two more mills were added to the state's cotton industry and the total number of workers almost doubled.

Even as early as 1860, citrus fruit growing and truck farming had taken a hold on Alabama's Gulf Coast. This industry has now been largely replaced by camellia, azalea and tung growing.

Candidate Phillips

Geoffrey Birth, staff writer of The Alabama Journal, Montgomery, reveals that his study of various legislative races in the state has produced several colorful stories.

Among them he produces the following about Mr. J. T. (Tom) Phillips, one of our candidates for the State Senate:

Quote-In Shelby County a rich man's candidate is campaigning on a poor man's platform. This is Industrialist J. T. (Tom) Phillips -the man who held the purse for Handy Ellis in the 1946 gubernatorial race against Folsom.

Today Phillips is campaigning for a seat in the Senate in a big Cadillac car, on a Folsom-sounding platform for $50-a-month old age pensions; more pay for school teachers; more mail-box roads.

"I've got into politics myself," he told a friend, "and brother, I know what I've got to promise, and when elected I'm going to vote right down the line for these things."—(end quote.)

Rich Soil Healthy Populations in areas where the soil produces food of high nutritive value are healthier, more efficient, and more energetic than the average, according to Dr. H. B. Davidson, president of the Medical Association of the county of New York. One striking example, he points out, is the small amount of rejects by selective service boards in secwith the high percentage of rejects in certain areas of the deep south.

Statement from Karl Harrison Candidate for Representative

TO THE PEOPLE OF SHELBY COUNTY:

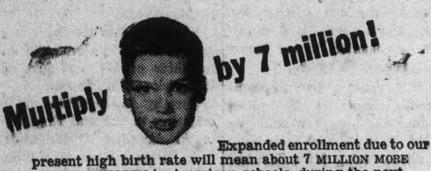

A number of people have asked me how I stand on the local bill setting up a new system for our Board of Revenue, which was passed at a recent session of the Legislature. In order that the people may know my position regarding this bill I am writing this letter to you. I am in favor of the people of the county voting on whether or not they wish this local law repealed, and if elected, I will carry out the wishes of

My position on local laws is not new. I took the same position with reference to local laws when I was your senator twelve years ago. At that time when a group of citizens in Chilton County requested that certain local laws be passed, I advised them to submit the matter to a vote of the people and I would be guided by their vote. The people of Chilton County voted to pass the proposed laws, and I passed them. This same situation arose in Autauga County, when a group of people desired the passage of a local law, and I took the same position that it should be submitted to the people to vote upon, and I would be governed by the voters wishes. This group of citizens did not agree to submit the matter to the people, so I did not pass the law.

Within a short time I will make a more detailed statement relative to my platform, and regarding matters of interest to the people of our

League Standing

Montevallo Lumber Co. 11 5 687
Plaza Grill 10 6 625
Siluria 8 8 500
Coca-Cola 3 9 250

Siluria keglers led by Braswell, and with mates L. Wilson and Rich getting red hot at opportune times, edged out a close 3 to 1 victory over the league leading Lumbermen. L. Wilson's fine 211 was a great asset in the last game. Monteyallo Lumber, without N. Stephens couldn't keep up their hot pace. Frost Dennis and Lovelady did pretty good but didn't have the necessary aid from their mates.

Plaza Grill with all their keglers hot bottled up Coca-Cola and won a close 3 to 1 decission. L. Comer with an excellent 223 high game and 518 series and good help from F. Holloman were too much for Franklin Mowery and mates. Coca Cola must strengthen two spots on their team and they will be a strong contender for the league crown. Franklin had an excellent series of 500 for Coca-Cola which kept the match close all the way. This leaves Plaza only one contest out of first place and their coming match with Montevallo Lumber Tuesday night may change the picture somewhat.

Girl Scouts Have Birthday March 12

Thirty- eight years ago Juliette Gordon Low called together a group of her young friends in Savannah, Georgia, and told them about the Scouting movement, which her friend, Sir Robert Baden-Powell (later Lord Baden-Powell), had originated and introduced to the boys and girls of Great Britain. Mrs. Low had worked with the Girl Guides-the distaff side of Lord Badan-Pow ell's youth movement—and knew from first hand experience how much fun and benefit Scouting could bring into a girl's life. She had come home to the United States with one purpose to tell the girls of her own country about Scouting. The meeting with the group of Savannah girls resulted in the organization of the first Girl Scout troop in the United States. This happened on March 12, 1912.

Ever since, March 12 has been celebrated as the Girl Scout birthday by more and more members of this ever growing organization. Did you know that we now total 1,400,000 Girl Scouts and adults? That there are about 68,000 Girl Scout troops in every state and U.S. territory? The Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. is the largest organization of its kind in the world.

Several million girls have belonged to Scouting during the past 38 years; millions more will belong in the future. Girl Scouting is here to stay. On March 12 we celebrate the beginning of a movement that each year becomes more and more deeply integrated with

The Platform of Solon E. McGraw, Candidate for Representative

After weighing carefully the needs for active and aggressive representation in the House of Representatives from our county and from the earnest solicitation of my friends who wish to see local self government brought back to our county, I am announcing myself as a candidate for this responsible office. I promise that if elected I will at all times work and vote for what I believe to be for the best interest of our county. I pledge to work for legislation to aid our farmers, school teachers, veterans, the aged and needy, the municipalities of our county and state, a better understanding between employee and employer.

Having studied conditions in our county, I am fully aware of the needs for more and better roads, better school facilities, and improvements in general, and will do my utmost to help provide them. I base my reasons for the above pledges from these facts:

- 1. That I am a farmer and a business man, I know first hand the problems of our farmers, and will certainly do everything in my power to aid in legislation that will help them.
- 2. As a member of your County School Board, I am sure that I know the need of an enlarged school program, better facilities and more pay for our faithful teachers.
- 3. Veterans—As the father of an only son who served four years in the Army Air Corps, it is quite evident that I would be in sympathy with your problems and promise to aid in any helpful, constructive legislation that your noble organization should propose.
- 4. As a member of the County Welfare Board it is quite natural that I should know the needs of those aged and needy of our county. They may rest assured that I will aid any legislation that will serve and comfort them.
- 5. As a member of the Town Council of Vincent for 12 years, also Mayor for ten years, I feel that I should be in a position to speak for the municipalities of our county on legislation that will aid them in doing a better service for our people.
- 6. You honored me by electing me to serve you three four-year terms as a Member of the Board of Revenue. I shall ever be grateful to you for this honor. Nothing ever gave me more pleasure than serving with the other good men elected by you. I shall always cherish the friendship of those whom I was permitted to work with, who have gone to their reward. I am sure that I am a better man by having had contact with them. I feel quite sure that in these twelve years I learned something of county government, the road system and its management.

In the January 3rd, 1884, issue of the "Gainsville Reporter" there was a story of how the stars fell on Alabama a half century before. The account read; "It was an impressive and awe-inspired scene I am convinced that in my twelve years service as a Member of the Board of Revenue and my observations of the present system is that it is inadequate, costly, and that you have lost touch with your Board Member whom you elected to serve you in each of your Districts. It has been a "NOBLE" and "COSTLY" experiment.

I will introduce a bill to repeal it and bring local self government back to you, where it should be, always.

Marshall Durbin Explains Objectives Of Shelby County Egg Production

The agricultural Committee of the Columbiana Kiwanis Club presented Marshall Durbin as guest speaker to the Club at its meeting last Thursday evening. Durbin, head of the Marshall Durbin Poultry and Seafood Company of Birmingham, gave a brief sketch of the proposed egg production plan now being established in Shelby County. He expressed his gratude and appreciation for the fine cooperation that he had received from A. A. Lauderdale, Buck Clark, G. C. Moore, Jr. and their assistants and associates.

In discussing this program, Durbin emphasized that the plan involves the production of a quality egg that can be sold fresh on the retail market in Alabama within three days after it has been laid. The importance of having a good, white, uniform egg for this project was stressed. Durbin explained that the egg which is being sought by this program is not now available on the Alabama market. Because of this fact he expects that his company will be successful in creating the demand for this particular quality egg and that this egg will bring a premium price.

He stated that his company was interested in the prospective profits from this program but emphasized that there will be no profit forthcoming for this company unless the farmer who produces the egg is financially successful.

The proposed plan requires that the farmer furnish the building and pay for the purchase of the chickens. The Durbin Company will then advance all feed necessary for the chicks until they begin egg production. This feed will be paid for after the hens start production.

Durbin stated that most of the eggs retailed in Alabama today are shipped in from mid-west producers. Although these eggs may be Grade A according to government specifications they still are in most instances cold storage eggs that were laid from thirty days to six months before being placed on the market. The success of the present program seems likely when it is considered that chicken feed can be shipped into Alabama at a cheaper transportation coast than that of eggs. This being true it would seem that Ala. bama producers can more cheaply produce eggs than can the poultry farmers now suppllying our mar-

It has been estimated that Mr. Durbin will invest approximately $75,000.00 in our County before ever receiving any eggs.

To further assure the success of this program Durbin has employed L.K. Bannister of Bowdon, Agent, A. A. Lauderdale.

F.F.A. Boys Enter State Contest

Montevallo F.FA. boys have entered the State Chapter contest again this year. The chapter rated 8th out of 232 chapters in Alabama last year. Entries have been made in the speaking contest, and the judging teams of dairy and beef cattle. With the completion of aduquate buildings and the purchase of additional equipment, the 82 members should be in better position to develop the skills so necessary in the efficient performance of farm jobs.

The vocational agriculture department has sponsored two adult evening clases this year; one at Montevallo and one at Pea Ridge. There are many advantages to our community in having a prosperous agriculture. With the promotion and realization of sound agriculture will be the growth and development of other important phases of our community life.

Be sure to visit the livestock show across from the post office Saturday, March 18.

It was in 1911 that Alabama first entered into an agreement with the federal government to assist in maintaining farm demonstration and rural extension work in this state.

Studiosis Meets Next Tuesday

Studiosis will meet Tuesday, Marko 14, at the regular time. Miss Joan Miefield will present members of her debate team who will debate on the question of socialized Medicine.

At the last meeting the following officers were elected for the coming year: Miss Ethel Marshall, President; Miss Mary Wooley,
Vice-president; Miss Evelyn Word,
Recording secretary; Mrs. Elizabeth Henderson, Treasurer.

Although the Montevallo chapter of F.F.A. has not completed its second year as an organization, an extensive program is in operation. During the first year of 1948-49, sixty two boys were enrolled as greenhand members. This year there are 52 chapter farmers. The chapter members are looking forward to the first livestock show and exibition day, March 18, which is being sponsored by the Montevallo Chamber of Commerce. Over $100.00 in cash prizes will be awarded the F.F.A. boys for showing animals. In addition to the many specials being given by each business place in Montevallo, a program of interest will be held in the afternoon at which time the F.F.A. sweethearts will be crowned.

Future Farmers learn to do by doing. Usually projects are studied and carried out on a small scale and where this proves profitable expansion is made gradually. Some programs are carried by members for improvement as well as for profit. The supercised farming program is usually made up of: productive projects designed to give a profit; improvement projects, for improvement only, and supplementary practices, adopted to increase efficiency and profit. Young orchards, dairy stock, forestry projects and home O libraries are among the improve-00 ment projects while other productive enterprises such as cotton, corn, poultry, swine and truck crops are for profit. Any improved practices adopted which are not a part of the improvement and productive projects are considered supplementary and become a part of the program supervised by the vocational agriculture teacher.

The livestock show is held in order to give the F.F.A. members practice in grooming and showing animals. Practice judging teams and contests are usually held before the teams enter on state-wide competition. Since F.F.A. takes part in civic life of the community and engages in promotional work, chapter members are anxious for the public to know of its activities and educational enterprises. Vocational agriculture is part of the system of public education of our state and county.

Chapter members own 60 head of registered hogs, two hereford bulls, over one thousand birds in poultry projects, 180 young fruit trees, twelve dairy heifers, 500 nursery plants, ten hotbeds for plant production, and numerous other projects in the various phases of farming. The Chapter has participated in improving the girl scout house, the spring park area, the school grounds and demonstrations have been carried out in landscaping homes and planting orchards. One field day has been held to teach phases of soil conservation. The F.F.A. gets strong support from all agencies and organizations working toward a greater and more prosperous community. Many individuals become donors to this program because they know of its implications in promoting the training of leadership and citizenship leading to services which contribute to the general welfare.

SUPPORT THE FARMERS

The Times is glad to see the spirit of encouragement and support which the business people of Montevallo are giving to our local group of Future Farmers through our Chamber of Commerce.

This commendable spirit is given visible evidence by sponsorship of the F.F.A. Live Stock Show to be held here Saturday, March 18.

The future development of the agricultural and live stock industries in this locality is of utmost importance to all of us-those who are on the farms and those who live in town.

The vanguard of this much needed development is represnted by the boys in our F.F.A. Chapter. This group in our high school directed by Mr. Thornton, are the greatest potential asset to the future of this area.

By and large, it may be safely said that agriculture and live stock are the hope of the business and economic future for this section. Our local business men are wise to recognize this fact and give their full powers of support to both present farmers and future

May we also express the hope that our farm neighbors will cordially reciprocate this friendly interest that exists among the people of us may work together for the "Boost Boozer and Build Alaaccomplishment of a goal of mu- bama" to "Boost Boozer and Bust trial advantage.

BOOZER'S BONER

Most Alabamians must be amazed at Elbert Boozer's proposal to make $5,000 home loans available to all veterans at 4 per cent interest, under a guarantee by the

Even more astonishing is that part of Mr. Boozer's plan which would permit a veteran who already owned his home to borrow $5,000 to build one for "his parents, his brother or sister."

The Anniston candidate for governor would have the state guarantee such loans by any bank, insurance company or other "legitimate lending agency." The state's total liability might run into hundreds of millions.

We have been feeling increasing concern over reports of Mr. Boozer's heavy spending as a candidate. The remark is often heard that he is trying to buy his way into the governorship.

Now, apparently, he is trying to buy his way in, not only with his own money, but also with that of the taxpayer.

It won't work, for several rea-

1. Financial institutions would hardly be willing to make 4 per cent martgage loans on a state guarantee. They do not seem eager to make GI home loans insured by interest rate.

2. We do not believe the votes of many veterans can be bought with promises of $5,000 loans.

3. Even if such loans were financially feasible, $5,000 will not buy very much of a house these

This dangerous scheme will promptly be recognized as just that by most Alabama voters.

If Mr. Boozer should happen to be elected on such a promise his slogan should be changed from Alabama."-Birmingham Post.

Believes in these enduring principals of American Life

- 1. FREE ENTERPRISE: There can be no substitute for this doctrine of freedom that has made the United States the most powerful nation in the world.
- 2. COLLECTIVE BARGAINING: In the modern system the only way free men and women can receive their just guarantees under the law is through free collective bargaining with justice for all.
- 3. LOWER INCOME TAX: The colossal cost of the federal government has risen to a point where it strangles the growth of free enterprise in many ways.Income taxes and hidden taxes everywhere are taking too much of the earnings of the average man and woman. I advocate action to lower these super high taxes.

During the 1950 Campaign for Sixth District Representative in the U. S. Congress I hope to meet you personally, and to make clear my stand on the issues of the day. Your support and influence will be greatly appreciated. I will devote much of my time to the campaign between now and May 2nd.

Siluria 8 12 400

Montevallo Lumber continued their winning ways by thimming Plaza Grill 3 to 1 and the slim margin of 28 pins for the match. Frost, Fisher and Lovelady starred for the lumbermen with Rotenberry, Cunningham and L. Comer trying hard for Plaza. Frost had an excellent series of 523 for the contest with Rotenberry second with 457.

Coca-Cola is making a four team fight for first place in the league by plastering Siluria 4 to 0 and moving into 3rd place behind Plaza. Excellent team bowling won the match and also Siluria was off their usual form. Braswell and Blewster were in their usual good form but received too little help from team mates. Vernon, Fullman and Franklin were the necessary spark plugs for Coca-Cola.

Last week scores soared to a new high in our alleys as the men racked up many 200 games. E. Hamrick's 243 was tops closly followed by L. Comer 223, Braswell 214, and L. Wilson 211.

E. Milton copped the top spot for the ladies with 174 closely followed by B. Slade's 169 and V. Edwards' 147.

Senior Play Friday Night At Palmer Hall

The Senior Class of M.H.S. will present "Arsenic and Old Lace", a famous Broadway hit, in Palmer Hall Friday night at 8:00. The admission is 35 cents.

The play, a gory comedy in three acts, is the story of two elderly ladies, and their weird attempts to provide eternal peace and happiness to lonely old gentlemen. They are aided in their plans by their crazy nephew who is under the illusion that he is Teddy Roosevelt.

The plot thickens when they meet with competition in the person of another nephew, Jonathon, an escapee from an institution for the criminally insane.

While people, dead and alive, flow in and out the doors and windows, Mortimer, the third nephew, carries on his courtship with the live stock show, also you will Elaine, a minister's daughter. The play comes to an explosive climax with the entrance of four representatives of the law.

Characters are: Abby Brewster, Marlene Booth; Martha Brewster, Joan Gentry; Dr. Harper, Joe Daly; Teddy Brewster, Prude Fancher; Elaine Harper, Maxine Vincent; Mortimer Brewster, Bobby Baker: Jonathon Brewster, Winston Hardegree; Officer Klein, John Galloway: Mr. Gibbs, Jack Horton; Dr. Einstein, Eddie Roberts: Officer O'Hara, Horace Eddings; Officer Brophy, Russell Harkins; Lieutenant Rooney, Clayton Scurlock; Mr. Witherspoon, Jerald Allen.

Miss Alice Creel, Alabama College Senior, is directing the production. The staging and lighting in touch with the District Office will be done by M.H.S. Seniors under the direction of Alabama College students. Miss Vinnie Lee Walker, M.H.S. Senior Advisor, is serving as over-all supervisor.

Local Student Is Dance Leader

Miss Dorothy Baumgartner, junior at Alabama College will be featured in the lead-out of the Junior-Senior Prom. Miss Baumgartner is in charge of the decorations. The prom will be held Saturday, March 18.

The theme of the dance will be centered around the celebration of St. Patrick's Day. Music will be furnished by Eddie Stephens and his orchestra.

Other members of the Junior Class who will appear in the leadout are the following: Misses Addie Laura Falls, Elizabeth Nettles, Doris Wiant, Betty MacDonald, Betty Houston, Betty Hodges, Ella Wayne Israll. Annette Gauronski, Peggy Powell, and Betty Parker.

Miss Baumgartner has been an outstanding student at Alabama College. She has been a member of the Alabamian, Theatre Council, Sigma Alpha Chi, Orientation and College Night.

Census Jobs Are Still Open

Applications for jobs as enumerators in the 17th Decennial Census to be conducted in April, are still being accepted.

However, the District Supervisadvises that only a short time remains for getting these applications in. Inasmuch as the selection date for enumerators is March 23rd, Mr. Warr urges all those interested in helping with the Census enumeration, be sure to get and make their formal application, if they have not already done

A good many of the pre-selection tests have been given, and others are scheduled between now and March 23rd. A total of 268 enumerators will be required to take the Census in this district, Mr. Warr states, and in some sections more applications are needed. Most of the enumerators will be employed for a period of from two to four weeks. Anyone desiring an application blank, contact the Bureau of the Census, Clanton, and one will be mailed.

Departing from usual committee procedure, a freshman of one of the major committees of the House of Representatives was chosen this week to serve as a conferee on an important legislative Congressman Edward deGraffenried drew this assignment when a subcommittee of the House Armed Services Committee met in executive session to suggest conferees on the Uniform Code of Military Justice bill. The appointment of Representative deGraffenried as one of the Democratic conferees transcended the usual procedure of appointing ranking senior members of a committee as conferees. He and other House Conferees will start meeting with the Senate Conferees at an early date and the Conference Committee will reconcile the differences between the House and Senate bills to establish a Uniform Code of Military Justice.

This assignment came to Reppresentative deGraffenried as a result of the great amount of work performed by him on this measure while pending before a subcommittee of the House Armed Services Committee, his examination of numerous witnesses who appeared before the subcommittee, and his outstanding training and experience in the legal field.

The Uniform Code of Military Justice bill seeks to pattern military laws and their administration as nearly as possible after civil rules and procedures. One of the cardinal provisions of the bill is the right of an enlisted man to have other enlisted men serve on the court martial boards before which he is tried and also provides for the apointment of competent legal counsel for each accused to further provides for the establishment of a Military Court of Appeals to be presided over by three civilian justices.

Congressman deGraffenried stated: "The new law will make uniform the system of administering justice in the three branches of the Armed Forces, and it is my purpose to see that members of the Armed Forces are accorded the same priviledge of a fair trial which our people have in their civilian courts."

Study Club Elects Officers

The Montevallo Study Club held its February meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Baker, with Mrs. Bridges co-hostess. This was a regular business meeting. The President, Mrs. John Caldwell presided. Plans for raising funds to carry out proposed civic projects were formulated. The nominating committee submitted the following names for 1950-51 club officers: Mrs. L. C. Parnell, President; Mrs. M. L. Orr, Sr., Secretary; Mrs. A. C. Anderson, Treasurer; Mrs. Eugene Reynolds, Parlimentarian. They were unanimously elected.

The standing committee chairmen gave their reports, a summary of the year's work.

The March meeting will be on Flower Arrangement. Mrs. M. L. Orr, Jr. will lead the discussion.

Montevallo Lumber lost some of their lead as they broke even with Coca-Cola keglers. Coca-Cola won two of the three games but a bad second game gave the lumbermen enough pins to break even 2 games each. Frost, R. Thrasher, and Lovelady were very good, which saved the lumbermen. Franklyn, Carpenter and Fullman did good for Coca-Cola with Franklyn having the high series for the night with an excellent 503, closely followed by Frost's 494. This leaves Montevallo Lumber only 2 games in front of Plaza Grill.

With Rotenberry, Holoman, and Cunningham red hot the Plaza keglers laced Siluria 3 to 1. Holloman saved the last game in the series with 5 straight strikes which clinched both game and series. Blewster, Braswell and Rich did excellent for Siluria but couldn't quite get the few needed pins. Rotenberry's 497 was high for series with Holloman closely following with a good 483 and high game of 199.

Mabry Home Is Improved

The Jim Mabrys have practically completed all interior work in their remodelled home. They have just finisted the job of papering and painting the guest room. The paper is dusty pink with a light with a light blue floral design, the woodwork is white and the floors are in dark enamel. The braided rugs were transferred from the living room to the bedroom since the cherry furniture is in Early American period. White organdy curtains complete the effect.

The Mabry's have replaced the braided scatter rugs in the living room with tone on tone carpeting in tones of beige.

Cub Scouts Go On Hike

By Bill Brown, Reporter

At 9:00 the Cubs of Den 2 met Saturday morning at the home of Mrs. A. R. Garrett. Then we went on a hike to Big Ditches. We played fox and hounds and cops and robbers. We learned how to tell time by a stick and its shadow and four rocks. Our mascot, Bill Bob Garrett fell down and we used water from our canteens to stop his nose from bleeding. Then we came home. All the Cubs were tired out but we really had a good time. Everybody in Den 2. was there. We had two visitors, Barclay Fisher and Milton Jeter. Mike Mahan, our Den Chief and Mrs. Garrett, our Den Mother took us.

The weekly meeting of Den 2 was held Tuesday afternoon at Secretary Arthur Garrett's. We learned songs about our country and horses and funny songs. We helped some of the Cubs with their Achievements. We had refreshments and made plans for a kite flying contest soon.

Ebenezer Club's Fourteenth Birthday

The Ebenezer Home Demonstration Club celebrated its 14th anniversary in February. Mrs. A. J. Davis, the club's only charter member, was presented a beautiful potted Azalea by the club and a lovely cake with 14 candles by Mrs. H. A. Pauley, the hostess. Mrs. Davis stated, in giving a brief history of the club, that the women in the community first met as a sewing circle 20 years ago. The sewing circle continued for 6

Thompson Has Vocational Unit

In a recent issue of The Times there was an article in which appeared a list of schools of Shelby County which have vocational agriculture units. In the list thus printed the name Thompson High School at Siluria was inadvertently omitted.

We are glad to make correction of this omission and to state that Thompson High School has a vocational agriculture unit. Mr. A. J. Tucker is director. A new vocational agriculture building has been built recently.

Siluria Students Visit Meat Plant

Twenty-three boys with their instructor, A.J. Tucker, from the vocational agriculture department at Thompson High School, Siluria, visited a meat packing plant and a bakery in Birmingham on Thursday, March 9. The boys viewed the processing of meat and bread for sale to the consumer.

This was another in a series of field trips being made over the state by the students in Thompson schools.

Boys making this trip included: W. C. Brantley, Charles Isbell, Harold Elliott, Leonard Bearden, A. D. Stewart, Raymond Elliott, Johnnie Owens, Lynder Henry, W. A. Seales, Bobby Hinds, Larry Nobles, Sonny Penhale, C. W. Nabors, Timothy Lenning, Billy Strickland, Leonard Harris, Bobby Jenkins, Jimmy King, Hugh White, Leonard Reaves, Paul Nun-

We welcome Mr. and Mrs. G Culp and family into our community. They recently purchased the McDaniel farm.

Dr. Hubert F. Wheat was born 16 miles North of Tuscaloosa, one-half mile close to the Moore's Bridge Road, in a log house similar to this picture. The family lived in the log house until he was fourteen years of age. His father tore it down and built a frame house. It is in good condition today.

Hubert spent his boyhood days on the farm, doing the kind of work that is to be done on the farm. The pots rattled at his father's house early every morning, and they plowed untill the whipporwill hollered

On rainy days Hubert was at liberty to do what he wanted to do, so he made toy wagons, wind mills, fly guns, and all kinds of toy machinery. It seems as if he wanted to produce something. He went to school from six weeks to three months a year, and some years not at all, doing his studying by a pine knot fire light.

When he became twenty-one years of age he was at liberty to follow his own intuition. Feeling the need of some education, he went to Jacksonville State Normal School, and entered low but picked up speed as he went along. He played in "As You Like It" and "Mid-Night Summer Dream", and stole the show in both. He graduated from Jacksonville Normal School on May 22, 1918, with honors. World War I was in full bloom then.

The Army had turned him down on a minor physical disability. He felt he should do something about it. Having some knowledge of physics and chemistry, he made it known to the U.S. Government. They received him readily, sending him to Warners, N. J. and taught him how to make ammonium nitrate, which is one part of T.N.T., by the command process. When the course was completed he was moved to Muscle Shoals, Alabama, and was instrumental in putting Nitrate Plant No. 2 in operation. Here he was cited for his excellent service.

After the war was over the Government did not need his services any longer. He came home and taught in his home school, which is known as Bethabara School. It was a one-teacher school. He persuaded the Superintendent of Schools to make it a two-teacher school. It was poorly equipped. He rang the bell, called the Trustees, had a box supper, which sold well—raised enough money to equip the school with desks, black boards, maps, etc. and left about $100.00 in the Treasury. He then turned tooth-ward, graduating from Atlanta Southern Dental College, May 28, 1924, with high honors. He has been doing Dentistry successfully in Tuscaloossa ever since.

Oh, yes! One other thing-his father appointed him Executor to his will. He handled it with the diplomacy of a diplomat. All the children were pleased with his actions.

McRae Girls Do Home Work

Busy high school girls are Dorothy and Gloria McRae, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. B. M. McRae. Not only are these girls active in church and schol activities, but they also assume much responsibility for work carried on at home.

Before going to school every morning, the girls fill milk bottles at their dairy. They are also responsible for cooking supper every night and fixing lunch on Saturdays.

Both Dorothy and Gloria are active members of the Calera Senior 4-H Club. Dorothy is Vice-President of the Senior Club. She has also held the offices of President, Secretary, and Deporter. Vice President of the Beta Club and Secretary of the Senior Class are also offices held by Dorothy.

this year. She is making a plaid gingham dress for the Senior Dress Revue. She has made a two piece wool dress and has made over an evening dress.

Since meal planning was taken by both Gloria and Dorothy, they take turns in planning and preparing supper and week-end meals. Dorothy is a junior neighborhood leader for the South Calera 4-H

Mrs. B. M. McRay will work with the South Calera 4-H girls as Adult Neighborhood leader.

To The People of Shelby County:

Being a candidate for Representative in the State Legislature, I am making the following statement in order that you may know my position and views concerning matters which are highly important to your county.

LOCAL SELF-GOVERNMENT. I am in favor of the people voting on whether they wish the Board of Revenue and Control Act repealed. If nominated, I will submit this issue to a vote of the people in the November, 1950, general election, and when I take office will introduce a bill to carry out your wishes. I favor the people voting on any other local laws for Shelby County and will not pass or repeal any local legislation without first submitting it to the people for their approval. I know of no way to bring local self-government back closer to the people than for the people themselves to vote on the issue.

FARMERS. Having lived in a farming community all my life, I fully appreciate the problems of the farmer and that we in Shelby County can only make progress so long as our farmers have prosperity. I will actively and vigorously support all measures in the Legislature, which will be beneficial to our farmers.

VETERANS. In finding his rightful place in civilian life, I feel that our veterans should receive every consideration and assistance possible from our state and government. I closed my law office and volunteered for duty and served 30 months in the United States Navy during World War II, and I know the problems many veterans are facing in getting started again in life.

SCHOOLS. I have been a member of the Board of Trustees of the Columbiana school for several years, and I am familiar with the problems of the schools in our county. In 1937, I served as State Director of a campaign for the adoption of an income tax amendment, which made available approximately seven million dollars for increase in teachers' salaries and other educational needs. I am Vice-President of the Citizens Educational Advisory Council of Alabama, the function of which is to study the needs of public school education in our state, and to sponsor programs that will bring about better schools for our AGED AND NEEDY. I favor expanding the State and Federal program for providing adequately for our aged and needy.

NEW INDUSTRIES. I am intensely interested in bringing new industries to Shelby County, and will sponsor legislation to provide an adequate organization to contact new industries, and to encourage them to locate in our rural communities and small towns in our state.

B. F. Hatchett and G. C. St archer Lespedeza sericea, long recommended by the Soil Conservation Service, is now being called the "wonder crop" by other agricultural authorities. It is becoming an integral part of every livestock enterprise, with few exceptions, in Shelby County.

We actually feel this great crop should be used on an appreciable area of nearly every farm, for feed production, soil building, or erosion control.

Recent results indicate the possibility of combining it with Ky. 31 fesucue. It has already been proved successful overseeded with reseeding crimson clover.

The next thirty days should be the planting dates for sericea, if the weather does not prove unusually severe. Thorough soil preparation, firm seedbed, shallow covering, ample fertilizing, and thirty pounds of good scarified seed per acre should give good stands. About 400 pounds of 0-14-10, or equivalent values in any obtainable fertilizer such as slag, superphosphate, or 4-10-7 would be minimum. Innoculation with lespedeza bacteria cultures is reported favorably. Control of weed growth or broomsedge is aided by mowing. Careful and frequent mowing after the first year also aids in producing a better quality of hay and more palatable graz-

Band Uniforms Have Arrived

The new uniforms ordered for the Montevallo High School Band from McCain Uniform Company, in Birmingham, have arrived and will be worn for the first time when the band presents a concert in Palmer Hall Tuesday, March 28, at 8:00 p.m.

The concert will consist of two sections, the first containing standard band marches and selections including a new Mexican Overture based on well-known songs; The Persial Market; excerpts from Tschaikowsky's Sixth Symphony in overture form, and other numbers of interest. The second section will present a series of popular songs of the last fifty years.

These uniforms have been made possible by the combined efforts of school and community, and represent what can be done when all work together toward a worthwhile goal. In appreciation for your cooperation the band will present this concert free of charge. Several hundred dollars will be needed to comlete payments but with continued interest in fundraising projects there should be no difficulty in this final phase of our drive.

It is hoped that everyone will make a special effort to come out to see as well as hear the band next Tuesday night.

Epworth League Training Institute

The annual Epworth Training Institute for the Montevallo Sub-District Methodist Youth Fellowship is to be held at the Montevallo Methodist Church during March 27 through 30. There will be sessions each evening with two class periods, beginning at seven o'clock. Between the two class periods the young people will enjoy an intermission of recreation and refreshments. A closing worship service for the entire group will climax the session each evening.

The instructors and courses for the E.T.A. are the following: Rev. Allen D. Wilson will teach Youth In the Small Church; Rev. I. T. Carlton will teach Recreation; Rev. John Haskew, Jr. will teach The Meaning of Methodism; Rev. Hewlett Aldrich will teach the class for Intermediates. Brother Haskew is serving as dean of the Institute. Miss Barbara Johnson is president of the Sub-District.

The E.T.I. is to be preceded by a Sub-District Youth Rally on Sunday afternoon at three o'clock. March 26. The courses will be described at that time and preregistration will take place. The Rally, however, will be highlighted by a worship service in which Rev. David N. Hutto, Executive Secretary, will challenge the young people with an inspirational mes-

THOR JOHNSON

Thor Johnson, conductor of the Cincinnati Symphony, which will come to Alabama College March 26, for an afternoon concert. Scheduled for three o'clock in Palmer Auditorium, the Orchestra will play selections from Dvorak's Symphony No. 5 in E minor (New World), Milhaud's Suite Provencale, and the Overture from fund. Tschaikowsky's Romeo and Juliet.

Dot Baumgartner Candidate For Student President

There is evidence of the pending election all over the Alabama College campus this week, and a Montevallo student is entered for one of the major offices.

She is Dorothy Baumgartner who competes with Patricia Alexander of Birmingham, and Betty Houston of Fayette, for the office of President of the Student Government Association.

Dorothy is a junior on the campus majoring in Art and English. She has done outstanding work on the campus in the field of drama, and Montevallo residents will recall her recent performance as George the policeman, in the Gold presentation of College Night. Her student activities have included membership in the National Collegiate Players, Alabama Players, and Kappa Pi, a national honorary in art. She is also a member of the Theatre Council and has worked on the staff of the Alabamian, college student paper.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Baumgartner, Dorothy's campaign is in the capable hands of Julia Cheape of Greensboro.

Edwin Bridges In Philippines

Private First Class Edwin L. Bridges, son of Mrs. T Bridges, of Montevallo recently assumed assignment with the 18th Food Service Squadron at Clark Air Force Base in Central Luzon, upon his arrival in the Philippines.

Historic Clark Air Force Base, the largest American installation in the Philippines, is situated sixty miles north of the famous but still war-torn Manila, the capital city. Sports attractions are offered at the base such as golf course, swimming pools and bowling alleys. During his stay in the Islands, Pfc. Bridges will come in contact with the primitive and nomadic Negritos, who inhabit the mountains nearby.

A graduate of Montevallo High School, Pfc. Bridges joined the service in November 19, 1948 and left for the Philippines last month.

First to Go Up First man to go up in a balloon was Pilatre de Rozier, who ascended in a hot-air balloon, fastened by a rope.

Monthly Clubs Boom Monthly clubs for the purchase of books, flowers, fruits and many other items by the month are now a $250,000,000 industry.

It was a day of fun and excitement for Montevallo F.F.A. boys last Saturday when members exhibited their project animals and received the awards from the Chamber of Commerce. Over 50 animals were in the show which was the first F.F.A. stock show to be held in Montevallo. Registered O.C.I. swine and registered durocks were in the limelight until it came time for crowning the F.F.A. Sweethearts for a day.

Virginia Gaddy was crowned as greenhand farmer sweetheart and Ouida Byrd was crowned as chapter farmer sweetheart. The sweethearts were escourted by Billy Glenn Harris and Jerry Moody. Ted Allen, F.F.A. president, and Dan Whetstone, Chairman of the Greenhands, did the official crowning for the occasion. Montevallo high school band brought new life into the all-day event by giving some special numbers at 2:00 o'clock. One feature was a contribution of $15.50 to the band uniform

The livestock show was sponsored by the Montevallo Chamber of Commerce and over $100 in cash awards were presented the boys as premiums for thier outstanding project animals. It was estimated that over 2000 spectators visited the show during the day Saturday.

F.F.A. boys attended the Montgomery Livestock Show and Sale Wednesday and saw many fine animals from central and southern Alabama.

Following is a list of prize winners in the Montevallo show of last Saturday:

Hereford bulls: Dudley Pendleton and Jimmy O'Neal.

Dairy Stock heifers: Edgar Joe Clark, Bobby Jarvis, Jackie In-Beef calves: Grady Houlditch, Joe McGaughy, Jack McGaughy, Joe Clark, Pete Holcomb.

Swine sow and litter: Bobby Neal Smitherman, Ed Holcomb, Rueben Swinford, Jerry Moody, Bobby Jarvis.

Rabbits: Jack Blackerby, William Pickett.

Men Wanted For Local Unit of Field Artillery

If as many as fifteen enlisted men will join up by April 15, it is possible to have a reserve field artillery battery in Montevallo, according to information given out by Charles Bailey.

Enlistees must be over 18 years of age and physically fit. Prior service is not necessary. Enlistments must be on a voluntary basis for a period of a year, but withdrawal may be made at any

There will be two weeks service with pay each year, and from one to two days with pay each month. Meetings will be held two nights a month for two hours each night. Uniforms will be furnished.

There will be places for officers from captain down, and for enlisted men from master sergeant down. Operation of the battery will be by a local staff with some supervision from Birmingham.

Anyone interested in this proposition may secure full information from Charles Bailey or Clayton Nordan.

$2,000 Is Goal For Easter Seals

Mail bags containing Easter Seals for Shelby County homes, flooded the post office today on the eve of the opening of the annual Easter Seal Drive.

Most of the Easter Seal letters will be delivered this week, carrying the message of the society asking support of its services to our 290 crippled children and adults.

The campaign for funds will continue through until Easter Sunday, with a goal of $2,000.00 to be reached in that time, according to Roy Downs, Easter Seal Drive Chairman.

Easter Seal letters were prepared and addressed, and sheets of one hundred seals each were folded into the envelope by a corps of volunteer workers and members of the Shelby County Chapter who have been working at campaign headquarters for the past several weeks.

"Let's not deny a single crippled child the full benefits of professional care so that he may have the happy life that is the birthright of every child", is the appeal of Mr. Downs. "Let's give generously so that we may not only maintain our present services but expand them to care for all of the crippled who have need of them and add other services just as badly needed."

He pointed out that there are 290 crippled in Shelby County of which 119 are children.

"To serve so many crippled adequately is a very costly undertaking for only the most expert and carefully trained professional personnel can attempt to do remedial or rehabilitation work of the handicapped. We must see that we raise funds for that work during the Easter Seal Drive."

NO MINOR ISSUE

The issue being tightly drawn between States' Rights Democrats and those who believe that our best interests would be served by a show of undiluted loyalty to the National Democratic Party overshadows any other single consideration in the coming elections.

Naturally, Senator Hill, Senator Sparkman, and some of our represetatives in Congress would like to live in peace and complete harmony with those who sit in the seats of party power.

We would like to have harmony too. We would like for our representatives to hold choice and important assignments but not at the price of self-respect and independence as a free American.

Some of our politicians tell us the best way to fight for the things in which we believe "within the party."

Without questioning the honesty or sincerity of their views it is conceivable that such views could spring from personal vanity, selfishness or the instinct for selfpreservation.

Senator Sparkman first and, at the last minute, Senator Hill were startled by the towering wave of resentment and indignation against President Truman two years ago when, seeking re-election at any price, he deliberately sold the South down the river to win the small minorities in key Eastern and Northern states.

Remembering what Hill and Sparkman said at that time we cannot take much stock in what they are saying today.

They may be willing to crawl back and lick the boot that kicked them in the face but let us hope that with them will not be a majority of Alabamians.

When men renounce their freedom for political favors and handouts they become slaves and democratic government begins to crumble into dust.

The average Alabama voter, untill states' rights became an issue in the last election, paid little attention to who was running for places on the State Democratic Committee. It made little difference who was elected.

Today it is of greater consequence in Alabama perhaps than any other issue at stake.

Senator Hill is not likely to be defeated by Lawrence McNeil, the young man who has come forward to offer him opposition. His patronage position gives him an edge difficult to overcome but he should not be sent back with such a vote as to leave room for the impression that his blind loyalty to "the party" reflects majority sentiment in Alabama unless that indeed is the case.

For the same reason, unless the voter is ready to run back to Mr. Truman, beg forgiveness and accept what he has tried to cram down our throats, then they better make sure that those seeking places on the state committee as believers in states' rights are elected.—Birmingham Post.

Warren Kent, of Siluria, was a visitor in Montevallo last Saturday. He is making plans to inoculate dogs in Shelby County this

YOUR BEST INVESTMENT

Daily we are importuned indirectly and directly by various enterprises to make an investment of one kind or another, in stocks, bonds, small business, insurance, a refrigerator, a home or any one of a number of things.

But this month an appeal is being made to us in this county to invest in something of inestimable value, which is bound to return to us dividends not measurable in dollars and cents.

It is an investment in the health, happiness and future independence of the crippled children and adults of our county.

It is an investment to be made in the form of a contribution to the annual Easter Seal Drive for funds for the Shelby County Chapter. These funds are used to provide direct services in the form of medical, therapeutic, employment and recreational aid for those who are unable to afford them for themselves.

We have here 290 crippled, many of whom can be ultimately either wholly or partially selfsustaining if they are given proper treatment and guidance. As they become self-sustaining, they are of course automatically removed from the rolls of those dependent upon public or private philanthropy. They become contributors to the life and economic stability of our county.

That is why a contribution to the Easter Seal Drive—and your personal use of Easter Seals-is the best possible investment you can make.

It is an investment in a human

Red Cross Will Help Former Prisoner of Wars and Internees

Former prisoners-of-war and civilian internees may now be represented before the War Claims Commission in Washington, D.C., by the American Red Cross. The ex-prisoners and internees are filing claims to receive compensation for lack of adequate food during their imprisonment by the enemy and are to be paid benefits from war reparation funds.

According to information received today from Southeastern Area Headquarters of The Red Cross, Atlanta, by Roy Downs, Chairman of the Shelby County Chapter, those eligible to file the claims may designate the Red Cross as their official representative.

A Red Cross Field director of the Veterans Claim Liaison Service will be assigned to act as the representative before the Commission. Mr. Downs said "This representative will first check the personally present and prosecute the claim before the Commission, when such action is indicated."

Mr. Downs pointed out that any person eligable to file a claim may designate the Red Cross as his representative by contacting the Home Service Department of the Shelby County Chapter.

"The Red Cross Chapter already has been assisting these former prisoners and internees with the filing of their applications", Mr. Downs said, "and we are glad the Red Cross can be of further assistance to them by actually presenting their claims before the Commission."

We will meet at Mrs. Garrett's, then we will go to the college campus to fly our kites. Our mothers and fathers are invited to come and watch us. Afttr w had refreshments, we closed our meeting with the Grand Howl.

Census Takers To Count Babies

All babies born during the first three months of 1950 will be enumerated on two different forms when the Census of Population is conducted in April. They will be counted only once in the population however.

The special listing of all infants under three months of age as of the April 1 Census date is explained by Suervisor L. C. Warr in charge of the Clanton district Office of the Bureau of the Census, Department of Commerce. In the first instance, information about the infant will be included in the regular Population Census questionaire for the conventional count. Secondly, information about the infant and its parents will be recorded on a special "Infant Card" for use in checking birth registration records with the object of determining the accuracy application for accuracy, then will of birth registration totals. As a by-product, the double listing will assure the inclusion to a greater degree of accuracy of new-born babies in the Census.

FFA BOYS

A group of Montevallo F.F.A. boys exhibited live stock in the show at Montgomery this week. Joe McGaughy, Jack McGaughy, Grady Houlditch and Edgar Joe Clark sold their calbes and received $792.82 for the four.

League Standing

Montevallo Lumber Co. 19 9 679 18 10 643 Plaza Grill Coca-Cola 9 15 375 10 18 357 Siluria

Montevallo Lumber maintained their slim lead by downing a fighting Siluria team by a three game to one, margin and only 17 pins. Fisher was the star in the last game with high scores of 175 and 164. He was ably assisted by Frost, Scott, and Lovelady who were slightly off their usual good form. Braswell, Blewster and Rich bowled well but were not quite strong enough for the lumbermen.

L. Comer led the Plaza Grill keglers to a 4 to 0 victory over Coca-Cola although each game was closer than the score indicated. Rochester. Holloman and Cunningham came up with some timely kegling to insure victory. R Thrasher, Vernon and Franklin did fair for Coca-Cola but could not get the few points necessary to change the verdict.

Next Tuesday night pits the two front runners in a head-on clash and the victor will be on the top ring. The second match will feature Siluria against Coca-Cola, both fighting to get near the leaders.

League Big Six: Frost 160, Braswell 154, Franklin 149, Rotenberry 148, Blewster 146. and Holloman 145.

Survey Starts On Jemison Cut-Off

Mr. C. B. Cox, of the state Highway Department, came to Montevallo Tuesday and brought with him a crew of state engineers to begin surveying and location for a new section of paved highway along what is known as the Montevallo-Jemison Cut-Off.

The proposed road will extend from Highway 25 at Holloway Hill, Montevallo, to intersect the old Birmingham paved highway at Willie Shaw's place, otherwise known as Mt. Moriah, in Chilton County.

The distance is six miles, with two miles of the road in Shelby County and four miles in Chilton County.

Mr. Cox stated that the project is set up as a part of Alabama's Federal secondary highway system, and will be constructed as a state and federal project.

He said the engineers and locating crew will be stationed in Montevallo for several days while they carry on this work.

University Band Here April 5

On next Wednesday night, April 5, the University of Alabama Million Dollar Band, under the direction of Col. Carleton K. Butler, will again appear in its annual concert in Montevallo.

Many people in this vicinity look forward to the apearance of this famous organization. This year's concert should surpass any previous program.

Numbers will include marches, overtures, a trombone solo, trumpet quartet, and selections from the most recent music for concert bands. Under the direction of Col. Butler such a program is sure to be of much interest and educational value, as well as provide an evening of fine entertainment.

This concert is the next project in the drive for funds to complete payment on our high school band uniforms shown for the first time in last Tuesday's concert.

The University Band concert will be held in Palmer Hall at 8:00 p.m. on Wednesday, April 5. Admission will be 30 cents for students and 50 cents for adults, tax included.

Members of the Montevallo High School Band will sell tickets, or they may be purchased at the box office. At these prices we should fill the house. Your presence will be much appreciated.

Edward O'Neal Supports Henderson

Miller's Ferry, Ala. - Edward A. O'neal of Florence, dean of American farm leaders, came forward this week with all-out support for Senator Bruce Henderson for governor and scheduled a statewide radio speech for April 3 in behalf of the Wilcox County farmer-candidate.

O'Neal, who served for many years as president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, will make his April 3 speech from Florence, beginning at 7:30 p.m. While endorsing Henderson's all-around qualifications for governor, O'Neal will direct his address particularly to Alabama farmers.

"The farmer's greatest friend in this campaign is Bruce Henderson," said the veteran agricultural leader, who himself has sponsored much of the present federal farm legislation.

Senator Henderson, only candidate for governor whose primary business is agriculture, operates a large farm in Wilcox County where the Henderson family has planted crops for 84 consecutive seasons.

As a three-time member of the State Senate, Henderson has authorized or co-authored such important farm legislation as the tractor gas refund law, the farm fish pond bill, the farm-to-market road law, the coliseum and agricultural center board law, and laws establishing the Lower Coastal Plain Sub-Station and a program for artificial insemination of live-

HENDERSON IS THE MAN FOR GOVERNOR

The Times is for Bruce Henderson for the next Governor of Alabama.

Yes, we are sick of shoddy government. We are tired of political promises and tricksters.

We are disgusted with spoils politics, government by crony, and favoritism to a few leeches at the expense of all the rest of us.

We are weary of waste, extravagance, incompetence and corrup-

We are fed up with Folsomism and Trumanism. These and their many other kindred isms must be turned back in Alabama before they bring us to disaster.

It is, therefore, our honest opinion that Senator Bruce Henderson guarantees to Alabama the sure and safe and sound government.

The record shows that Bruce Henderson can and will do the job.

Termite Specialist Here This Week

The Orkin Exterminating Co. of Birmingham, announces that their representative, Mr. Bracewell, will be at the St. George Hotel in Montevallo Friday and Saturday of this week.

Mr. Bracewell is a termite engineer and will be available to property owners for consultation and property inspection without cost or obligation whatsoever.

Home owners of Montevallo should take advantage of this opportunity to have inspection made and find out if you have termites. Those things can eat you out of house and home before you know it and it will pay you in the long run to keep up with them. It requires the knowledge of an expert to properly check up on them.

Some weeks ago we ran an Orkin advertisement saying a representative would be here; but due to a mix-up in dates, the man did not come. We have it straight this time, and Mr. Bracewell will be here Friday and Saturday.

Orkin is the best company we know in the exterminating business. We have seen and used their services and have found them fully capable, thouroughly equipped, and able to get rid of termites.

Two Vacancies In Welfare Office

Mrs. Freddie Paul Wilson, Acting Director of the Shelby County Department of Public Welfare, announces that there is a vacancy in the position of Case Worker in the Shelby County Welfare office. To be approved for this position a person must have graduated from an accredited college or university. This position is under the regulations of the State Merit System. The duties of a Case Worker consists of taking applications and interviewing persons both in the office and in their homes to determine eligibility and need for public assistance and service.

In his right presidential elector an absolute hand he bears awful edicts of excommunication if we do not bend nominee even if he is the devil the knee. In his left he carries. soothing, sleep-provoking handouts. He has prospered at the king's court and would keep his perquisites. But we, the Democrats of Alabama, find it hard to pay the bill. We are bitter. We are insubordinate. We don't want socialism and we don't want the South killed. Not even for the royal star and garter they let our Lister wear.

Gigantic in his imperial paraphernalia, Senator Hill sends word ahead that Gessner McCorvey is afraid. It is natural for a giant to think that. But Gessner doesn't act very scared. Neither does little Larrie McNeil, the David who faces this great governmental Goliath. Neither do we-the-Democrats-of-Alabama.

From the bitter experience Tom Heflin warns against bolting the Democratic Party. The News-Age-Herald, in sudden love of his virtue and wisdom, cites him as a seer. But there are hundreds of short route to the return of sane, differences between the 1928 bolt and the 1950 declaration of independence. There was no socialism in 1928, nor any South-killing. And Tom Heflin left the Democratic Party as no one is proposing to do now. What is proposed is simply to be free to repeat if necessary what was done in 1948, not leave the Democratic Party but. leave WITH the Democratic Party of Alabama:

> And the issues of 1928-religion, prohibition, race and religional nate, were as dubious as the ones of 1950 are greatly American.

Who would have thought to have The News-Age-Herald extolling Tom Heflin?

Damning itself once more with its own word. The News-Age-Herald says it is "demagogy" to warn that we will be bound to the presidential nominees of the Truman crowd if we elect a state committee of which those papers monstrously call "loyalists". The idea is that we'll still be free to vote against the Truman crowd in the general election. Hasn't The News-Age-Herald heard that Judge Waites Waring has decided that Democratic primaries determine general election results in the South? The very reason of this battle for ownership of the name "Democrat" in the South is that it is still the winning name.

Nothing is more certain, and the News-Age-Herald tacitly admits it, than that the Trumanites, if

Statement from John M. Lowe, Candidate For Board of Revenue in the Fourth District

To the Voters of Shelby County:

In my visits throughout the county I have found that some of you have been told that I stand for keeping the new system of operating the Board of Revenue.

I wish to make it clearly understood with the people of the county that I am not advocating any particular system or law for operating the board of Revenue.

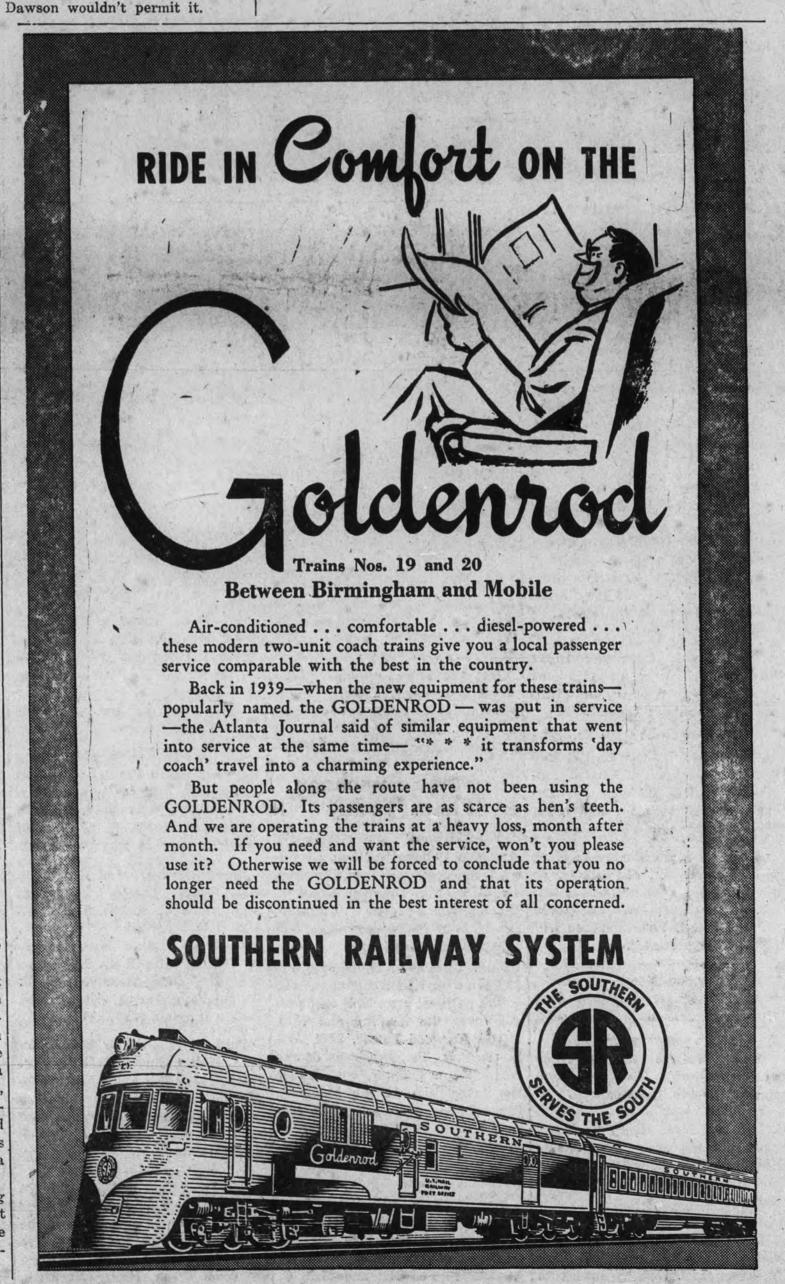

I believe that the people of Shelby County should have the right to say what kind of system they want to have for operating our county business.

I ask to be elected as your board member in the fourth district with the promise that I will serve you to the best of my ability as such a Bord Member, regardless of what law or system you wish to have for running the county business.

Respectfully yours,

Social Security Benefits Explained

"Can I go back to work after I retire and start drawing benefits?" That is one of the most common questions asked in Social Security offices. The answer is "Yes, but---."

"But" requires some explanation. If a retired worker goes back on a job covered by the program, his benefits must be suspended for any month in which he earns more than $14.99. If he takes such a job he must notify the Social Security Administration so that his check will be stopped. By the way, there is a penalty for using benefit checks to which one is not

Benefits begin again when the worker leaves the job and notifies the Social Security Administra-

A beneficiary may work on a job not covered by the Social Security Act or run a business of his own and continue to receive his insurance benefits, no matter how much he may earn. He can check with his Social Security office to learn which jobs are not covered.

A worker who has reached 65 may add to his wage credits through continued employment in jobs covered by Social Security. Moreover, he can be certain that his benefit rate will not be lowered by decreased wages or periods of unemployment. Of course, if a person works beyond his 65th birthday, he continues to pay social security taxes, and he receives additional credit on his wage record.

The rules named above regarding stoppage of benefit checks apply to wives of retired workers, if the wives are receiving benefits. They also apply to widows and minor children who are receiving monthly benefits. As an example, if a widow and two minor children are receiving monthly payments based upon the death of the husband and father, then the widow's payments would be suspended if she works in covered employment; the stopping of her checks, however, would not affect the children's payments.

A representative from that office will be in Calera at the Employment Office each Thursday at ten o'clock a.m.

Home Ec Girls Make Clothing

Members of the Home Economics II Clothing Class have just completed their first problem, that of making children's clothes. Despite the many difficulties, ripping and re-sewing, they are proud of their little dresses and boy's suits. They have reason to be, too, for they have made attractive little garments.

It is interesting to note the outcome when the same pattern is used with a variety of materials. Wanda Robinson and Carol Byrd have made an interesting example of this. Wanda's dress is a pretty little lavender bias plaid cotton with rick rack and buttons as its trimming. Carol's dress is made of red and white stripped cotton using part of the strips going crosswise and part lengthwise. Another example is Clara Smith's and Mary Sue Hayes' dresses for year old children. Clara used one sack for her dress, the total cost being only 30 cents. Yet she has a pretty little blue floral cotton which is quite nice. For their three year old brothers, Betty Cupp and Helen Stone have made summer suits, using the same pattern. Betty made blue boxer shorts with a blue floral cotton shirt. The shirt is made of two flour sacks and though the suit is inexpensive it is very attractive. Helen also made blue boxer shorts but the shirt is white pique. Geraldine Lucas and Doris Lemly made suits for Geraldine's three year old brother, the former being blue pique and the latter white pique. Betty McDaniel has made a nice little pink cotton dress of sacks too, which cost only 20 cents. Last of all but not least in its attractiveness is Estelle Lucas' lavender cotton with a white pique collar. I'm sure some little girl will enjoy it.

These small garments are now on display at the Ben Franklin Store.

Authorities agree that at least 45 general hospital beds per 1,000 population are required to meet the health needs of the country. There were only 3.5 beds per 1,000 civilian population in the United States in 1943, and not many more today. These beds tend to be concentrated in areas which have wealth and large population.

Home Ec Students Show Displays At Local Stores

During the past week windows of the Alabama Power Co., Jeter Mercantile Co., Hicks Store, and Whaley Furniture Co., were showing attractive displays set up by the Montevallo High School Home Economics classes under direction of the student teachers of Alabama College.

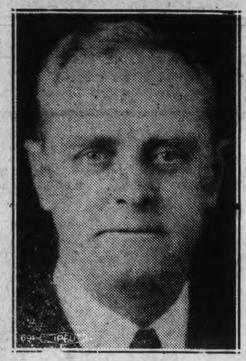

The efforts of the Home Economics II class in housing and the student teachers, Mrs. Ola Mae Sanders and Miss Mary Louise Robinson, were crystallized in the display in the Alabama Power Co. window. There a couch, attractively and sturdily re-upholstered in a conventional, floral designed tapestry, was flanked by two electric lamps devised from vases and by pieces of hemstitched and frayed table linens. In front of the couch lay a burlap rug made by Barbara Taft. The scene was completed by a woodsy floral arrangement of crab apple blossoms. The display suggested that energetic and careful work can transfer unsightly furniture and apparently useless objects into pieces admirable for their beauty and usefulness.

In Jeter's window was found "Garden Hints for Spring," arranged by the Home Economics III foods class and by Misses Virginia Barrett and Lois Campbell Everyone agrees about the usefulness of food, and no one can deny that vegetables could be grown to help reduce grocery bills and to feed the family better. The first essential of a well-planned garden is to select good seeds; and, since an attractive floral arrangement is an asset to any home, it is natural that flower seeds complete the theme. These seed packets and the many garden tools made a realistic background indicative of the work that lies behind the food and flowers on the table.

The charming little frocks that decorated the window of Hicks store should make any mother take a second glance. Patience, work, and skill have turned out cotton clothing for lucky two to four year olds. The girls in the Home Economics II clothing class and Misses Melba Mims and Eloise Montz arranged the products of their sewing class which were mounted with the patterns and sewing equipment.

In a window of Whaley Furniture Co., the Home Economics I foods class, with their student teachers, Mrs. Jane LeCroy and Miss Frances Stewart, set two tables in anticipation of food. The formal dinner table was set with sparkling crystal, attractive china, and beautiful, mixed floral centerpiece. The inviting breakfast table across from it was set with Luray china and a cherry floral centerpiece. "Come on in," they mutely said, "we're waiting for you." And our wish was to go

Easter Seal Sale Ends Sunday

"Easter Seals help crippled children walk, play and learn, in other words, they help handicapped youngsters fit into the normal scheme of life," Roy Downs, Chairman of the Shelby County Chapter, declared today in urging community participation in the 1950 Easter Seal Drive which comes to its conclusion Easter Sunday, April 9.

The Easter Seal itself, Mr. Downs pointed out, symbolizes the work done by the 2,000 Easter Seal Societies affiliated with the National Society for Crippled ents acting as middle-men between Children and Adults.

boy tossing his crutches aside and able men willing to unlertake the taking his first steps forward in hope and confidence, is the essence of the work done by the local society as well as the others of the national federation in offering medical, educational, rehabilitation, employment and recreational services to the handicapped, he said.

To emphasize the national scope of the Easter Seal drive, Mr. Downs declared that last year Easter Seals went into 23 million homes during the 1949 campaign.

"The more seals used in our county, the more services we can finance for our crippled neighbors," Mr. Downs said. "We have seen the public's confidence in our work year after year, as it is expressed in support of the Easter Seal Drive. It is our hope that the confidence will be even greater in this year's campaign and permit us to not merely maintain our present services but to add new ones."

Henderson Says Clean Up Mess Made By The ABC

Miller's Ferry, Ala .- A stepped-up program of temperance education would be one of his goals as governor, and "the use of intoxicating liquor in the governor's mansion and the governor's office will be discontinued," Senator Bruce Henderson told audiences this week in carrying on his gubernatorial campaign.

The Wilcox County lawmaker was author of the 1947 act which introduced a program of temperance education in the public schools. He wants to give that program a real shove, he said.

Senator Henderson's bid for the governorship was given strong endorsement during the week by Donald Comer, industrial and civic leader and son of the late Governor B. B. Comer. In praising Henderson's "fitness and preparedness for running the state's affairs," Comer pointed to his "fine record of past performances," and offered to serve on the statewide Henderson campaign committee.

Discussing the Alabama Beverage Control system, Senator Henderson said he would "spare no effort to root corruption out of the ABC."

WAITING FOR THE DOCTOR

At the meeting of the New Hope 4-H Club on March 31, twelve boys and girls presented the playlet, "Waiting For The Doctor". The setting was in the waiting room at a doctor's office.

The conversation of the patients waiting for the doctor was quite interesting. A man whose foot had six broken bones came to see the doctor. He stated that "a big, fat lady" stepped on his foot. another patient with his head tied up stated that he had an abcessed ear. His hearing was affected so when he was asked a question he would say, "What say?" in a very loud voice. Another brought her little girl to see the doctor. The child was afraid of doctors and kept begging to leave.

One patient was especially anxious to find "what ails" each person who visited the doctor. She stated that she caught every disease that was "catching."

The following boys and girls were characters in this playlet: Sylvia Amerine, Mary Katherine DeShazo, Kenneth Raybon, Shelby Dawkins, Billie Brackin, Freddie Jean Bishop, James Gulledge, Jerrell Dean Wideman, Lloyd Gulledge, Jackie Martin, Harriet Hurst, Sherrell Baily.

To The Citizens Of The Sixth District

I am deeply grateful for the privilege and honor of representing the Sixth Congressional District of Alabama in Congress and hope that you have been pleased with my services and will return me to Washington as your Representative for another term.

I have conscientiously endeavored to devote my full time to my job and to give you the very best possible representation and will continue to do so.

It will be impossible for me to visit the District until the Easter recess the first part of April. I have been devoting much time to the Cotton Bill and other important legislation.

I am running my own race for re-election and will certainly not interfere or campaign for any other person or group of people.

Candidate for Board of Revenue and Control in the Second District

The people of Shelby County want something. I have it. You can get it without additional cost. I offer in exchange for your vote the following: ACTIVE CONSTRUCTIVE AND EFFICIENT SERVICE.

Given the unqualified support and cooperation of the voters of the County and barring calamities including war, and with the continued blessings of Providence and the continued and uninterrupted flow of revenue at the present level, I without further reservation, advisedly and unequivocally promise, with the cooperation of a working majority of the Board members:

That a system of roads, both public and private, second to none in any rural county in Alabama, will be constructed and provisions made for maintenance of same. This to be done within a period of five years from my induction into of-

That adequate janitor service will be provided for the courthouse and grounds, with special reference to the "powder rooms".

That changes will be made in the jury room to include more closets, mirrors, clothes hangers, ample ventilation and lighting facilities.

That other responsibilities within the province of the Board of Revenue will get consideration and action when and where needed.

All of these necessities and conveniences and services we could and should have had years ago.

In proof of my qualifications and integrity, I offer for your consideration, my untarnished record of public service extending over a period of 35 years. Scrutinize it, with a glass if you like. I have but few regrets and no apologies for any official action.

If you, the voters of the County, want this type of service, show your good faith on election day and I will demonstrate mine with results, noticeable within 30 days after assuming duties of office.

All of these services can be had by marking a cross in front of the name of R. L. Holcomb on the ballot May 2nd, and the continuance of his good health in mind and in body.

READY TO BE COUNTED

The Montgomery Advertiser says editorially that it is well that "Senators Hill and Sparkman will be returning to play their commanding parts in the struggle between the Dixiecrats and Democrats."

"Commanding parts!"

Repulsive as it is, that is the true name for it according to Hill and Sparkman. They arrogantly assume that they are the commanders of the people of Alabama when they should be trying to fill the place of servants of the people of Alabama. They were elected to the Senate of the United States for servants and not commanders.

Their commanding attitude further marks them for what they are - proselytes to the Truman party and the subsidized tools of Trumanism.

Any who choose to let Hill and Sparkman "command" them to get in and stay in the Truman camp can do so. We have a feeling, however, that there are yet many people in Alabama who are not ready to bend the knee.

Hill and Sparkman are coming back to Alabama as the emissaries of Truman with the "command" to crush the free people of this state and bind them to support Truman for President in 1952. That is what we believe about their "commanding parts' in the struggle between Dixiecrats and Democrats.

The people of Alabama can remain free by electing a Dixiecrat State Executive Committee, or they can go into bondage for Truman by following the "command" of Hill and Sparkman. Your vote on May 2 will be your choice of freedom or bondage.

We are ready to stand up and be counted, Listerine!

ease of dogs and related animals. The virus attacks the brain and produces insanity and paralysis. Man and all warm blooded animals are susceptible to the disease. Rabies is one of the few diseases that is always fatal once it develops.

Rabies in dogs is usually classified as, "furious", or "dumb", depending upon the symptoms shown by the animal. The virus is not present in the saliva until the early symptoms of Rabies appear.

Furious Rabies: During the early stages of the disease the dog may appear quite normal and be even more friendly and affectionate than usual. Despite its friendly actions the dog will be easily irritated, especially if restrained in any way. If picked up it will immediately try to get away and if not promptly freed will bite savagely. This is usually the way children are bitten because they will pick up the friendly looking dog and try to hold him when he attempts to get away. Other symptoms are restlesness and excitement. The dog will seldom be still but for a moment, and will snap at flies and chase chickens, cats and domestic animals. There is also a tendency to eat sticks, straw, and dirt and other indigestible materials. After a period of one to three days the dog may become extremely vicious and bite any living thing that gets in its way. The eyes are glazed and constantly wide open, and often there is weakness of the voice resulting in a pecular bowllike bark. During this stage the Rabies is a natural virus dis-| mal it sees. Within a few days paralysis will develop, firs shown by paralysis of the jaw. Paralysis then extends until the animal cannot get up. This is the course of the typical "furious" form of rabies. Dogs with this type of the disease frequently live several days and may live as long as ten days after developing the symptoms.

> Dumb Rabies: In this type of the disease the early symptoms consist of sleepiness and melancholia, and the dog will try to hide or get away by itself. These symptoms are soon followed by paralysis of the jaw, throat, voice and leg muscles. There is no ir ritability or tendency to bite but persons may be exposed to rabies by trying to look at the throat or give medicine. Animals so affected seldom live more than three days after developing the symp-

Dogs and other warm blooded animals suffering from rabies are without fear. #### Man Is Starving Slowly As Hiccuping Unchecked

GLENDALE, CALIF. - Jack O'Leary, 24, hiccuping for the past 18 months, is slowly starving to death.

"It seems to be a race between starvation and the hiccups," said his mother, Mrs. Margaret O'Leary. "We're praying and hoping that something can be done, that somehow we can save Jack."

Jack's weight dropped from 120 pounds to 80 since he first started hiccuping after he suffered a burst appendix and peritonitis. Doctors said then that the infection affected nerves and muscles controlling his diaphragm, bringing on the hiccups.

His stomach retains food only for five minutes.

Veteran Farmer Is Going Into Poultry Business

With cotton acreage cut, Alton Leon Powell, Shelby County veteran farm trainee, is adding a flock of laying hens to help supplement the loss of cash income caused by this acreage reduction.

Chickens have been a profitable side line in Leon's farm program for a number of years. All during his training program he has had a good sized farm flock, but this year he has gone into the chicken business on somewhat a larger scale. He has built a new 20 ft. by 60 ft. poultry house with a temporary partition to use as a brooding house. His house has a clay floor, concrete block foundation dressed weather board siding, and aluminum roof. He has painted the building with an oil base white creosote paint. Actual cost of materials were slightly under $300. He swapped a half day's tractor plowing for the only outside labor used. He and his grandfather did most of the work. He plans to add 40 feet of length to this house or build a separate laying house by fall of this year. On March 8 Leon started 607 day old sexed pullets. If successful with this flock, he plans to increase his flock to 1,000 or possibly 2,000 layers next year. He believes that proper management and watching for small details in the poultry business is the secret to success in making poultry enterprise pay. Leon is cooperating with the Marshall Durbin Company in the poultry enterprise that is being introduced into Shelby County.

Next month Leon will have completed his four years of eligible training which has been offered him through veteran's benefits. During these four years he has practiced soil building and conservation practices. He has terraced all but five acres of his 45 cultivated acres, established 4 acres of sericea lespedeza, added 34 tons of agricultural lime and 6 tons of basic slag to his land and established 7 acres of permanent pasture according to recommended practices. Each year Leon has had a winter cover crop on his land. He believes that much of a farmer's success lies in an adequate feed program for his live stock and poultry and he has maintainmeeting. # Telephone Wages Are Way Ahead of the Cost of Living

Eight General Increases in the Last Ten Years Have Boosted Wage Rates 117% While Living Costs Have Increased About 73%. Any Further Increased in Wages Would Have to be Paid by Telephone Customers

Telephone employees, like everyone else, have faced a steep increase in the cost of living during the last ten years. What about telephone wages—have they kept up?

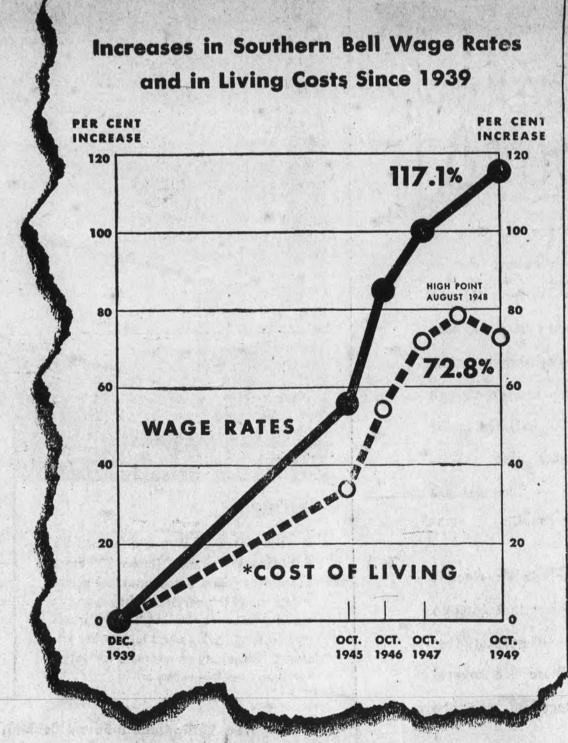

As the chart clearly shows, telephone wages have more than kept pace—leaving a substantial margin in our employees' favor. Telephone wage rates have been increased 117 per cent since 1939 compared with an increase of about 73 per cent in the cost of living for Southern cities.

Southern Bell employees have received eight general wage increases in the last ten years. In addition, they regularly receive automatic "progression" raises according to a schedule which begins the day they start work and continues with frequent increases until they reach top pay for their respective jobs.

During the next twelve months, 3 out of 4 Southern Bell employees will receive at least one such automatic increase. Many will get two and three.

Today, as always, Southern Bell people receive wages which compare favorably with those paid by other concerns in the community for comparable skills and experience. Can you think of any yardstick fairer than that?

Add to good wages the assurance of yearround employment, liberal sickness, accident and death benefits, and a pension plan that is among the best in all industry, and you can readily see that telephone employees are doing all right.

HOME ECONOMICS GIRLS
MAKE OWN EASTER DRESSES

The members of the Clothing II class of Montevallo High School will truly be "the fairest ladies in the Easter parade" in frocks of their own creation. These girls have made cotton and rayon dresses from commercial patterns that would make any seamstress beam with pride.

Clara Smith and Mary Sue Hayes will be wearing identical dresses of light blue pique, featuring a gathered band around the low, round neck, puffed sleeves, and a four-gored skirt. Betty McDaniel used the same material in a pattern with scalloped bertha and repeated scallops in the panel around the bottom of the gathered skirt.

Although Estelle Lucas and Betty Cupp have used the same semi-tailored pattern, they have achieved individuality by the use of different material. Estelle's is of royal blue rayon and cotton gabardine, and Betty chose aqua pique.

Helen Stone completed the pique line with her pastel green, fashioned with fitted bodice and the sweetheart neckline.

The parade will be brightened by Wanda Robinson's and Carol Byrd's yellow dresses. Carol's maize cotton broadcloth is a mass of fullness, featuring a round neckline, gathered bodice and skirt. Wanda's canary yellow novelty spun rayon gives the impression of uncluttered simplicity with its plain bodice round neckline and four-gored skirt with pockets.

Geraldine Lucas and Doris Lemley will add a note of variety to the crowd with their skirts and blouses. Both girls' blouses are made of white batiste with a single deep horizontal tuck across the front, high round neckline and short kimono sleeves. Doris' skirt of royal blue rayon and cotton gabardine is fitted with side patch pockets. Geraldine's dirndal with large patch pockets is of printed cotton broadcloth.

With this gay array as a part this year's Easter parade promises to be an experience to remember.

Pal Tries to Aid Escape; Saws Hid in Peanut Butter

COVINGTON, KY.—Stanley Flannery wasn't satisfied with being released from the Covington jail. He returned five hours later to gain a friend's release—with a jar of peanut butter.

Flannery, 25, who has no known address, and was being held on a breach of peace warrant, was released from jail and instructed to leave the county, police said.

Instead, he returned later with a bag of goodies for James Sturgeon, Kenton county, held under $10,000 bond on charges of breaking and entering, and possessing a stolen automobile.

James Fox, turnkey, became suspicious and, inspecting the parcel of food, found a number of hacksaw blades, which had been broken in two, inside a jar of peanut butter.

Flannery walked from the jail after delivering his package.

Siluria Observes Club Sunday

National 4-H club Sunday was observed at the Siluria Methodist Church, March 12, at 11:00 o'clock under the supervision of Mrs. Sparks, Teacher Sponsor of Junior High Girls 4-H club.

The church was decorated with white gladiolus and greenery.

4-H boys and girls acted as ushers and took the morning offering.

All club members sat in a reserved section marked with green and white crepe paper.

The club emblem, colors, and creed were explained by Ann Davenport. Emily Mitchell led the club pledge, and the congregation joined with the club in singing "Take My Life and Let It Be".

The Junior and Senior High 4-H Clubs of Thompson High School observed National 4-H Club Week in the following ways: Articles made by members were exhibited in a store window at Alabaster;

one day during the week all clubs members wore arm bands with a green 4-leaf clover on them with 4-H'ers name and project written in white ink; and on Friday a special chapel program was presented.—Shelby Shelton, Reporter

ORDINANCE NO. 8-B

An Ordinance authorizing and providing for the issuance, sale and delivery of $13,000 principal amount of General Obligation Warrants Montevallo, Alabama Warrants of the Town of

Be it ordained by the Town Council of the Town of Montevallo, Alabama, as

Section 1. The Town Council, upon evidence submitted to and considered by it, does hereby find and determine as fol-

(a) The Town of Montevallo has caused the street and sidewalk improvements authorized to be constructed by Improvement Ordinance No. 3-B, as modified, amended and confirmed by Improvement Ordinance No. 4-B, to be completed at a total cost of $35,325.95;

(b) The Town of Montevallo has caused the costs of such improvement to be assessed against the property abutting said improvements to the total amount of $35,325.95 and more than 30 days have expired since said costs were made

(c) No assessment against the property abutting said improvements is in excess of the increased value of such property by reason of the special benefits derived from such improvements:

(d) No bonds were issued during the progress of the work, but for the purpose of providing funds to pay the cost of said street and sidewalk improvements, the Town of Montevallo borrowed money temporarily on the faith and credit of the Town and did execute its negotiable notes therefor, all of which notes have been paid in full and retired, except for the note now outstanding, payable to Berney Perry & Company, Inc., in the principal sum of $16,000.00, with interest thereon from December 10, 1949, at the rate of 4% per annum, which said note matures and is due and payable April 10, 1950. The Town of Montevallo, Alabama, did pledge to the payment of said note the proceeds of the assessments made and to be made against the property benefitted by the improvements authorized and provided for in Improvement Ordinance No. 3-B, adopted by the Town Council on May 11, 1949, as amended, modified and confirmed by Improvement Ordinance No. 4-B, adopted by the Town Council on May 31, 1949; and the Town did transfer and assign to the holder of said note the lien of the Town of Montevallo on all such property, with power to enforce the same either at law or in eq-uity. No part of the principal of said note has been paid, and on April 10, 1950, there will be due upon said note the sum of $16,213.33 principal and interest. Said note has continuously been and hereby is recognized as the valid, legal and binding obligation of the Town of Montevallo, Alabama, and said note has been duly assigned by Berney Perry & Com-pany, Inc., to, and is now legally owned, held and possessed by Tunstall B. Perry,

(e) Assessments on account of said street and sidewalk improvements, which have been made final and from which no appeal has been taken within the time allowed by law, and which are unpaid, total $13,167.67, (not including assessments against any railroad property, or property owned by the Town of Mon-tevallo, or any Board of Education or County or the State of Alabama);

(f) There is on hand set aside and said note the sum of $3,213.33, being payments made upon such assessments

Section 2. That the Town Council, upon evidence duly submitted to and considered by it, hereby finds and determines that the balance of funds on hand that have been paid to the Town of Montevallo on assessments made against the property benefitted by the improvements authorized by said Improvement Ordinance No. 3-B, as amended, modified and confirmed by said Improvement Ordinance No. 4-B, are insufficient to pay the full amount of said note to Berney Perry & Company, Inc., which will mature and become due on April 10, 1950, and that the Town of Montevallo does not now have and will not have available on April 10, 1950, sufficient funds with which to pay all of the principal and interest which will then be due upon said note, and that it is in the interest of the Town of Montevallo that provision be now made to refund the portion of the indebtedness evidenced by said note which cannot be paid from assessment payments.

Section 3. That the Town of Montevallo shall issue $13,000 aggregate principal amount of its General Obligation Warrants for the purpose of refunding $13, 000 of the principal and interest that will be due on the above described interestbearing promissory note payable to Berney Perry and Company. Inc., assigned to and now owned, held and possessed by Tunstall B. Perry, III. Said General Obligation Warrants shall be dated April 1950 shall bear interest at the rate of 1, 1950, shall bear interest at the rate of three percent (3%) per annum until maturity, payable semi-annually on the 1st day of April and on the 1st day of October in each year, said interest to be evidenced by coupons attached thereto, and shall bear the following numbers and shall mature serially in the following amounts on the first day of April in each

Warrants numbered 6, 8, 10, 12, 14 and 16 shall be in the denomination of $500.00 each and all other warrants shall be in the denomination of $1,000.00 each. Section 4. That all of the said warrants Nos. 1 to 16 shall be redeemable, at the option of the Town of Montevallo, Alabama, in whole or in part, and, if in part, in the inverse order of maturities and identification numbers, latest maturities and highest numbers first, on any interest payment date, at a redemption price equal to the par value or principal amount thereof, plus accrued interest thereon to the redemption date. Notice of the intended redemption of any of the warrants, shall be given by publication not more than 60 days and not less than 30 days prior to the proposed redemption date, at least once in a daily newspaper less default shall be made in the published and of general circulation in ment of the redemption price thereof.

the City of Birmingham, Alabama. Notice of such redemption having been so given and funds for the payment of the redemption price having been set aside and made available for the payment of such redemption price, each of the warrants so called for redemption shall cease to bear interest from and after the date fixed for redemption, unless default shall be made in the payment of the redemption price thereof.

Section 5. That all of said warrants Nos. 1 to 16 shall be payable to Tunstall B. Perry III, and the coupons thereunto attached shall be payable to the respect-ive bearers thereof in lawful money of United States of America. Said warrants and said coupons shall constitute orders to the Town Treasurer of the Town of Montevallo to pay the face amount thereof on the respective maturity and due dates thereof and the Town of Montevallo, Alabama, hereby covenants and agrees to have available adequate funds ture of its Mayor, all as of the first day for such purposes at such times.

Section 6. That all of said General Obligation Warrants Nos. 1 to 16 and the coupons thereunto appertaining and the form of assignment of said warrants shall be in substantially the following

(Form of Warrant)
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
STATE OF ALABAMA SHELBY COUNTY TOWN OF MONTEVALLO GENERAL OBLIGATION WARRANT Due..... 19....

($500.00)THE TOWN OF MONTEVALLO, A mu-nicipal corporation organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Alabama, for value received, hereby acknowledges itself indebted to Tunstall B. Perry, III, or his assignee, in the principal sum of

ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS ($1,000) (FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS ($500) and hereby orders and directs its Town Treasurer to pay to said payee or his assignee said sum on April 1, 19..., in lawful money of the United States of America at the Merchants and Planters Bank, Montevallo, Alabama, and to pay interest on said sum at the rate of three percent (3%) per annum, payable semi-annually, October 1, 1950 and thereafter on the first day of April and October in each year, to the bearers of the coupons therefor hereto attached:

This Warrant is one of a duly authorized issue of General Obligation Warrants of the Town of Montevallo, in the aggregate principal amount of $13,000.00 of like tenor, except as to maturity dates, numbers and denominations, issued for the purpose of refunding a like or greater amount of the principal of and interest on an outstanding interest-bearing note of the Town of Montevallo which was issued by the Town of Montevallo for the purpose of providing funds to pay the cost of street and sidewalk improvements in and for the Town of Monte-vallo, Alabama, the cost of which has been assessed against the property benefitted by said improvements. This and the other warrants of this issue have been issued under and pursuant to the Constitution and laws of the State of Alabama and an ordinance and proceedings of the Town of Montevallo, duly 'held, passed and adopted. The indebted-ness evidenced by this warrant is a gen-eral obligation of the Town of Montevallo and the full faith and credit and taxing power of the Town of Montevallo are sacredly and irrevocably pledged to the payment of the principal hereof and interest hereon. As additional security for the payment of the principal of and interest on this and the other warrants of this issue, the proceeds of the assessments made and to be made against the property benefitted by the improvements authorized and provided for in Improvement Ordinance No. 3-B, adopted by the Town Council on May 11, 1949, as amended, modified and confirmed by Improvement Ordinance No. 4-B, adopted by the Town Council on May 31, 1949, are hereby pledged; and the Town of Montevallo has and does hereby transfer and assign for the benefit of the holders of this and the other warrants of this issue, the lien of the Town of Montevallo, Alabama, on such property, with power to enforce the same either at law or in eq-

This warrant is non-negotiable but is transferable by assignment noted hereon. Each taker, owner, purchaser, or holder hereof, by receiving or accepting this warrant or any interest coupon shall consent and agree and shall be estopped to deny: (1) that the title to the coupons hereunto appertaining may be transferred by delivery without the necessity of a written assignment; (2) that any person in possession of such coupon, regardless of the manner in which he shall have acquired possession, is authorized to represent himself as the absolute owner thereof, and has the power and authority to transfer absolute title thereto by delivery thereof to a bona fide purchaser for value (present or antecedent) without notice of prior defenses or equities claims of ownership enforceable against his transferor or any person in the chain of title and before the maturity thereof; (3) that he has waived and renounced all of his equities or rights therein in favor of every such bona fide purchaser, and that every such bona fide purchaser shall acquire absolute title thereto and to all rights represented thereby; and (4) that the Town of Montevallo may treat any person in possession of this warrant, regardless of how such possession may have been acquired, and regardless of the genuineness or effectiveness of any assignment, or the bearer of any of the coupons hereunto appertaining, as the absolute owner for all purposes and payment to any such person or such bearer shall discharge all obligations hereunder or thereunder.

The warrants of this issue are deemable in whole or in part, and, if in part, in the inverse order of maturities and identification numbers, latest maturities and highest numbers first, at the option of the Town of Montevallo, Alabama, on any interest payment date at a redemption price equal to the par value or principal amount thereof, plus accrued interest thereon to the redemption date, upon notice of such redemption not more than 60 days and not less than 30 days prior to the proposed redemption date by publication in a daily newspaper published and of general circulation in the City of Birmingham, Alabama. If any of said warrants shall have been called for redemption as hereinabove provdied, interest shall cease to accrue from and after the date fixed for redemption, unless default shall be made in the pay-

It is hereby recited, certified and declared that all acts, conditions and things required by the Constitution and Laws of the State of Alabama to happen, exist and be performed precedent to and in the issuance of this warrant, and the adoption of the ordinance authorizing its issuance, have happened, do exist and have been performed as so required and that the principal amount of this warrant, together with all other indebtedness of the Town of Montevallo, are within every debt and other limit prescribed by the Constitution and laws of the State of Alabama.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Town of Montevallo, Alabama, has caused this warrant to be executed in its name and on its behalf by its Mayor and its Town Clerk and its Corporate Seal to be here-unto affixed and attested by its Town Clerk, and the coupons hereunto attached general obligations of the Town of Montevallo, and the full faith and credit and taxing powers of the Town of Montevallo are hereby sacredly and irrevocably pledged to the punctual payment of the principal thereof and interest thereon The Town of Montevallo hereby certifies and represents that ad valorem taxes have been levied and hereby covenants and agrees with the payee and his assignees of the said warrants that ad valorem taxes will be levied and collected annually insofar as such taxes may be permitted by the present or any future provisions of the Constitution of the State of Alabama, sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on said warrants as the same mature and become due and the proceeds of such taxes shall be applied to such purposes.

Section 9. The Town of Montevallo, Alabama, does hereby pledge, as security for such warrants, the proceeds of the assessments made against the property abutting upon and benefitted by the improvements authorized and described in Improvement Ordinance No. 3-B, as modified, amended and confirmed by Improvement Ordinance No. 4-B, and the Town of Montevallo does hereby transfer and assign, for the benefit of the payee or assignee of such warrants, the lien of the Town of Montevallo, Alabama, on the property against which the assessments have been made or shall be made, with power to enforce the same either at law or in equity. Section 10. The Town Treasurer shall be charged with the duty of collecting all assessments made or to be made to pay the cost of the improvements described and provided for in Improvement Ordinance No. 3-B, as modified, amended and confirmed by Improvement Ordinance No. 4-B, and the Town Treasurer shall provide and keep a sinking fund account to which shall be credited all collections made or to be made with respect to such improvements and such sinking fund shall be held by him in trust and be used only for the purpose of paying the principal of and interest on the warrants and the payment of the redemption price thereof. The Town Treasurer shall keep such sinking fund in a trust account in the Merchants & Planters Bank, Monte-vallo, Alabama, which bank is hereby designated for such purpose by the Town

Section 11. That the payee named in the warrants herein authorized and the assignees thereof and the bearers of the interest coupons thereunto appertaining are hereby subrogated to all pledges, assignments, liens, securities, covenants, privileges, rights, powers, remedies and priorities now or hereafter owned or held by Berney Perry & Company, Inc., or its assignee, for the security, enforcement or collection of the above described note; and that the payee named in said warrants and his assignees thereof and the bearers of the interest coupons there-unto appertaining, are and shall be en-titled to exercise and enforce all such pledges, assignments, covenants, privileges, rights, remedies and priorities as effectively as if they were the owners and holders of said note and as if, with respect to the lien upon the property abutting upon and benefitted by said public improvements, they were the Town of Montevallo. Section 12. That the Town of Monte-vallo, Alabama, hereby covenants and

Henderson Warns People Against Dangerous Trend

Miller's Ferry, Ala.-The threat of Negro bloc-voting in Alabama has become a reality, Senator Bruce Henderson warned this week after receiving a questionnaire from the Alabama Progressive Democratic Association headed by Arthur Shores, Negro attorney, of Birmingham.

The questionnaire, submitted to Henderson and the other 14 candidates for governor, asked for the candidates' views on such as recruiting Negroes for the National Guard and appointing Negroes to policy-making agencies, such as the State Board of Education and the Pardon - Parole Board. It also sought to commit the candidates to favoring repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act and to support by Alabama Democrats of the national Democratic Party candidates and plaform.

"I have not replied to Shores, and I do not intend to do so," said Senator Henderson. "But I cite this questionnaire to the people of Alabama as a clear indication that efforts are now well developed to consolidate this group of voters and have them all vote one way. We may expect more and more of this in Alabama as a result of the reckless policy pursued by James E. Folsom in his appointments to boards of registrars.

"The current movement to bring about indiscriminate registration and mass voting under irresponsible leadership has as its ultima purpose the destruction of our segregation principle. The people must decide now whether to elect to high office men who are fully alive to that danger or men who are willing to close their eyes to

Census Takers Get Everybody

So you think you aren't listed in the census?

You say that several censuses have been conducted during your lifetime but you've never seen a

Do you want to lay a small wager that the Bureau of the Census at Washington doesn't have you listed in its records?

The chances are about a thousand to one that you would lose your bet. Of course, there is always a remote chance that an occasional individual is overlooked. If you have been on the American scene for three or four decades, the odds against your having been overlooked in all of these censuses are astronomical.

Believe it or not, some babies miss out on their first census because the parents forget to mention the infant when the census taker stops by. To safeguard this the census bureau has equipped its census takers with a special infant card on which all babies born in the months of January, February or March of this year will be listed. The infant will also be listed on the regular census of population record. Thus double assurance is given that the babies will be counted in the 1950 census. The information given on the infant card also is used for checking of birth registration records to determine how nearly complete birth registration records are. This is important because the census bureau's annual population estimate for the nation and the states are involved.

Likewise, the census taker has difficulty in catching up with the transients, people who are traveling away from home at census taking time. In cases where some members of the family remain at home, the information on the missing ones is obtained. But many people do not maintain a permanent home base, or they live alone and when they are away there is none to provide the census taker with the information. So the census bureau makes special provision for this too.

SILURIA 4-H CLUB NEWS

Jean Scott, 15, member of the Siluria 4-H Club, has improved her bedroom as her club project. She refinished and rearranged her furniture, painted the walls, purchased a new rug, and made tieback ruffled curtains. She painted | Montgomery. the walls green, used green edging on the ruffels of her curtains and the rug has designs of green, tan and brown in it. Jean is a neighboraide, enjoys sports, can plan and prepare meals, and takes an active part in church, school and community activities.

Ruth Naish, 15, has taken for her project this year personal improvement. She is secretary of the Siluria Senior A 4-H Club this year. She has served her club as president and vice president. She has taken sewing three years and made two skirts, one pair of pajamas, two dresses, and entered the dress and skirt revue. She wonthe county skirt revue in 1946. She was junior 4-H Club queen from Siluria last year. Ruth was a neighboraide in her community last year and is serving again this year. Ruth is a member of the Science Club at Thompson and she belongs to M. Y. F. at church and plays the piano at church.

The enumeration of transients has presented a problem of coverage at every census. For this reason the census bureau makes an intensive drive to enumerate in a single evening the occupants of certain places usually devoted to housing transients. In addition to hotels, these will include such places as tourist courts and "Y's". Missions and cheap one-night lodging houses ("flophouses") will also be covered by a similar procedure on another evening. To make assurance doubly sure the census bureau publishes, by or or crewleader.

Lee Amusement Coming Here Week of 24 to 29

The old reliable Lee Amusement Company is coming back to Montevallo for the week of April 24 to 29. Mr. Lee and his advance agents were here Tuesday making preliminary arrangements. They will be here under sponsorship of the local American Legion Post. The show grounds will be in Fancher Field near the viaduct.

Lee Amusement Company is one of the oldest in the business, but their facilities and equipment are new and up-to-date in every respect. Furthermore, Mr. Lee continues to stick to his long-time practice and principle of presenting nothing but clean and wholesome amusement that appeals to every person between the ages of one and a hundred.

President Caldwell Announces Winners Of Scholarships

The 27 top-ranking high school girls from over the state who are winners of Honors Scholarships at Alabama College, have been announced by Dr. John T. Caldwell, president of the college.

Award winners were selected from applicants from Alabama high school seniors who came to the campus at Montevallo March 23, 24 and 25, to compete in examinations based on ability, personality and achievement.

Do You Want Natural Gas In Montevallo?

For several months the Town Council of Montevallo has had before it the proposals of engineers and financiers for the establishment and installation of a natural gas distribution system here.

The negotiations have now reached the stage where the Council must determine the answer to the question: "Are there sufficient users of gas here to warrant the installation of the system?"

In order to answer this question the Council has authorized J. W. Goodwin Engineering Company to conduct a survey for this purpose. The survey will require the signed agreement of customers who want to use natural gas and a deposit of $5. In case the gas system is not installed in a stated time the deposit will be refunded. If it is installed the deposit will be held and applied to the payment of gas

Community Trade And Exchange Day Here April 20

The G. I. On The Farm trainees of Montevallo and the Montevallo F.F.A. chapter are jointly sponsoring a big community trade and exchange day on Thursday, April 20. Over 40 head of whiteface and other cattle will be offered for sale. A herd of 23 registered herefords, mostly heifers and cows will be offered for sale. Twenty head of breeding stock hogs, several high grade poultry and many other items of exchange will be included at the sale. The sale will be held on the lot near the W. J. Bailey Milling Co. lot.

Any person desiring to sell animals or other items is invited to bring them on sale day. Items not sold can be returned. Don Lovelady and Bill Lovelady have helped with plans for this event and offer the lot for use of the sale committee. There is no charge for entering animals and the success of this first sale will largely determine if it is to continue. Buyers are invited to come out and see the first items in the offering.

The G. I. Trainees have given the F.F.A. boys a registered yorkshire boar and he will be sold to the highest bidder and the proceeds will go toward purchasing equipment for the new vocational shop.

Remember the day! Thursday, April 20. 10 o'clock until 2 o'clock.

Got Termites? See Fred Frost

"People who have termite trouble or who wish to be examined for termites do not have to go out of town to get it done," we are reminded by Mr. Fred H. Frost, of Montevallo Lumber Company.

Continuing Mr. Frost says, "We are local representatives for Alabame Terminix Company, the world's largest termite control organization. If you want your property inspected and treated for termites, we can arrange to have it done by licensed operators who are trained in the best and most dependable methods."

MAYLENE 4-H CLUB

Vivian Isbell was selected as first place winner in the Maylene 4-H club skirt revue. Glenda Malone and Betty Lawley tied for the second place, and Lorene Malone was third place winner. Mrs. Marie Lucas, Mrs. Lela Caton and Mrs. Armond Allen acted as the judges.

These four girls entered their attractive skirts in the county revue of April 4.

When You Vote For Governor

The Haleyville Advertiser says:

"One wonders how long it will be until Alabama wakes up and decides to listen to men like Albert Stapp."

The Dadeville Record

"We have never heard a candidate who is more acquainted with the facts and figures of government."

A STATES RIGHT DEMOCRAT

A vote for Stapp is a vote for honesty, economy, efficiency, ability, decency and understanding in our state government.

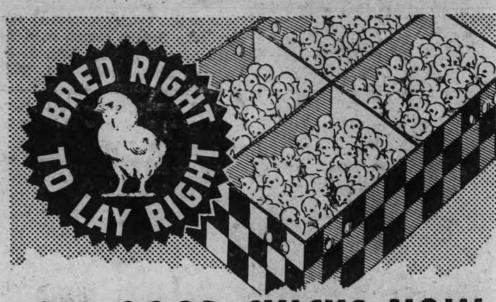

Albert Stapp knows when it's too wet too plow. He lived on a farm down in Pickens County 24 years. Albert Stapp knows that wanton waste and extravagance are sapping the business and industrial life of our state and nation. He is a successful business man . . . Albert Stapp knows that our continual and relentless drive for taxes is not only discouraging the expansion of our present industrial potential, but is driving new concerns into our neighboring states. This means fewer job opportunities for our people, hence less income for the use of our schools, the aged and our highways-less sales tax, gasoline tax, income tax, tobacco tax. Albert knows that nothing but a lack of business leadership caused us to close our books in Montgomery Sept. 30, 1949, with no money on hand and a bonded debt of $46,870,000 on our backs. Twenty years of able, business leadership enabled Mississippi to close her books Dec. 31, 1949, with all bills paid, no outstanding bonded indebtedness, and a cash balance of $42,135,603.

If you are interested in seeing Alabama go forward in a similar manner, your vote and influence for Albert Stapp will be the greatest contribution you can make now toward that goal. Thank you.

Subject to Action of Democratic Primary, May 2, 1950.

YEAGER HORN

Attention of the voters is called to the candidacy of Mr. Yeager Horn, of Columbiana, for a place on the Shelby County Board of Education in the May 2 primary.

Mr. Horn is an able and experienced business man, a sterling citizen, and deserves the support of all who believe that we should have men of the highest ment, sound and mature judgment and foresight to manage our public school business.

Membership on the Board of Education is largely a patriotic and humanitarian service for which there is little remuneration other than the satisfaction that comes to one who sacrifices his own time and ability for the good of our school children.

We regard it as fortunate for our scools to have a man of Mr. Horn's position and ability to offer his services in the capacity of a school board member.

Let's take him up on his offer for this public service to our educational system and give him a big vote of approval on May 2.

A ROSE BY ANY OTHER NAME

We printed an advertisement last week for R. L. Holcombe, of Calera, candidate for member of the Board of Revenue in the second district.

Now comes Mr. Holcombe raising sand because we spelled his name "Holcomb", leaving off the final "E".

"I don't want any part of me left off" said Bob. "I expect to be all there when you elect me to the Board of Revenue. Just give me your support on May 2 and I will show you that progressive ideas and sound business can and will make a big difference in our county affairs."

PLATE SUPPER AT HELENA

There will be a plate supper at Helena School for the benefit of the Methodist Church. All candidates and their families are invited. We are expecting some of the candidates for state offices. The public is invited. Price per plate is 75 cents for adults and 45 cents for children. The date is Tuesday, April 25, at 6:30 p.m.—Mrs. George Hinds.

WESTON, CADET CAPTAIN

Wilbur H. Weston of Montevallo was recently promoted to the rank of cadet captain in the University of Alabama branch of the Air Reserve Training Corps.

As of the present date Weston has received the promotion with no definite assignment of duties.

Lcdr. W. F. Moore, officer in charge, U. S. Navy Recruiting Station, Birmingham, announces that the quota for enlistments in the Navy has increased, and all applicants who qualify may enlist immediately.

Printing Revolution

At first copying of writings meant tedious hand labor. Gutenberg revolutionized the system when he used movable type and the printing press — probably the first well-known mass production machine.

JOHN M. HIGGINS WRITES VOTERS

Dear Friends:

I am a candidate to represent you on the State Democratic Executive Committee. I have not made a very active campaign for this office and it has been impossible for me to see everyone.

I favor a primary election in 1952 which will permit the people to make their choice for presidential electors and convention delegates. Candidates who favor the Truman administration will be free to run and candidates who are opposed to the Truman administration will be free to run and the people will be permitted to choose their presidential electors in the constitutional manner.

If elected I will introduce or support such a measure which will insure the right of the people to make their choice based upon the issues existing in 1952, and I will further work for any measure based upon economy and common sense and the preservation of our right of local self-government.

Sincerely yours,
John M. Higgins

RedsClaim Discovery Of Most Ancient Rugs In Frozen-up Tomb

MOSCOW, USSR.—According to newspaper reports here, Soviet archeologists have found the oldest rugs in the world.

The press reports said the rugs were discovered in the rich tomb of tribal chieftains in the distant Altai. The treasures, it was added, are 2,500 years old.

Further, it was said, one of the two carpets is as fine an example of rug making as the best Persian rugs up to now.

The reports said the rugs, the bodies of the princes and princesses buried in the tomb, and many other interesting objects were in an excellent state of preservation since the tomb was permanently frozen. One of the rugs, the articles said, was of felt and quite large, about 13 by 20 feet.

It depicts a divine being sitting on a throne with a tree in his hands. The second rug is velvet and of extraordinary high quality. Both have many colors. Soviet scientists said they were made in the fifth century before Christ.

Two bodies, one of a man, the other of a woman, found in the tomb are embalmed. On the head of the woman was a tiaralike head-gear.

The tomb itself was luxuriously appointed. The walls were covered with felt cloth on which were pictures of griffins (mythical monsters, half lion and half eagle). In another section was a chariot, a decorated saddle, bridles and saddle cloth. They were made of felt and covered with ornamented cloths with embroidered flowers and birds of paradise.

Earth's Atmosphere Rocks With Wave-Like Disturbance

NEW YORK. — The British naval physical laboratory, Slough, England, has reported that the top of the earth's atmosphere rocks to and fro with a wave-like motion.

The motion is like that of water in the top of a bucket after it has been tilted. There are both waves and ripples. The discovery, it was said, shows that the wave motion can be predicted, and this forecasting promises a new step in radio promises a new step in radio.

It might be used to beam radio long distances, far around the curvature of the earth, and far beyond the limits of radar. Such a beam might aid in steering a guided missile to a transocean target.

Wispy Fleece, Seen on Rivers, Really Is Steam

MILWAUKEE, WIS.—That Wispy fleece seen on rivers and which looks like real steam—is real steam, according to a physics teacher.

Mothers who tell their children, when asked, that what they see is not steam, are all wrong, according to this teacher.

There's an explanation for this phenomenon says Manfred Olson, head of the physics department at Milwaukee State Teachers college. In fact, there are two of them—one for any body of water that steams in cold weather, and a special, additional one for the Milwaukee river.

"It's simply because cold air can't hold as much water as warm air," Olson says. "So the water that evaporates from the river condenses in tiny droplets on specks of dust in the air. That's the steam you see coming off the river."

Just how much water vapor can be carried in the air at certain temperatures is shown in a chart called the vapor pressure table. At 32 degrees, which is freezing temperature, water vapor pressure does not quite reach a pound per square inch.

Pressure Goes Up

At 212 degrees, which is the boiling point of water, the pressure goes up to 15 pounds per square inch. At zero temperature, the air can hold only one-sixth the amount of water it holds at 32 degrees.

When a body of still water, such as a pond, starts freezing, here's what happens.

The top layer of water gets cold first. But as water gets colder, it also gets heavier, up to a certain point. That point is 39.2 degrees. When the top layer of water reaches that temperature, it sinks to the bottom of the pond and the next highest layer goes to the top. That, too, reaches 39.2

degrees eventually and sinks.

When the whole pond reaches 39.2 degrees, the top layer then freezes up. The top layer of water stays on top because water gets lighter as its temperature goes down below 39.2 degrees. And that's why water freezes from the top down instead of the bottom up.

Special Reason

Now, the special reason for steam on the Milwaukee river. It is the relatively hot water that pours into the river from the Commerce St. plant of the electric company.

According to company engineers, the plant takes in an average of 100,000 gallons of water from the river every minute of the day. This water is used to condense steam in the power plant, and then is discharged back into the river through a conduit about nine feet in diameter. The used water temperature is about 60 degrees, which is at least 20 degrees higher than the regular river water tempera-

British to Test Endurance Of Sailors in Cold Weather

LONDON.—The British admiralty plans to set a group of sailors afloat for three to five days in small life rafts in Arctic gales to test ability of men to survive in wintry seas.

Six to 10 men were to set out in new type naval life floats during an Arctic gale with air temperatures of 14 to five degrees.

Wearing survivors' suits, the men will be exposed twice to the below-freezing weather for periods of from three to five days. They will be given two sets of rations—one a complete, 3,000 calory diet; the other a minimum of 1,500 calories, including toffee, dehydrated fruit block, biscuits and condensed sweet milk.

Each man will be given about one pint of water daily, but the admiralty hadn't decided whether the water would be carried in tins, or converted from sea water.

DR. H. F. WHEAT Candidate for Congressman in the Sixth District

The State's function is to satisfy as near as possible the common good of all mankind; in other words, the State should do for man what man can not do for himself. When in Congress I will work toward this end.

I will support legislation for the welfare of all men without curbing personal liberty as much as is possible.

Individual initiative and freedom of thought must not be constrained by authority, in order for America to grow and develop and to progress in the future.

4-H Sunday At Mayberry Church

An entire church service at the Mayberry Baptist church was devoted to 4-H Sunday. Mrs. J. B. Fancher, Mrs. Lanelle Hill, Mrs. Cleve Allen and Mrs. Hester Lawley, 4-H leaders, worked with Rev. Klinner, pastor, and the 4-H'ers in developing the program.

Mrs. Hill gave the purpose of 4-H Sunday; Patricia Allen repeated the 4-H motto and all the 4-H'ers joined in giving the club pledge. Sue Pickett gave the meaning of the 4-H's. The 4-H creed was given by Jimmy Ray Harris, Johnny Daley, Edwin Fancher, Ronald Smitherman, Kenny Harrell, Gordon Pickett, Willie Ray Hyde and Harold Gentry.

Joy Lovelady, Jane Lawley and Rue Lane Peters sang. Douglas Morris presented the Country Boy's Creed. Lily Pons Daviston and Wayne Phillips told briefly "What 4-H Has Meant to Me." Annette Pickett offered a prayer and Rue Lane Peters told the meaning of prayer.

"Better Living for a Better World", the 4-H slogan, was the subject of the Rev. Klinner's sermon.

BRUCE HENDERSON for GOVERNOR "The MAN for the TIME"

Message from Edward A. O'Neal

Longtime president of the Alabama and American Farm Bureau Federationsthe nation's foremost living champion of Agriculture:

Bruce Henderson, the farmer-statesman, is the best qualified man in this race. His leadership in the Legislative fight against treasury raiders and spendthrifts saved the people millions. A man of character and experience, he is the leader who can and will clean up the mess the Folsomites have made. We farmers not only have the best qualified candidate, but we have the votes to elect him-by rallying behind Bruce Henderson not only for our own best interests but for the best interests of all Alabamians who want honest, efficient government."

Message from Donald Comer

Famed Industrialist, Civic Leader and Humanitarian:

"There has never been any question in my mind, BRUCE HENDERSON, as to your fitness or preparedness for running the affairs of the State of Alabama. Certainly no one in the race could claim any better background or better training or finer record of past performance.

The thing we have got to have is not only a good man . . . but a man WHO CAN WIN!

1 HAVE MADE UP MY MIND TO SUPPORT YOU, BRUCE HERDERSON."

A Message to the People of Alabama from BRUCE HENDERSON, Candidate for GOVERNOR

"I want to be governor to give back all that has been given me in firmness of conviction, experience in government and knowledge of the state's current affairs:

- 1. To rid the state government of the inefficient and corrupt leeches who would undermine and destroy the moral, religious, social, political and economic solvency of the government and the people.
- 2. To protect the people's right to control their own internal affairs and to preserve our constitutional freedoms.
- 3. To stamp out radicalism, socialism, Trumanism and communism.
- 4. To stop the trend to pyramid the tax burden and squander the money.
- 5. To lift the public morals and increase respect for law and order.
- 6. To insure progress in education, public health, paved roads and other vital state needs. 7. To lead the way to an unsocialized but sound and just balance between agriculture,
- labor and industry. 8. To restore and preserve honest, progressive government and democratic decency.

Lad of Five Takes Cab Home After Tiring of Long Wait

MARQUETTE, MICH. — Donald Messier is becoming a little annoyed at his precocious son.

Late one afternoon as Messier drove into Marquette to pay a bili, he told his five-year old son, Tom, to wait in the car while he went into the building.

When Messier came out, he couldn't find Tommy. The frantic father drove to several places in Marquette where he thought his son possibly might be, and called police to join in the search.

About 8 p. m., after three hours of fruitless searching, he decided to return home and break the bad news to his wife, Amelia. When he opened the door he saw Tommy comfortably seated in the living room with the rest of the family.

It seemed Tommy had gotten tired of waiting for his dad, and had taken a cab home.

- 1. Originated, sponsored, and has never ceased to try to force through Congress, the FEPC which would require replacement of whites by negroes in our offices and plants.
- 2. Abolished segregation in all branches of our Armed Services—including officer's clubs, and swimming pools—and has tried to abolish it in schools buses, trains and all public places.
- 3. Changed the FHA financing rules in the effort to permit negroes to live in white residential neighborhoods.
- 4. Jeered and booed Southern Democrats at 1948 Democratic national convention—voted down every measure to preserve Southern rights.
- 5. Elected the South-hating negro—William L. Dawson—as Vice-Chairman of the National Democratic Party.

Montevallo's Man On The Street Names Persons As Next Governor

(By Ann Williamson)

will be Alabama's next Governor.

According to the late newspaper prophecies only three of the 15 candidates for governor have a chance of being in the run-off. In the history of Alabama the majority of our governors have been unsuccessful candidates before they were elected governor. If this prophecy holds true only Elbert Boozer, Chauncey Sparks, and Gordon Persons have a chance of being governor.

A straw vote taken here carried out this prophecy only in part. According to this poll, Persons leads by a big majority. Henderson took second place with Sparks in third. Boozer did not live up to expectations—he only got one vote.

A great many people seemed to feel that it was anybody's race. Probably one-half of the people asked for an opinion had none. They seemed to feel that a valid opinion could not be reached with so many men running.

From a hundred opinions, taken from all over Montevallo, 37 people believed that Gordon Persons would be the next goernor. Nineteen people thought that Bruce Henderson would win. Sparks and Hamm had 12 votes each, while Bull Connor followed them with 10 votes. Buster Bell and Reuben Newton lagged a little with 3 votes each and Boozer, DuBose, Gordon, and Money had one vote each.

from the looks of the situation some of those gubernatorial candidates need to do some politicking in Montevallo before May.

Publicity cards and "sales talks' were given out by aspirants for other offices who took full advantage of the opportunity offered by the presence of approximately 500 voters and potential voters who viewed the helicopter and heard the silver-haired Montgomerian's speech. The novelty of helicopter campaigning vied for first place in spectator interest as swarms of small excited boys and interested townspeople examined the helicopter. The novelty of Mr. Person's campaigning brought one curious lady from the local Way. beauty shop with her hair in curl-

To attentive listeners, interrupted only by a small boy's false alarm of "Mama, the helicopter's going up!" Mr. Gordon Persons stated that he was not going to make such outrageous promises as certain other gubernatorial candidates who promised "$1,000 bonuses to veterans, $100 a month pensions to people 55 years of age, and the blacktopping of all roads." These other contestants for the governor's seat, Mr. Persons said, told the voters that the money would not come out of the taxpayers' pockets. Mr. Persons answer to this was that a private printing press would have to enter the picture.

"By far the best man in the race," according to his wife's opinion, Mr. Gordon Persons declared that his platform was honest and sincere. Mr. Persons said he has proved his reliability by his record of service to the people of Alabama in his position in the Public Service Commission.

Mr. Persons and his 20-yearold son paid Alabama College a Landing across from the post visit also, landing on the lawn of

Cancer Drive Quota Is Raised to $400

Can Montevallo -meet her cancer drive quota this year? Last year the quota was $300 and Montevallo contributed $410 to the cancer drive. This year the quota has been raised to $400 but Montevallo can still go above the quota.

The American Legion Auxiliary is sponsoring the cancer drive which began Monday, April 17. Mr. M. S. McGehee of the Alabama Power Company is head of the Shelby County cancer drive.

A three-day door-to-door drive will be made next week but contribution cans are already in public places.

The members of the Eastern Star, Home Demonstration Club. and Business and Professional Women's Club are helping the American Legion Auxiliary with the cancer drive.

CANDIDATE SUPPER AT MAYLENE

The W. M. U. of Ryan Baptist Church is sponsoring a candidate supper at the Maylene School on Saturday night, April 29, proceeds to go for a piano at the church.

All candidates and the public in general are invited.

JACK OWEN

Jack Owen, member of Alabama Public Service Commission, is running for re-election to that office. He sends word to his Montevallo friends: "Don't forget me on May 2 when you go to the polls."

Jack has held the position of member of the Public Service Commission for the past four years. He has done a good job, and deserves re-election.

A native of West Blocton, born and reared in Bibb County, Mr. Owen has a great number of friends in this section of Ala-

INTO BONDAGE

Since when did Senator Hill deare mere galley slaves to be paddled down the river of politics into bondage of the most audacious set of political enemies to confront the South since carpetbag days?

If his environment in Washington has so alienated Senator Hill from the social, economic and political conscience of his state that he chooses to roost with the Southassaulting Trumanite crowd, let him at least desist from attempting to use Alabama voters to feather his nest.

Does Senator Hill no longer consider himself a servant of the people commissioned and paid to perform specific duties? Has he begun to feel his oats so ambitiously that he is seeking to reduce the voters to the humiliation of submitting to dictation from one of their own public servants?— The Mobile Register.

HENDERSON BLASTS FOLSOM

A sharp blast at Governor Folsom was delivered by gubernatorial candidate Bruce Henderson, in taking note of the fact that the governor has gone on the stump for Phillip Hamm with the theme, "I am right or I am wrong".

"I can answer that one," declared Henderson. "Folsom is wrong now as he was when I organized the Senate in 1947 and 1949 to beat back his outrageous tax and spend schemes which would have cost the people a cool one hundred million dollars."

"As one who dared to turn back Folsom's desperate raid on the tax monies of the people, I have been marked by him as the man who must be kept out of the governor's office at all costs. Therefore, it is now my duty to speak out once more against the ambitious presumptions of this man as he goes about the state trying to win the election for his stoogethrough whom he would continue to be governor by proxy.

"If Folsom should perpetuate himself in power through the election of Phillip Hamm, Alabama would unquestionably see a repetition of the shameful shenanigans of the current quadrennium. We would be caught in the grip of spoils politics for another four years. We would be confronted by more bungling, inefficiency, waste extravagance and corruption. We would face another greedy effort to saddle us with taxes so heavy that it would take our children and their descendants a hundred years to pay.

"State law says a governor can not succeed himself, but Governor Folsom, with typical disregard for the sensibilities of the people. would use Hamm as his stooge for four years until he himself can run again. A Folsom-Hamm-Folsom-Hamm government in Alabama down through the years would wreck the state, and the people would never find out what was going on under the capitol

"So to Governor Folsom I have this answer for his current campaign theme: You have been wrong all along, and you are still wrong."

Local Cancer Drive To Be Made Here Next Week

The drive for funds for the Alabama Division of the American Cancer Society in Montevallo will begin Monday, April 24 and will be completed May 1. A house to house canvass will be made by 20 voluntary workers in the effort to raise the $400 quota for Montevallo, Almont and Aldrich. Shelby County's quota is $1,125.00.

Seventy per cent of all funds raised will be kept in Alabama for research on treatment of cancer. In the last ten years the Cancer Society has invested $250,000 in Alabama. Fifty persons in Shelby County were treated for cance in 1949, 20 of them children.

Cancer shows no partiality. It strikes the rich as well as the poor. It knows no race or creed. It is a sneaky killer. In its early stages it causes no pain to warn its victim at the time doctors might cure it. In these days of new drugs, isn't there some one of them that might cure cancer?

Who can afford to ignore the cancer drive? It is not just another drive for money. Your dimes or dollars this time mean perhaps a future for someone you love. It could strike you.

Miss Rebecca Grady will direct the drive at Alabama College with Mrs. Reese L. Woolley chairman of the Montevallo drive. Ladies of the American Legion Auxiliary, the Eastern Star, the Home Demonstration Club, and Professional Women's Club, as well as various church workers will unite in the effort to raise the quota here.

Mr. M. S. McGehee is chairman and director of the drive for the County. Other community directors in this part of the county are as follows:

Mrs. V. L. Hubbard, Wilton: Mrs. Harry Anderson, Calera and South Calera; Mrs. Douglas Kent, Siluria, Alabaster, Keystone, Saginaw, Camp Branch; Mrs. Bob Lacey, Maylene; Mrs. T. R. Knowles, Spring Creek; Mrs. E. C. Roberts, Dargin; Mrs. R. W. Lawley, Boothton and Pea Ridge; Mrs. C. W. Bray, Helena; Mrs. Joe Hodges, Pelham.

VOTE FOR

KARL C. HARRISON

For Member of the Legislature

If I am nominated as your Representative in the Legislature at the May Primary, then at the time of the Nevember, 1950 General Election I will furnish the election officials at each voting place ballots with the request that the people vote whether or not they wish the Board of Revenue and Control Bill repealed. After these votes are totaled, I will introduce and pass a bill at the first session of the Legislature to carry out the wishes of the people of Shelby County.

The passage of such a bill would require only a few minutes of the entire 4-year term. After carrying out the wishes of the people in connection with the Board of Revenue and Control Bill, I desire to represent you to the best of my ability in all other matters coming before the Legislature during the 4 years.

Sincerely yours,

To The People of The Sixth Congressional District:

The following candidates for the Democratic Executive Committee from the Sixth Congressional District have publicly stated that they are in favor of fighting the so-called civil rights issues within the National Democratic Party and in Congress. That our fight for States Rights and the preservation of our Southern traditions and way of life can best be continued by presenting a united front in the ranks of the Democratic Party and that the formation or continuation of a splinter party would only serve to divide our efforts and defeat our purpose.

Carolyn Parks Tells How To Make Salad

"Candle salad" adds interest to a meal, stated Carolyn Parks, Calera 4-H club member. When asked to describe this salad, Carolyn gave the following instructions for making it: Place a crisp lettuce leaf on a plate, then a pineapple slide on the lettuce. Cut a small banana in half so that it will stand on end in the center of the pineapple slice, giving the apearance of a candle. Put cream cheese and mayonnaise on the pineapple around the banana. This gives the appearance of melted wax. A cherry might be used as a garnish.

Carolyn also stated that broiled grapefruit is tasty when served with baked ham. To prepare grapefruit for broiling, cut the fruit in half, remove the seeds, and section with a sharp knife. Then sprinkle brown sugar on top and add a little crushed pineapple. Broil for about 15 minutes.

Meal preparation is a challenging project for Carolyn. She prepares breakfast for her family every morning. She cooks eggs, bacon, toast, grits, oatmeal, and other cereals. Occasionally she prepares supper alone.

With continued work and practice, Carolyn will be a good cook.

After looking over his prospective team in spring practice, Coach Theron Fisher stated today that the Montevallo High School football team will have a hard battle living up to their last year's reputation.

"We have practically all inexperienced men," the coach said. In this graduating class, the team lost nine key men.

Although it is early to say, Bobby Neil Smitherman, Donald Tinsley and Marion Hammacker have shown potentialities. Smitherman will be started in the line, while Tinsley and Hammacker will be in the backfield.

Bobbie Neil Smitherman will be captain for the '50-'51 season. Jack McGaughy is co-captain.

The men's bowling league standing remained unchanged as both matches had a 2 to 2 deadlock Tuesday night and the teams kept their respective places.

Plaza Grill tried hard to oust Montevallo Lumber Company cut of top place but missing two of their stronger players they had to settle for a tie. Comer, Rotenberry and Rochester led the Plaza attack and lacked just a few pins for the victory. Frost, Lovelady and Fisher were very good and kept things pretty well under control for the lumbermen and were satisfied with a tie.

Franklin, Fullman, L. Thrasher and Vernon starred for Coca-Cola and except for a slow start would have won the match. Harrod, Rich and Blewster kept Siluria in the match all the way but weakened in the final game.

Kinky Franklin won the city tournament Thursday and Friday night with some very smooth keg-Rich followed closely but couldn't evertake Franklin. J. Rochester came up with a fine 232 game this week and looks like a sure winner for the men's prize; Frost 141.

Cub Scouts Meet Last Tuesday

The Cub Scouts of Den 2 met Tuesday afternoon, April 18, at the home of Arthur Garrett, Jr. keeper of the buckskin. The meeting was opened with the singing of America, followed by each Cub repeating the cub promise. Bill Bob Garrett, mascot of the den, was presented a Bob Kitten badge.

Plans were completed for the county fair to be held at the Pack meeting Thursday night, April 27, in the music room of the elementary school.

The meeting was dismissed with the grand howl led by Den Chiefs Mike Mahan and Agee Kelly.

The next meeting is to be held Tuesday, May 2, at the home of song leader Tommy Plant.

Refreshments were served to James Earl Davis, assistant denner, Tommy Plant, song leader, Arthur Garrett, Jr., keeper of the buckskin, Bill Bob Garrett, mascot of the den, John Kyle Wilson, Denny Elliott, Murphy McGehee, George Screws, den chiefs Agee Kelly, Mike Mahan and den mother Mrs. Arthur Garrett.

Mrs. Kathleen Norton recently visited friends in Montevallo.

Policeman Tells Unique Tale About A Fish

He said he didn't find the whiskey—but the tale he told sounds like he might have.

Policeman Harry Kendrick was showing off Sunday afternoon with a bluegill bream that weighed 2 pounds 7 ounces, claiming he caught it in Shoal Creek within the corporate limits of Montevallo. Here's the tale:

"I was down on the creek bank looking in the bushes for a whiskey stash. Coming close to the water I noticed a fish therein. On the bank nearby was a crooked hickory fishing pole, a sewing thread line and a bent pin hook, which had been left there by a Negro boy.

"I scratched in the leaves, found a wiggler, put it on the hook, cast it in where I had seen the fishand out I came with this-(presenting the man-size bream as evidence). I didn't look for the stash any more."

At all events, it was a good fish and a good fish tale and to cinch the evidence, Harry had the 2pound beauty in his hands.

What things can happen to a fisherman! Harry and a party went to the Gulf of Mexico only last Friday intent on really catching big fish, and they came back without a smell.

Then Sunday he stumbles on a prize winner right here in town. Fishermen have been called fools, liars, and most everything else. The question, however, remains: What makes 'em do it?

Voters of Shelby County Will You Be Bound or Free?

The National Democratic Party, controlled by the Truman-Pendergast-Walter White-Northern Big City machine axis is undertaking to purge your State Democratic Executive Committee of those who have the courage to oppose Truman and his program for the destruction of the principles so dear to the South.

The Trumancrats, on orders from Washington Headquarters, will, if given control of YOUR State Democratic Executive Committee, deny to you the right to vote for Presidential Electors in 1952, unless these electors will promise in advance to vote for the nominee of the National Party. Our elections are decided in the primaries held by the Democratic Party in Alabama, which has always affiliated with the National Party, until the National Party scorned us and tried to trample under foot our customs and our rights.

If elected members of the State Democratic Committee of Alabama, it is our firm intention and definite promise to advocate permitting the voters of Alabama in the 1952 Democratic Primaries to decide, just as they did in the 1948 Primaries, whether they wish to elect Presidential Electors real Democrats who will vote for a President who will protect us in the exercise of our States Rights, OR for electors who will join the group who seem determined, at all cost, to sell the South down the river.

We are Southern Democrats in every sense of the word, and firmly believe in so handling party affairs in Alabama so that there will always be preserved the rights and the principles which have been, are, and if we in the South are to remain a free people, MUST continue to be, so dear to the people of the South. These are the principles for which our forefathers fought and died.

THEY MUST NOT BE PERMITTED TO BE TRAMPLED UNDER FOOT BY SELF - SERVING POLITICIANS OR ANYONE ELSE.

Drawing by far the largest crowds of any candidate in the race, Boozer is making four, five and sometimes as many as six speechs a day with a radio talk thrown in at night for good measure.

Political observers throughout the state say that Boozer is the front-runner in the gubernatorial parade because of his sound businness platform he has offered the people in every county in Alabama.

In a speech at Huntsville Saturday he pointed to the staggering town in Alabama. "We are lagging amount of money received by our behind in this important phase", state treasury every year. ### Voters, Are You Undecided About the Governorship?

Then Consider

BRUCE HENDERSON

Who Is Campaigning Strictly On A Record of Performance

Check the Qualifications YOU Want in YOUR Candidate

Must Your Candidate Be A States Righter?

> As to States' Rights: Keep your eye on the ball! There are only three bonafide States' Rights Democrats running for Governor; Henderson, Connor and Stapp. Don't be misled! Bruce Henderson doesn't say, "I am for States' Rights, but-" Bruce says, "I am for States' Rights! Period!" If you are for States' Rights, then Bruce Henderson meets this qualification fully.

Must Your Candidate Be For Economy in Government?

On Bruce Henderson's capable shoulders fell the brunt of the economy fight in our state Senate last time. His brilliant leadership saved Alabama taxpayers' more than one hundred million dollars. Yes, Bruce Henderson meets your economy requirements fully.

Must Your Candidate Be A Friend of Agriculture?

Bruce Henderson is the only 100% dirt farmer running for Governor. He makes his living farming, and in no other way. He was leader in the passing of the tractor gas exemption law. He knows the farmers need. He meets this qualification.

Must Your Candidate Be Experienced in State Government?

Bruce Henderson has participated in our government as a member of its law making body for years, and has served on many important committees. He won national acclaim with his legislation to stamp out venereal disease and tuberculosis, putting Alabama ahead of every state in the Union in that respect. He is by far the most experienced of the candidates.

Must Your Candidate Be A Man of Temperance and Christian Character?

Bruce Henderson's temperance record is well known, and his character is unimpeachable, as even those who are supporting other candidates all verify. He is a church going statesman, whom the Christian people of Alabama will be proud to call Governor. Yes, he meets this requirement 100%.

Must Your Candidate Be A Man of Dignity?

Bruce Henderson is campaigning on a record of Performance. He has no hillbilly band, no helicopter, no state capitol on wheels, and no trains. He is not a show-off. He will restore to the Governor's office the dignity it needs. He meets this qualification fully.

Band, Glee Club In State Contest

The Montevallo High School Glee Club and band have recently attended state contests and both groups received high ratings.

In present day competitions music groups do not compete against each other but rather against a standard set up for schools in each classification. Classifications are "A A", "A", "B", "C", and "D" and Montevallo is a class "C' school according to the enrollment in the upper four grades. Judges are brought in from outside the state and have considerable experience in this type of work, being accredited by the national organization. Each school receives a rating, (Superior, Excellent, Good, Average, or Fair) and a sheet of comments on each number performed from each an Excellent from all three judges

The Montevallo Band received an Excellent rating from all three judges and some very helpful suggestions.

The Glee Club first went to a regional contest in Birmingham, and received superior, entitling it to proceed to the state contest at Auburn April 22nd. Here they received first division-minus, or "Superior".

This is the first year of competition for Montevallo and all are interested in going next year.

American Legion Sponsors Amateur Baseball Players

Are you an amatur baseball player? Then you are eligible for the American Legion Junior Baseball Competition. It will be open only to boys who will not have attained their 17th birthday before January 1, 1950.

The towns that have been invited to join the Junior League are Montevallo, Wilsonville, Columbiana, Siluria, Jemison, Clanton, Sterrett and Vincent. The League expects teams from these eight towns, said Mr. F. C. Tillery, atheletic officer of the Montevallo Post of the American Legion. Six teams are needed in order to rotate each week, but eight teams is much better, added Mr. Tillery.

Coach Theron Fisher believe that Montevallo has a good chance in the Junior League this summer.

Montevallo High To Play Vincent

The Montevallo High School baseball team is putting spare moments on practice to get ready for the Vincent game here at 2:30 p.m. Friday.

Leading the teams batting for this season is Bobby Baker with Billy Allen in second place and Gerald Allen ranking third.

John Galloway walked six men and struck out forty-eight in the five games he has pitched. He will not pitch the Vincent game.

Miss Betty Louise Screws Is Bride of Mr. George Pierce Gaut, of Sylacauga

The wedding of Miss Betty Louise Screws, daughter of Mr and Mrs. A. L. Screws, of Opelika, and George Pierce Gaut, of Sylacauga, was solemnized today at the Presbyterian Church.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a waltz-length white lace dress with scalloped neckline, long sleeves, and a fingertip veil. She carried a bouquet of white flowers centered by a white orchid.

She wore a small cross which was given to the greatgrandmother of the groom by his great-grandfather in 1872 and which has been worn by all the Gaut brides since.

Miss Screws was attended by her sister, Jacqueline Screws who was maid of honor and Mrs. William S. Moore, of Opelika, who was matron of honor. The attendants wore pink marquisette dresses fashioned after the bride's.

Robert Gaut, brother of the groom, served as best man, Bill Christian, Sylacauga, and John Schuler, Birmingham, were ush-agriculture are moving into their new buildings this week.

Music for the occasion was presented by Connie Johnson, of Sylacauga, who sang Greig's "I Love Thee" with Mr. Putnam Porter at the organ. Miss Johnson also sang "O Perfect Love" at the close of the ceremony, at which the Reverend T. F. Wallace officiated.

The new $60,000 building is a joint project of Alabama College the Shelby County Board of Education, the State, Shelby County Engineers and the Town of Montevallo.

The County Engineers graded the grounds and the Town bought the lot. The State and County, using money designated for school buildings paid for the building. The College is doing the landscap-

About $5,000 worth of new, upto-date equipment is being installed in the new building. This equipment is being paid for by the State Board of Education.

Warren, Knight, and Davis, architects of Birmingham, signed the building which is one of the most modern in the state. Of special interest to the college is the room for practice teachers. In this room, the teachers have equipment to test anything that they wish to present to their class. These practice teachers from the college will benefit from the new building in another way, too. Both the home economics department and the department of agriculture will be working together as they do in actual teaching all over the state. > Miss Electra sold the house to the college when she went to live with relatives after her mother's death.

> For several years, the college left the house in its original site, where the elementary school is now, and used it as a teachers' home. Later the house was moved across the street to be used as a vocational building by the high school.

Because the old house is considered unsafe, it will be demolished in the near future.

WIN WOOTEN

L. W. Wooten will be elected State Senator from the 15th Senatorial District (composed of Autauga, Chilton and Shelby Counties) because he is capable, efficient and has the confidence of the people. He stands for a sound, safe government and believes in the following:

Education

The youth of our state is our greatest asset and we must give them an opportunity for an education. To do this we must have well trained teachers. To attract the kind of teachers we need, and want, we will have to pay salaries comparable to other vocations that require special training. We cannot expect our teachers to continue their work through loyalty and love of their profession. Furthermore, our transportation for school children is inadequate and, in many cases, unsafe-this situation should be

Social Welfare

This is a function of state and local government that is not taken care of in an adequate manner. Additional funds must be appropriated and he feels sure that the distribution of present funds can be improved.

Agriculture

Has always been and will continue to be the backbone of our state economy. As far as production is concerned, great progress has been made, but getting these products to the consumer is too expensive. This needs attention and study. One remedy is to encourage industry to locate in Alabama, to bring a better balance between agriculture and industry and widen our local markets.

Labor

Industry

Should have the right to organize and bargain collectively, and be protected in this right.

Alabama is enriched with natural resources of raw material and the state should invite and encourage the location of new industries in the state, and assure the present ones that they are welcome through wise legislation.

Prison and Parole System

This system needs overhauling in Alabama. He thinks that our youth, and first offenders should not be confined in our prison camps with old and hardened criminals. We have the facilities to carry this out and should be forced to do so by law. By doing this we can rehabilitate many that are now being taught how to be bigger criminals. Our parole system should be taken out of politics.

Local Self Government

He believes that the closer you can keep self-government to the people, the better off and happier everyone will be.

Roads

Highways and public road construction should be continued within our ability to pay for same, but not to mortgage our future.

L. W. Wooten realizes that it will be necessary to increase appropriations to some departments in order to gain the above improvements, but that enough money can be saved by economy and consolidation to meet this additional expenditure.

SAFEGUARD YOUR VOTE

Besides the Dixiecrat-Trumancrat issue the race for State Executive Committee in the Sixth District poses another interesting question:

Will the result on next Tuesday give us a Tuscaloosa County committee?

There are thirteen Trumancrat candidates for membership on the Committee. Exactly eight of them are Tuscaloosa County citizens.

It would be bad enough to have a Trumancrat Executive Committee. Then for all eight or even a majority of them to be in Tuscaloosa County would be even worse still.

There are eight Dixiecrat candidates for membership on the committee. Only three of the eight are in Tuscaloosa County.

Therefore, it appears that in order to be safe and right in every respect, the best thing to do next | fairs." Tuesday is 'to cast a vote for the eight Dixiecrat candidates for the State Executive Committee.

CLEAR-CUT ISSUE

With the assertion that "it is time for plain talking," Senator Bruce Henderson delivered a blast at Governor Folsom and Phillip Hamm the Folsom candidate for governor, as the current gubernatorial campaign went into its fin-

Observing that in recent weeks 'the state's best political observers have said that Henderson and Hamm are the candidates who have gained in strength, Henderson declared: "Between Henderson and Hamm the issue is clear-cut -the end of Folsomism under Henderson or four more years of Folsomism under Hamm-Folsom; no increase in taxes under Henderson, or ruinous taxation under Hamm-Folsom; a return to sound and sensible government under Henderson, or a continuation of the present disgraceful regime at Montgomery under Hamm-Folsom."

The Wilcox County senator said his record during 12 years in the state Senate proved he would work tirelessly, as governor, to provide "advancement in education, health, roads, agriculture, and business in a regime of people's government and good will."

"Hamm's election," he charged, "would mean that the people would be gouged for every new tax Folsom can think up. The money would be frittered away on political pay-offs, favoritism in purchases and state contracts, just like Folsom diverted and squandered the money the people intended to go for essential services such as schools and roads."

Senator Henderson pointed to the fact that Folsom-Hamm supporters have attacked him repeatedly as their No. 1 enemy, "the man who must be kept out of the governor's office at all costs-because I led the fight to stop Folsom's outrageous tax-and-spend schemes in the last Legislature."

"I stopped Folsom in 1947 and 1949; I can stop Hamm now. I ask the friends of good government to unite behind me in this fight to save the state from being wrecked."

Some Montevallo Politicians Air Their Views on Election Topics

How do Montevallo's political candidates feel about certain issues in our state government?

When presented with some of these questions, four of the candidates from Montevallo in the political election to come up next Tuesday presented the following

The candidates from Montevallo are: M. L. Orr and H. O. Milstead for membershop on the State Democratic Committee, and L. W. Wooten and John Foshee for the state senate. In addition to Mr. Wooten and Mr. Foshee, Tom Phillips, of Alabaster, is also running for the senate.

Two candidates stated the following viewpoints on the Dixicrat-Loyal Democrat fight.

M. L. Orr, as a candidate from the sixth district for membership on the State Democratic Executive Committee stated:

"I am a strong believer in States' rights. I strongly disapprove President Truman's national program of civil rights. Affirmative Approach to Cold War

Is Advocated by Harold Stassen

Saturday night, Harold E. Stassen, president of the University of Pennsylvania, said the United States must begin to use an affirmative, positive, and aggressive approach in the matter of foreign

"This great country must not be content with contentmentbut must project the affirmative approach into the cold war," Stassen continued. He said that only as we do this will the danger of a hot war be lessened.

The former governor of Minnisota stated in this closing address to the three-day conference of student government officers, that during the five years since the war, over 600 million people have been brought under the dom ination of a Communistic philosophy and are subordinate to the government in Moscow.

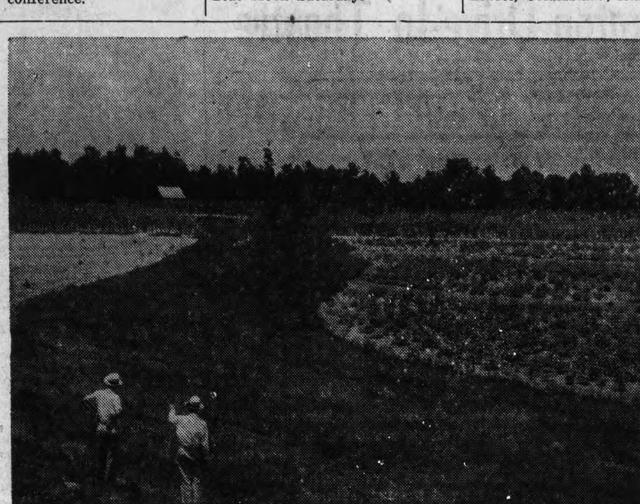

Stassen stated that the drive that led the United States to a victory in the recent war has lapsed from one of offensive tactics to one of defensive. He said this was understandable since the servicemen were naturally eager to go back to their homes and schools but that we must not be satisfied with "holding the line."

"No one can really win a hot war in these times. Freedom is not really won through victory of war. The struggle for freedom is made more difficult by the consequences of war," Stassen said.

Speaking more directly to the conference delegates, Stassen said

Stassen was introduced by Dr John T. Caldwell, president of Alabama College who also introduced Miss Evelyn Coker, of Vanderbilt, president of the conference, and Miss Mildred Wooten, Alabama-College, vice-president of the conference.

DIXIECRATS

Shall Alabama Stay Democratic Or Join The Splinter Party?

The issue in this campaign is not States' Rights, or Civil Rights, or FEPC, or Southern traditions.

Loyal Alabama Democrats feel about these things just like the Dixiecrats claim they feel. The difference is that the Dixiecrats can't do anything about it. But Alabama Democrats have used their POWER AND INFLUENCE IN THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY to protect State's Rights and promote Alabama's welfare. AS DEMOCRATS they have helped defeat FEPC and the other so-called civil rights bills. AS DEMOCRATS they have successfully fought off all anti-Southern legislation in the national Congress.

The issue in the campaign is simply this: Shall the people of Alabama continue their long and successful fight to protect their rights and their traditions from within the ranks of the regular Democratic Party? Or shall the people of Alabama entrust their protection and their welfare to the weak and ineffective Dixiecrat splinter party?

Hundreds of thousands of Alabama voters --- farmers, businessmen, laborers, factory workers, lawyers, doctors, teachers, housewives and voters in every walk of life --- are determined to stay within the National Democratic Party. The people believe this is the best way to protect their own interest and the future of their children, the best way to serve their State and their country.

Baby Girl Survives After Lung Collapse From Inhaled Bean

CHICAGO, ILL.—A 14-month-old girl whose lung collapsed when a bean lodged in it, is recovering after a 107-mile race in which her ambulance burned out its motor, attendants forgot all-important X-ray plates and her supply of oxygen ran out.

The chain of incidents was set off when a common navy bean fell off a shelf in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Airgood at Berrien Center, Mich.

Their daughter, Patsy Ann, found the bean and put it in her mouth. Then she inhaled it into her right bronchial tube. By the next day the bean had swelled with moisture to the size of an apricot. It blocked off her breathing passage and collapsed her right lung.

Soon she began turning blue and an X-ray showed she was likely to die. A doctor recommended that she be taken to Chicago as quickly as possible.

Undertaker Francis A. Bowerman, of Eau Claire, Mich., volunteered to drive her in his ambulance. The Airgoods accompanied him and the X-ray plates were stowed in the glove compartment. Scores of officers in Michigan and Indiana kept track of the ambulance by radio.

At Gary, Ind., the ambulance's motor burned out. Officers quickly transferred Patsy Ann to another ambulance. But they and the attendants forgot the X-ray plates until the ambulance was out of town. Bowerman was driven back in a police car to pick up the

Meanwhile, the second ambulance's supply of oxygen, necessary to keep Patsy Ann alive, ran out. East Chicago firemen heard of the situation by radio. An inhalator squad intercepted the ambulance and supplied a new tank. That was where Bowerman, carrying the X-ray plates, caught up with the ambulance.

Chicago police took over the escort job at the city limits and the ambulance tore through the main business district with sirens screaming.

Arriving at Children's Memorial hospital, officers took the girl directly to the operating room, where surgeons performed a bronchoscopic operation within minutes and removed the bean.

Hospital officials Thursday said the girl was "resting fine" and that her condition was "much improved," although still critical.

Law Has No Way to Punish Young British Bank Robber

GLASGOW, SCOTLAND.—Because the law could find no way to punish him, Britain's youngest bank robber, age 8, must go scot free.

The boy, whose identity was withheld, broke into the British Linen bank of Glasgow. He was caught in the act. Detectives said the boy admitted he broke in with intent to steal.

The child's lawyer insisted his client was simply "imbued with the spirit of Alice in Wonderland." He told the court:

"He wanted to know what was on the other side of the bank window. When he got in, he found not the March hare or the mad hatter, but an astounded bank teller."

It was the teller who seized the culprit.

The puzzled magistrate said the boy could be sent to a reform school, but observed: "But I don't expect they would be pleased to see an 8-year-old boy."

He freed the boy with a scolding and a warning to the parents.

FEATHER-BEDDING!

LEADERS OF the Firemen's union have called a nationwide strike starting with four great railroads on April 26. These railroads are the New York Central, Pennsylvania, Santa Fe, and Southern.

The union claim that a second fireman is needed on grounds of safety is sheer hypocrisy. Safety has been dragged into this dispute only in an unsuccessful effort to give a cloak of respectability to vicious feather-bedding demands.

After a careful study of the first demands of this union, a Presidential Fact Finding Board on May 21, 1943, reported to President Roosevelt that there was no need for an extra fireman on diesel locomotives.

Again, on September 19, 1949, after a second hearing on the union leaders' demands, a second Board reported to President Truman that: "there presently exists no need for an additional fireman... upon either the ground of safety or that of efficiency and economy of operation."

Safety Record of Diesels is Outstandingly Good

Although the railroads accepted the Board findings, the union leaders have brazenly rejected them. They represent that an extra fireman is needed for "safety" reasons. Here's what the Board had to say on that point:

"The safety and on-time performance of diesel electric locomotives operated under current rules have been notably

"Upon careful analysis of the data submitted on safety, we have concluded that no valid reasons have been shown as a support for the Brotherhood proposal under which a fireman would be required to be at all times continuously in the cab of road diesels. The proposal must be rejected."

The real reason behind these demands is that the union leaders are trying to make jobs where there is no work. In other words, a plain case of "feather-bedding."

The railroads have no intention of yielding to these wasteful make-work demands.

"The Safety Record of Diesels is Outstandingly Good . . . "

PRESIDENTIAL FACT FINDING BOARD REPORT
Read these excerpts from official reports of Presidential Fact Finding Boards:

"The safety record of Diesels is outstandingly good, and it follows that the safety rules now applicable have produced good results."

"The safety and on-time performance of Diesel-electric locomotives operated under current rules indicate that Diesel-electric operation has been safer than steam locomotive operation..."

Remember! These are not statements of the railroads. They are just a few of the many similar conclusions reached by President Truman's Fact Finding Board which spent months investigating the claims of the union leaders.

Make Shelby The Pasture County

We have more green pastures this winter than we have ever had in Shelby County. We are well on the way toward making Shelby a really pasture county.

With more green pastures, our farmers can produce more live stock to make up for the cut in cotton and peanuts.

Almost every farmer has some land that should be put in grazing and there are many scres now in grazing that need to be improved.

The goal of our pasture program is year-around green pastures. Just to help this idea along we are forming the Shelby County Green Pasture Club.

If interested in this club, let us know this spring that you want to become a member: To be eligible for this club you must complete by December 31 a reasonable amount of pasture improvement, including green grazing for the

Here are some of the things you need to think about now in expanding this year-round grazing program for Shelby County:

i. Plan to save plenty of plant-ing seed of crimson clover, caley peas, and burr clover.

2. Arrange to harvest seed on some of the acreage you have in lespedeza sericea.

winter grazing crops. Have land prepared so you can plant grasing mixtures in July, August, or early September.

We set out this year to make 1950 the pasture year. But with all the interest there is in pastures, we think we shall change the slogan to read, "Make Shelby County the Pasture County."

VOTE FOR Karl C. Harrison

Representative

As we come to the end of the campaign for Representative in the State Legislature, I wish to thank my many friends for their help and support in my behalf.

For the information of our people I am restating my platform:

LOCAL SELF-GOVERNMENT. I am in favor of the people voting on whether they wish the Board of Revenue and Control Act

If I am nominated as your Representative in the legislature at the May primary, then at the time of the Nov., 1950, General Election, I will furnish the election officials at each voting place ballots with the request that the people vote whether or not they wish the Board of Revenue and Control Bill repealed. After these votes are totaled, I will introduce and pass a bill at the first session of the Legislature to carry out the wishes of the people of Shelby County. I favor the people voting on any other local laws for Shelby County and will not repeal or pass any local legislation without first submitting it to the people for their approval. I know of no way to bring local selfgovernment back closer to the people than for the people themselves to vote on the issue.

FARMERS. Having lived in a farming community all my life, I fully appreciate the problems of the farmer and that we in Shelby County can only make progress so long as our farmers have prosperity. I will actively and vigorously support all measures in the Legislature, which will be beneficial to our farmers.

VETERANS. In finding his rightful place in civilian life, I feel that our veterans should receive every consideration and assistance possible from our state and government. I closed my law office and volunteered for duty and served 30 months in the U. S. Navy during World War II, and I know the problems many veterans are facing in gettin gstarted again in life.

SCHOOLS. I have been a member of the Board of Trustees of the Columbiana school for several years and I am familiar with the problems of the schools in our county. In 1947, I served as State Director of a campaign for the adoption of an income tax amendment, which made available approximately seven million dollars for increase in teachers' salaries and other educational needs. I am Vice President of the Citizens Educational Advisory Counsel of Alabama, the function of which is to study the needs of public school education in our state, and to sponsor programs that will bring about better schools for our children.

AGED AND NEEDY. I favor expanding the State and Federal program for providing adequately for our aged and needy. TOWNS AND MUNICIPALITIES. Being City Attorney for Helena, Harpersville and Columbiana, I know something of the problems and needs of our towns. If elected, I will support all worthy measures for improvement and extension of municipal services.

NEW INDUSTRIES. I am intensely interested in bringing new industries to Shelby County and will sponsor legislation to provide an adequate organization to contact new industries and to encourage them to locate in our rural communities and small towns in our state.

The Dadeville Record says:

A vote for Stapp is a vote for honesty, economy, efficiency, ability, decency and understanding in our state government.

Albert Stapp knows when it's too wet too plow. He lived on a farm down in

Pickens County 24 years. Albert Stapp knows that wanton waste and extravagance are sapping the business and industrial life of our state and nation. He is a successful business man . . . Albert Stapp knows that our continual and relentless drive for taxes is not only discouraging the expansion of our present industrial potential, but is driving new concerns into our neighboring states. This means fewer job opportunities for our people, hence less income for the use of our schools, the aged and our highways-less sales tax, gasoline tax, income tax, tobacco tax. Albert knows that nothing but a lack of business leadership caused us to close our books in Montgomery Sept. 30, 1949, with no money on hand and a bonded debt of $46,870,000 on our backs. Twenty years of able, business leadership enabled Mississippi to close her books Dec. 31, 1949, with all bills paid, no outstanding bonded indebtedness, and a cash balance of

If you are interested in seeing Alabama go forward in a similar manner, your vote and influence for Albert Stapp will be the greatest contribution you can make now toward that goal. Thank you.

SPENDING MONEY WE DON'T HAVE, WUST STOP. NOW!

Alabama's current finances are in a deplorable condition, having been dissipated through the Folsom administration's incompetency and spendthriftism. Henderson's record shows he can put the state back on a sound basis—he will do it BEFORE IT IS TOO LATE!

WE NEED ECONOMY AND EFFICIENCY IN ALABAMA

Bruce Henderson has proved he knows how to save the state's money. Using strict business' methods, he will get the most out of every public' dollar! He believes in spending tax funds wisely -not in penny-pinching.

AS A CHAMPION OF PUBLIC HEALTH, Bruce Henderson has won national renown by authoring such progressive laws as those calling for the mass blood test for syphilis, mass X-ray for TB, pre-marital examinations, early detection of cancer, establishment of TB sanitaria and other humanitarian measures which

AS A CHAMPION OF AGRICULTURE, Bruce Henderson is not only a successful, scientific farmer (the only candidate in this race who makes his living as a farmer), but in his 12 years in the State Senate he has fashioned a long list of laws to aid agriculture: the tractor gas refund law, farm-to-market road law, Coliseum and Agricultural Center Board law, artificial insemination for livestock law—and others for the promotion and protection of our agriculture, Alabama's greatest industry.

AS A CHAMPION OF EDUCATION, Bruce Henderson headed the last Interim Finance committee of House and Senate which drew up and passed the program for increasing educational appropriations from $36,000,000 to $66,000,000—an unprecedented boost for education that has benefited every child in Alabama.

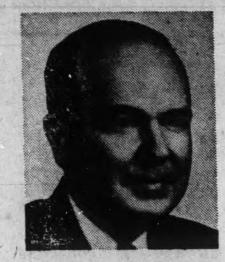

Bruce Handerson hate lawfestness. He will protect life, property and the right to work—with the aid of state right to work—with the aid of state right to work—with the aid of state right.

The People of Alabama Who Believe In Good Government HAVE THE VOTES To Elect Bruce Henderson . . . By Going To The Polls And Casting A Conscientious Vote Based On The Realization that THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE FOR CHARACTER!

Scientist Changes Mercury To Gold, But Cost too High

CHICAGO. — It remained for modern science to do something the ancient alchemists sought to do for centuries—turn base metal into gold.

But, there is a catch, as usual. The process costs so much more than the price of gold that 'twould be folly to fool with it.

Dr. Arthur Dempster, of the Argonne national laboratory, reported it had been learned that a small portion of mercury would change into gold if bombarded by neutrons in an atomic pile. But this is no easy method of making gold, for it costs many times the $35 an ounce being paid for gold.

Dr. Dempster said Argonne physicists found that a very weak mercury isotope— or particle of matter made radioactive—had a great capacity to absorb neutrons. This particular isotope has an atomic weight of 196.

A sample of mercury 196 was sent to the Hanford (Wash.) laboratory of the atomic energy commission and placed under neutron bombardment in the atomic pile. It was left there two weeks.

At the end of that time it was found that a small portion of the mercury had been transformed into gold.

SHACKLED or FREE?

The Only Issue In The State Committee Race

When you vote May 2nd for members of the State Democratic Executive Committee you will decide these vital and far-reaching questions:

1. SHALL WE SHACKLE ALABAMA DEMOCRATS NOW TO HARRY TRUMAN AND HIS ANTI-SOUTH CIVIL RIGHTS PROGRAM IN 1952?

— OR —

2. SHALL WE HAVE IN 1952 A FREE AND OPEN PRI-MARY ELECTION AT WHICH DEMOCRATS OF ALA-BAMA CAN MAKE THEIR OWN DECISIONS?

If we elect a State Democratic Executive Committee composed of States' Rights Democrats, we can keep the right to decide for ourselves whom we will support for President in the 1952 primary election. States' Rights Committee candidates have signed a pledge to let everybody vote either FOR or AGAINST Truman as they may desire. That is what our State Committee has always done.

If we elect the so-called "Loyalists" to the State Committee, we now bind ourselves for the 1952 election to Truman. Trumanites plan to pass a rule requiring all candidates to pledge support to Truman and every other nominee of the Democratic National Convention, even though they favor the Civil Rights and all the rest of the anti-Southern program. Truman wants to tie Alabama NOW to Truman. This is why Truman is using the power of his office and the money of the National Democratic Committee to purge States' Rights members of our State Committee, and put in their places patronage-seekers who will take all their orders from Washington. This is why public office-holders, who have no business trying to dictate the membership of the Committee to Alabama people, are interfering in this election.

Vote May 2nd for a State Committee of States' Rights Democrats who will preserve for the Democrats of Alabama the right to vote for the Democrat of their choice, whether it be Truman or some one who is the friend of the people of Alabama.

Song Bringing Big Money To British Night Watchman

LONDON, ENGLAND-"Old Bill," 75 year old Brixton night watchman with the well kept hands and the cultured voice, has written New York's latest song hit.

Billy Whitlock, once a 100 pound a week music hall star, chuckled his way through contracts that show him as a potential earner of thousands of dollars.

All because a very old gramophone record which he made in 1904 was played as a joke on an ultra-modern phonograph at a New York cocktail party.

Billy has been plodding along on his old age pension and odd night watchman jobs in South London for years.

In a few months the sprightly old man who used to make recordings for the original Edison Bell Co. will be back in the money.

The record they played at the New York cocktail party was heard by dance band maestro Guy Lombardo. It was recorded again and

The Decca Co. cabled London to ee whether the original Billy Whitlock were still alive-and swept him down to the studios to make another record of the song hit. "It's like a dream." old Bill said,

There I was, just pottering along, getting by as well as I could on any job that offered, and here I am with my pockets stuffed with contracts." The records of his song, a rollicking old-fashioned polka called

'Scotch Hot''-now renamed "Hop

Scotch Polka"-are selling at the rate of 15,000 a week in America. His life story is complicated. Son of a musician, he has been a sailor, skating rink instructor, gramophone recording mechanic, cinema operator, grocer and tobacconist, orchestrator and arranger, truck driver and night watchman.

Electrical scientists report that uranium, key element in the development of atomic energy, led a dull life a decade ago in such odds and ends jobs as coloring of glass and on farms. # SOLON McGRAW Will Bring Back LOCAL SELF-GOVERNMENT To Shelby County When Elected To The State Legislature

Attorney's Opinion

Mayor James H. Sharbutt Vincent, Alabama

Dear Mayor Sharbutt:

I have your letter of April 4th, 1950, advising that you are interested to know the manner in which Act 179 (the Head Bill) page 206 of the 1949 Regular Session of the Legislature may be repealed; whether this act must be repealed by the Legislature itself, or whether it may be repealed by initiative and referendum. You further inquire concerning a straw vote of the people of your County relative to the question of repeal or not of said act.

In answer to the foregoing, permit me to advise that the above and foregoing act must be repealed by act of the legislature and it cannot be repealed, in my opinion, in any other way.

Initiative is the opportunity reserved to the people by the Constitution to propose bills, and laws, and to enact or reject them at the polls, independent of the legislative assembly. 59 Corpus Juris, section 227, page 685; Words and Phrases, Volume 36, page 618.

Referendum is the right reserved by the Constitution to the people of a state or local subdivision thereof, to have submitted for their approval or rejection any act, or part of an act, item, section, or part of any bill passed by the legislature. Corpus juris 59, section 228, page 685.

In either instance, whether by initiative or referendum, such procedure must be provided for by the Constitution of the State. As stated by section 234 of Volume 234, 59 Corpus Juris at page 687.

There can be no valid referendum of any enacted law except pursuant to constitutional authority.

The Constitution of Alabama does not provide for initiative by the people nor for the system of referendum. Alabama Digest, Section 35½, under the chapter of statutes is silent regarding initiative and referendum, and also in the amendment on the subject of statutes regarding initiative, referendum and submission to popular vote. There are no provisions in the code or Constitution relative to the subject.

Section 106 of the Alabama Constitution provides the manner of enacting special, private and local laws. Section 107 provides for the manner of repeal of local laws.

This section is as follows:

The legislature shall not, by special, private or local laws, repeal or modify any special, private or local law, except upon notice being given and shown provided in the last preceding section. Section 106, being the last preceding section, provides

In order to enact a local law, the same must be advertised in the manner provided therein. Such would be applicable to a repeal. I do not know of any provisions of law regarding a straw vote, that is to say, there is no statutory authority providing for a straw vote election. Therefore, I would have no idea who would call such an election. Trusting this will answer all your questions, and with highest regards I am

Very truly yours,

LAWRENCE K. ANDREWS

To The Voters of Shelby County:

You will recall in my platform, I promised or pledged to repeal the New System Board of Revenue and Control Bill. I further stated this would be necessary, before you could vote on the issue, if you wished to call an election. My authority for this statement is an opinion from the attorney generally conceded as authority on all matters. (See column Left.) The opinion in the right column deals with the "Straw vote election" proposed in a publication in our county last week. In which it was stated ballots would be delivered personally to the several election officials with a request that they ask the people to vote, whether or not they were for or against the Board of Revenue and Control bill. The request did not specify qualified voters.

Have you ever heard or known of such a unique and fantastic manner in which you were asked to participate in an election?

This is really a NEW SYSTEM and CONTROLED way to call an election.

My Friends:

I have not tried to confuse you on the issue in this campaign. Nor have I evaded the issue. The question for your consideration is: Are you, the voters of Districts Two (2) and Four (4) satisfied with the New System of electing your Board of Revenue and Control member? Will the voters of Districts One (1) and Three (3) be satisfied with the same procedure two years hence?

I am indeed sorry that I could not see and talk with every citizen in our county on the importance of this legislative race, time and opportunity will not allow it. I believe however all of us will agree, that the representation we have in Montgomery determines whether our State, County and City governments, actually serve us as citizens, or whether they become instruments of special interests, against our common good. As a business man I shall deem it an honor and a privilege to serve with either of the fine business men whom you elect as senator from our county.

If elected as your representative I WILL SUPPORT LEGISLATION that will compel economy in spending our tax dollars, and to stop needless waste and extravagance.

TO PROHIBIT POLITICAL PARDONS AND PAROLES.

TO MAKE OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS AND COL-LEGES THE BEST IN THE SOUTH.

TO DEVELOP OUR STATE AND COUNTY ECONOMICALLY.

TO AID THE AGED AND NEEDY, OUR FARMERS AND AGRICULTURE.

TO BRING BACK LOCAL SELF-GOVERN-MENT TO OUR COUNTY.

I WILL APPRECIATE YOUR SUPPORT AND INFLUENCE.

Sincerely, your friend,

SOLON E. McGRAW

Title 17, Section 165: In all elections held in this state or any subject which may be submitted by law to the vote of the people, and for all or any state, county, district, or municipal officers, the voting shall be by official ballot printed and distributed as provided in this chapter, except when the form of the ballot is otherwise prescribed by law, and no ballot shall be received or counted in any election except it be provided as prescribed by law; BUT this section shall not apply to elections held for trustees of public schools, or elections to establish or abolish stock law districts or other local elections which are otherwise specifically provided for.

Title 17, Section 301: If any inspector, clerk, or other officer, on whom any duty is imposed by the election laws, wilfully neglects to perform such duty, or is guilty of any corrupt conduct in the execution of the same, and no other punishment is provided for such neglect, or conduct, he must, on conviction, be fined not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars; but no person shall be deemed an inspector, clerk, or officer, within the meaning of this section, until he first shall have taken an oath well and truly to discharge the duties of such office, to the best of his ability, or until he shall have performed some of the duties pertaining to such office at any time after his appointment thereto, and prior to his taking the oath of such office, and before he shall have discharged and performed any of the duties thereof, shall not, in either event, be deemed a violation of this section.

It is our opinion that any inspector, clerk, or officer after having been sworn-in to said office, and who wilfully accepts or counts such ballot or ballots other than those officially prescribed by law, would upon conviction, be subjected to the fine as prescribed above in Title 17, Section 301. It is also our opinion that any person who presented to said election officials such illegal ballots, if convicted would be subjected to a fine for the crime of conspiracy and/or accessory before the fact.

Students To Give Political Talk To Rotary Club

The Rotary Club will meet at 7:30 p.m. Friday in the elementary school cafeteria. The program will be a discussion of some of the gubernatorial candidates by college students.

Recently, the members of a political science class chose candidates and presented their platforms, and all of the information that they could compile about them. After a short talk by each student, they voted on their choice.

The five candidates that received the most votes are the ones to be discussed at the Rotary Club's next meeting. Gordon Persons' platform will be presented by Anna Lukes; Chauncey Sparks by Joyce Farlow; Phillip Hamm by Annette Gawronski; Bruce Henderson by Edith Hill, and "Buster" Bell by Georgia Ruth Lee. The chairman of the discussion will be Jo Foster.

Last Friday night, the Rotary Club had Mr. W. O. Dobbins, head of the State Planning Board, from Montgomery, to be their guest speaker. He discussed the duties of the individual in economic and political life.

Mr. Dobbins said that the government should step into an economic situation only when the individuals have failed. He gave two areas in which he believes this to be true: One, when there is an unusual amount of unemployment, and secondly for the conservation of natural resources.

Mr. Eugene Reynolds, president, announced that at this meeting also the Board of Directors voted to contribute to the Rotary Scholarship students in foreign countries.

Plaza Grill's keglers slipped into first place Tuesday night by edging out a 3 to 1 victory over Siluria while Montevallo Lumber was clipped 2 to 1 by the up and coming Coca-Cola keglers.

Plaza, paced by Rotenberry and Cunningham and steady help by Holloman, Rochester and Comer were a little too powerful for Siluria. Rich and Braswell did well for the losers but didn't get enough help from their mates.

Coca-Cola all but swept the match from the lumbermen and except for a missed easy spare in the 10th frame of the last match they would have done so. Franklin starred for the Cokes with excellent help from Vernon, Thrasher and Fullman. Frost, and R. Thrasher bowled well for the Montevallo Lumber Company but off form. #### Ed Bridges Gets Army Promotion

Edwin L. Bridges, son of Mrs. T. Bridges of Montevallo, who is currently serving an overseas tour of duty with the U.S. Air Force in the Philippinees, has recently been promoted to the grade of corporal.

He is presently assigned as clerk typist with the 18th Food Service Squadron at historic Clark Air Force Base, located sixty miles north of the famous but still wartorn Manila, the capital city.

As the largest military installation in the Far East, Clark AFB is equipped with almost anything that Cpl. Bridges would need during his stay in the Islands. Recreational facilities are also provided which include swimming pools, well-equipped libraries, service clubs, theatres, bowling alleys, snack bars and an excellent golf course.

Overseas for the past four months, Cpl. Bridges graduated from Montevallo High School prior to his joining active service in November 1948.

Bell Talks Politics With High School Group

Gubernatorial Candidate "Buster" Bell got a sample of democracy in action here Friday when seniors of the local high school met him in a group to question him concerning his platform.

The students, members of a democracy class which is studying political parties, and Bell visited Montevallo just in time to serve as an example of a campaigner

To the questioner who wanted do for education?" Bell answered that "We are just as happy as our education makes us. I don't know of any candidate who is more interested in education than

He also stated that since he has ben an administrator in school systems and since both he and his wife have been teachers, he is well acquainted with the problems of educators.

The situation got a little out of hand when several students demanded "When are you going to pave the road down by Pea Ridge?" Bell replied only that the present administration would probably take care of this matter. As for his views on highway building in general, he thought that Alabama would be greatly benefited by a more comprehensive long-range program for financing roads.

In his speech to the townspeople earlier, Bell pointed out that his program is not corroded by career political figures or paid political workers but it is promoted by the largest team of volunteer workers that the political life of Alabama has ever known.

"In the past", he continued, "we have had people in public office who are primarily interested in themselves, their political friends or their relatives rather than in the general welfare of all the people." He indicated that this is one reason for Alabama's low position on the economic scale.

City Mail Delivery Extension Planned

City mail delivery will be extended within 60 days into the new subdivision residential areas that are not yet receiving delivery service, Mr. S. Reese Woolley, postmaster, said today.

The extension plans were being made at the time that curtailment of U. S. postal service was announced.

Mail delivery service may be cut to one round a day or the postal window hours may be shortened, Postmaster Woolley said. The U.S. Post Office Department has until July 1, 1950, to decide what steps will be taken to reduce postal expense, the Montevallo postmaster said.

fireman and help save someone's home, you may get everything from disturbed sleep to barbecues in your honor.

The services of these 22 voluntary workers, headed by C. H. Chism, to Montevallo and nearby communities are too often taken for granted.

At meetings once every two months, firemen discuss ways to fight certain types of fires and talk over new ideas as well as former mistakes.

Evidence of their careful study is shown by their display of efficiency in times of real danger such as in the recent fire at the Rainbow Market.

Due to alertness and quick action by the volunteers only water damage was done to the first floor rather than fire damage which might have destroyed everything.

In carrying out their orders, each man is assigned a certain duty. Some handle traffic, one drives the truck, another connects the hose to the fire plug, another sets up ladders, etc.

When a fire is reported, a siren is set off and immediately the

If you're a Montevallo volunteer | volunteer workers come to the meeting place and from then on they are "on the job" as firemen. Although their regular duty covers only the limits of Montevallo, often they go to Alabaster or Columbiana to help when needed. These men get no pay for their services but donations from various sources provide recreation for them.

Once each year they all get together and go fishing on the Gulf. Right now they are planning the big trip for the year which will take place very soon.

The men who serve as volunteer firemen are Brewer Carpenter, Sr., Brewer Carpenter, Jr., Cooper Shaw, Henry Winslett, Herman Stone, Sonny Jeter, Sam Klotzman, Mitchell Young, Pat Wyatt, Bill Pendleton, Bubber Daily, Clyde Winslett, Frank Wallace, Harry Kendrick, Stanley Mahan, James Rochester, Earl Mc-Gaughy, Hobart Love, C. #### NATURAL GAS

In the course of the canvass of people who want to or do not want to sign up for use of nat- Edith Merle Lucas ural gas in Montevallo many have Wins First Place expressed indecision upon the question.

It is urged that all concerned about this matter make up your minds on it as quickly as possible.

Those who may yet decide to sign an application and make the deposit may do so by seeing Miss Sallie Hooker or Mr. Bob Harrison, or Miss Beatrice Fancher will take your deposit at the Town Hall.

The Town Council would appreciate a prompt response by everybody definitely on way or the other so the question of installing or not installing a gas system may be disposed of according to the wishes of a majority of the potential gas customers.

If enough of our citizens want to use gas to warrant installation of the system, it should be determined at once so installation may be made before next winter. Please make up your minds and give a definite answer right away.

College Theatre Will Present Shaw's "Candida"

The Alabama College Theatre will present George Bernard Shaw's "Candida" at Palmer Auditorium Thursday, May 11, at 8:00 p.m.

Characters are: Candida, Gladys Rankin; Rev. James Morrell, Dean Swindal; Marchbanks, a poet, Betty Jo Benton; Burgess, a capitalist, Anna Tabolin; Lexy Mill, a curate, D. D. Wesley; Prossy, a typist, Frances Berry.

In "Candida," Shaw expresses a belief in self assertion, not altruism. He sears the theory of life that would make a virtue of poverty and humility. He strongly advocates individualism. He satirizes preaching versus practice, the comfort of the clergyman versus his socialistic theories, love as a conventonal possession versus a sacrificial gift. He satirizes the exploitation of labor by Burgess. He satirizes duty, romance, worship of women, conventonal morality, all of which he regards as deadly sins.

Shaw's bark is worse than his Candida is one of the most satisfying and charming of wives, the active agent of the Life Force, and the natural protectress of her self-complacent husband. She represents the right of the individual to possess herself.

Candida is considered one of the greatest dramas of modern times. "It has the virtue of coming instantly to life on the stage"-(John Gassner)

Home Ec. Class Completes Study

The Home Economics I Class has completed a twelve weeks unit in the study of foods. During this period they planned, prepared and served low cost, nutritious meals for the family. Since breakfast is the first meal of the day, the class began by planning and preparing several well - balanced breakfasts which would give any family a good start for the day.

The next problem was the luncheon or supper meal. In these meals choosing foods which would give pleasing color combinations and variety in textures and flavors. The menus included salads, soups, quick breads, and vegetables prepared in appetizing ways. In serving all the meals the girls used flower arrangements and various Mrs. M. Burdette Bates bought mats to make their tables more attractive. Setting a table correctly for all three meals of the day was stressed. ### Thompson School Has Spring Festival

The annual spring festival held at Thompson High School last Friday featured a Pageant of America in which all the children in the elementary school participated. King Jack Zuiderhoek and Queen Carolyn Edwards viewed the pageant from thrones above which flew the flags of the United Nations.

The elementary school presented songs and dances depicting the history of America from its founding until the present time.

The children of the kindergarten welcomed the audience and depicted the future at the conclusion of the presentation.

The Spanish settlers, French settlers and English settlers were shown by the first grades.

The second and third grades portrayed Indian scenes while the third grade depicted the Clonial period.

Civil War days were relived by the fourth grade and the Gay Nineties were shown by the fifth

Negro Artist Has Plan For Better Race Relations

Civic, church and school leaders of Shelby County have followed the example of many Alabama cities in endorsing a movement by a Negro artist to promote better race relations and to suppress the spread of communistic ideas.

The Negro artist is Felix Gaines of Birmingham. He has drawn a unique portrait of the late Dr. George Washington Carver.

His program is to sell copies of this portrait to white merchants who will have the picture placed in Negro classrooms and churches.

"I was invited to Shelby County by W. M. Pitts and Prof. L. L. Penn, principal of the Montevallo Negro High School," Gaines said.

"Since 1946 I have been working all over Alabama," he said, "and have received cooperation from leaders and merchants in virtually every community I have visited." He had letters to prove Gaines said the object of his program is to impress upon Negro children the achievements and character of George Washington Carver, the great Negro scientist. Only by education, Gaines said, can the race be improved and better understanding be fostered between the white and colored races.

Sponsorship of this program by white people should also be a boost to racial friendliness, he asserted.

The pictures which will be placed in the churches and schools will bear a plate with the name of the donating merchant, and a list of all donors will be sent to the Negro schools and churches, Gaines explained,

Program Endorsed

Mayor W. M. Wyatt, P. B. Shaw, superintendent of schools, the Town Council, by Harry Kendrick, clerk, and Mr. L. C. Walker, Judge of Probate, have endorsed the program, which will be presented to every Negro school and church in Shelby County.

The portraits of Dr. Carver are 11 by 13 inches in size, and are copies of Gaines' copyrighted black and white etching of the Negro leader. Drawn in what he calls the "psycho-beautigraph" process, the texture of the picture appears somewhat like a peanut shell.

Positions of the lines in the portrait suggest the three primary colors and emotions and movements which they represent psychologically. Gaines, who is the only Negro illustrator in Alabama and who has a national reputation, studied at the New York School of Design and has taught art in several Alabama schools for Negroes. One of them was Parker High School in Birmingham. He has also done illustrations for magazines.

He pointed out that Dr. Carver was meek, humble and lovable and at the same time highly intelligent and creative. It is these same characteristics which Gaines says he desires to instill in Negro school children for whom the pictures will be placed.

Such a program as this, Gaines insists—a movement from within the race itself-can do more to help the Negro than civil rights bills and agitators can do.

He also feels it will discourage the reception of communistic doctrines.

ROBERT PAYNE

Robert Payne's New Book Is Published

"Zero" by Robert Payne of the Alabama College English Department is just off the press.

Mr. Payne's "Zero" is a story of terrorism. He shows traces of nihilism in our civilization. To warn of today's threat of terror, Payne exposes the "zero philosophies" of today. He draws heavily on the Nuremberg trials which few Americans have read.

Then he turns to a hopeful alternative - the cultivation of a sense of human senetity. Mr. Mrs. Walter Haywood White of Payne presents a positive pro- Jay, Florida. gram which if carried out might possibly be the next step in human evolution, putting an end to poverty, squalor and misery.

Pearl Buck, in her introduction to the book, says that she had doubts about the success of the book, even in its brilliant form. Humanity is sick of hearing of its evils. But the human race needs what Mr. Payne is advocating-a love for one another.

Mr. Payne is qualified to write such a book since he has traveled extensively, lived, worked, and taught in the Orient as well as in the West. He was educated in England, France, and Germany.

Other books Mr. Payne has written include a political work, novels, poetry, and a personal journal.

Cemetery Clean-Up Day Is Set For Wednesday, June 7

A petition has been received by Councilman Sam Klotzman, from citizens of Wilton, requesting a community working day at the Montevallo Cemetery.

Therefore, the Town Council of Montevallo has set the date of Wednesday, June 7, for a united effort of all people of this vicinity to clean up the Montevallo Cemetery.

All interested persons are requested to take note of this date -June 7-and make preparations to join in this most worthwhile project.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Veith, of Birmingham, were visitors in Montevallo Sunday. Mr. Veith has been transferred by his employer, the Southern Railway, to a situation in Louisville, Kentucky. Since leaving Montevallo he has been working in Birmingham.

Miss Mayo Ernestyn Baker and Fred L. White Are Married at Baptist Church

Church was decorated with arrangements of white lilies, stock, and peonies for the wedding of Miss Mayo Ernestyn Baker and Fred Leander White today at 4:30.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Frank Baker. Mr. White's parents are Mr. and

Dr. W. M. Fuller of Birming ham officiated. The candles, held in silver candelabra, were banked with southern smilax and woodwardia fern. Mr. Cecil Sidney Jones, Brewton, and Mr. John R Baker, brother of the bride, lighted the candles while a musical program was presented by Mrs. Francis Peterson Givhan, organist, and Miss Evelyn Ward, soloist. Miss Ward sang "O Perfect Love" and Grieg's "I Love Thee."

Mrs. Robson J. Mabry, Jr., of Siluria, was matron of honor and Miss Sara Patricia Baker the maid of honor. The bridesmaids attending Miss Baker were Miss Franklee Gilbert, Chapel Hill, N. C. Mrs. Ralph Banks, Jr., Eutaw, and Mrs. Harold Riley, Tuscaloosa. Blair Thomas of Siluria attended the bride as flower girl. All of the attendants wore identical gowns of imported white organdy over blue taffeta, made with Peter Pan collars and long fitted bodices which flared into full ballerina skirts. They carried bouquets of daisies and wore bandos of the same flower in their hair.

Mr. John Frank Baker gave his daughter in marriage. She wore an ivory satin dress, fashioned with long lines and a sweetheart neck. There was lace over the sleeves and skirt which formed the train. Miss Baker's veil was in two layers caught to bandos of seed pearls. Her flowers were a cascade bouquet of white roses, gardenias, and lilies of the valley. The bride also wore a broach belonging to her grandmother, Mrs.

Mr. Benjamin Wilson White, Jay. Fla., was best man for his brother. Ushers were Cecil S. Jones, Fred S. Mitchell, Robert R. Barnes, Frank T. Baker, John R. Baker, and Robson J. Mabry, Jr.

A reception at the home of the bride's parents, Red Acres, followed the ceremony. Spring flowers decorated the house and the the 50-day period of the drive.

The Montevallo First Baptist | bride's table, covered with a linen cut work cloth over satin, was centered with a tiered wedding cake. The tiers were supported with columns of spun candy and decorated with spun sugar flowers. There were garlands of gardenias around the base of the cake. It was cut by Mrs. Jack Whittmore Hutto, assisted by Mrs. Alex Brock Leath, Birmingham, Miss Whaley Will and Miss Betty Ann Smitherman, Cive Piano Recital Montevallo. The two punch bowls were presided over by Mrs. Dean Holcomb and Mrs. O. G. Eddings, while Mrs. F. T. Baker kept the bride's book. Mrs. R. E. Bowdon acted as hostess and serving the guests were Misses Silvia Green, Georgia Ruth Lee, Willene Yates, Joyce Clements, Billie Sue Bean, Martha Ann Cox, Mary Graham, and Connie Graham.

When the couple left for their wedding trip to Mexico, the bride wore a blue silk shantong suit with navy accessories and white orchid corsage.

Clean-Up Week

Whereas, I believe it would help the looks of Montevallo if all of us would clean up our yards, vacant lots, etc., by cutting the weeds and gathering up all trash;

Whereas, the Montevallo Study Club has suggested that our citizens be urged to clean up their premises so that our town will present a neat appearance to visitors who come here for College Commencement;

Therefore, I hereby proclaim the last week in May as Clean-Up Week in Montevallo, and so sincerely urge all citizens to cooperate by cutting weeds and gathering up all trash on their premises during the week of May 22 to May 7.

In order to further assist in this effort to make our town have a good appearance, the town truck will be available during that week to haul off all trash that is collected by our citizens and placed so that the same will be accessible.

Mrs. Phillips Heads Thompson P. T. A.

Mrs. Fred Phillips' unanimous re-election to serve as president of Thompson Schools' P. T. A. for next year reflects a complete expression of confidence on the part of the entire parent and faculty groups of the school.

"It is fortunate that we have had her to help in the expanding school program that is now well under way," states Robert Johnson, principal of the schools.

Last year, under Mrs. Phillips' leadership, the P. T. A. equipped the auditorium with 600 new chairs. This year, they have provided library furnishings valued at more than $750.

Membership in the organization during this time has increased at least 300 per cent.

Other officers elected are Mrs. Jess Barton, first vice president; Miss Lavada Harper, second vice president; Mrs. Cameron Reed, treasurer; Mrs. Roscoe Davis, secretary.

These officers will be installed at the regular monthly meeting in the school auditorium on May 15 at 7:30.

Mrs. Henry Peete will give the devotional. A film "Understanding Children," will be shown. Mrs. Phillips and Mr. Johnson will give progress reports.

Montevallo Defeats Thompson Twice

Montevallo went into a tie for first place in the Shelby County High School Baseball League by trouncing Thompson 12-2 Monday night and coming back Tuesday to win 7-5.

John Galloway gave up two hits and struck out 14 of the Thompson boys Monday and was aided by the slugging of Baker who connected for a home run in the fourth. Galloway also had 3 for 5, including a triple. Sonny Davenport for the losers hit one for a triple with one man aboard.

Tuesday night was a nip and tuck affair throughout with Rhodes for Montevallo and Davenport for Thompson doing the chunking. Baker for the second straight night hit for the circuit. Rhodes was lifted for a pinch hitter in the 6th and Galloway pitched the last inning, allowing one hit and striking out three.

Alabama Power Company Helping Develop Alabama

Alabama Power Official To Direct Cancer Drive

BIRMINGHAM - Alabama will make its biggest fight against cancer in the months ahead, and the state-wide drive in April for funds to finance it will be led by E. C. Easter, vice-president of the Alabama Power Company.

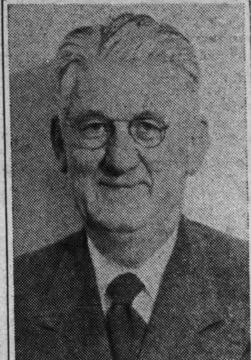

Mr. Easter, whose home is in Birmingham, is the 1950 State Campaign Chairman for the Alabama Division of the American Cancer Society. He was selected by a special committee composed of P. O. Davis, State Director of the Agricultural Extension Service; Fred Duran, vice-president of the Union Bank and Trust Company, Montgomery; and J. C. McGough, Probate Judge of Fayette County.

Alabama already is waging one of the most intensive cancer control programs in the United States, Mr. Davis, who is chairman of the committee, pointed out, and funds will be raised in the April drive to extend it even more.

"One out of every six persons alive in Alabama today has a life-anddeath stake in the fight against cancer," Mr. Davis said, "because that is the number cancer will strike some time during their lives—one in

"But the cancer fight has made greater gains the last five years than ever before. The percentage of cancer cases cured has doubled since 1945. Money raised in April will mean still greater successes."

Mr. Easter will set up a fundraising group, headed by a volunteer chairman in every county in the state. The money will be used to finance the cancer research, cancer education and cancer service programs.

E. C. Easter

Born and reared on a farm in Limestone County, Mr. Easter obtained his BS and MS degrees in Agriculture at Alabama Polytechnic Institute. Then for the next six years he taught agricultural engineering subjects and did various experimental work in agricultural engineering at API.

He was employed as Chief Agricultural Engineer by the Alabama Power Company in 1927, and in 1933 was promoted to manager of the company's Rural and Towns Division. He was appointed Sales Manager in April, 1949, and elected vicepresident in charge of sales six months later.

4-H Club Members

My 4-H Club work has been a lot of help to me during this year. I am very grateful to 4-H Club work. Last year I took personal improvement and baby care. This year I have cooking for my project. I have learned more and better how to serve my family.

I am eleven years old and in the sixth grade at Calera School. I joined 4-H Club when I was in the fifth grade, in 1949.

-Jane Lee

My 4-H Club work of 1949 and 1950 has meant much to me. In 1949 my project was sewing and personal improvement and how to keep myself attractive.

This year I was elected president of the Elementary 4-H Club. My project is cooking. I have finished the requirements for my project by setting the table six times, made salads and prepared other dishes. I have learned to cook many different kinds of food. I am eleven years old and in the sixth grade at Calera.

-June Canady

I have enjoyed being a 4-H Club member for three years and have had an active part in our club. I am 12 years old. I have carried projects in sewing and meal planning. I have learned table manners, how to set a table, and to plan and serve meals. I have made 2 skirts, 3 pot holders, and 2 dish

My skirt was one of the 3 best in our club during the past 2 years.

I have served as reporter, vicepresident and president of the Mayberry Club. As president of my 4-H Club this year I have learned how to conduct our meetings according to parliamentary laws in an orderly and dignified manner.

Maytag Announces Price Reductions

The Maytag Company of Newton, Iowa, has notified Bowdon Motor & Implement Co., Maytag dealer in Calera, of a price reduction on all washing machine

Attributing the action to "large scale production and manufacturing economies," Maytag officials today announced a reduction of $10 on automatics and $5 on conventional washers.

"In the past 18 to 24 months, the Maytag Company has spent many millions of dollars for new and modern equipment and facilitits to achieve cost reductions," Roy A. Bradt, Maytag vice president in charge of sales and advertising said in a letter to dealers, announcing the price cut. "Materials, both raw and manufactured have shown definite trends upward in costs and more increases appear to be in the offing. Our manufacturing division, however, has done a superb job in absorbing the increased costs and in using our large volume of sales to the best advantage.

"These reductions have been made at the earliest possible moment and in spite of the fact that our factories are working at capacity and with a sizeable backlog of unfilled orders."

The Maytag Company recently built an ultra-modern, multi-million dollar plant at Newton for manufacture of its new automatic washer, which is meeting with phenomenal acceptance over the country resulting in a sharp increase in originally contemplated production schedules for the product. Large areas are to be added to the plant this summer for production of a newly developed clothes dryer and for warehousing

Ford's the first car ever to receive the coveted New York Fashion Academy medal in two consecutive years

All the world of Fashion looks to New York's famed Fashion Academy as an authority on style. So it's no wonder Ford is proud to receive their medal as "Fashion Car of the Year" for the second straight year. Never before was a car honored by two Fashion Academy Awards in a row! Here's proof that Ford has succeeded in bringing style to the low-price field—that even far costlier cars can't match.

Named Fashion Car of the Year second year in a row

And handsome is as handsome does. A "Test Drive" will show you the quality that makes the '50 Ford the one fine car in its field. You'll feel the smooth, quiet getaway power of Ford's new V-8 engine (or advanced "Six" if you prefer). You'll feel the 35% easier acting King Size Brakes. You'll feel the "Mid Ship" comfort of Ford's 13-way stronger "Lifeguard" Body . . . now "sound-conditioned." Yes, here's quality you'll see, hear and feel when you "Test Drive" the '50 Ford.

Drive-In Theatre To Be Built Here

A new drive-in theatre is going up in Montevallo soon on the Calera - Centreville highway just across the viaduct.

Costing approximately $25,000, the theatre will have parking space for some 300 cars. It will be expanded later if business seems to merit additional space.

Movies will be shown in twonight runs with a western on Saturday. Prices will be on a par with other drive-ins throughout the country.

Construction will begin in three or four weeks, as soon as the owner, Mr. Pat Kroell, returns from a vacation in Texas, and the theatre will be completed at least by fall.

Mr. Kroell is a well-known Montevallo businessman, who has owned the Kroell General Merchandise Store here in Montevallo for many years. He has leased this business to Mr. John Rochester and Mr. James Rochester in order to devote his full time to the new theatre.

When asked why he chose a drive-in theatre for his new business Mr. Kroell replied, "The drive-in bug just bit me, I guess."

He has just returned from a trip to North Alabama where he observed drive-in operations, especially those of the new theatre in Sheffield, Alabama, belonging to Mr. R. A. Tyler.

Open House Planned Agriculture Students

For a number of years the home economics and agricultural students and teachers of the Montevallo High School have looked forward to having a new building. Dreams finally became plans; plans were made into blueprints: construction followed, and then the long awaited day of moving.

Because the building is one of the most modern in the state and has many new pieces of equipment, the students and faculty are justly proud of it and want the public to share in this pride.

Thursday, May 25, from 2 to 5 p.m. both departments will hold open house. The members of the home economics classes will act as hostesses and will display and demonstrate much of the new equipment. Some of the class work of the year will be on exhibit.

A cordial invitation is extended to the public to visit both departments. The parents of the present agricultural and home economics students and the parents of future students are urged to attend.

In Washington

In a candlelight ceremony on May 6 at Walter Reed Memorial Chapel, Washington, D. C., Miss Virginia Custis Freseman, daughter of Mrs. Perry Freseman of Washington, D. C., and Rear Admiral William L. Freseman, USN (ret.), of San Francisco, was married to Lt. John Dixon Winslett, USAF, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Winslett of Montevallo.

Chaplain James Terry officiated. The bride was gowned in ivory satin, fashioned with a full flowing skirt with long train. Her fulllength veil fell from a cap of pearls and orange blossoms. She wore a string of pearls, gift of the bridegroom, and carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Capt. William L. Benson, USN. and her sister, Miss Phyllis Langfitt Freseman, was maid of honor.

Other attendants included Miss Mary Eleanor Richards of Philadelphia, Pa., Mrs. Benjamin C. Cole of Washington, Misses Margaret and Nancy Maginnis of New York City.

Capt. James Walter Cox, USA-FR. of Charlotte, N. C., served as best man. Ushers were Lt. Col. Robert H. Allyn, USAF, Washington, D. C.; Maj. Allison P. Gentry, USAF, Washington, D. C.; Lt. Richard Parvin, USAFR, Washington, D. C.; and Lt. (jg) Bernard B. Mitchell, Alexandria, Va., and Montevallo.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother and grandmother, Mrs. Curtis R. Perry.

The couple honeymooned at Sea Island, Ga., and later took a motor trip through Florida before returning to Hot Springs, Ark., where Lt. Winslett is stationed.

The bride attended the University of Missouri and was graduated from George Washington University. Lt. Winslett was commissioned in the Air Force in 1943.

The first automobiles to run on Alabama highways were run by wood-burning steam engines.

Although Alabama has always been predominantly a farming state, the State Department of Agriculture and Industries was not provided for by the legislature

DEMOCRATIC MESSAGE

To the People of the Sixth Congressional District

On May 2nd the Democrats of this State regained control of the State Executive Committee by a comfortable majority.

Approximately 100,000 votes were cast for the DEMOCRATIC candidates in the Sixth Congressional District in this race . . . thus giving them a clear majority of the total votes, although three Dixiecrats were declared elected.

It is manifest that the Sixth District should place a majority of Democrats on this committee, and that the will of the majority of the people, as expressed on May 2nd both in this District and throughout the State of Alabama, should prevail. Our District in particular should have a strong voice on the State Executive Committee.

We urge you to go to the polls on May 30th and exercise your important duty of voting in the run-off election. We further urge the election of the following men who led the Democratic ticket in this District on May 2nd . . .

How To Prevent Rabies In Dogs

By Warren W. Kent Shelby County Rabies Inspector

Since rabies is almost entirely spread by dogs, it is possible to completely eradicate the disease This has been done in countries where a strict rabies program has been enforced. This program consisted of inoculation of all dogs whose owners do not constantly keep their animals confined, impounding of stray unvaccinated dogs, penalties for not having dogs vaccinated, and confinement of biting dogs and confinement of biting dogs and animals suspected of having rabies.

The Alabama Dog Control Act for combating rabies was adopted by the Legislature in 1937 and amended in 1940. The above aspects of the program in other countries are covered by the Alabama Dog Control Act. Rabies inspectors are appointed annually by each County Board of Health and have full police power to enforce the act.

It has been shown that a single injection of rabies vaccine will afford a high degree of protection to dogs. Therefore, all dogs should be vaccinated against rabies at least once a year. Rabies vaccine, however, is not 100 per cent effective, and vaccinated dogs if bitten by a rabid animal, may develop the disease. Since the rabies vaccine now in use contains no live virus, there is no danger of the animal developing rabies from the vaccine. The state law requires all dogs to be vaccinated at least once a year, but since the immunity produced by vaccination is not permanent, it is recommended that dogs be vaccinated every six months.

On June 1 your rabies inspector will begin a county-wide program as set out by the Alabama Dog Control Act. This will consist primarily of inoculating every dog possible in Shelby County. Secondarily, all stray unvaccinated dogs will be impounded and humanely destroyed if not claimed within 7 days after impoundment. Also confinement of biting dogs and tion of thoroughbred horseflesh animals suspected of having rabies will be enforced.

Remember this program will begin June 1, and all dogs must be vaccifiated before September 1. Dog. owners who have not had their dogs inoculated before September I will be penalized by having to pay a 50c penalty fee plus the regular clinical price.

Anyone desiring further infor-mation concerning the rabies program in this county may obtain it by writing to your rabies inspector at Rt. 1, Siluria, Ala.

During the ante-bellum era of Alabama's history, many of the finest race horses in the entire country were raised in this state. The Tennessee Valley region was especially noted for the produc-

The wedding will be an event of June 17 at Dauphin Way Baptist Church, Mobile.

ALA HIGHLIGHTS

Before the coming of the white man, large herds of buffalo roamed the plains of Alabama. The buffalo, as in the West, was a chief source of meat supply for the various Indian tribes inhabiting this region.

It was the custom among Alabama Indians that when the tribal council was in session no one was allowed to approach the building in which the meeting was being held. This did away with the possibility of last minute lobbying creeping into the laws laid down by the council.

The peak of Indian population in Alabama was reached in 1540, when DeSoto, the Spanish explorer, entered the state. From that time until driven into the West, the Alabama Indian began a gradual decline in numbers.

In 1817, when the Alabama Territory was formed, there were only seven counties within its borders. They were Washington, Mobile, Monroe, Montgomery, Clarke, Baldwin, and Madison.

William Wyatt Bibb, governor of the Alabama Territory and first governor of the state, was also a United States Senator from Georgia during his colorful political career.

Mrs. Joe Sewell and daughter, Sue, from Tuscaloosa were dinner guests of Dr. and Mrs. L. C. Parnell Friday night.

Recreation Board Makes Summer Plans

The Montevallo Recreation Board is sponsoring a busy summer for the boys and girls in Montevallo.

The summer recreation program will be under direction of Coach Theron Fisher, who said that the program will begin about June 10.

The mornings will be devoted to boys and girls 13 years old and under. Their program will include fishing, swimming lessons, softball, and possibly some dramatics.

In the afternoon the program will be devoted to older boys and girls. They will also have swimming lessons, baseball, fishing and dramatics. The swimming will be well supervised at Big Springs with qualified life guards present at all times.

Directors To Be Appointed

A director for the girls' activities will be appointed at a later date. She will direct the dramatics for the summer. Probably there will be one or two plays produced, Mr. Fisher

One night every week will be play night for all the town youngsters. The entertainment will be held in the high school gym. There will be ping pong, dancing, checkers, and night ten-

Party Starts Activities

To begin the summer recreation program, a big send-off party will be held at either the high school or at Big Springs, Mr. Fisher announced. The date for the party will be set later.

Members of the Recreation Board working on the summer project are Mr. C. H. Chism, Mrs. E. P. Hood, Mrs. Eddie Watson, Mr. Bob Pittard, and Mr. Red

Let's Be Fair in Electing Democratic Executive Committee Members

(An editorial from the Centreville Press)

On May 2nd three Tuscaloosa men were elected as members of Mr. Buck Anderson, Jack Taff, the Democratic Executive Committee from the Sixth Congressional and Albert Lee Pickett have been District. These men were: Thomas H. Maxwell, John D. McQueen, Jr., and Joe G. Burns. There are five other members to be elected May 30th. There are ten men running for these five places. It so happens that three out of the ten are from Tuscaloosa. It is entirely possible that all three of these men will be elected unless the people of Tuscaloosa show a spirit of fair play by also voting for candidates from the smaller counties. If the three men from Tuscaloosa, Jeff deGraffenried, William D. Partlow, Jr., and James J. Mayfield are elected May 30th, then the committee from the Sixth District will be composed of six men from Tuscaloosa County and only two men from the smaller counties. Is this fair? Is this just representation of the Sixth District?

There are eight counties in the Sixth District. Tuscaloosa County has approximately 38 per cent of the total vote of the district. We ask the people of Tuscaloosa to consider this matter and give the smaller counties equal and just representation. The people of the smaller counties helped to elect their Congressman for them two years ago, and re-elected him again this year. We now ask that we be given fair and just treatment in the election of Committee members.

It would be fair if each county in the district had a representative on the committee. It would certainly not be fair for Tuscaloosa County to have six men on the committee and the other seven counties only two men.

The merchants and business people of Tuscaloosa are constantly asking the citizens in the counties surrounding Tuscaloosa to trade in Tuscaloosa, which we are glad to do, instead of going to Birmingham, but we would now like to ask these same merchants and business men and other citizens to be fair and help elect members of the committee from the smaller counties.

We are listing below the candidates for member of the Democratic Executive Committee and the counties where they live:

| William D. Partlow, Jr | Tuscaloosa     |
|------------------------|----------------|
| Jeff deGraffenried     | Tuscaloosa     |
| James Mayfield         | Tuscaloosa     |
| Coleman Long           | Perry County   |
| John M. Higgins        | Chilton County |
| P. M. Norwood          |                |
|                        | Hale County    |
| Herbert O. Milstead    | Shelby County  |

Buck Creek Civitan Club Elects Officers

Farris, first vice president; Sam M. Duran, second vice president, J. H. Dunlap, secretary-treasurer.

Mr. Stuart, who also made the principal address, told of the plans now being formulated for the new boarding school for boys seventeen miles south of Birmingham, founded under the will of the late Harvey G. Woodward. Mr. Stuart stated that it was Mr. Woodward's idea that the foundation make good strong citizens of the boys who attend. "A good citizen is a young man dedicating his life to service," said Mr. Stuart.

F. H. A. and F. F.A. Hosts At Picnic

The local Future Farmers and Homemakers were co-hosts for the county picnic jamboree, which was held at Big Springs in Montevallo recently. The Montevallo chapters greeted and registered the girls, boys and their advisers who came from Columbiana, Siluria and Vincent.

All the students joined in the outdoor games which consisted of volley ball, softball, swimming and boat riding. By six o'clock when a sumptuous picnic supper was served the clubs had a chance to get acquainted with everyone. The delicious punch that was served to 350 students was furnished by the Montevallo groups.

After the group had enjoyed eating on the grass by the water the night program was begun with the entire group participating in games and relays. Group singing, stunts and playlets were enjoyed by all.

The highlight of the evening was the election of Miss F. H. A. for Shelby County. She was selected from girls who had won the title of Miss F. H. A. in the different schools of the county. Miss Barbara Ellis of Siluria was chosen to represent Shelby County in the State F. H. A. contest which will be held at Alabama College in June.

Medical ScienceGets Effective New Tool In Tuberculosis War

NEW YORK. - Medical science has a new tool in the war against tuberculosis.

The tool is Tibione, a newly discovered German drug. (Pro nounced tibby-own.) Medical experts compare the new drug in its anti-tuberculosis effect with paraamino-salicylic acid ("P-A-S"). Up to now, PAS has been the most promising running mate to streptomycin in combating TB.

Research authorities say Tibione has great promise because it may: (1) Be used in more cases than streptomycin;

(2) Be used over a longer period of time than streptomycin;

(3) Be used with streptomycin and thereby delay development of streptomycin-resistant bacilli.

Two noted tuberculosis specialists-Dr. H. Corwin Hinshaw of San Francisco and Dr. Walsh McDermott of New York's Cornell medical center-went to western Germany this fall to conduct a study on the new drug as special consultants for Schenley Laboratories,

The doctors studied the effect of Tibione on 2,000 patients who had been treated with it in 10 German hospitals. Their survey indicated the drug is an effective weapon against certain types of TB-particularly tuberculosis laryngitis and tuberculosis enteritis.

There also was evidence, the doctors said, that Tibione may be effective against tuberculosis empyema, a condition on which streptomycin has shown little effect.

Schenley Laboratories is making the drug available to government agencies and outstanding tuberculosis research organizations for clinical tests. It probably will not be available for general use in this country for at least a year.

According to medical experts, Tibione's outstanding characteristic is that its administration—and probably its beneficial action-can be continued for extensive periods without the toxic reaction that occurs when streptomycin is used for prolonged periods.

But the new drug does not have the rapid and dramatic effect of streptomycin. Nor does it appear to be effective in two very serious, but relatively uncommon, forms of tuberculosis: military tuberculosis and tuberculosis meningitis.

Life Expectancy Greatest In U.S., Survey Discloses

NEW YORK .- Is it true that life expectancy in the United States is greater for foreigners living here than it would be in their own homes?

There is strong evidence that this is the case, according to Dr. Frank G. Dickinson, economist and statistician of the American Medical association.

He says Swedes live longer in Minnesota than in Sweden and that there is equally strong proof that Norwegians live longer in South Dakota than in Norway, and that there is considerable evidence that Mexicans live longer in New Mexico than in

Dickinson made the comparisons by way of upholding the thesis that the United States is the healthiest nation in the world. He says statistics prove life longer here than anywhere else among the large nations, explaining this meant nations with more than 10 million popu-

There Are Two Big Issues In This Campaign!

ISSUE NO. 1 IS TRUMANISM

The States' Rights Democrats do not believe Alabama should be hog-tied and delivered to Harry Truman two years and six months ahead of time. They believe in a free and open primary in 1950 -so that you will NOT be committed to support Truman without knowing either his running mate or his platform. They believe that the Alabama Plan, whereby people can send free electors to Washington, if they choose, is the only answer to the national "Democratic" leadership which robbed us of our veto power by abolishing the two-thirds rule. States' Rights Democrats do not believe that the South should be FORCED to support Truman and his anti-Southern program, which includes his infamous "Civil Rights" bill, just so that a few of our politicians can hold on to hteir patronage in Washington. They do not believe that the basic policy of the Democratic Party—the right of the states to handle their own affairs-should be scrapped so that a selfish few can get more out of the gov-

ISSUE NO. 2 IS FAIR REPRESENTATION

Up to 1938, Tuscaloosa County never had more than two of the Sixth District's eight places on the State Democratic Executive Committee. By courtesy, it permitted the other seven counties to have the remaining six places. On May 2, THREE men from Tuscaloosa County were elected to the committee in the first primary. We believe that, by the laws of common sense and fair play, Tuscaloosa should permit the remaining seven counties to have the other five places on the committee. We are confident that the fair-minded people of Tuscaloosa will agree with this statement.

If you want an open primary and fair representation—and men on your committee who are fighting for principle, and not for patronage, then vote for the FIVE States' Rights Democrats listed at right.

You must vote for FIVE-and be sure to vote. If we can elect these five States' Rights Democrats in the Sixth District, the committee will be too closely balanced to deliver Alabama to Truman without giving you a free primary.

THIS is the time to save yourself from being hog-tied. Go to the polls next Tuesday!

THREE KINDS OF DEMOCRATS

By JOHN M. HIGGINS, Thorsby, Alabama Candidate for State Democratic Executive Committee, Sixth District

Friends of the Sixth District: I want to talk to you about the three ginds of Democrats we have in Alabama today.

A few years ago there was no division among Alabama Democrats. We were all together with one aim and one purpose.

Our party was founded on the principles of local self-government and free trade. Our party was closer to the people because of its cornerstone of states' rights, and the principle of working out our problems within our own communities. It was a party of free and independent thinkers, opposed to monopolies by either Big Business or Big Government.

Its great strength came from the independent farmers and working men, the professional people and small business men. Being a group of free thinkers, the Democratic party opposed a strong central federal government. Democrats preferred to solve their own problems at home. They opposed taking orders from the Great White Father in Washington, and they didn't need a swarm of federal bureaucrats to tell them what to do and when to do it.

The Democratic Party was founded by Thomas Jefferson of Virginia. Down through the years the people of the South have loved the principles on which the Democratic Party was founded, and until recently, we have sent from the South solid delegations of fearless and dynamic leaders to Congress who have stood firmly for the principles of local selfgovernment and common sense. These men did not talk one way to the people of Alabama and another way to the party bosses in Washington.

In more recent years we have seen the party leadership pass to men sponsored by the big city political machines of the North. This type of political organization is entirely alien to anything we have in the South. These organizations draw their strength from organized vice, gambling and other rackets. The most successful of these organizations is the infamous Pendergast machine of Kansas City, Missouri, which now influences the National Democratic Party and our federal government. Under this leadership the national party has split away and completely departed from its original foundation.

As a result of this we have a creat deal of confusion in Alabama today and many of us don't know where we stand. Today the Democrats of Alabama fall into three categories.

The first group is the smallest. This group believes in Truman and his administration and they endorse his platform, including so-called Civil Rights. The white and Negro leaders of this group are active and militant, and they compose the hard core of Truman's support in this state.

The second group, and possibly the largest, is made up of people completely opposed to the present party leadership and the Truman program. These people reject the leadership of Mr. Truman as inferior and unstatesmanlike, and they consider his program unsound and impractical. They consider his so-called Civil Rights program as disturbing to existing harmony between the races in the South. They consider it a dishonest attempt to court the big city Negro vote in the North. This group wants to change the party leadership and bring the party back to the states and back to the principle of local self-government.

This group believes that we must firmly oppose the present leadership and get in better bar- Rev. Glover To gaining position. This group believes that when we present a strong front the Truman machine will fall like a house of cards, and the Democratic party will be rededicated to its original prin-

Now, we have a third group For the time being this third group is the most important, for it is they who may eventually decide whether we are free or submit to federal domination. This group is largely composed of good Democrats with confused loyalalties, who have been misinformed by some of our newspapers. These people have been misled by such catch phrases as "Old Line Democrat," "States Rights Revolter," "Splinter Party," etc. This group consider themselves loyal Democrats who are loyal to Truman as the national party nominee, but they are disloyal enough to tell you that they do not support his program, including so-called Civil Rights.

Their position becomes increasingly awkward and incongruous. They are in the midst of the most ridiculous piece of fence-straddling in modern political history. Members of this group must eventually declare themselves either for the real Trumanites of the first group or with the States Rights Democrats of the second group. Until they are ready to make their choice, we may expect them to continue to explain their position with a lot of double talk and catch phrases. When this third group gets off the fence we will then decide the course to steer in

The Trumanites are temporarily enjoying the support of this third group, but they know they must eventually lose it. For that reason, they are trying to gain control of the State Democratic Executive Committee in order to put out a slate of convention delegates and presidential electors pledged to Truman. They would deny any other candidates the right to run in the Democratic primary of 1952. They know that you, the people, will repudiate Truman and his unknown running mate and platform in 1952, but they don't intend to give you the chance.

I am one of the States Rights candidates for the committee who believes that the Democratic primary of 1952 should be open to all. If elected, the States Rights candidates propose to keep the primary open. We want to give the Democrats of the first group the right to go to the polls and endorse Truman and his program. We want to give electors opposed to Truman's program a chance to run so that the second group of Democrats may vote their convictions. We do not believe in settling this issue one way or the other at this time. By waiting until 1952, we can give Democrats in the third group time to make up their minds and choose their course.

So regardless of what kind of Democrat you are, you cannot go wrong by voting for the States Rights candidates on May 30. To do so will protect your freedom of choice later. If you vote for the so-called Loyalist candidates you will be helping to place our Alabama party machinery under Trumanite control and you will have made your final choice for Truman and his program. You will be off the fence. You will have swallowed the whole capsule.

You owe it to yourself and to your children to go to the polls on May 30th and vote for States Rights and freedom.

Thank you.

It was a scientist who said the little fellow might have gone swimming and wound up crossing the ocean.

The Mexican Loggerhead, about the size of a man's head, was first spotted ambling placidly along a seashore highway several thousand miles from the Gulf of Mexico where he belonged.

Cornishmen had never seen one like him. They phone the marine biological laboratory here. "Very rare thing," said Dr. D. P. Wilson, the laboratory's aquarium chief. He said it was quite possible that the turtle crossed the ocean under his own power, helped along by the Gulf Stream.

Charlie Returns From Florida Trip

Charlie Crisswell, of the De-Luxe Cleaners, has returned from his annual vacation. This year Charlie toured Florida, down one side and up the other. He and Mrs. Crisswell visited Jacksonville, St. Augustine, Daytona Beach, Fort Pierce, Fort Lauderdale, Miami, Key West, Fort Myers, Sarasota, St. Petersburg, Tampa, Ocala, Silver Springs, Panama City, and Tallahassee.

Charlie reports that he and the Mrs. had a very nice time. While in Tampa they saw the place where he was mustered into the army in 1898 during the Spanish-American War, and at Tallahassee they viewed the place where he was mustered out. Charlie says he showed Mrs. Crisswell the place where he bought a suit of civilian clothes and threw away his uniform. The store still operates in Tallahassee.

According to Charlie, he spent all his money and is now looking for business.

More Productivity For More Pay Held Answer to Strikes

NEW YORK. - Strikes can be stopped, according to Lewis S. Rosenstiel, if labor and business make a basic bargain at once of more pay for more productivity.

Rosenstiel, who is chairman of Schenley Industries, says:

"In the more than four years since V-J day, strikes have cost us six billion dollars. What we need now-what would help the whole country—is a five-year moratorium on strikes."

This is the simple swap, between labor and business, that Rosenstiel urges to end industrial disputes for the next five years: 1. For labor-a 5 per cent wage increase each year;

2. For business-a 4 per cent annual increase in labor's man-hour productivity.

The executive regards what he proposes as an old-fashioned horse trade, with firm mutual incentives for the both sides in the U.S. production picture. And he ought to know since his company employs approximately 12,000 persons and has one of the "cleanest" labor records in the country.

It has more than 100 contracts currently in effect covering plants in nearly two score communities throughout the country and has had "practically no lost time because of labor disputes."

Besides eliminating labor - business discord, his proposal will provide continued prosperity for the nation, Rosenstiel says.

"The wage increases will put 47 million dollars more in employees' pay envelopes in 1954," he says, "and that will mean a one-third increase in the standard of living. Naturally, greater productivity and heightened consumer activity will provide the nation with a healthy. expanding economy, an economic climate that is always good for businessmen."

According to Rosenstiel, the U.S. national income should reach 300 billion by 1954, a 33 per cent increase over the 1948 income of 226 billion dollars.

Prom Refreshments Made By Students

Several people have been asking the question-Who prepared the refreshments for the Junior-Senior Prom at Montevallo High School? Amazement and almost disbelief were shown when it was made known that the refreshments were prepared by the Montevallo Home Economics III class.

As a special learning experience the girls prepared several varieties of cookies, cocoanut balls, stuffed dates, and other Hawaiian dainties. The girls also prepared Hawaiian punch, chicken salad, cream cheese and pineapple sandwiches which were not only delectable, but helped to carry out the Hawaiian theme of the program. The hula girls serving refreshments from the tea table in the thatched hut also added to the Hawaiian occasion.

The Senior II class was pleased that the home economics girls not only gave Waites some competition in catering, but saved the class a neat sum of money.

Three hundred and fifty interested parents, townspeople, and students attended open house at the new home economics building last Thursday.

From two o'clock until five, guests were conducted on tours throughout the building, obtaining an over-all view of each department.

All hostesses and demonstrators were home economics students who pointed with pride to the distinctive features of their departments.

hostesses wearing dresses they made themselves, either in class or as a home project. Each tour began with a stop in the office and student-teacher room.

In the clothing laboratory, a colorful exhibit of baby dresses, pre-school garments, dresses. coats, pajamas, skirts, aprons, place mats, and rugs were on display. Each garment was the product of the girls' sewing classes and home projects. Student seamstresses expertly demonstrated the new electrical button-hole worker, steam iron, and vacuum cleaner in this department.

The kitchen vied with the clothing room for first place in visitor interest. New electrical appliances, mixer, automatic washer, and | ago when his home was destroyed ironer, were operated for their benefit. #### 154 Seniors To Graduate June 5

The largest senior class in a decade—154 students of Alabama College-will be graduated on June 5, when Hodding Carter, noted editor, will make the commencement address.

Seven states and every county in Alabama are represented in the class. This year there will be one in the graduating class from outside the continental United States. The other fourteen students enrolled at Alabama College from beyond the states are all undergraduates.

Commencement activities begin formally with the Senior-Alumnae breakfast on June 3. Graduating seniors will meet Mrs. Walter P. McConaughy, Jr., wife of the former Consul-General in Shanghai, and herself an alumna of the college.

At 8 p.m. on the same day the college will honor the seniors with a campus reception.

Baccalaureate exercises will be held Sunday, June 4, at 11 a.m. in Palmer Auditorium. Speaker is Dr. J. McDowell Richards of the Columbia Theological Seminary. Decatur, Ga.

The annual garden party of President and Mrs. John Tyler Caldwell will be Sunday afternoon, followed by the traditional YWCA vespers at 8 p.m.

Postmaster Exam Ratings Released

Applicants who took the recent examination for postmaster at Montevallo, have been notified of their ratings by the Civil Service Commission.

The standings, according to information we have received, are as follows:

First, James A. Wyatt; second, Billy Rotenberry; third, Morris Watson; fourth S. Reese Woolley. According to Civil Service rules the three highest will be certified as eligibles, from which the appointment of permanent postmaster will be made.

Rabies Clinics Are Scheduled

The Shelby County Health Department will hold rabies clinics at the following times and places for the purpose of inoculating dogs against rabies:

Thursday, June 8 - 8-10 a.m., Siluria Baptist Church; 10-12 a.m., Thompson High School; 1-2 p.m., Ellisville Church; 2:15-3 p.m., Straven; 3:15-4 p.m., Maylene School; 4:15-4:45 p.m., Ryan Church.

Industry Exhibit Makes Hit at Meet of Editors-Publishers

Birmingham, Ala. - Ask the men and women who have seen it and they'll tell you it's a smash

The "it" refers to the Alabama Industry Days exhibit. The men and women who've seen it are the editors and publishers from over the state who gathered at the University of Alabama last week end to attend the Doyle L Buckles Institute.

A preview of the exhibit was arranged for the Institute meeting, and more than sixty editors and publishers representing every section of Alabama got first-hand information on this program which promises to be one of the greatest promotions in the state's history.

The program is sponsored by the Associated Industries of Alabama in cooperation with the Alabama Press Association and the University of Alabama's department of journalism.

More than 85 industrial firms throughout the state have contributed samples of their Alabama-made products to go into the display. These products represent hee, and John Kyle Wilson had a wide diversification of industry, and in compiling the exhibits everything from fence posts to tex- Master Howard Lucas. even the pesky insects. Feminine appeal is evident in the exhibit where the finest corduroys and chambrays are displayed, as well as the process through which Milady's hat must pass before it finally reaches her as the consumer. That's from the apparel angle, but she'll be interested too in seeing all the good things manufactured and processed right here in Alabama for the family table. Canned goods of all types are shown. There's vegetables, syrup, flour, meal, pickles, peanut butter, identification of the state's best ice cream, peanut butter sandwiches and jams.

And oh, yes, for Blue Monday and the family wash, there's a clothes line handy.

For the handyman around the house, there are tools to meet every need, floor drains, pipe valves and fittings, pulleys, work caps, paint, brick, metal laths, nuts, rivets and bolts.

The youngsters will go for the miniature tractor-an exact replica of the one manufactured in Gadsden - Dad's fishing cricket box and other gadgets.

There's canned dog food, horsemeat, and other things for Fido, and a whiz-bang new pesticideadvertised as the best in the country-to bombard those persistent mosquitoes this summer.

That's only the high spots in the great exhibit—one of which will be placed in every county of the state, and in the larger communities in Alabama where there is a newspaper, during June 15-16-

Best of all, though, is that it's all made right here in Alabama-WHAT ALABAMA MAKES, MAKES ALABAMA.

Montevallo Wins District Tourney

By Grantland Rice II Birmingham Post-Herald

Montevallo used a fluke home run to full advantage to whip Tuscaloosa's Black Bears, 2-0, for the Fifth District championship last Saturday night.

Through six innings the game was a brilliant pitchers' duel between Montevallo's John Galloway and Reuben Sexton, of Tuscaloosa. In the top of the seventh, things broke loose as Allen was safe on an error giving Montevallo a chance to break the deadlock.

White forced Horton, who ran for Allen, at second, making it two away and giving Sexton time to breathe easier, but Lawley, batting ninth, promptly sent a line drive into deep right-center. Centerfielder Steve Hunter, who had just saved Sexton with two running catches in center, saw the ball bounce in front of him, and and giving Lawley a four bagger, and Montevallo its 2-0 victory.

Sen. Allen Thanks Shelby County Voters

Dear Mr. Wyatt:

Please permit me to take this opportunity of thanking the people of Shelby County for the fine race for Lieutenant Governor. I shall ever be grateful for their support.

During the next four years I want to help give the people of Alabama a government in which they can place their confidence, and which will command the respect and admiration of the people of Alabama and the nation.

Again thanking you and with best wishes always, I am

Sincerely, JAMES B. ALLEN

On The Farms In

By B. F. Hatchett and G. C. Starcher

The planting season for wildlife borders for increasing food supplies for quail is nearing an end. Any cooperator of the North Central Soil Conservation District still interested in increasing the bird population of his farm may apply for aid in selecting a site, planting, and getting the seed necessary.

J. S. Dykes, of near Montevallo, is planting a border this week.

Chas. Cordes, Dry Valley. farmer and truck gardener, planted a bi-color border with the assistance of a bird-lover from Birmingham this spring. He is being furnished partridge peas by the district for another wildlife border.

This type of planting is the answer to the question of providing food for our game birds.

This We Love

Did you ever try doing something for which you did not see any reason at all? I'll bet you disliked doing those things as much as some of the High School girls in first year foods hated to spend time planning how to cook a meal. They wanted to cook, but why spend time in planning?

First there was "What are we going to cook? Then followed a careful study of recipes with ing to cook What and When?" Aling ti cook What and When?" Also there were decisions to be made about how the food should look and taste; but the sixty-four dollar question was "Of what use is all this planning?"

When we went into our kitchens to prepare things that were planned all these questions were settled. Our meals were cooked, not a single item of the market order missing, hardly a job left undone at the last split second, and the meals were not only nutritious but were colorful, had a variety in texture and tasted wonderful!

We found that wise use of a little time in planning before preparing our meals saved a lot of time during the preparation of vote which they gave me in the them, and also saved the flavor and beauty of the food.

Is planning a headache?-We should say not. It is fun and this we love!!

Director Fisher Gives Outline Of Montevallo Summer Recreation Program

By Theron Fisher, Director

The summer recreational program will be held Tuesday, June 13, with a community party at the High School from 6:30 till ?. There will be games for all ages, plus softball and dancing. Refreshments will be served free. Everyone come and lets enjoy a night of

The general program for the boys is listed below. The girls program will be planned later by Miss Betty Smith, who will direct these activities.

There will be a four team baseball league for boys under 14 and a few games with other towns around here will be played. The boys batting averages will be kept and will be posted once a week. The American Legion age boys will have a team playing local teams plus teams from the Birmingham area. Mr. Tillery is in charge of the scheduling of games.

There will be a men's softball league consisting of 4 teams-3 from Montevallo and one from Boothton. Any man interested in playing should be at the field every Monday night.

There will be supervised swimming and games every afternoon at the Big Spring Area.

Four or five all-night hiking and fishing trips have been planned for the boys who have attended the program regularly.

We hope that this year's program will be similar to last year plus more activity in everything. The tennis courts are available to everyone each night. Keep up with our program by playing and reading your paper every week.

Alabama-Made Industrial Products Will Be Exhibited June 15, 16, 17

Loaded to capacity with Alabama-made products, three sixwheeler trucks carrying Alabama Industries Day's exibits will cover every nook and cranny in the state this week. One of these trucks arrived in Montevallo Monday morning and left the products to be displayed at the Times Office.

Approximately 150 towns will be visited by these trucks during the week, and each of these communities will receive one of the industrial exibits to be displayed during the Alabama Industries Days Program on June 15, 16, and 17. In some towns plans have been made to put the exibits on display immediately and leave them up through the three official days in order that more people might have the opportunity to become better acquainted with these Alabama products and the companies who bama in cooperation with the Alabama Press Association and the Department of Journalism of the University of Alabama.

Each exibit will be composed of some 87 different products—all of which are made or processed here in Alabama.

Appropriately decorated with Alabama Industries Days signs, the three trucks left Birmingham early Monday morning. In charge of the truck covering North Alabama was D. Trotter Jones, Executive Vice President of the Associated Industries of Alabama, while Wallace C. Journey, AIA Field Executive and Clinton R. Milstead, Director of Public Relations were in charge of trucks covering South and Central Alabama respectively. Mr. Milstead, better known around Montevallo as "Bud", is the son of Mrs. A. L. Montevallo's fishing firemen made their annual trip to the Gulf of Mexico this year in two groups.

The first went down to Bear Point and fished May 13. They did not have good fishing luck, catching only a few Bonita, which is a nice fish but not considered fit to eat. So far as catching them, it is as much fun as any fish, that is if the fisherman considers it fun to have a hard fight on his hands.

These Hit It Lucky

The second group went down to fish May 24 and 25. They hit it right on their luck and caught over 200 pounds of most every kind of fish in the Gulf, except Bonita and shark. All they caught were "eating fish" and they brought them back home.

On Tuesday night they used their catch for a fish fry at Big Spring. The families and friends of the firemen were invited. Everyone had a good time in spite of the rain—and there was plenty of fish for everybody. J. L. Thomas presided at the frying pan, only it was a pot. J. L. is an old Coosa River catfish fryer. Many assert that he made that ling taste almost as good as river cat. Ling, after all, is nothing but river cat that went to sea and put on a scaly skin.

Tried To Buy A Farm

On the trip going down through Dallas, Wilcox and Monroe Counties Clarence Chism had a relapse of an old ailment that has troubled him at times for many years. He began to demand that Harry stop the car and let him get out every few miles.

We soon found out what the trouble was. Clarence has for a long time cherished an ambition to own a farm—a real farm.

When he saw the beautiful level acres of cotton and corn along the way, his longing for a farm came Roy Walker's wharf, someone re stop and watch the operation of the many tractors engaged in the cultivation of the fine crops.

By the time we got to Uriah he concluded he would get his desires permanently satisfied by buying one of those beautiful farms. He had everybody in the party looking for a "good place"-one with a for sale sign on it.

Presently we passed through the state prison farm, the most beautiful and expansive of all, and Clarence wanted to call up Big Jim and see if he would sell it to Te foregoing yarn, of course is all in fun, but really it is a temptation for anyone with a yen for farming to see the modern and far flung agricultural operations in the vicinity of Monroeville, Frisco City, Uriah and Atmore at this time of the year. Don't blame Clarence for getting so enthused.

Baldwin County was in the middle of the potato harvest, and that is a sight to see.

We Arrive At Bear Point

The party traveling in cars driven by Harry Kendrick and Bill Weaver, arrived at Bill Morrill's on Bear Point in time for supper Tuesday night. Word was sent to Mrs. Roy Walker that our party would like flounder for supper. She forthwith prepared same in the most delectable manner. The way Harry and Herman put that flounder away was excelled only by the amount of hush puppies consumed by Walter Weems on the trip last year.

A good supper, a good night's sleep, and good weather put us in ood shape and high hopes for fishing Wednesday. Our day started at five o'clock when we were rousted out of bed for breakfast.

Our Flying Fisherman

As we rigged up our gear Wednesday morning to take off from back to him. He simply had to membered that Cooper Shaw had said he would fly down to the Gulf in time to join the party. We were going out in three boats. As the last one was pulling away from the wharf an airplane appeared circling. above. Our boys recognized it was Cooper and went back to get him. He had circled the area, found a place to land, and was at the wharf when the boat got back there. He had left home a little before daybreak and was at the Gulf in time to go fishing at 6:30.

It was a good day of fishing by all the measurements you could apply. It was, in fact, one of those days when some kind or size of fish would grab anything offered. For some of the party it got to where fishing ceased to be mere fun and began feeling very much like hard work.

That was true in the case of Harry who had the good fortune to land the biggest fish of the day, a ling that weighed 66 pounds "after he was gutted." ("Gutted" is a term or expression that is frowned upon by real fishermen. They regard it as a word used only by uninitiated amateurs. "Drawn" is the approved and accepted word; but "gutted" was good enough for our crowd. Harry landed the big fish and all of us were happy.)

Cooper caught the next biggest fish to Harry's—a ling about 30 pounds. Some of the boys did not catch anything, whereupon some who could not keep from catching fish accused them of going to sleep or getting seasick and failing to put a hook overboard.

Hold Him Down, Harvey

When a big fish is being hauled aboard, it is fun and work for all hands and the cook. Harry fought and pulled and tugged him for 30 minutes while I fanned him (Harry) with my hat. Finally ready for the gaff by Bill Morrill, I held the lid of the fish box, Harvey Rochester stood poised and ready to hold the lid down when the fish was inside. "Sit on top of the box, Harvey," came the command of skipper Bill who had beat the monster's brains out with a hunk of scrap iron.

As the fish, about two feet longer than the box, surged and thrashed and fought violently inside, Harvey bounced up and down on top of the box. He was not heavy enough to hold the lid down against the mighty efforts of the captive to get out. The lid slipped to one end of the box and down went Harvey into the box with the fish. A big ugly head poked up between Harvey's legs and he sat astride his mount ready to ride him across the Gulf of Mexico if necessary to subdue him.

Near us was another boat upon which a big ling was landed, and after he was put in the box he fought himself free and went back overboard. Harvey was determined not to have any such trick pulled on him.

A Sight-Seeing Trip

Late Wednesday afternoon Cooper cranked up his plane and with Hobart they took off for a sight-seeing flight. For about an hour they cruised miles and miles over the Gulf and bays all the way from Mobile to Pensacola. When they returned the plane was landed at Bill Morrill's and parked snugly under the big magnolia at the edge of the yard.

Above (left) Cooper Shaw takes Thursday's catch from the box of Gladwyn Walker's boat and piles them on the wharf for "gutting"; (right) Hobart made this snapshot of Harry Kendrick and Bill Morrill as they proceed to put the big ling to rest in Roy Walker's ice house.

Copper Shaw and his plane at Bill Morrill's ready for the take-off home Thursday afternoon. He grabbed a bunch of Spanish Mackerel he caught that morning, left at 3 p. m.; stopped awhile at Monroeville, and was at home in time to eat his fish for supper. The others left at the same time in Harry's car and got home about nine o'clock.

"We've seen everything now, said Bill. "We have had fishermen come here in everything from ox carts to streamlined buses - but this is the first time one has come in an airplane and parked it right smack in the yard."

At It Again Thursday

Half of the party had to come home Wednesday night. Four remained to fish again Thursday. Harry figgered up that arrangement by arguing that the Mayor was not physically able to make the trip back home after the hard fishing of the day. But it turned out that the Mayor and the others as well were in worse fix Thursday evening than the day before.

More fish were caught Thursday. I have told several of the "fish tales" since we came back, but, as usual with such stories, nobody believes them. But I must here print one that Hobart Love got tangled up in Thursday.

The Ling Family

Hobart hung into a big ling that looked like about 40 pounds. Just as he brought him up to the boat and Gladwyn Walker was ready with the gaff, there appeared two more ling the same size. They got into a big fight trying to take the hook away from the one that Hobart was struggling with. Result: They all got away.

Needless to say, that was a terrible disappointment to Hobart as well as the others of us. Bad as it was, I reckon it was a fitting climax to a great streak of fun in which there had already happened a sufficient portion of thrills.

It had to stop some time or we would not have been able to get back home at all.

Help To FFA Boys

Exibiting a real spirit of helpfulness and citizenship, the GI trainees in agricultural training under the direction of A. L. Little gave a complete set of hand tools to equip the first wall cabinet in the new vocational agriculture farm mechanics room. A committee of FFA boys will be active during next year toward completing the various units set up in a recommendation through a state plan for farm mechanics. Members of the Montevallo FFA chapter have also helped in promoting premiums for the "Achievement Day" for on-the-farm trainees which is to be held at Lakeview July 12.

The GI on-the-farm trainees meet each Thursday at one o'clock at the new vocational building and the group will welcome any visitors caring to learn more about the program. During the past two years the GIs have cooperated with the FFA in many of the programs launched for the improvement of the Montevallo community. Service fees have been provided which enabled the boys to carry on the livestock improvement program; transportation has been furnished FFA boys to various field trips and tours; various individuals have contributed toward the pig chain program; and FFA members have been aware of the backing always given by the GI trainees in whatever phases of the program they were called upon to gilt.

Over 50 services have been used from the registered hereford bulls which means over 50 better beef calves in the community.

GI Trainees Give

During the past year 117 registered pigs have been produced from the 13 gilts that have farrowed. Choice gilts from each of the litters were passed on to some other FFA boy. The chapter now has placed 26 registered gilts with the boys and two of the FFA boys realized considerably over $100 profit from the first litter after giving the chapter a gilt to settle his original obligation for his

Cub Scouts Hold Meeting Tuesday

Arthur Garrett, Jr., keeper of the buckskin and Bill Bob Garrett, mascot of Den 2 Cub Scouts Pack 59, were hosts Tuesday afternoon, June 6 at their home on King Street.

The meeting was opened with the singing of the Star Spangled Banner and America. In answer to roll call each cub repeated one of his Bob Cat requirements.

Due to the absence of so many members during vacation it was voted not to have a weekly den meeting, but to hold a pack meeting the fourth Thursday of each month.

Sandwiches, suckers and cold drinks were served cub scouts, Bill Brown, James Earl Davis, Murphy McGehee, John Kyle Wilson, Arthur Garrett, Jr., and mascot Bill Bob Garrett.

The meeting was dismissed with the grand howl led by den mother, Mrs. Arthur R. Garrett.

To the north of the monastery are the remains of small red brick canals, obviously used for irrigating gardens there. To the south is a cemetery containing 36 tombs, of which 15 are intact. The bodies were wrapped in cloth, completely decayed, and nothing was left of the coffins but pieces of rusted

This cemetery was obviously the burial place of monks, as all the bodies recovered are those of men. With one of the bodies was a flat rectangle of ivory, bearing a Coptic inscription, but it was too decayed to be deciphered.

Ann Ingram, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Ingram, Spring Creek, is attending Girls State at Huntingdon College in Montgomery this week. Ann is a junior in Montevallo High School and her trip to Girls State is sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary of Montevallo.

The second Girl State girl is Patricia Woolley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reese L. Woolley of Montevallo. Pat is a representative of the newly organized Junior Legion Auxiliary. She is also Junior in High School. According to last reports Pat Woolley was leading the race for Commishioner of Agriculture at the Girls State encampment.

State Education Gets Revenue Cut

Montgomery-Due to continued falling revenue, the State Department of Education has been instructed to take a six per cent proration in its operations funds during the next three months of the current fiscal year, ending September 30th.

Both income tax and sales tax are off considerably, and it is now estimated that they will fall some $3,000,000 short of what had been anticipated by the 1949 appropriation outlay.

Gov. Folsom said this week that he is endeavoring to find a way to provide these needed funds, and added that he hoped to have something positive to say on the matter within a few days.

Postmaster Asks For Street Markers And House Numbers

Acting Postmaster, S. Reese Woolley, came before the Town Council Tuesday night and discussed the matter of street markers and house numbers as a means of adding to the efficiency of mail delivery service in Montevallo.

Mr. Woolley stated that for several years the Post Office Department has emphasized the importance of having this done.

"In my efforts to improve our mail service," said Mr. Woolley, Funeral services were held in | "I am seeking to find a means of getting the streets properly marked and the houses numbered in accordance with the requests of the Department. I solicit the consideration of the matter by the Town Council, and will welcome any assistance you may be able to give."

It was pointed out that proper marking of our streets would be a convenience to the public in other ways besides helping mail delivery service.

The Council took the requests of Mr. Woolley under consideration for such action as may appear within the ability of the Town.

Miss Betty Smith, director of the Summer Recreation program for girls, has arrived and is organizing the girls program for the summer.

According to Miss Smith the following is the tentative schedule: Lifesaving Classes

Monday through Friday-10:00 a.m. to 12:00-Big Springs, Junior and Senior lifesaving classes. Junior ages 12-15, Senior ages 16 and above.

Swimming Program

Monday through Friday-2:00 to 5:00 p.m.—Big Spring. Games will also be provided during this Monday through Friday except Thursday—7:00 to 9:00 p.m., High School Tennis Courts.

Play Night

Thursday nights at High School Auditorium.

A hike for girls is being planned for June 24.

Miss Smith states that the program is open to suggestions at any time.

The first play night was held at the High School Tuesday night with a large number in attendance. According to information we have received this phase of the recreation program will be revised in the future due to the fact that the auditorium is so hot at night.

The men's softball program was started Tuesday night with two teams playing Boothton one five inning game each. The regular softball league will start Monday night. Everyone is urged to attend and receive a team assignment at this time.

Extensions Made To Mail Delivery In Montevallo

Acting Postmaster S. Reese Woolley, announces that approval has been granted for the extension of city mail delivery (daily except Sunday) for the following areas, beginning June 26.

VOL. XVIII-NO. 7

(1) From Paul C. Bailey's east on Nabors Street to the intersection with Siluria Road; thence north on Siluria Road to intersection with Dogwood Road at Dr. Hubbard's residence.

(2) From C. R. Small's residence on Vine Street to Pep Jeter's residence; from intersection of Vine and Morgan Streets west on Morgan Street to intersection with Middle Street; thence north on Middle Street to intersection with East Boundary Street.

(3) From intersection of West Street and Main Street north on West Street to intersection with Valley Street; thence on Valley Street to the intersection with Shelby Street.

Request for the following extension of city delivery mail service is pending:

(1) All residences on Dauphin Street from Fred Jones's east to the intersection with White Street; thence on White Street to Selma Road. (2) On Ellis Street from Dauphin SStreet to Selma Road.

For information of those concerned, Mr. Woolley points out that under the present city delivery service all residents on Selms Road from the Southern Railway to Shoal Creek are entitled to daily mail delivery when they have provided proper boxes or receptacles and have notified the postmaster of their desire to be served by city delivery.

Also for the approved extensions noted above, effective June 26, it is necessary for residents of those areas to provide proper mail boxes or receptacles and to notify the postmaster of their desire to be served by city delivery.

Montevallo High Loses To Lanier

Montevallo High School's baseball team bowed out of the State playoffs last week by loosing to Sidney Lanier, South Alabama's champions, Saturday night at Siluria 6 to 3 and Monday night at Montgomery 1 to 0.

Bobby Baker received a trophy after the game at Montgomery for second place in the entire state. This makes the team champions of the County, District, North Alabama and second place in the state. Coach Fisher has done a wonderful job and has a string of trophies to prove it.

Buddy Rhodes pitched all the way in the game at Siluria Saturday night, allowing only three hits in seven innings. It was a heartbreaker to lose. Buddy had the game on ice until his fielders made a streak of errors and losing the game 6 to 3.

Eddings pitched a close game at Montgomery Monday night and was backed by beautiful field play on the part of his team mates coming out on the short end of a 1 to 0 decision.

Coach Theron Fisher says he had lots of good pitchers hid all season and from the way these boys handled things we agree.

Miss Rebecca Bartlett and Winston Peterson Married In Church Ceremony At Talladega

riage of Miss Rebecca Bartlett Sr., Fortson, Georgia; Miss Thereand Winston Getzen Peterson was solemnized at the First Methodist Church on Saturday afternoon Fortson, Georgia; Mr. Frank Bonwith the Rev. Joe E. Morris of ner, of Montgomery; Mr. and Mrs. Gadsden officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bartlett of Talladega. Mr. Peterson is the son of Mrs. Charlotte Warner Peterson and the late Francis M. Peterson of Montevallo.

The church was artistically decorated with palms, ferns, smilax interspersed with white gladioli, stock, carnations and fever few. Cathedral candleabra with white tapers completed the background.

Preceding the ceremony a program of nuptial music was rendered by the organist, Mrs. Sarah Christopher and Mr. Jack Tobbits as vocalist.

The candles were lighted by Mr. Frank Bonner of Montgomery and Dr. Luther G. Fortson of Columbus, Georgia.

The bride's attendants were Miss June Rice Woodward, maid of honor; and Misses Martha Williams and Sybil Noel. They were dressed identically in embroidered organdy over yellow taffeta, with yellow picture hats and matching shoes. They carried bouquets of yellow and white shasta daises.

Mr. Charles Barlett gave his daughter in marriage. For her wedding gown the bride wore an ankle-legnth embroidered organdy with a fitted bodice, full pleated skirt and full legnth train. A finger tip veil was held in place by a Juliet cap. She carried a white satin prayer book from which were showered a yellow-throated orchid of white with stephanotis.

The groom's only brother, Francis Marion Peterson of Chicago. served as his best man. Ushers were Messers Ross O. Baldwin of Auburn: Harold Poor, of Phenix City; Dr. Luther G. Fortson, of Columbus, Georgia; and Frank Bonner, of Montgomery.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Bartlett chose for her costume a dress of navy lace chiffon with wheat accessories. Her corsage was of roses.

The mother of the groom, Mrs. Charlotte Peterson wore a powder blue nylosette dress with chantilly lace. With this she wore pink accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. A reception in the parlors of the church followed the ceremony. The bride's table was beautifully appointed with a lace cloth and silver candelabra. The cake-a wedding ring-embossed in orange blossoms and orchids centered the table. White stock, snapdragons and carnations were used throughout the parlors. Serving were Mesdames Dowdell, John Bryan, Monroe, Herndon Dowling.

Following the reception the bridal couple left by plane for New Orleans and other points of interest. They will reside in Shreveport where Mr. Peterson is employed with Delta Air Lines.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Koehner, of Shreveport; Mr. and Mrs.O. G. Jackson, of At-Matural Resource" What Good Is Without Industry?

> VIL and other minerals below ground, good soil, abundant forests, the water in the streams, a healthful climate -all are "natural resources" contributing little or nothing to man's well-being until somebody does something with them to make them useful to human beings.

When somebody does something-such as drilling oil wells to recover the oil, digging mines to get the metal or coal, cultivating fields so that crops may be grown, cutting and curing the timber for housing, furniture and other needs; using the waters in the rivers for transportation or power, publicizing to others the climate of a regionindustry is born.

Industry, to satisfy human wants, uses the brainpower, labor and wealth of people together with the materials and forces of nature to produce and deliver goods and services.

The improved well-being of man has ever been dependent on the use of his natural resources - not on the mere existence of them. Industry whether that of the farm or the city - intelligently applied to the conversion of natural resources into forms to provide food, clothing, shelter, warmth, health, enjoyment, leisure - has ever been the means of improving man's lot.

Perhaps this is a thought worth considering not only during "Alabama Industry Week," but during all weeks. Alabama industry has done, and is doing, much to provide for Alabama people better living than they would enjoy if Albama's abundant natural resources remained undeveloped.

As more and more industry makes use of these resources, or, in other words, as more industrial development takes place, the living standard of more and more Alabamians will be improved.

Farm Kids Rated as Having Better Chance Than Others

CHICAGO.—Farm kids have all the luck. They're healthier; their responsibilities build stronger character, and often by the time they're 20, they're capitalists.

That's the summation of a 4-H club official, G. L. Noble, director of the national committee on boys' and girls' club work.

"If cities had a youth program similar to 4-H clubs," he said, "juvenile delinquency would be greatly decreased."

Noble contends that city youngsters don't have the responsibilities of their rural cousins.

"We spend thousands of dollars on supervised recreation for kids in the cities," he said. "The kids are told what to do. They don't learn how to take responsibility—and if you don't learn that, oftentimes you turn out to be a weak-ling."

Noble says that it is different with rural youngsters as members of 4-H clubs.

"Each club is a little democracy. The kids map out their own program. They take responsibilities."

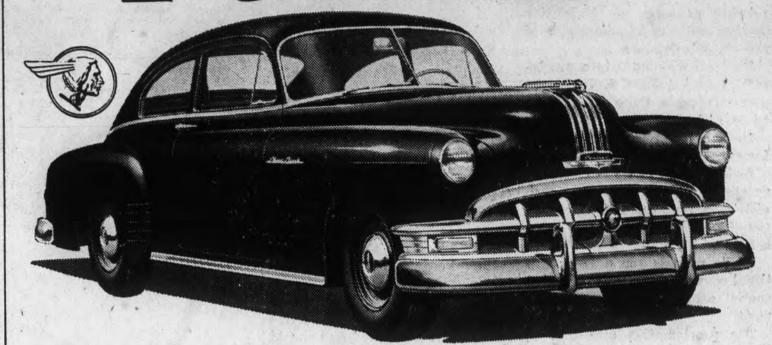

He said that the nation's cities need a 4-H club type of program even more than the rural areas.

"Farm kids would be kept busy with chores even if there weren't a 4-H club," Noble said, "But city kids don't have an opportunity to work with their hands and with different gadgets."

Noble says that the 4-H club program gives rural youngsters a chance to gain recognition—an important ingredient in a well rounded personality.

Dollar for Dollaryou can't beat a PONTIAC

A Wonderful Performer

-at a Wonderful Price!

Almost everybody has a good word for the immensely popular Pontiac. The most enthusiastic spokesmen are those who own this great car. The facts behind this admiration of Pontiac are very simple—

Pontiac is America's lowestpriced Straight Eight. Pontiac is the lowest-priced car with GM Hydra-Matic Drive. Pontiac is the most beautiful thing on wheels. And Pontiac is famed everywhere for its dependability and economy.

Those are the facts, and they are impressive. But they are a lot more impressive to the person behind the wheel of a Pontiac. He knows for sure that dollar for dollar, you can't beat a Pontiac!

State Law Makers Called Into Special Session

Montgomery—The state legislature will convene in extra-ordinary session here, June 19th. The session was called by Gov. James E. Folsom for the purpose of considering passage of legislation dealing with reapportionment of the state legislature.

The call was made in a proclamation issued June 4. In it, the governor made three suggestions as to action on reapportionment:

1—A act providing a senator for every 67 counties.

2—To divide the state into 67 senatorial districts, giving each district a senator, and to extend the same priviledge to any new county which might be created.

3—To provide for a constitutional convention which would give special attention to reapportionment.

The proclamation also rovided the way for local bills to be passed during the special session.

Folsom said he was calling the session at this time so that the people could vote on any constitutional amendments which might be submitted to the voters in the November general election.

This will be the governor's third special session call. The first came soon after he entered office in the spring of 1947—and the second during the summer of '47 when the regular legislative session was in recess.

Three of the 35 senate seats will be vacant during the session. Sen. C. J. Owen, of Marshall, died. Sen. Joe Langan, of Mobile, resigned; and Sen. Paul Hooten, of Randolph is in Europe.

The 67-senator bill was a con- tevallo, Alabama.

troversial issue during both the 1947 and '49 legislative sessions. Both times it failed to pass, having died the last time during a midnight filibuster as the '49 session came to a close,

On The Farms In Shelby County

B. F. Hatchett and G. C. Starcher

Several Shelby County formers are building ponds as part of a complete conservation farm plan. Work is now in progress on the Casey Bowdon farm, Dunnevant; the Stubbs Foundry farm, Helena; and the J. E. Smith farm, Shelby.

Properly managed and fertilized farm ponds should annually yield about two hundred pounds of edible sized fish per acre. According to Mr. Verne Davidson, Regional Biologist for S.C.S., state recommendations for stocking and fertilizing the ponds must be carried out exactly. No "wild" fish should be put in ponds, and if there are any fish or minnows above the dam these should be destroyed with Rotenone before filling the pond.

Preparations should be made now for saving fescue, white dutch, and button clover seed. The fescue seed will probably present most difficulty in saving. Harvest of button clover seed can wait for a convenient time, with a harvest period of several weeks.

Having Trouble With Your Zipper?

Home sewers who find difficulty in putting in a zipper neatly and firmly by machine may welcome the idea of sewing it in by hand.

"The hand sewn method," says Marian Cotney, home agent, "will please the most particular women for the stitches are hardly visible on the outside.

"Not only good looks but a more pliable opening is achieved by hand stitching zippers," explains the agent.

When sewing a zipper, first press a good crease in the placket, she advises. To do this, sew up the placket along the seam line with loose machine stitches that come out easily.

Lay open the seam on the wrong side, dampen it with a sponge and press. Then pull out the stitches.

For hand sewing, pin in the zipper, laying pins at right angles to the zipper. The zipper is placed right when the front edge of the placket lies just past the teeth of the zipper-about one-sixteenth of an inch.

After pinning, continues the agent, sew in zipper by hand, taking stiches right next to zipper-so close that the needle brushes the side of the metal.

A version of the back stitch in sewing, using tiny stitches, and going back only half as far as the last stitch each time is one of the best methods to use.

Contract Awarded For Gas System

The Town Council of Montevallo received bids Wednesday for the construction of the proposed natural gas distribution and service system.

A contract for same was awarded to the lowest bidder, Stewart C. Holmes, for the sum of $114,557.

It is expected that work of construction will begin about August 1. The contractor has 120 calendar days allowed to complete construc-

Any persons who may want gas and who have not already signed and deposited for same are warned that they should do so by the time construction is started. Delay until after the deadline would make it necessary for the customer to pay all cost of connecting to the system.

The Lester Browns Improve Their Home

The Lester Browns, Mt. Era, are enjoying their attractive and comfortable newly decorated bed room. This is also the sewing room and den. The pleasing color scheme is soft light green walls, the reclamed furniture is enameled in gray, the floor is black rubber tile, the ruffled curtains are white, the chairs and sofa are slip-covered in feed sacks and o dusty rose and white.

The Browns repainted an old wicker set, made a desk from an old dressing table, found the what not shelf placed above the desk in a junk pile and painted it. Shaped shelves of plyboard were installed in two corners of the room. The legs were changed on a child's table to make a coffee table for the settee. An old iron bed has been painted but it will be replaced by a frame to make the bed into a studio couch. They especially enjoy television for this room.

Mrs. Brown made good use of feed sacks for curtains for most of the house. She used blue checked sacks for curtains in the dining room. The curtains in one bed room are printed in shades of brown and orange on white.

The bathroom and shelf curtains are printed in shades of dusty rose and burgandy on white. She also made a pillow top and a gathered skirt for a mailkeg of the same sacks. The attractive useful shelves mentioned were made by stacking three apple boxes and covering them in wide burgandy and gray striped paper.

The Browns have made good use of materials on hand to make their home most attractive.

111 Tubercular Cases In Shelby County

A recent check of the files of the County Health Department shows that Shelby County has 111 known Tuberculosis cases. Each of these cases represents, on an average, 5 family contacts.

These contacts as well as the cases are x-rayed at regular intervals by the County Health Department. The families are visited and instructions are given, by the Health Nurse, to prevent the spread of the infection.

Suspects are frequently referred to the x-ray clinics by the physicians of the County.

Many cases of Tuberculosis are medically indigent and, even though sanatorium care is recommended for them, they are unable to pay the expense of hospitalization.

The State Health Departmen subsidizes each sanitorium bed to the extent of $1.50 per day. This leaves $2.00 a day which must be paid by the patient. This is a very small sum when compared with the expense of hospitalization in a general hospital. However since Tuberculosis is a very chronic disease the family resources are often already depleted and this small expense cannot be met.

The past 2 years this County present. has averaged 3.381 patient days in the sanatoria. All these paid their own expense, sometimes at a great sacrifice, except those eligible for admission to Veterans fice. On normal days all mail that Hospitals.

Your County Health Department is equipped to x-ray these patients and their contacts and to x-ray any suspect referred by mendations of Congress and the a doctor. Also the weekly clinic subsequent order of the Postmasis prepared to give "refills" to indigent patients who are under Acting Postmaster, Montevallo. pneumitherax treatment.

The big problem is obtaining funds for hospitalizing the patients for whom this is required. E. F. Sloan, M. D., County Health Officer.

Cairo Typist Seeks World Championship As Heaviest Eater

CAIRO. - Mohammed, the title-he would like to be the champion eater of the entire hemisphere.

His full name is Mohammed Riad, an Egyptian typist, who is now down to an eating weight of 225 pounds.

In competitive eating, to vie for the world's singles, two-handed eating title, the contestant must include hardboiled eggs. However, . they may be shelled first, the rules say.

According to the best information on the subject, the present world record for hardboiled egg consumption is held by an American who put away 60 eggs in 30 minutes.

So far Mohammed's single weakness-hunger-has kept the title just a few dozen eggs out of his

He made a title attempt only a few weeks ago. But listen to Riad's sad story:

"While I was waiting for the judges to arrive, I went to wash my hands and found a large piece of chocolate in my pocket. One of my fans had put it there and I could not resist it.

"Believe me, this was the cause of my failure. Also, I ate a large bowl of pea soup before the contest. This was a mistake, too.

"I am ashamed to say I ate only 43 eggs and drank two bottles of soft drinks in 23 minutes."

One of the hazards of the sport, a sharp pain in the region of the stomach, put him out of play at that juncture. He turned pea green and bolted from the room.

"Now I am training for a new championship attempt," Riad said. "I absolutely will eat 100 eggs for a sensational new record. My honor is at stake.

"Also, I am thinking about changing my technique. Do you think I made a mistake in dipping each egg into red pepper first?" Bricks of Babylon Bricks have been used for building from the most ancient times. The walls of Babylon were built of bricks. The Israelites were em-ployed in brick-making during their bondage in Egypt.

Sicilian Takes Big Fortune From Salt Water Annually

TRAPANI, SICILY.-Many are the schemes and dreams of taking treasure out of the sea-but there is one man who is making the ocean provide him with a fortune.

He is Rocco Ricevuto, owner and manager of the Trapani salt marshes from which he is taking about one million dollars a year. The marshes yield about 200,000 tons of salt annually for which Ricevuto receives an average of $5 a ton.

Water from the salt - laden Mediterranean is pumped into drying basins where the hot Italian sun evaporates the water and leaves the salt in a growing pile.

In 1943 fleeing Germans destroyed all the plants in the salt marshes "because they could have been of use to the American troops." Ricevuto said he still wonders how the Americans could have used the salt marsh plants for war purposes.

"Destruction was carefully planned and faithfully carried out," Ricevuto said. "When I came back after the Nazi-Fascists evacuated Trapani, I found that nothing remained of the plants my father had built with loving care through 50 years of hard work.

"For a year I came here every morning, and studied how much of the rubble could be salvaged. "One day, that was in 1944, I decided that I must do something to make the plants work again. We always had a group of more than 500 men working in the salt marshes. I called them to a big meeting in the place where the old silos were built and asked them to help me out.

"In two years I got my plants running again.

"Little by little we recovered our business. Ships come here now at an average of one every week or two loading salt for eastern and northern countries.

"Trapani's salt is good for industrial use, so Norwegians and Japanese come here to buy it. "After years of loading the ships by hand, with men carrying the heavy baskets of salt on their shoulders, I now have my new chain system rolling again."

Births In State For Last Year

Montgomery,-The 83,222 Alabama births reported last year included 515 reported from Shelby County, the State Department of Health announced today.

Of the state total, 51,447 were of white babies and 31,775 were infants of Negroes.

Last year's state total represented a substantial decline from the 84,994 births reported in 1948. However, it was considerably over the average of 79,106 births a year reported between 1944 and 1948, inclusive.

All figures refer to live births only. The 1949 total, based upon provisional reports prepared by the State Health Department's Bureau of Vital Statistics, may differ slightly from the final reports not yet available. The other figures given are based upon final reports.

Waitress' Kindness Pays Her Off to the Tune of $90,000

CHICAGO.—One of the most outstanding cases on record where kindness "paid off" is provided in the experience of Mrs. Leona Smith, a 40-year old, red-haired waitress.

Declared by him to be his only friend, Lucien Gerald Walker, 83year old retired businessman, left her his estate of more than $90,000. Walker, retired owner of a fabric import and export firm, named Mrs. Smith his sole beneficiary in a will signed five days before he

Mrs. Smith had been with him almost constantly during the last 10 days of his life. She had a cot in his hospital room on which she took short naps whenever she could find the time.

Two of Walker's relatives began a contest of his will. His sistersin-law, Mrs. Wylma Perry Spann and Mrs. Olive Perry Maupin of Vicksburg, Miss., charged that at the time he did so, Walker was "wholly mentally incompetent to execute a will." They wish to admit to probate an earlier will which named them his beneficiaries.

Mrs. Smith met Walker 12 years ago when he began taking his two daily meals in the coffee shop in which she worked. Walker was a permanent resident of the hotel. She said she knew that he was a lonely man and tried to do "little things" for him, such as seeing that he got plenty of white meat when he ordered chicken and being sure that his bacon was crisp.

About 10 years ago Mrs. Smith invited Walker to her home for Christmas dinner. After that he spent every Thanksgiving and Christmas and most Sundays with Mrs. Smith, her husband and daughter, now 15.

In the last year, Mrs. Smith said, Walker had been too ill to go to her home for dinner, so she and her daughter would meet him downtown on holidays.

Walker's simple, one-page will

"I bequeath all my personal property to my friend, Leona M. Smith of Chicago, who in my old age and last illness has really proven to be my friend."

Nobel Winner Will Use Money To Foster Peace

152,289 Norwegian crowns ($21,889), given for efforts to promote peace, will not benefit its recipient one dime's worth financially because he's going to use it all exclusively in efforts to promote peace.

The winner of the prize, Lord Boyd Orr, is convinced that hunger plies; drawer partitions; lapis the root of just about everything board; silverware racks; knife and the 69-year old Scot wants to do everything possible to increase the world's food production. That's why he declines to profit from the prize-not even to the extent of a

A respected authority on nutrition, a former director-general of the United Nations food and agricultural organization, Lord Orr is a political philosopher who likes to pack wisdom into snappy epigrams. World peace is his passion.

"Not that I wouldn't fight if something vital or sacred was threatened," he says, "but I don't want to. It's so unnecessary."

Food Is Answer

His formula to end wars can be squeezed into one word — food. "Feed the people and they won't fight," he says.

He insists that "hunger is the greatest politician of them all."

Lord Boyd Orr is an earnest man with a mission who looks like an elderly, weather-beaten physician, or a professor, or an up-country politician, or a farmer in town for the agricultural convention. In fact he has lived, or is living, in all these roles. Much contact with the world has not erased entirely his Ayrshire manner of speaking. There is Scotch in his r-r-r's.

He smokes matches.

There is tobacco in his pipe all right, but he lights up and forgets to puff because he is so intent on driving home a telling point. Match after match is expended as he makes his arguments factually, wittily and sometimes bitterly. The world moves much too slowly to

In young manhood he was physician. Then he became more interested, by turn, in physiology, animal nutrition, human nutrition and finally the vast problem of feeding the world to preserve peace.

Glad to Be Farmer

Now he thinks of himself as a farmer and is glad to be one. He is caustic about the artificial life of cities, believes that in every life there should be a garden, the outdoors and the feel of weather.

Since January, when King George elevated him to the peerage-he had been known before then as Sir John-Farmer Boyd Orr has come down from Scotland occasionally to take his place in the House of Lords, to vote, to put in some plugs for world government, to tell all who will listen about his conviction that food is the beginning and end of everything. He appreciates being in the House of Lords-it gives him a platform and a base of operations—but he doesn't think too much of it as an institution.

"Ought to have been reformed years ago," he said. But let the politicians worry about that, his mission is food.

Legion Auxiliary Elects Officers

The American Legion Auxiliary held its first night meeting Thursday night.

The officers elected were: Mrs. Augusta Lovelady, President; Mrs. R. L. Woolley, First Vice President; Mrs. Rose Klotzman, Second Vice President; Mrs. W. E. Lovelady, Jr., Secretary; Mrs. J. I. Reid, Treasurer; Mrs. Paul Rogan, and Mrs. Helia Montgomery, Sergant at Arms; Mrs. Nettie D. Simpson, Historian.

After the meeting refreshments were served—a good time was had by all present.

Kitchen Planning At Club Meetings

"As soon as I can locate some apple boxes I'll make those conveniences for my kitchen," has been frequently heard at club meetings this month.

Few kitchen cabinets were built to fit the dishes or pans now stored in them. Cabinet storage may be doubled or trebled by adding the simple accessories being shown, which include:

Step shelves; half shelves; spice rack; rack for cleaning suprack; pigeon hole files for pans, lids, etc.; spaced shelves for dish-

In addition to seeing an exibit of the above items the discussion has included kitchen planning (U or L shaped kitchen is best) arrangement of work center, proper heights of counters and shelves.

Miss Sewell and Mr. Parnell Married At Tuscaloosa Church Ceremony Last Thursday

(From The Tuscaloosa Sun)

Church were decorated with thir- Mrs. Robert E. Lyman, Miss Maria ty-two inch cathedral candles tied Stephenson, Miss Louise Winslett, with white satin ribbon and surrounded by fern for the marriage of Miss Mary Susan Sewell and Charlene Collins, Miss Virginia Leighton Calhoun Parnell, Jr. The vows were spoken shortly after 7:30 Thursday evening. Dr. Joseph P. Boone officiating. The altar was lined with candles similar to those on the aisles, and banked with green palms and fern. In the center was an arrangement of Calla lillies and smilax, with matching arrangements at either end of the altar

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wheeler Sewell, and was given in marraige by her father. Mr. Parnell's parents are Dr. and Mrs. Leighton Calhoun Parnell of Montevallo.

A slipper satin bridal gown featuring a Chantilly lace yoke and taper slim bodice was worn by the bride. Extending down the bouffant skirt and cathedral-length train were panels of matching Chantilly lace. The front of the bodice was accented by self-covered buttons. The long tight sleeves came to a point over the hands. The bride's fingertip veil fell from a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis and valley lillies, centered with several white orchids and tied with white satin ribbon that merged into long streamers.

Five attendants preceded the bride down the church aisle. Maid of honor was Miss Margaret Lollar of Tuscaloosa, while Mrs. Stancil Starnes of Oneonta served as matron of honor. Other attendants were Mrs. James Sewell, New Orleans, bridesmatron; Miss Theresa Ford, Tuscaloosa, bridesmaid They all wore white organdy dresses over white taffets, marked by a high yoke identical to the bride's. A bertha of embroidered organdy came to a point in front of the long bodice that was connected to a full skirt. A ruffle of embroidered organdy circled the skirt. Fan-shaped bouquets fashioned from pink orchids were carried by the attendants, and they wore arrangements of matching flowers in their hair.

Mr. Charles Price of Gadsden acted as best man for the bridegroom. Ushers were: Mr. James Sewell, New Orleans; Mr. John C. Tyson, Montgomery; Dr. Joseph Sewell, Birmingham; Mr. Robert Lyman, Montevallo; Mr. Edward Phillips, Montevallo; and Mr. Donald Latham, Siluria. In the lapels of their summer tuxedoes, they wore white boutonnieres.

Wedding music was presented by Miss Emily Searcy, violinist, Mrs. F. P. Givhan, organist, and Miss Martha Sewell, vocalist, of Birmingham, and cousin of the bride. Miss Sewell sang, "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer".

The bride's mother wore a blue lace gown, and Mr. Parnell's mother was attaired in mauve chiffon and lace. Both wore white orchid corsages. For the wedding reception at the Tuscaloosa Country Club, the mantel in the ballroom was decorated with Calla lillies, tube roses, and greenery with long cathedral tapers at one end. Arrangements of other pastel flowers were placed around the walls. The receiving line formed in front of the fire place in the ball room, while at the other end was the brile's table covered with pink satin and white lace. The three-tiered bridal cake was topped with spun sugar orchids. Opposite it were five pointed silver candelbara. #### Cities Can Not Finance Ball Club Montgomery,-Local funds cannot be used to finance a ball club which is privately owned, Attorney General A. A. Carmichael ruled this week.

The question came up when Headland's Mayor, Grover Ray, asked the Attorney General for permission to request the city to help defray expenses of the Headland baseball club.

Mayor Ray said that the local club was having difficulties in meeting expenses and that many Headland citizens had recently donated money in order to keep the team in top notch condition. The Attorney General's opinion was based on the old theory that tax money must be used to benefit all of the people and not a particular individual or group of individuals.

For many years the town of Guin got its water supply from a gushing spring on a nearby mountain-top. The water is piped down the mountain and into a 250,000 gallon tank without any preassure Miss Emily Searcy and Robert Al- devices needed. The spring has

Liberty Bell Comes To Calera Saturday

Roy Downs, Chairman of the Shelby County Sayings Bonds Committee announced today that the Liberty Bell replica would arrive in Calera next Saturday, July 1 at 11:00 a.m.

"There will be a warm reception for the bell." Mr. Downs said. He said that arrangements were being made for a program in which local people will participate.

"The citizens of Shelby County will see an exact replica of the Liberty Bell which bellmasters guarantee will reproduce the longsilent voice of the original," Mr. Downs stated.

He called the duplicate bell "an inspired piece of workmanship" and said that its voice would ring out the "earthy, down-to-saving slogan, 'Save for your Independence' ".

Shelby County has a $20,000 share of the $653,950,000 Series E National Sales quota. Volunteers expect that the appearance of the Liberty Bell will impress the idea of thrift on the public and make them save to realize their hopes for a financially independent future.

Mr. Downs said that the Bell would be rung hourly and tell the her mother with the preparation county that it's "Time to Save for Your Independance."

Swimming at Big Spring

Swimming has been a big attraction this summer. Hot weather and a lot of sunshine have increased the numbers enjoying the cool water at Big Springs. For the two weeks ending June 23, around 500 people have been in swimming and played ping pong and horseshoes. A ping pong table has been set up in the shade of the trees and pitching horseshoes is a popular activity. Fine concrete steps County Health Officer have been built on both sides of the creek. The steps lead down to the water and provide an easy means of entrance.

Swimming Classes

Beginning July 5 and lasting about two weeks swimming classes for beginners and intermediates will be conducted at Big Springs. The beginners class will include those who can not swim or dive at all or who can only swim a short distance. The intermediates class will be for those who can swim the width of the creek and back and who can dive. There will be no charge for these classes. All who are interested are asked to come to the creek July 5, at 10:30.

Carolyn Sample Does Good Work In Her 4-H Club

Carolyn Sample, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Sample, is to be commended for the good work she has done on her 4-H sewing project. She has made two dresses for herself and helped make two others along with a pair of shorts and two dish towels.

Not only is Carolyn learning to be a good seamstress but she is also learning to cook. She helps of the family's meals and many times assumes the responsibility of preparing a complete meal.

In the living room of Carolyn's home are two tables placed at the end of the couch. The tables are made from spools which Carolyn glued together for the legs. She used a one inch thick piece of lumber for the top and placed small braces between the legs near the floor. These tables add much to the beauty of Carilyn's living room, Carolyn is 12 years old and is a member of Calera 4-H Club.

How To Remedy Canning Problems

A familiar and troublesome problem in home canning is loss of liquid from jars of food during the canning process. The uncovered food resulting from liquid being drawn out into the canner is likely to lose its appetizing color, texture and flavor as the jars are in storage. There will also be a loss of nutritive value.

Marian Cotney, home demonstration agent, says that recent research shows the following methods of avoiding this loss:

First, leave enough headspace (unfilled space) for all the contents to expand in heating. Headspace of 3% of an inch for pint jars; % of an inch for quart jars.

A tight closure also helps hold in liquid. The two-piece closure is best. Be sure to hold the pressure steady which also helps prevent loss of liquid.

Eggs Must Have Proper Care In Hot Weather

Hot weather adds to the problem of keeping eggs of high quality, says Marion Cotney, Home Demonstration Agent. Keeping eggs fresh until they reach the consumer is a job that begins on the farm.

The agent says that top quality eggs can be sold if the flock owner will keep a well-bred flock, feed a balanced ration, and follow a good management program.

She suggests the following things to do in order that a top quality egg can be sold.

Provide one square foot of community nest space for each five hens, or provide one box nest for each five hens.

Gather eggs two or three times a day and keep them in wire baskets or wire trays for several hours in order that they may cook properly before they are packed in cartons or cases.

In order to cool these eggs, they must be held in a refrigerator, an underground cellar, or a basement where the tempreture is below 68 degrees. Eggs that are held in the kitchen or in the feed room of the poultry house are certain to lose quality during this hot weather

Keep the eggs away from such things as kerosene, onions, and oils of all kinds, because the eggs absorb odors very quickly.

Wash dirty eggs before they are sold, or clean them with steel wool or sandpaper. If eggs are washed, the water should be hotter than the tempreture of the

The eggs should be marketed at least twice a week and protected from the sun on the way to market.

This is Novel Joke Twist In Radio Give-Away History

YOUNGSTOWN, OHIO.—
There is a new trend in "practical joking" that's giving radio give-away programs a bad jolt.

A local housewife reported that she received a phone call purportedly from a radio station. An unidentified voice offered her $100 for the best suggestion on "how to tame your wife." She said she quickly replied, "Why, spanking, of course."

The voice then repeated the promise of $100 if she would have her husband spank her loud enough to be heard over the phone. Eager to win the $100, she called in a neighbor to administer the spanking because her husband wasn't home.

When the spanked housewife called the radio station to arrange to collect the $100 prize, she was told the whole thing must have been a hoax, as the station hadn't offered any such prize.

15-Point System Aids Insomniacs To Get to Sleep

NEW YORK. - For those who have trouble getting to sleep, there is a formula on the market which is designed primarily to remedy that trouble. Although most people bother about how to stay awake, or how to wake up, once asleep, there are many thousands of humans who are tortured night after night by inability to get to sleep.

Dr. James Bender never had any trouble like that, although he did lose some hours over a book he was writing. The title of it is "How to Sleep."

Although the book touches on all phases of sleeping from the fine art of snoring to how to get the children to bed-it is chiefly aimed at bringing comfort to the insomniacs, the people who can't go to sleep.

For those who want to try it, Dr. Bender has a 15-point program for producing sleep. Here is what he recommends:

1. Sleep in a good bed. Make sure it's big enough for you.

2. Sleep on a pillow that fits you. 3. Dress your bed right. Dr. Bender even advocates a daily change of linen for severe cases of nonsleeping.

4. Don't sleep in a room decorated in exciting colors. Pastel ful shades.

Keep Room Dark

5. Keep the room dark. If necessary, buy and wear a pair of eyeshades.

6. The bedroom should be strictly for sleeping; make it a pleasant, restful room, with things near by that induce slumber.

7. Take a bath before going to bed. A bath is more relaxing than a shower, especially if a few drops of pine needle extract are added to the tub. The temperature of the water should be between 98 and 102 degrees.

8. Be the master of noise. A pair of ear stoppers help keep the room

9. Ventilate your room to suit yourself.

10. Try melotherapy. That means music. Among the selections Dr. Bender suggests are MacDowell's "To a Water Lily" and Debussy's "Afternoon of a Faun."

11. Make friends of your senses. In other words, rest them. Some ways you can do that are to brush your hair before retiring and to burn a stick of incense in the bedroom.

12. Eat a snack. But be careful. Dr. Bender advises the bedtime menu consist of a glass of skim milk and a plain cookie. If you're very tired, maybe two cookies.

Kid Self Along

13. Kid yourself along. Dickens, says Dr. Bender, couldn't sleep unless his bed pointed north. If you need a secret trick-like crawling ground the bed 10 times-go to it. 14. Read yourself to sleep.

15. Make a happy event of going to bed. Look on sleep as a delightful escape from problems. Besides the 15 points, Dr. Bender has other suggestions.

"I have almost a religious fervor in the belief that relaxation exercises are a hig help," he says.

Some ways, Dr. Bender advocates relaxing are by standing on your head, or yawning, or blinking.
Yawning, incidently, is good for you, and you shouldn't try to swal low your yawas.

Steno Writes Sky-Ad Letters Two Miles High

INDIANAPOLIS, IND. - It's a stenographer's business, of course, to write letters-but when one writes letters in the sky which are one mile wide and two miles high, that certainly should entitle one to a designation as a unique stenographer.

Betty Pettitt is the stenographer who writes those huge letters in the sky. The trim, brown-eyed pilotsecretary is the only skywriter in Indianapolis and, she believes, the only woman skywriter in the business.

A 35-year-old brunet, Betty's entire aerial career has been happenstance. Born in the Adirondacks, near Saranac Lake, N. Y., Betty loved the sky and admired women fliers. But she had spent seven years helping a music foundation in Newark, N. J., before she went overboard for flying.

One of her two sisters got her a pass on a flight to Montreal. That did it. Betty started pilot's training, got a private license in 1943 and enlisted as a women's air force service pilot the following February. After that, she tested planes. When the Wasps were disbanded, she stayed on at Napier Field, Ala., as a Link trainer instructor for a year.

But the end of the war brought the end of flying opportunities for women, she found. She served stints as an airline co-pilot and hostess in New Jersey, ferried small planes for distributors, and then started to work as a pilotsecretary for a New York coal wholesaler. Then Betty's boss vecame too ill to fly.

Answers Ad

Answering an ad in a flying magazine, she came here in October, 1947, as pilot-secretary to Rollin H. Stewart, an automobile distributor. Stewart already had a man writing the name of his automobiles in the sky. When the skywriter decided to be a salesman instead. Betty Pettitt took over. After one demonstration, she was on her own.

"I practiced making little crisscrosses and lining up letters," she said. Now she knows the flight plan for her usual "message" by heart. "You see, it's all done backward and upside down," she explained. "I'm always thinking two letters ahead in order to save time."

A check with the airport weatherman shows whether the winds at 10,000 feet are under 15 miles an hour, as they should be.

It shouldn't be too dry, either, because then the smoke is dissipated. "Sometimes a small change in altitude makes all the difference in the world," Betty said.

Climbs Two Miles Climbing two miles, she sights along a familiar road or fence row. She pulls the smoke throttle on the left side of the cockpit in the AT-6. Betty the skywriter counts off eight seconds, then shuts off the smoke. The first line of the first letter is done. She banks sharply and comes back to finish the letter. If she's crossing a "T," she flies 50 feet higher, or the slipstream would disperse the smoke in the first line, She uses the grid pattern of roads and fields in the open farming country around Indianapolis to line up her sky letters. Writing against a background of fields and rivers, Betty finds the letter "B" one of the hardert. So is "O," but "S" isn't bad.

By the time she has finished, she may be on the way across the city, 10 or 12 miles away from where she started. Sometimes she flies a thousand feet up or down to check her spelling. But not until she lands the plane does she know how it looks to people on the ground.

By then vagrant winds may have mixed two letters together, and it's usually all gone in 10 minutes.

Is a Big Egg The dinosaur's egg is as large as a standard football.

Mental Expert Asserts Men Are Overworked

NEW YORK .- Anyone who pursues his quest long enough is sure to find a psychologist somewhere that will support almost any belief that may be trotted out.

For instance, take that old wistful, masculine feeling that it's really the man of the family who does all the work, while mamma does the playing. Most men would say that it's no use to try to convince the "little woman" of that, and have long since given up the effort-but Dr. George Lawton, a specialist in the psychological problems of people who are getting along in years (as who isn't?) is convinced that such is the case.

With trepidation or apology he told a mixed audience at Cooper Union that "women in the middle income brackets tend to do less work than they should," and he added, equally as boldly, "and their husbands do more work than they should."

Should Share Work

Looking the mixed audience squarely in the eye-there is, in such cases, safety in numbers—the psychologist went on: "In such cases, a wife, in order to help her husband enjoy life more and perhaps even live longer, should help share her husband's work load and share his economic and mental burdens."

Man, the doctor (a man) said, is really not the stronger half of the species. In fact papa has more severe emotional illnesses, more physical illnesses and lives on the average eight years less than his wife. (Lawton also mentioned that men have a higher suicide, delinquency and alcoholism rate, but it might be just as well not to inject that into the argument.)

"Men, both in the realm of employment and in sexual performance, face more dramatic crisis indicative of aging," the psychologist went on. "The dividing line between the first and last half of life in men and women is very much sharper for the man."

Many Men Overworked Declaring that it's more difficult for men to "age successfully," Dr. Lawton declared that as a male got older he had to "exchange speed and quantity for strategy, skill and quality." "Many a tired businessman is tired because he is overworking as an escape from close emotional relationships with his wife and members of his family," he said.

"A good husband will provide most women with the greater part of the things that they need out of life for fulfillment, but a modern woman needs even more than her home, a husband and children in order to have a complete sense of purpose and intellectual stimula-

"Every woman, regardless of her financial situation, needs a part time job, community activities and some creative outlet."

HIGH RANKING STUDENT

Among the students of the University of Alabama receiving high ranking grades during the past quarter and named to the dean's list in their respective schools was Melvin Klotzman, of Montevallo, in the school of engineering.

Bob Harrison Gets Man Sized Bass

Here is another "whopper" fish tale for you.

Bob Harrison and Mrs. Harrison went fishing for bream Tuesday. They came back with one "punkinseed" and—a six pound bass. Where they went is a closely guarded secret, but here are the other details:

They had some crickets and began fishing for bream. Soon they had caught a few small ones. They tied them out by the bank on a stringer. Presently they noticed a big fish trying to get the bream off the stringer.

Bob quickly scummed up a scheme. He rigged up a larger hook, baited it with one of the smaller bream and cast it out from the shore.

He had a strike in a minute or so, but the fish did not get on. With the little bream still on the hook he cast out again. Another strike. He let him go this time until the bream was swallowed good. The hook was set and he hauled him out on the bank.

A bass that measured 23 inches long and weighed a little over 6

That was all. Mr. and Mrs. Bob wound up their lines and came home, bringing with them the prize bass of the year in these

Court Objects To Milk Price Reduction

Montgomery, Ala.-A Montgomery circuit court decision voided a proposed price reduction order of the State Milk Control Board "saved an industry that means a great deal to the economy of the State," said Walter L. Randolph, president of the Alabama Farm Bureau Federation.

"There is no doubt that if the Milk Control Board's order had been permitted to stand, a great many dairymen would have been forced out of business," Randolph declared. "The order would have meant a reduction of approximately 20 per cent in the milk producer's income."

The Farm Bureau had emphasized that the court action was directed not against the board itself, nor the milk control law, but the specific price reduction order and the method by which the regulatory body arrived at it. "The court order by Judge Walter B. Jones has saved an industry that means a great deal to the economy of the state," he pointed out. "It was an important decision not only from the standpoint of the farmers themselves, but it also assured the public adequate supply of wholesome milk which would be endangered if the income of producers were further reduced in the face of rising costs."

The Milk Control Board had attempted to reduce the price of milk by two to three cents a quart at retail stores. Of this reduction of around $1.15 per 100 pounds, the producer would have been required to absorb $1.01. Judge Jones vacated the order on the grounds that it was illegal and unreasonable, as contended by suits sponsored by the Farm Bureau dairy committee and filed by two dairymen from each of the 15 milk sheds in the state.

63 Counties Join State Film Library

Montgomery-Sixty-three of the 67 counties in Alabama have joined the State Health Department's Film Library.

The Film Library was started by a group of county health departments before the war, with its headquarters in Athens. Later it was moved to Montgomery and made a part of the State Health Department's Division of Public Health Education.

Films, most of them on health subjects, are loaned only to county health departments which are members. County health departments, however, may, in turn, make the films available to individuals, organizations or agencies in their territory. The 150 film subjects have been divided into 23 classifications as follows: Amusement, cancer, child hygiene, communicable diseases. conservation, first aid, food and milk control, housing, human body industrial hygiene, malaria, maternal hygiene, nutrition, oral hygiene, personal hygiene, public health administration, public health nursing, rat control, safety, sanitation, school health, tuberculosis, venereal disease.

The four health departments not members of the Film Library are Butler, Perry, Randolph and Russell.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur R. Garrett and sons, Arthur, Jr., and Bill Bob were in Birmingham Friday where they attended the installation of their mother, Mrs. Willie Hughes Tarpley, as Worthy Matron of the Theo Osborn Chapter No. 384. Order of the Eastern Star, at Homewood.

You'd scratch your head a bit and say to yourself, "Now just what is it I want people to know about electric service?"

It wouldn't take you more than a second or two to decide that maybe you wouldn't write an advertisement after all, because certainly everybody already knows about how helpful, convenient and clean electric service is, and about the work it saves in homes, stores, offices, factories and on the farm. And at such a low cost, too!

"Why," you'd finally say to yourself, "electric service is really worth more than it costs!" and that's what you'd write your advertisement about.

Terminal Leave Pay Reopened The deadline on terminal leave pay has been extended to June 30, 1951. World War II veterans who were separated from service before September 1, 1946, who failed to file application for their terminal leave pay may do so now.

> Education and Training Under GI Bill

Persons who were discharged idend check. from the armed forces before July 25, 1949, must start their courses of education or training before July 25, 1951. This means that most veterans of World War II have approximately one year in which to make up their mindsafter that it will be too late to apply.

Persons, including enlistees under section 11(a), Public Law 190, 79th Congress, who were in service after July 25, 1949, must start their courses of education or training within four years from the date of their first discharge after July 25, 1947, or termination of enlistment, whether separated from active service or reenlisting.

Education and training will not be granted beyond July 25, 1956, to persons who continue active duty in the armed forces after July 25, 1947, but whose present term of voluntary enlistment did not commence between October 6, 1945 and October 5, 1946, inclusive.

Education or training will not be granted beyond nine years after the termination of a person's enlistment or reenlistment contracted for between October 6, 1945 and October 5, 1946, inclusive.

July 25, 1951 is not important to veterans who have started and actually are pursuing GI Bill training on that date as they have the right to continue their cours-

A veteran who has started a course of education and who has continued in it will be considered to be in training, even though he has temporarily interrupted the course for the summer vacation or for other reasons beyond his control. ## Make Shelby County Green This Winter

A Message To Shelby County People From P. O. Davis, Extension Service Director

An important fact, not generally understood until recently, is that soils and climate in Shelby County are very favorable to green grazing 10 to 12 months of each year. Those who do this can produce livestock at low cost, protect and enrich their land, and prepare for higher production of row crops the following year.

This in my judgement, is the No. 1 reason why farmers in this county have a big livestock advantage over farmers in other states.

But our concern is not advantages over people elsewhere. Instead our concern is to take advantage of the opportunities before us to produce more, to improve the land, to have more farm products to sell, to increase farm income, and do a better job of living in every way.-

Not many years ago it was believed that good pastures in Shelby County could be had only a few months being from spring to summer. We now know that we can have as good, or better, grazing in January as in June.

The feeling then was only certain low lands were suited to pasture. We now know that practically all soils of thi scounty are suited to good grazing or to producing it.

And it is easier to have good grazing throughout the winter than throughout the summer due to summer droughts which occur nearly every year. Except for an occasional hard freeze, winter pastures usually hold up.

There are, of course, several good crops for winter grazing in this county. Information about these can be had by any farmer from County Agent A. A. Lauderdale or his assistents W.M. (Buck) Clark and G. C. Moore. And many farmers have already established good demonstrations.

But success depends on more than knowing what to plant. Time of planting, rate of seeding, amount of fertilizer, soil preparation, and other factors are involved.

My observation has been that farmers are inclined to plant too late for best results with fall and winter crops. The big aim is to get a good stand and enough growth for good grazing as early as ing during winter months. Most Capt. Bailey states that all of their growth is in the fall and

> Still another important factor is involved in grazing. It is that cash crops in Shelby and other counties of Alabama are now under production control. Cotton, for example, is greatly restricted with no indication that the world market will need more next year than

While this is true, farmers need to produce more in order to sell more and have a bigger income. Their only big opportunity for doing this is with livestock, including dairy cows, beef cattle, hogs, and poultry. On some farms sheep offer a good opportunity.

So we have a combination of factors in favor of livestock in Shelby County. When we get it all together we find that such farming enriches man, enriches the land, and provides a better diet for the public.

I'm happy, therefore, to join with Mr. Lauderdale, Mr. Clark, Mr. Moore, and others in encouraging farmers to have a "carpet of green" on their land next fall, winter, and spring; yes, throughout this year and every other year. It is the key to the kind of farmand those who consume their pro-

Lime Increases Yield of Farms

A recent experiment at the University of Illinois Experiment Station on the importance of the addition of agricultural limestone to land showed quite shocking results. Two 160-acre farms were concerned. Each grew 40 acres of corn, 40 acres of oats, 40 acres of wheat and 40 acres of hay. One of these farms used no lime and the other applied all the lime which the County Agent indicated the land required.

The farm which used no lime reported the following yields: Corn—yield @ 36 bu. was 140 bu. Oats—yield @ 39 bu was 1560 bu. Wheat—yield @ 20 bu. was 800 bu. Hay—yield @ 1.50 ton was 60 tons.

The farm which used the necessary amounts of lime reported the following yields:

Corn—yield @ 58 bu. was 2320 bu. Oats—yield @ 50 bu. was 2000 bu. Wheat—yield@28 bu. was 1120 bu. Hay—yield @ 1.8 ton was 72 tons.

According to estimates prepared by the Bureau of Agricultural Economic Reports, the value of the commodities produced on the farm which did not use any lime was $6,832.40. The value of the produce on the farm which was adequately limed was $11,071.20. In other words, by not using the proper amount of lime the farmer on the first farm had $4,238.80 less income. This amount of money would certainly have enabled him to buy his entire limestone needs and have a substantial profit left.

The courthouse lawn at Livingston sports a borded well, the waters from which have been drunk for curative wonders for generations. Many people who become ill send many miles to get bottles of this water.

C. D. Whitten Covers His Whole Farm With Green Crops

C. D. Whitten, farmer of the Fourmile community, Wilsonville, Route 1, says a farmer won't lose anything by "Planting his whole farm in green crops each winter, then graze on what you need, turn the rest under for soil-buildingyou can't lose anything."

He had 45 acres green cover last winter but only grazed 32 acres and could have easily carried 32 head, this is one mature animal per acre, but he only invested in 15 head. These were mostly milk cows. He said he had lots of grazing to go to waste for lack of more stock on it.

As to cost of initiating new winter grazing crops this farmer believes it can be done on the average for $15.00 per acre and that it will be worth $40-$50 per acre to him the first winter. As to how much milk it will produce, Mr. Whitten says "Where you take a milk cow off of a clean woods pasture or any un-improved pasture with bitter weeds and po-jo and put them onto improved pasture with clovers and other legumes plus rye-grass, you can expect her milk to double pretty quick". Many farmers agree with this.

Some of his main grazing is on heavy Johnson Grass land which has also been seeded to re-seeding Crimson Clover and he gets two cuttings of hay in the summer plus his grazing all winter. He produces corn and some grain sorghum fol-ment his grazing program.

MAKE SHELBY COUNTY GREEN THIS WINTER

The Times is glad to join our efforts this week with the County Farm Extension Service, our farm ers and business institutions to lay emphasis upon the importance of "Making Shelby County Green This Winter."

Green cover crops for our farms in winter have proved of immense profit to farmers who have carried out this kind of a program.

There are many other farmers who could and should have the advantages that await them by using the green pasture program.

The subject is presented in this paper by reports from many farmers who have tested the winter cover crop plan and found it profitable.

Our County Farm Extension Staff is anxious and ready to help any and all farmers plan a better and more profitable program by the use of green crops in winter.

Capt. C. O. Nordan Spent Two Weeks At Fort Benning

Captain Clayton O. Nordan, Plans and Training officer of the 912 Field Artillery Bn., 87th Infantry Division is being kept plenty busy these days undergoing two weeks of rugged summer training at Fort Benning, Georgia. The "Golden Acorn' division is composed of men from Mississippi, Alabama, Tennessee, and Florida, and is part of the Army Reserves.

The 87th Division, with its historical slogan "Rugged as the oak, we never crack" has shouted its challenge in two world wars and now stands alert as a part of the reserve component to defend our country in any possible emergency. The division was first organized in 1917 when men arriving from the Southeastern states gathered to begin training after being inducted into the service. They were pressed into service the following year in Europe.

In 1942, the division was reactivated at Camp McCain, Mississipi. After an intensive training program, the division landed at LeHavre, France and was assigned to General Patton's hard-hitting Third Army. It distinguished itself by crushing the supposedly impenetrable bastion of Metz. After helping clean up the Bulge, the 87th captured Coblenz on the Rhine, made a Rhine River crossing at Boppard and fought its way across central Germany. It halted its advance there to await the Russians.

Capt. Nordan was commissioned on May 29, 1939. He later served overseas with the 277th Field Arty. Bn. in the European theatre of operations.

A resident of Montevallo, Capt. Nordan attended the Alabama Polytechnic Institute at Auburn and received a B. S. degree. He is the owner of the Nordan Hard ware Company, Montevallo. He resides at Montevallo with his wife Mrs. Theda W. Nordan. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Nordan of Abbeville, Alabama, and is a member of the Montevallo Chamber of Commerce.

Winter Grazing Is Worth The Price To Frank Baker

To us winter grazing is one of our most important field crops. We consider it more valuable than silage or hay crops. The reason is that it comes at the time of the year when our permanent pastures are dormant. The cattle will gather this valuable crop for you at no harvest cost. We can graze from middle of November until the first of March. In some fields of rye grass, where one does not plan to save seed, it can be grazed until July.

After taking the cattle off the grazing the 1st of March we then are able to combine seed, make hay, or have a good clover crop to supply humus for the soil and nitrogen for the next crops.

Really, the soil conservation is worth the price of seeding for winter grazing, beside the savings in

We consider it vastly important to have every available acre in winter grazing.

Grazing Does It All For This Farmer

In speaking about a winter-grazing program, Brown Evans, Wilsonville dairyman and poultryman says: "I recommend grazing as the easiest way known to 'Mow, rake, bale and put your hay in the barn for you'. That is one of the main things to me."

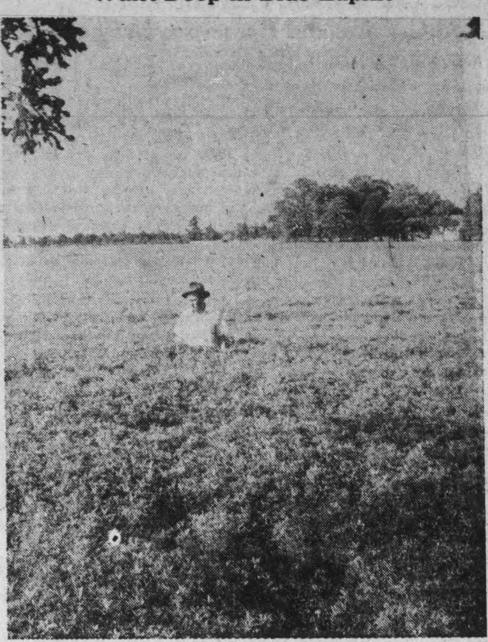

This farmer is one of the best farmers, says A. A. Lauderdale, county agent. He gets his farm income from dairying, poultry and seed.

Evans had 65 acres of green cover last winter, but only 18 acres of this was planted for grazing and was fenced and actually grazed. Mr. Evans is a small farmer and a beginner in the dairy business and poultry, too. He carried 12 head of mature cattle last winter and is now growing out 800 Marshall-Durbin pulletts to enter the quality-egg production program along with about 50 other farmers in the county.

Grazing was obtained for 150 days last winter beginning November 15th and lasting till April 15th. He says it cost him about $22.00 per average acre to establish his grazing and believes it is worth $50.00 an acre throughout the winter months to him.

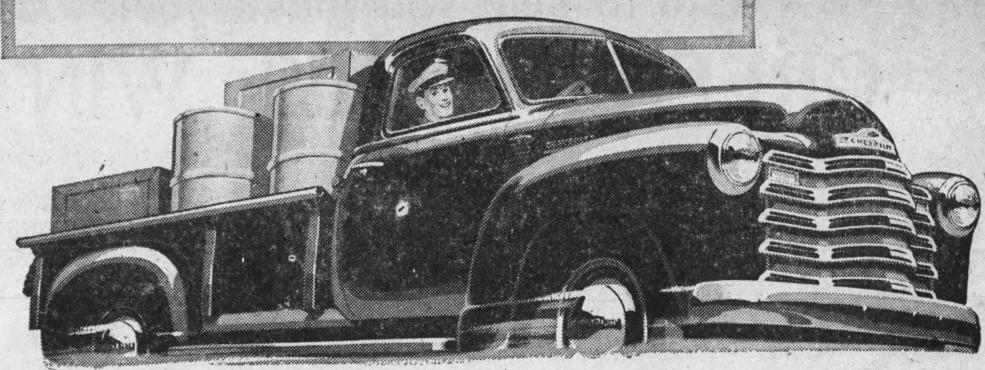

"A milk cow will give around 15 pounds of milk per day more from good winter grazing than she will on dry feeding with hay, I believe", concluded Mr. Evans.

J. M. Rowe's Farm Program Includes Good Grazing and Home-Grown Feeds

young dairy farmers in the county J. M. Rowe, Jr., of Vincent, really believes in the value of his Winter Grazing crops, reports A. A. Lauderdale, County Agent.

This wide-awake young farmer planted 100 acres of various grazing crops last winter and grazed 60 head of mature cattle from October 10th till nearly May first, but he had still another 100 acres of green winter cover, making a to-'tal of' around two hundred acres on his farm that were not washing away but were producing for him at the same time.

He says his grazing cost him about $15.00 an acre to put in and that he believes it is easily worth $25-30 per acre to him even the first year. Of course, usually, the second year's cost is less than the original cost which would add to the profit later, provided a farmer maintained it properly and sees after it just as he would see after his cotton or what not.

For A Dairyman Grazing Is A 'Must'

Lester Stancil, a new dairy farmer on Montevallo, Route 1, is making a fine success with his winter grazing and seed saving program. He says to other farmers who are planning to join the "Make Shelby County Green" program this winter: "A farmer who puts in his grazing crops right, that is, uses right seed, fertilizer, prepares seed bed and land thoroughly, can expect to get back three times as much good per acre the first winter as it costs him to put it in." This is very encouraging to think about.

land well. He uses crimson clover and white Dutch clover | mixed with rye grass and oats. Also he finds fescue and Louisiana white Dutch or ladino clover is one of the best combinations.

Mr. Stancil grazed every one of his 55 acres of cover last winter for 165 days beginning December 1 and ending May 15. However, crops that were later combined had stock taken off on April 11. He carried 35 head of mature cattle through the winter, mostly his milk cows.

He figures his average cost per acre to establish good grazing is about $15, but against this cost, looking at milk flow alone, he says Another thing he believes is: his cows will easily give 10

Naish Believes It's Really Good Stuff

Asked what he thought about winter cover crops and green grazing in the winter months, Mr. C. H. Nash, Wilsonville, Rt. 2, replied, "It's really good stuff. It helps me build up my land so that my farm now makes three times more stuff per acre than I used to make before I started using winter cover crops and put stock on the land."

Mr. Nash, who is a small farmer, derived his farm income from dairying and poultry, had his whole farm covered down last winter, but of this, only 12 acres were planted for grazing. This carried 10 head of milk cows, however, and as he stated "my cows gave almost twice as much milk

Senator Sparkman Is Pleased With Green Fields Plans

I am glad to know of the program farm leaders have planned for this fall to promote permanent pastures, and small grain and winter legume planting in Shelby County. Indeed, I hope that every county in Alabama will have a similar program.

Great changes are occurring in Southern agriculture. Alabama and the entire South have made rapid progress in recent years in practicing a more efficient use of their cropland. No longer do our people depend upon a one or two crop system. No longer do most of our farmers put "all their eggs in one basket." They are learning fast to establish a balanced agriculture.

This means of course, that more and more farmers are shifting part—or in some cases, all—of their lands to a grassland agriculture. This is the best way I know to improve the soil, our most essential natural resource, and to realize the great advantages of livestock production. Good pastures, then, serve as an excellent tool against soil erosion and at the same time offer an opportunity to stabilize farm income. Surely we need both in Alabama.

The mild winters, the usually adequate rainfall, and the long growing season, are advantages which Shelby County and all Alabama enjoy over other parts of the nation outside the South. It is our loss if we fail to make use of these advantages. It is our fault if we continue to be forced to buy from other sections such a large part of our dairy and beef products.

Men of the soil have long been the backbone of the nation's prosperity and happiness. Too long, however, have we of the South abused and neglected the factors of good pastures, soil conservation and livestock production. We are correcting that mistake in many parts of the South today. To the degree by which we do so, we shall have a County, a State, and a Southland as prosperous agriculturally as that of any other part of the nation.

It Will Pay You And Pay You Good Says Mr. Bristow

Mr. H. S. Bristow, Dairyman of Shelby, is one of the most enthusiastic men about this new way of producing meat and milk on Green Grazing in the county. Said he: "Tell anybody I said it would surely pay and I mean pay good. I get grazing every day in the year. Of course, the dry weather last fall held it down some, but, my stock got some grazing all the time."

Mr. Bristow uses Crimson Clover-Rye Grass, Oats-Vetch, Clover, Rye grass, Oats among others and says to do a good job of putting in these mixtures on the average with proper fertilizer and an abundance of seed to help insure a good stand, is about $25 per acre.

He grazed his entire 100 acres last winter carrying 90 head of mature cattle 150 days from about December 10th to about May 10th.

This farmer believes he gets 1/8 more milk per cow per day from grazing as on other systems. As for beef cattle he says you can get at least 2/3 more pounds on an animal from good grazing as you could on sorry grazing or a dry feeding program and that this gain can be put on half again as cheap, too,

These cows are wintering on crimson clover, a crop that is grown throughout the state. It is frequently planted in combination with sericea lespedeza, thus furnishing practically year around grazing.

Better Farm Incomes Are Possible Through Improved Farming Methods

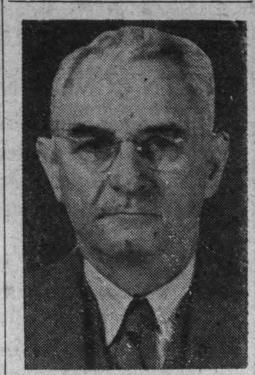

M. J. Funchess, Director Alabama Agricultural Experiment Station, Auburn, Alabama

When Shelby County farmers consider the possibility of making better living through better farm programs, they are actually considering the possibility of securing a better farm income for the support of their families. Consequently, these farmers should be interested in Experiment Station results that will point the way toward better living on farms through the increase in farm in-

Based on results obtained by the Experiment Station, it is safe to say that one of the most important means of increasing income on Alabama farms is through increased production of feed and forage which will eventnally be converted into livestock and livestock products. Results from many experiments on the Experiment Stations in this State indicate that livestock may be produced quite profitably. However, it should be very clearly understood that livestock production on bought feeds is a risky procedure and may not be profitable at all. We should consider a livestock program to be a means of disposing of feeds and forages produced on the land. The Alabama Agricultural Experiment Station system is producing feed and forages that are being converted into livestock and livestock products so economically that the production program is profitable. In considering the production of feed and forages, it is highly important that we strive for as great production per acre and per man as may be obtained economically. There can calves. ed on one or two procedures alone. Growing more corn without supporting crops will not support a program. Producing more permanent pasture alone without supplementary crops will not support a program. A farmer who intends to go into livestock production and stay in the game must produce feeds economically enough for the enterprise to be profitable and to balance his grain production, his permanent pasture acreage, and his temporary grazing acreages so as to have home-grown feed and forage for his livestock practically the year round.

The urgent need for a wellrounded program may be impressed on all of us if we will only observe the large numbers of Alabama cattle in winter that are so poor that they are not producing calves or are producing all too few be little or no profit in low yields one is immediately struck by the This simply means that we should cattle. We will have a better living on farms when we develop feed and forage production programs and when we follow these feed production programs by a program aimed at improvment of quality of our livestock. These factors combined will greatly increase cash income to those farmers who develop on their farms the type of program that is indicated. We have the soil and the climate that will enable us to do this. All we need is the will and determination to put into practice the Experiment Station results that will enable us to do a first-

Alfalfa is one of the best grazing crops for hogs-as well as for other livestock. This crop produces an abundance of forage rich in protein and makes excellent hay. Alfalfa requires well-drained land. When planted right on the right soil it is hard to beat as a grazing or hay crop.

White clover furnishes plenty of good grazing from late winter until early summer. A prolific seed producer, white clover works well in combination with grasses.

Can't Do Without Green Stuff On The Farm These Days

other farmers concerning a winter green-grazing program, Maples Wallis, of Arkwright community, on Vincent Route 1, said "You just can't do without green stuff if you expect to make anything these days in the Dairy business and I expect the same thing is true in the Beef business. Dry feeding just won't produce the amount of milk you want, besides this kind of a program is too much work." continued the farmer.

He had 42 acres of all green cover on his farm last winter but only 32 acres of this was planted particularly for green grazing and was actually grazed. He said he could have wintered and grazed more stock than he did but he did carry 15 head of mature cows amply fed for 210 days last winter starting about October 1 and ending about May first. Actually he said "I never did take my cows off or put them on because I had something green all the year."

The cost to this farmer to put in his green stuff was about $15 an acre but he says you can't hardly figure the profit gained per acre "Because it is worth everything that you make for without it you just need not figure on making much if you are feeding with livestock." He also believes good grazing will double the milk flow feed. of most cows where they go onto it from a dry-hay program.

Mr. A. A. Lauderdale, county agent points out also that Mr. Wallis uses Crimson Clover, Rye-Grass and Oats for his winter grazing; White Dutch Clover, Dalliss Grass and Sericea Lespedeza makes up his summer grazing. Besides he is one of the larger farmers and is building a dairy program. He also produces corn, oats, grain sorghum, plus a small amount of hay for his livestock

The above heading about the Brack Mooney farm of the King-Asked by assistant county agent dom community might have been Moore just what he would say to "Legumes Make Money For Moonbecause according to A. A. Lauderdale, County Agent, this farmer has "One of the richest farms in the county due to winter legumes". Of course, rich land will naturally make the people on it richer, healthier and happier.

> Brack Mooney's farm has literally been covered with green 100 per cent for the past four years. It takes about this time to really begin to see big changes as result of good cover crops. Last winter he had 180 acres of green cover

He planted about 50 acres especially to graze and grazed this plus about 25 more acres of oats which were harvested for grain too. He carried about 65 head of mature cattle last winter plus a few hogs.

He started grazing the early crops in October and grazed late crops on till March 15th on his Winter crops. Average cost of establishing his winter grazing crops was $20.00 per acre. He estimates his profits per acre off grazing as at least $30.00 per acre the first

Being a beef cattle man, Mr. Mooney figures that his cattle put on at least ¼ more beef per animal on good grazing in the winter than they would have if on dry

More Livestock Will Make Sound Farming Program

Shelby County farmers have done a good job producing winter grazing, winter legumes and small grain. Many farmers have almost *100% winter cover but we are not satisfied until sufficient winter grazing is provided for all livestock. More livestock is needed on many farms for a sound farming program which calls for more grazing and grain. Shelby County is making progress in corn production but the best yields are following winter legumes turned.

With the power equipment available for turning Shelby County farmers should double the acreage of winter legumes to be turned. This means more corn, cotton and grain sorghum.

Oats deserve a much larger place in our farming program for grazing, grain and hay. Let us plant now for a green crop on every acre this fall for either turning, grazing, grain or hay.

It is always a pleasure to visit the Garretts and see their good herd and the farm covered with green winter grazing and small

Countys Future Lies In Our Use of Soil

The future development and the prosperity of our county is to a great degree dependent upon the new wealth created from the soil and the processing of this wealth to its final consumption; therefore, agriculture and industry will play a great part in our long time objectives. It has been proved, and is being proved, that our soil, if used for the crops that are best adapted, will produce new wealth to an almost unlimited amount.

We are thoroughly convinced that our soils will produce perennial legumes and winter grazing crops as abundantly and as economically as any area in the U. S. Due to our climatic conditions and our peculiar location these crops can be harvested from the land by livestock twelve months in the year. This being true, the development of livestock in this community should grow by leaps and bounds, and we believe it will. Your County Court of Commissioners is rendering every possible effort toward that end.

Shelby County is definitely on the road to better farming, better industry, and better life-both in rural and urban sections. With better living, we need better roads, better community service, better churches, better schools, and this too is being achieved in many communities in Shelby County.

Keep up the good work, and by all means make Shelby County "Green" winter and summer.

State Farm Bureau Leader Explains Parity Support Gains For Farmers

By Walter L. Randolph, President | the price support would be only Alabama Farm Bureau Federation 50 percent of parity.

American farmers now have the best price support program they have ever had and it provides the highest supports for farm products we have had during peace time.

The law providing these supports is known as the Agricultural Act of 1949. Its provisions, to a very great extent, are based on recommendations made by the American Farm Bureau Federation. The action of the national Farm Bureau was taken after considering recommendations made by county and state Farm Bureaus throughout the country.

For the basic commodities, two of which are produced in Alabama-cotton and peanuts-the bill provides price supports at 90 percent of parity for 1950 and at not less than 80 percent of parity for 1951 regardless of supply. The bill provides mandatory price supports for these two commodities during any year in which the supply is not over 8 percent above the demand. When supplies are excessive and exceed the demand by more than 8 percent, the price supports would be lower by about one point for each two points the supply of the commodity is in excess of 108 percent of normal. The bill provides, even though supplies are 130 percent or more above normal, that price supports would be 75 percent of parity.

All of this applies provided farmers have not voted down marketing quotas for cotton and peanuts. If farmers fail to vote marketing quotas by a two-thirds vote, then

To summarize, the bill provides price supports at 90 percent of parity when supplies are kept substantially in line with demand but if farmers fail to control supplies and surpluses develop, price supports would be lower propotionately but not below 75 percent of par-

The Agricultural Act of 1949 was a great victory for farmers. Farm price supports are to the farmers what tarriffs are to industry and minimum wages are to labor. Farm prices are subject to sharp and abrupt changes. Total farm production is relatively stable; on the other hand, in industry it is prices that remain relatively stable and the volume of production and employment varies widely. If farmers experience unreasonable price declines they lose their purchasing power. As a result, business and industry are curtailed and labor is laid off. Price supports then are one of the most important balances between agriculture, industry, and labor.

If farmers had not been organized in Farm Bureau it would not have been possible to get legislation like that embodied in the Agricultural Act of 1949. This bill means millions of dollars for farmers every year. It also helps to assure a prosperous national econ-

LIME

BUILD FERTILE SOILS

The Need

Soil Tests

Hundreds of soil tests covering every county in the state show a very definite need for lime in our soils.

Good Land Use

Based on these soil tests, good land use indicates an annual need of several times the amount of limestone now used to maintain our soils at an efficient production capacity. Liming the soil is like lathering the face before shaving. The lather prepares the face for better shaving and lime prepares the soil for better crops.

Good Returns

An Agricultural Experiment Station reports as follows on the use of lime in farm plot tests:

| Soil Type  | Amt. Lime         | Increased Forage     |
|------------|-------------------|----------------------|
| Silt Loam  | 1 ton per acre    | 5300 lbs. in 5 years |
| Sandy Loam | 1½ tons per acre  | 1864 lbs. in 4 years |
| Heavy Clay | 1½ tons peer acre | 3525 lbs. in 3 years |

One test on pasture on sandy loam showed 1½ tons of lime per acre increasing forage 3080 lbs. over a 4-year period. Many of these tests were on grass sod hay plots. Much greater returns would have been secured on legumes.

Leaching Losses

Leaching through soil moisture takes away 200 to 500 pounds limestone per acre every 5-year rotation.

It's Use

When Will I Lime?

This is the most often asked question. Lime moves slowly in the soil, therefore, its response is greatest and it goes to work faster when worked in at seeding down time or when planting cultivated crops. If put on sod, it pays to lime both sides of the furrow; a coating on top and the same to the other side when sod is turned over. If on permanent pasture, that is unplowable, put it on top. It will get to work as it becomes available to the various grasses. 'Tis better on than in the shed.

What Crops Need It?

All crops including pastures, need lime to supply calcium and magnesium. The amounts consumed vary. Grass and legumes use much more than grain crops.

Here's A Guide

A soil building program is a forage program. It is one which calls for increasing acreages of ladino, alfalfa, and the common clovers—and these all call for lime in heavy amounts. Based on these facts, you must provide ample lime for the length of the ration.

Important Things To Remember

Base your needs on soil tests. Such tests are a good guide to follow. In general, it takes at least two tons per acre to grow good grass and legumes and allow for leaching loss.

How to get it

Through Your County PMA

The Agricultural Conservation Program is set up to encourage farmers to use those practices which make for maximum production and conserve the soil. The use of lime is one of these practices. By contacting you county PMA office, your committeeman, or county agent, you can find out how to get it.

Amount You Can Get

The amount of lime a farmer can secure from the PMA is based on his need, to help him do a good job of conservation and likewise production. If you have not already done so, check up with your county office and see how much you can get.

Holtville Girl Is Maid Of Cotton

With one county having already committees at work in many other counties, the tempo of Alabama's 1950 Maid of Cotton Contest was being stepped up despite the warm weather that was causing the product itself to start popping from Dr. D. G. Gill said, "but do not the bowl.

Clad in an attractive cotton outfit that she and her mother fashioned, Geraldine Thrasher, 20 year old Holtville beauty was named Elmore County's Maid of Cotton in Wetumpka last week. Eight personable, shapley and comely girls competed for the right to represent their county in the state finals to be held at the Alabama State Fair in Birmingham, Thursday, October 5th.

counties are setting up the machinery to select their representotives at the state contest. Twelve Alabama institutions of higher learning have also been asked by State Chairman Walter Randolph to send representatives to Birmingham for the state title. Last year, 64 counties and 9 colleges were represented at the state finals at the Fairgrounds when Lallie Hudgins, sparkling Fort Payne brunet, won the state's most coveted title.

The winner of the state title will compete in the national finals to be held in Memphis, January 1951.

Mr. Randolph announced a subcommittee to arrange finances for the state contest. It consists of Clarence Hanson, publisher of the News, Birmingham; Hugh Comer, president, Avondale Mills, Sylacauga; J. D. Hays, Huntsville, cotton grower; Isadore Pizitz, Birmingham merchant and R. H. McIntosh, general manager, Alabama State Fair, Birmingham.

Wardens Arrest Game Law Violators

forcement agents of the Department of Conservation's Division arrestel 3,781 violators of Alabama's game and fish laws during the nine months since the state fiscal year began last October 1, Conservation Director Phillip J. Hamm has announced.

During the same period last fiscal year-October 1, 1948 trrough June 1949—the number of arrests was 3,807.

Officials of the division believe that this decline in the number of arrests is partly attributed to the fact that the state's hunters and fishermen are becoming more wary about violating game and from this game to get a baseball fish laws as the division adds more modern equipment to its law enforcement work.

> The fact that the division now uses an airplane, which can arrive directly over the head of a violator with little or no warning, has been an important psychological factor in deterring violations, according to Division Chief C. Graham Hixon. The plane's full time pilot works constantly with game wardens in law enforcement

Commanding Officer of AirForces Reserves Outlines Opportunities For Volunteers

A need exists for officers and airmen from this area immediately, volunteer for active duty with regular U. S. Air Force Units, it was announced today by Colonel Thomas H. Holbrook, commanding officer of the 2587th Air Force Reserve Training Center at Birmingham Municipal Airport.

In making this announcement, the colonel said that a quota of officers below the rank of lieutenant colonel and airmen has been assigned the local station. Recalls will be for a minimum period of one year or a maximum of three years in a strict volunteer basis.

He pointed out that the local air base now has authority to accept and process volunteers without authority from higher head-quarters, where before, all applications were forwarded to Head-quarters of the Fourteenth Air Force for final approval.

Among the officers needed are those holding the following Military Occupational Specialties: A. W. Radar Observer Officer; Communications Officer; Fighter Intercepter Controller Officer; Internist Medical Officer; Dental Officer; Engineering Equipment Maintenance Officer; Weather Officer; Photographic Interpreter Officer; Inspector General; Staff

A need exists for officers and Armament Officer; and Automormen from this area immediate-

All officers above the rank of lieutenant colonel must make their application direct to Headquarters Fourteenth Air Force, Robins Air Force Base, Georgia.

Airmen with experience in the following career fields are needed: Intelligence; weather; communications and electronics; radar maintenance; radio maintenance; wire maintenance; instrument and intricate equipment; armament; aircraft and accessories maintenance.

Automotive and related equipment; metal workings; fabric leather and rubber; construction; utilities; food services; transportation; supply; administrative; field security and law enforcement; fire fighting; medical and dental; and in the photographic and cartagraphic field,

Airmen with dependents must be in the first three pay grades. That is, either master sergeant, technical sergeant, or staff sergeant. This directive applies to any Reservist.

Cadets Are Needed By Air Force

A modern, alert, and well-manned Air Force is a vital necessity. to the security of the United States and, according to Captain Jack W. Kelley, Commanding Officer of the Birmingham Army and Air Force Recruiting Station, the need for a new generation of Air Force pilots and navigators has been made clear to the nation as the United States Air Force embarks on a program for development of greater air power.

Captain Kelley stated that the standards required of candidates for the Aviation Cadet program are necessarily high and the training is understandably rigid. To be eligible for pilot and navigator training, the prospective candidate must be single, between 20 and 261/2 years old, and must agree to remain single throughout the period of training. He must / have completed two years of college, or more, and be able to pass an Air Force Qualifying Examination, a physical examination, and a moral and personal examination.

Any young men who meet the above qualifications may obtain complete information and necessary instructions for making application by visiting or telephoning the Birmingham Army and Air Force Recruiting Station, or by contacting the nearest Air Force Base.

Thomas F. Herring of Siluria, qualified for enlistment in the Regular Army last week. He chose a three year assignment in the Field Artillery.

After completing fourteen weeks of basic training at Fort Knox, Kentucky, Third Army Training Center, Recruit Herring will be ready for assignment in specialized work.

He was enlisted at the U.S. Army and U. S. Air Force Recruiting Main Station in Birmingham.

Winter Grazing Makes Heavy Beef For S. M. Tatum

S. M. Tatum of the Camp Branch community states that "he believes winter grazing crops last winter put on at least 150 pounds of beef per animal more than he could have expected from a dry hay-feeding program." Mr. Tatum planted 39 acres of all cover crops including 26 acres especially for grazing, but grazed about 37 acres. Practically every acre he had in green. #### Shelby County Farm Bureau Holds Annual Meeting At Alabama College

Bureau members and their families met at Palmer Hall, Alabama College for the annual meeting and Barbecue.

Dr. John T. Caldwell, President of Alabama College, welcomed the group to the college campus.

Highlights of the day's program included a dance number by Miss Frances Kurahar, Hawaiian student, Alabama College, organ music by Mr. Victor Young, Montevallo, piano music by Miss Pat Patterson, Music Major, Alabama College, group singing led by Mrs. J. Frank Baker, Dress Revue by Home Demonstration Clubs, directed by Mrs. R. E. Bowden, and Barbecue plate served to members and their families at the noon

Guest speakers included Mr. Robert L. Griffin, Director of Organization, Alabama Farm Bureau Federation and Mr. James L. Lawson, Assistant Director, Alabama Extension Service. Mr. Lawson told how a small number of farmers are producing more goods. He said machinery, better farming methods, all add up to more manpower in crisis, and will free more men for the national emergency. Talking to this farm organization he said the Alabama Farm Bureau Federation is credited with helping make this possible. Mr. Lawson said that by having the proper representatives both in Montgomery and Washington, state farmers | Montevallo, to business houses are getting the full benefits from their work. He also told how the Bureau Federation was formed to cooperate with the extension Service to make extension work more effective.

Mr. Griffin, Director of Organization stressed the importance of organization to the group, urging | 1950. Also plans for the State Anthem to stick with the organiza- | nual Meeting and the fall membertion of the Farm Bureau that was ship campaign is under way.

Approximately 1,100 Farm set up on sound basis and not to affiliate in any way with the Brannon plan which the organization has been against. He also urged them to renew their membership and make their organization stronger than ever before.

Winter Grazing Doubles Milk

Asked by assistant county agent G. C. Moore, Jr., just what word he would pass on to other farmers concerning Winter Grazing Crops, Mr. Dee Fleming, Route one, Vincent, said, "If a farmer will sow plenty of seed, fertilize good and don't overgraze, you can get your money back the first year that is spent in putting in the winter crops".

Of course, many of the crops are re-seeding and that expense will not have to be repeated every year, although fertilizer must be added annually on most crops to keep them up to a high state of production.

Mr. Fleming had 22 acres of winter cover last winter up in the Arkwright community. Being a small farmer, he had to graze all 22 acres, carrying 14 head of mature cows on it. Usually one acre of good grazing may be expected to carry one mature animal, but this man was careful not to overgraze. He started to graze November 15th and grazed until April 15 which is 150 days.

He estimates that his winter grazing crops profited him about $25 to $30 per acre. Also, he believes that good winter grazing will about double the milk per cow per day. This means that an average cow on dry feeding or fenced inside of an old time "Woods pasture" that was giving 2 gallons a day, if placed in a real, good winter grazing cropping system will soon be up to 31/2 to 4 gallons per day.

The memorable date that the "Stars Fell on Alabama" was November 13, 1833, when shooting stars raced through the night sky in great quantities.

Mail service from Mongomery of New Orleane by way of stage coach was inaugurated in 1827.

Do You Want To Cut Your Federal Taxes?

Overlapping Bureaus

The Executive Department of the Federal Government has grown from small beginnings into a mighty colossus composed of 1,812 separate bureaus and agencies employing 2,090,554 civilian workers with an annual payroll of more than $6,000,000,000.00.

This growth was haphazard. What happened was that when a job needed to be done, an agency was hurriedly set up by executive order, or created by Congress. We are now paying for all these

On July 7, 1947, Congress authorized, by unanimous vote, the launching of the greatest effort yet made to plan an efficient, economical government reorganization. With the approval of President Truman, a bi-partisan, twelveman commission, headed by former President Hoover, was established. This Commission found many discouraging examples of the confusion in our government machinery, and has made concrete suggestions to correct these ills.

As matters stand, when you attempt to deal with your government, you will find 34 agencies engaged in obtaining land, 10 in Federal construction work, 9 in credit and finance and 50 in gathering statistics. A rancher desiring to pasture his livestock on public lands must obtain separate permits, each containing different terms and conditions, from both the Department of Interior and the Department of Agriculture.

The Army Engineers and the Reclamation Bureau cost the taxpayers untold millions of dollars through duplication of effort on water resources development. As an instance of this wasteful duplication, the Hungry Horse Project in Montana was estimated to cost $6,300,000. The actual cost was

Witch Doctors, Old Remedies Get

Tomorrow a scientist may announce that those ancient Chinese doctors had something when they prescribed the ashes of earthworms to grow retreads on bald heads. If he does, you may be sure one group won't be at all surprised -that is, other scientists who are probing excitedly into the secrets of primitive medicine. No matter how bizarre, nothing would surprise them now after the discoveries they have already made.

In a hundred laboratories from the Royal College of Physicians in Edinburgh, to Western Reserve university at Cleveland, and the California institute of Technology, scientists are brewing remedies from the recipes of Indian medicine men of the Southwest, Chinese herb doctors, wild tribesmen of Ecuador and Brazil, and the witch doctors of interior Africa. Too, they aren't forgetting the folk remedies long in use in the Cumberlands, the Ozarks, rural areas of Quebec, and other backwaters of our own civilization.

Discoveries Important

From these researchers, a number of important discoveries have already been made and science believes itself on the threshold of others just as important.

For instance, the Indians were right when they prescribed sumac for flu-it does attack that virus. Those Australian bushmen, American Indians, and court physicians of feudal France who put such strong reliance on mandrake root may merely have been a few centuries ahead of their time. At least, men at microscopes in the austere halls of the national cancer institute at Washington find the root effectively checks cancer in mice and look ahead hopefully to the unpredictable findings that may foreshadow. And balsam bark, that perennial cure-all among primitive people, is chalking up such baffling cures for a variety of diseases that it is fast becoming the darling of the test tube set.

Although current scientific excitement is new-spurred by the miracles wrought by penicillin, the mold used for centuries by European peasants to treat woundsthe history of civilized man's adoption of primitive remedies is not Possibly, the greatest of all the discoveries of the Spanish colonists in South America 300 and more years ago was cinchona bark. It is from this bark that we get quinine, the specific which has aided us to control malaria, the greatest killer

However, the Peruvian natives and even our grandparents didn't limit their use of quinine and the bark from which it is made to treatment of malaria. They used it for muscle cramps, as a tonic, to break up colds, to treat iritis, and for almost any ailment afflicting them for which they had no specific remedy. To all of this the doctors of a generation ago offered a not too polite "Pooh-pooh."

Blooms With Tributes

But in recent months and years, the dignified medical journals have bloomed with tributes to the drug and agree that those wild Peruvian tribesmen knew their medicine.

In the American Heart Journal, Drs. Moss and Herrman assure us that quinine stimulates the heart to carry away wastes and thus relieves muscle cramps. In Clinical Medicine, Dr. L. A. Curley reports on success in treating iritis with quinine and aspirin but admits bafflement at how it works.

As to colds, no one yet has found an explanation as to what it does or how but quinine has been an ingredient of the more popular cold cures for decades and many a modern mother fellows her grandmother's lead in administering it at the first sign of a sniffle.

Car Robe Collection Starts After Autoist Finds They're Rare

DELAVAN, WIS .- In 1922, Carl S. Ramsey decided he ought to have a car robe, inasmuch as he had purchased a car. So he began to search around in many places in order to get just what he wanted. But all those in stock were dark, drab, colorless affairs. Ramsey wanted something 'flashy."

He could remember when the roads around here were used by Chicago millionaires and their ladies driving shining carriages drawn by sleek horses. Each of these buggies, he recalled, was equipped with lap robes-and those robes were something! Some were of red plush with pictures of horses. Some had tigers reclining in beds of roses. That, Ramsey decided, was just what he wanted.

He bought his first robe at an auction at Beloit. Then he found out that such robes were not being made any more. So, in case his first robe wore out, Ramsey looked about and bought a second one. Soon he had 10, then a dozen. Now he has 66 stored in eight mothball-packed trunks. There isn't a one in his

He says he isn't finished yet. Now he thinks he'd like to have 100, then he'd quit collecting lap robes and give the whole kit and caboodle to a museum.

Meanwhile, he drives around the southern part of the state paying particular attention to wash lines. When he sees a carriage robe airing on the line, Ramsey stops to dicker. He has paid from $2.50 to $25 for an old robe.

He explains: "Too many people collect stamps. That's no fun — it costs too much and it takes too much brainwork. Beer mugs the

"It's different with lap robes..."

So if you believe it helps your rheumatism to carry a buckeye in your left hip pocket, don't let the speers of your friends deter you. It may be that you are right-at any rate there is a growing legion of scientists who have quit sneering at any folk remedy no matter how far fetched.

Here's a varnish that's extra tough-that's why it's first choice for door exteriors, watercraft and other exposed surfaces. The lustrous, hard finish of Lowe Brothers Neptunite Spar Varnish stands up under blazing sun, zero cold-and driving snow, sleet or rain. Excellent, too. for superior inside work.

Here is what Mr. Robinson has to say about HADACOL, which is now supplying liberal quantities of these essential elements: "I have been a steel worker for over twenty years. When you are a steel worker, you have to do plenty of good, hard work, and you need lots of good, substantial food. But when a stomach is in as bad a shape as mine was . . . . I couldn't eat, I had gas pains, stomach bloating and nervousness; well, I just couldn't eat the proper foods I needed. My boss told me about HADACOL and I started taking it immediately. After the second bottle I could tell a definite improvement. Now I can eat the foods I need to eat to really be on the job. In fact, I can eat anything I want to. I am not nervous anymore, either. Best of all, I haven't got those terrific gas pains and no more stomach bloating. HADACOL is the best ever. I recommend HAD-ACOL to everyone."

HADACOL Is Different

Countless thousands are benefiting from HADACOL . . . even hundreds of doctors are recommending HADACOL to their patients whose systems lack Vita-mins B<sub>1</sub>, B<sub>2</sub>, Iron, and Niacin. ### Needlecraft News by Nancy Baxter

NEW homes are going up in all sections of the country. This, of course, means that many families will be starting out to turn houses into homes. There's a difference between a house and a home, you know, and it's an important difference. A house is made of bricks and plaster, cement and shingles but a home is built on love and understanding, mutual interests and family pride.

After furnishing your home with the essential large pieces will come the true test of your ingenuity in making your home the center of your family life. You'll want to inject your own personality into your rooms by adding touches that reflect the taste and way of living of your family. This can be done most effectively in your choice of accessories - the seasoning of your room's decoration. Accessories can be topics of conversation that bespeak your originality as well as your hobbies and other interests.

Old Pecos River Bridge Ends Career After Long Service

DALLAS, TEX.-The old Pecos river bridge - once the highest structure of its kind in the United States—is being retired after 52 years of service.

In 1921, a young army aviator swept low over the Pecos river and sent his open cockpit plane roaring under the bridge, the wingtips barely missing the supporting spans. The aviator was Jimmy Doolittle, who has since done many even more daring things.

The Pecos bridge long has been the pride of the Southern Pacific railroad. According to the company, the span is 321 feet above the river at its highest point, and 2,180 feet long. It was put into service in March, 1892. Before the war, it was capable of handling the freight loads and the comparatively slow speeds of locomotives then used; but during the war the increased loads and new high speeds made it necessary to build a more modern bridge.

The latter span was completed in 1944 and is now in use. The old bridge, however, was being dissembled for removal to Guatemala, where it is expected to see further service as a highway bridge over one of the country's deepest streams.

Kelly Fitzpatrick is perhaps Alabama's most noted living artist with paintings now hanging in many famous museums throughout the nation. He lives in the old Fitzpatrick home in Wetumpka which was built in 1837.

By 1824 river traffic on the Tennessee had become so important that President James Monroe asked Congress to make a survey of the shoals above Florence in order to improve navigation.

Skunk Goes to His Grave Keeping Tub-Entry Secret

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA .- Robert K. Carter built a new home sounds on the bottom of his bathtub. He sent for the contractor.

The contractor said, "Forget itthe tub is set in concrete."

The Carters would have been willing, but they couldn't forget it for the reason that the tapping continued. Mr. and Mrs. Carter would crouch outside the bathroom door and then leap suddenly inside. Nothing was visible, but the tapping was audible.

Carter was studying his bathtub one evening when a piece of tile no bigger than a nickel popped up like a tiddly-wink. In the tiny hole there appeared a black nose.

Carter baited a rat trap near by and retired to his post outside the Peeping in, Carter observed what was unmistakably a skunk's head emerging from the hole. The skunk couldn't get out and shortly retired under the bathtub.

A new tenseness came on the scene now and the atmosphere became-one of the olfactory anticipation-a disquieting thing for new homeowners.

Limit On Deer Reduced To Two

Montgomery,-The bag limit on on antlered buck deer during the 1950-51 open season in Alabama was reduced from three to two at a meeting of members of the Conservation Advisory Board and officials of the Conservation Department held at Fort Morgan State Park, July 28-30.

An infestation of screw-worms which has taken a serious toll of deer in southwest Alabama this summer was responsible for this reduction in the limit on deer, according to Conservation Director Phillip J. Hamm.

Biologists of the department's Division of Game, Fish and Seafoods fear that the number of deer affected by the screw-worms may mount among fawns and does during the present fawning season which will last until October.

The deer season will extend from November 20 through January 1.

At the advisory board meeting, quail hunters were allotted an extra day in which to shoot the state's most popular game bird during the 1950-51 season. Quail season traditionally opens on Thanksgiving Day and extends through February 20. This year, thanksgiving falls on November 23-a day earlier than it did last Montgomery - Advices from Washington assure that present and future members of the armed forces will receive the same prohere. Several weeks after he moved tection of their civil rights durinto it, he heard strange tapping ing the current emergency as was provided to the military personnel in World War II, according to information released today by C. C. Horton, Director of the Alabama Department of Veterans' Affairs.

This protection is provided under the Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended. While certain sections of that Act were terminated by the act which set July 25, 1947 as the official end of the war, these provisions were reinstated by the Draft Act of 1948, and more recently, the Draft Act of 1950 extended the law to July 9, 1951. The Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act now provides protection in such civil liabilities as rent, installment contracts, mortgages, insurance, taxes, and public land. The Veterans Administration will continue to handle matters affording protection of commercial insurance policies. #### State Fair This Year To Be The Biggest Yet

The biggest catolog in the history of the Alabama State Fair telling of the biggest Fair yet, is being put in the mail this week. The 1950 edition of the Fair takes place at the Fairgrounds in Birmingham the week of October 2-7th.

A new feature of the Fair, the Hog Show, is expected to attract 200 of the State's top hogs. Only members of organized hog breeders associations—O.I.C., Duroc and Hampshires—will be eligible to compete for the thousands of dollars in prizes offered by the State Fair Authority.

The 44,000 square foot Industrial Arts Building, dedicated in 1948, will house Alabama's industrial might—displaying goods that have made the State great industrially, as well as agriculturally. The Associated Industries of Alabama is again in charge of the exhibits in this building.

The mammoth $100,000 Cattle Barn, dedicated in 1949 to the "Youth of Alabama" will house the State Beef and Dairy Shows that are expected to attract more than 600 head of cattle. Premiums offered in these two shows alone aggregate $15,000.

The farm youth organizations of Alabama—the 4-H, FFA and FHA—will again fill the Agricultural Building with exibits competing for hundreds of dollars in prizes and coveted blue ribbons.

The Conservation building will house the State Department of Conservation's exibit, of interest to every Alabamian. A $100,000 mechanized commercial display will also be in this building.

Two Negroes Held In Prince Death

Columbiana, Aug. 8-Two Negroes were charged with murder today in the slaying of C. L Prince, Harpersville farmer, ir November, 1948.

Authorities listed the Negroes, both tenant farmers, as James and Howard Davis, of near Wilsonville. The brothers were taken to Birmingham for safekeeping.

The arrests were made by Shelby County Sheriff Luther T. Bozeman and State Investigator W. L. Allen.

The sheriff said the two were questioned at the time of Prince's death but were relesased. He added that new evidence had come to light, leading to the arrest of the pair.

Prince was found dead beside his auto on a side road near his Harpersville home. His car lights were on. An autopsy showed that he had been killed by blows on his head and face.

Sheriff Bozeman went over the scene of the slaying this afternoon with two other persons who were being quetsioned. They were identified as Johnny Broaden and Walter McKenna, both of Harp-

Knock Down The Ears of Russia, Says Senator Hill

Senator Lister Hill calls for the United States and her allies in the United Nations to "continue to knock down the ears" of Russia on the United Nations Security Council.

The Alabama senator said the United Nations has taken its stand in support of American military aid to Korea and that already some member nations are aiding the United States in the fighting. Russia now is trying to sabotage UN support of the United States and cover up Communist aggres-

Hill urged these actions by the United States:

"In the United Nations we must insist that the other member nations make their full contribution in men and equipment to fighting in Korea. We must continue to knock down the ears of Mr. Malik, Russia's representative on the Security Council. And we must use every power to prevent Communist China from taking a seat in

Under 16 Years? You Fish Free

Montgomery, Ala., Aug. 8-Boys and girls less than 16 years of age will be allowed to fish free of charge in the state's public-managed fishing lakes, Conservation Director Phillip J. Hamm has announced.

This policy was adopted at a meeting of members of the Conservation Advisory Board and officials of the Department of Conservation at Fort Morgan State Park, July 28-30.

It was agreed at the meeting that persons 16 years of age and over will continue to pay 50c a day fishing fee at the three public lakes now open. These lakes were built with Game, Fish and Seafoods Division funds and are operated by the Division of Parks, Monuments and Historical Sites.

The three lakes—all of which were opened to the public this Summer - are the twin Sherling Lakes near Greenville, Crenshaw County Lake near Luverne and Fayette County Lake near Fayette. Seven more lakes will be opened to the public next year, Director Hamm said.

Fines Given To Four Seiners

Montgomery, Ala., Aug. 8 -Those store-porch prophets of 30 years ago who deserted their checker games to gaze skyward at "Them pesky flying machines is 3 to cause trouble for two batches of seiners, the Division of Game, Fish and Seafoods reports.

When Pilot Harold J. Cary spotted two groups of seiners at work in the stream, he radioed three nearby cars jampacekd with game wardens attending the Warden's School at Camp Rucker. Under the direction of Supervisor G. K. Lightsey they swooped down on the violators, nabbing six men. Four of them were convicted.

A subsequent patrol of Pea and Conecuh Rivers, Whitewater Creek and other streams on July 4 revealed a total absence of fishing law violators. The old grapevine sure got the word around about that nosy Game and Fish flying machine.

Four Popular Game Species Are Stocked

Montgomery-The range of at least four of Alabama's most popular wildlife species, deer, turkey, beaver and raccoon, was extended considerably during the 9 month period, October 1, 1949-June 30, 1950, under the Department of Conservation's game and furbearing animal restocking pro-

Conservation Director Phillip J. Hamm has disclosed that 66 deer, 37 wild turkeys, 51 beaver and 153 raccoons have been released over the state. The stocking was done under a federal aid to wildlife (Pittman-Robertson) program of the Game, Fish and Seafoods Division designed to transfer animals from areas of over-population to suitable localities where their numbers are scarce.

Present estimates put the state's deer population at 28,000 and the number of turkeys at about 30,-

Key Banker, Roy Downs, Makes Report On Farm Financing In Alabama

bama farms have never been in better condition, and the state's farmers are prepared to meet any emergency that may lie ahead, according to Roy Downs, President, Central State Bank, Calera, who represents the Alabama Bankers Association as a county key bank-

"One of the best indications of this is that Alabama farmers used fewer bank loans during 1949 than during 1948," Mr. Downs Reporting on the ninth national survey of farm lending made by the Agricultural Commission of the American Bankers Association, Mr. Downs noted that there had been a decline in the number of new loans by banks to Alabama farmers last year. He said: "This decline is particularly healthy in view of the present uncertainties and the slight drop in farm income. It shows that farmers are wisely avoiding excessive debt and are holding on to their reserves to meet any possible emergency."

Mr. Downs said that in 1949, the last full year of operation, the 220 Alabama banks serving agricultural communities loaned a total of $78,184,000 to 81,030 farm ers to meet all types of financial needs. This represents 36.3 per cent of the farmers in the state but is a decline from the 91,713 year, $55,744,000 were borrowed for years to come."

The plant and equipment of Ala- | by 69,202 farmers to finance production and operational requirements. Of these loans, only $25,-119,000 were outstanding on January 1, 1950.

> "During the year, there were 11,828 farmers, representing 5.3 per cent of all farmers in the state, who made farm real estate loans in an aggregate amount of $22,440,000. The prosperity of the state's farmers is shown by the fact that only $14,319,000 in real estate loans were outstanding at the beginning of this year.

"The total of all bank-held farm debt in Alabama on January 1, 1950, was $39,438,000.

Mr. Downs noted that one of the brightest aspects of the present loan situation was the small size of the average loan, indicating the service that banks are rendering to owners of small farms in particular. The average loan for production purposes was only $806, and the average loan made on farm real estate was

"With the pent-up demand for equipment caused by World War II apparently satisfied," Mr. Downs said, "a larger and larger percentage of farm borrowings have been going to other long range improvements, along with the growing trend of Alabama farmers to practice modern conservation and land management, farm loans made by banks in 1948. will assure the importance of the Of the total amount loaned last state in the agricultural picture

James S. Acker Visits Old Home

Now and then it is our pleasure to meet and converse with a per son who is classed as a "Montevallo Old-Timer." Last week we had a visit from a man who is the real article in the sense of being one of our "Old-Timers."

He was Mr. James S. Acker, age 85, of Prescott, Arizona. He was here visiting his brother, Dr. Charles T. Acker and his niece, Mrs. Kate Cook. He spent his 85th birthday with them.

Upon his visit to the Times office we found that Mr. Acker in his early years acquired a "touch" of newspaper experience which he relates with vivid memory.

"There was", he recalled, "a man named D. B. Grace, who ran a newspaper in Montevallo in the 1880's. I took an interest in the newspaper work through my acquaintance and contact with Mr. Grace. When he sold out his paper here, The Shelby County Sentinel, sometime in the late 1880's, he went to Birmingham and associated himself with George M. Cruikshank in founding the Birmingham Ledger. I followed Mr. Grace to Birmingham and worked with the Ledger for about a year.

"From my job with the Ledger I went to California, and subsequently to other states of the West, I found, as a young man in a strange country, my former newspaper experience furnished me a knowledge of people and things that gained entre for me into many circles with readiness."

Mr. Acker is indeed a most interesting person. His mannerisms in conversation, gestures, etc., at once mark him unmistakably as the brother of Dr. Charley. He is still active in the real estate business in Prescott, writes a beautiful hand, and chews with his original dental equipment.

He relates his experience upon invited to attend this service.

a visit to Reynolds Hall. "Strolling around the building," he said, "I must have given outward evidence that I was a stranger. Accosted by someone who appeared to be a person of some importance at the place I was asked if I were not a stranger here. Well, yes and no, I replied. Things do look strange to me here, but I went to Mrs. Meredith's school in this building when I was a boy."

That brought on more talk between the two. Mr. Acker's picture was taken. This incident will serve to more vividly connect the present and future with the longgone years of the past.

On The Farms Of Shelby County

B. F. Hatchett and G. C. Starcher Shelby County farmers are rapidly absorbing all locally grown fescue seed, clover seed, and ryegrass, and buying large quantities of seed from adjoining counties, especially Talladega. Several local sources still have some seed however, and local seedsmen are making every effort to see that no one goes lacking.

The part of wisdom is to secure seed and fertilizer, and have lime and slag spread as quickly as possible.

Bill Lawler, of Montevallo, planned his large fescue planting well ahead. He has a crop of soybeans growing on the area while Bill is honeymooning (Congratulations Bill!). He will turn this limed and fertilized crop before planting fescue and giant white dutch clover. He has saved some 2,000 pounds of mixed re-seeding crimson clover and ryegrass, some of it will be replanted, some sold.

Cooperators of the North Central Soil Conservation District are taking the initiative in fescue planting, as evidenced by the purchase of thousands of pounds of seed already this fall.

A total of 967 paralyzed veterans received Veterans Administration grants totaling more than $9,000,000 for the purpose of buying or building homes specially designed for wheelchair living, a VA report as of June 30, 1950, revealed.

When Uniontown was settled in 1818 it was given the name of Woodville. And it was not until 1861 that the name was changed to Uniontown.

Calera Home Demonstration Club women have been busy this summer with their food preservation program.

Mrs. M. W. Jacks has canned a bushel of peas recently.

"I have frozen corn, lima beans, peas, peaches, and chickens", said Mrs. Josh Sorrell. She also reported that she had canned 28 quarts of soup mixture and made 21 pints of pickles. Winter meal planning won't be such a problem with this good supply of food in the pantry and home freezer.

Mrs. R. E. Bowdon, Sr. has canned tomatoes, made pickles and Boysenberry jelly. In her home freezer she has stored chickens, huckleberries, strawberries, fresh cocoanut, and peaches.

The efforts of the above mentioned club members is only a small part of the food preservation program of the Calera Club.

Other members are keeping themselves equally as busy.

Terry Plans For More School Funds

Montgomery, — Addressing the state convention of high school principals here this week, newly elected Superintendant of Education W. J. Terry of Greensboro, said that the education program in Alabama is going to require additional expenditures if it is to maintain its present standard of operation.

He said that 20,000 more children will be attending school within two years. "Funds must be provided for a building program to accommodate these additional children," Terry said.

Terry said that he is making a statewide tour, inspecting all educational facilities, and just as soon as this task is completed he will work up suggested plans and amounts of additional revenue to be presented to the incoming legislature. "New taxes will probably be needed," he said.

Alabama Power Co. Plans Expansion At Gorgas Plant

Alabama Power Company last week filed with Alabama Public Service Commission application for a certificate of convenience and necessity to install at Gorgas, still another steam generating unit. The Company already has under construction at Gorgas, a 100,-000 kilowatt unit expected to be in operation in 1951. The new unit of 100,000 KW for which application has been made will represent the seventh unit built at Gorgas and is expected to be in service in the summer of 1952.

The Company also applied to the Public Service Commission for authority to issue 100,000 shares of new preferred stock. The proceeds from the sale of this stock will be applied toward the cost of the construction and expansion program of the Company.

Thomas W. Martin, chairman of the board of Alabama Power Company, in making the announcement of application for permission to install the additional unit, stated, "We predicted a few months ago that within the next ten years Alabama Power Company would double its output of electric power to keep pace with Alabama's develoment. Installation of this additional large generating unit at Gorgas Steam Plant is a step toward this objective. Within the decade, barring unforseen obstructions, we exect to see the development of Alabama and the South not only continue but to accelerate. It is our objective to be ready with ample electric power as required by the growth we expect".

When construction of the new plant is approved by the Public Service Commission it will bring the total of the company's generating facilities built or being built to 1,135,560 kilowatts installed capacity or approximately a million and a half horsepower. These additions represent an increase of over 100 per cent in generating facilities since the end of 1940, an indication of the tremendous development that already has taken place in Alabama.

The trainees are given duties and instruction in all phases of shipboard life and in the technical aspects of the duties of the different specialized rating groups which are necessary in the modern Naval warship.

FFA Boys Get Trees To Plant

Montgomery,-Plans are being made to distribute 1,000,000 young trees to F.F.A. boys throughout the state during the 1950-51 planting season, State Forester J. M. Strauffer has advised Conservation Director Phillip J. Hamm.

Through this cooperative planting project, which is carried on with the Alabama Chamber of Commerce as part of the state's Tree Farm Program, 926 F.F.A. youths were given a total of 877,-750 seedlings for the reforestation of farm lands last year. The trees were furnished free but there was a charge of 50 cents per thousand to cover transportation costs.

Earl Cunningham Is Now In The Navy

Earl Cunningham, a Negro boy who has worked for Red Mahan at the barber shop for quite a long time, has taken up active duty in the Navy at San Diego.

"I never gave much thought to Earl," said Mr. Mahan, "more than to recognize and appreciate him as a good, honest, sober boy whe did his work well. I never tried much to find out what Earl was thinking, if anything.

"But after he got in the Navy he wrote me a letter which I appreciate very much. It made me realize that Earl was observing and thinking deeper than the mere doing of his work."

The letter from Earl said: "Dear Mr. Mahan: I just want to say thank you for being an employer that I could easily get along with. May your business get better as time goes on.

"Being in the reserve, I was subject to 24-hour call. So I enlisted. The Navy is OK. Guess I will be in for quite a while. - Your exemployee, Earl Cunningham."

Little Cahaba Club Is Active

Betty McGuire, Jane Fulmer, and Bobbie Martin are industrious 4-H members in the Little Cahaba community. While these girls help their mothers with chores at home they are learning more homemaking skills.

Housekeeping and Foods get most of Betty's attention. Not only does she prepare family meals occasionally, but she has been earning extra money this summer by helping with meal preparation at Camp Horner.

Jane has been canning, cooking, and refinishing breakfast room chairs. Corn, beans, and peas are some of the things she has canned. Jane prepares many of the family meals. She stated that even though refinishing chairs was a big job, she enjoyed doing it.

Bobbie planned and planted a flower garden. She planted rose bushes, gladiolas, jonquils, and planted spring and summer blooming flowers.

The many friends of Mr. W. L. Brown are glad to see him able to stir around again. He recently had a surgical operation which has kept him confined to his home for several weeks.

Court Turns Down 67 Senator Plan

Montgomery - The Alabama Supreme Court this week threw a wrench into Gov. Folsom's 67senator proposal for which he has been plugging during his special session calls.

The court ruled that since the 67-senator plan is not reapportionment according to population, it can only come by a constitutional convention. This means that the legislature cannot pass the 67senator bill as a constitutional amendment, for submission to the voters.

The court ruling pointed out that the 1901 Constitution said that reapportionment of both houses is to be done according to population.

Veteran Teachers Get Training Under GI Bill

Montgomery,-Veterans Administration announced this week that it will give "special consideration" to veteran-teachers who plan to spend their summers taking GI Bill training after the July 25, 1951, cut-off date.

Harley A. Smith, Alabama Regional Manager of the VA, pointed out that VA's regulation on the deadline, based on the GI Bill. states that veterans discharied before July 25, 1947, must have started training by July 25, 1951, if they want to continue afterwards. Those discharged after July 25, 1947, have four years from their discharge date in which to begin.

After the cut-off date for starting, veterans will be expected to remain in continuous training in order to stay on the GI rolls. Smith said an exception has been made for interruptions for reasons beyond a veteran's control.

Veteran-teachers who take courses under the GI Bill during succeeding summer vacations may continue to do so after the entrance deadline, so long as their courses were started before the cut-off date and are resumed every year, Smith explained.

The teacher will have to meet certain qualifications, the VA Manager added. The teacher's study must lead toward a degree; he must be continuously employed as a school teacher, and he must not skip any GI Bill summer ses-

Back To School In Cotton Dresses

Scientific developments in the textil field have promoted cotton to the high fashion class. Outstanding qualities of cotton fabrics have made it leader in the school wardrobe, from the nursery to the colleges

New finishes now applied to cotton fabrics have reduced the upkeep to a minimum. Such finishes as crease resistant, permanent crispness. crinkle, luster, satin finish, water and soil repellent help in maintaining that "fresh look" throughout the day as well as through many tubbings.

Back to school cottons fashioned from dark-tone plaids, checks, corduroy, velveteen, cotton tweeds, twill, prints, and gingham produce a good-looking wardrobe at a minimum cost.

For the school miss a wardrobe of cotton "mixers" is a must; a dress plus a cardigan or jacket that can be worn with other garments makes for an additional out-

The new look for the Junior Miss is slim—slim belts, slim skirts, slim lines. This can be achieved with low pleats, flounces, gadgets or straight falling fullness.

White wings of pique collars and cuffs on a dark cotton or stripped collars and cuffs add a touch of something new to the school dress. High pockets go along with the wide spreading collar. The cardigan front, with contrasting bands, will be found in both ready-to-wear and patterns.

Fall colors are more interesting than ever, burnt orange, tangerine, ginger, spicy browns, winter blue, dark green, slate, charcoal, and vivid colors mixed with black will be especially good.

The smart look in the school wardrobe should be achieved through the use of lovely fabrics, simplicity in design and excellent construction, and no frilly trims which require much care and at the same time are not very practical.

Columbiana Club Enjoys Picnic

The Columbiana Home Demonstration Club met for a picnic at Jackson's Lake on Wednesday afternoon, August 16.

The lake was just the right depth for the children to wade and have lots of fun. And a very nice quiet cool place for adults to sit around and relax from the blistering sun.

There were tables filled with a plenty of good food and jugs filled with iced tea. It seemed to be just the things to delight everyone and to make for lasting memories. Outings of this type are big events for families of club members. Among those who enjoyed this occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Elliott and Mary Wilson, Mr. Elliott's mother, Ross B. Mullins, Mrs. Annie King, Miss Anita King, Mrs. Agnes Armstrong and Jack, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Sawyer, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ragan, Mrs. Allen Wilson, Mrs. Knox Woolley, Miss Marian Cotney, Mr. and Mrs. W. #### On the Farms of Shelby County

B. F. Hatchett and G. C. Starcher

Haying time is definitely with us. Some of the greenest, pretiest sericea hay we have ever seen was baled last week on the J. O. Self farm just south of Dargin on U. S. 31.

Manager Johnson is getting a splendid hay from his irrigated al-

A. A. Blackerby was moving ladino clover, whether for seed or for hay or both, we didn't stop him to ask.

W. C. Martin had his hands full making Johnson grass hay, some of it on the sericea meadows planted this spring. He cut high to protect the young sericea.

Others were making hay while the sun shone—usually from sericea planted on land that hasn't made hay crops for years before—or on grass nurtured by winter legume

Although S C S recommended farm plans call for enough year-round grazing to reduce feed and hay demand, some hay is always a wise addition to green grazing—and cooperators of the North Central Soil Conservation District are finding themselves growing hay on land formerly considered useful only to tie the rest of the farm together.

Senator Sparkman Gets Signal Honor

Senator John Sparkman, of Alabama, was a leading figure in two significant advances during the past week to check communist aggression and to build world peace. Sparkman was chosen to serve as a member of the United States delegation to the United Nations General Assembly. His apopnitment was made by the President ofter consultation with the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. The United States is represented in the General Assembly by five delegates and five alternate delegates.

The honor to Senator Sparkman was no doubt in partial recognition of his long and effective support of international cooperation as the best means of building permanent peace

Commenting on his appointment the New York Times said, "Senator Sparkman's appointment was an extraordinary honor for him since he is not a member of the Foreign Relations Committee and, therefore, has not betn a foreign policy leader, though he has uniformly supported that policy."

Alabama College Opens Session September 10

The gates of Alabama College will swing open to welcome its 55th class of freshmen on September 10.

Almost 30 new students will arrive on the campus and will be welcomed by student committees of sophomores, juniors and seniors.

Upperclassmen have long maintained a tradition of coming back early to help freshmen with a getacquainted program and to give the newcomers some insight into life in the college world.

Freshmen will settle in their residence rooms and take tours of the 106-acre campus on Sunday. Registration begins Monday morning, followed by tennis, swimming, and golf in the afternoon. Upperclassmen will entertain at the big, rustic camp house and at the residence halls in the evening.

Dr. John Tyler Caldwell, president of the college, and Dean T..H. Napier will welcome freshmen to the campus on Tuesday.

Registration for upperclassmen is scheduled for Wednesday and all classes will begin on Thursday. Group meetings of religious organizations are planned for Thursday.

Climaxing the week will be a "big sister" party and a stage show on Friday evening and a student government reception on Saturday.

Just before college opening, faculty and students will take part in a two-day meeting September 8-9 to discuss campus activities for the year and to hold panel talks on student problems of government and campus activities.

During the Fall and Spring semesters, World Culture Series at Alabama College will study nations south of the United States border.

For this unisue training program in world understanding, guest speakers and films will bring to the entire student body a closer knowledge of South and Central

The series has received favorable comment in educational circles over the South. Earlier studies have included China, Russia and the Far East.

Radio Station WRSD will begin regular campus broadcasting during the early weeks of school. Students will handle the engineering, do the announcing, and write the scripts as part of a radio training program. Advanced students will work with Birmingham's WAPI, with which the college is affiliated.

Alabama College begins the new semester with five new faculty

Upperclassmen who are chairmen of the welcoming committee to greet freshmen as they arrive on the campus are:

Betty Houston, Fayette, president of the student government for 1950-51; Lyda Gay Donald, Selma. president of the recreation committee; Harriette Hawkins, Sulligent, president of the Y. W. C. A.; Josephine Foster, Windsor, Vermont, chief justice of the student court; Doris Ogletree, Sylacauga, president of the student senate; Laura Jean Worthington, Bessemer, social chairman, and Betty McDonald, of Hobbs Island, president of the senior class.

Freshmen Coming For 55th Session At Alabama College

VOL. XVIII-NO. 18

From every county in the state, with suitcases, tennis racquets, and golf bags, some 300 freshmen will arrive on the campus of Alabama College Sunday.

School opens Monday, September 11, but dormitories will be open to receive newcomers all day Sunday.

Whether freshmen come by bus, train or car, they will be met by upperclassmen who will lend a hand with luggage, introduce themselves and conduct tours over the 106-acre campus.

First faculty meeting of the Fall will be Saturday evening when new members will be introduced by Dr. John T. Caldwell, president of the college. Dean T. H. Napier will welcome the faculty back to the campus.

New faculty members are Fritz G. Cohen, language department; Leonard H. Davis, speech department; Miss Ethel Rasmusson, social science division; Quinn Tyler, art department; and Miss Johnie Carlisle, home economics department.

Freshman Week at Alabama College begins Monday morning which the newcomers will spend getting acquainted with the campus and with student traditions. halls and the college camp house.

Thursday is registration day for upperclassmen and for late comers. Friday and Saturday evenings include an all-student stage show and "big sister" party and a student government reception to climax the week.

Faculty advisers for the new freshman class are Putnam Porter, chairman; Miss Elizabeth Pope, and Mrs. Martha B. Gee.

The first bell for classes at 8:00 a.m. Thursday, September 14, will mark the beginning of the 55th year at the state college for wom-

Highway Patrol To Bear Down On Traffic Rules

Montgomery, - Public Safety Director Bankhead Bates this week said that "Alabama's highways are becoming unsafer by the month for motorists".

Bates said that already this year, 296 people have been killed on our state roads. This is nine more than the figure one year ago. Besides the 296 who have been killed, 1737 have been seriously injured, many of them crippled for life, Bates said,

These deaths and injuries have resulted from the 3241-200 more than last year-highway accidents which have occurred during the first seven months of 1950.

Property damage' caused by these wrecks amounted to $1,271,-491 as stated by highway patrol side; a week Sweedish fair at Silreports.

Bates issued a stern warning to all drivers that highway patrolmen are going to be far more strict in the future. He said that they are going to "bear down" on all traffic violations, and added that "there will be no exceptions".

"The Alabama code says that the state speed limit shall be 'reasonable' ", Bates said, "and the highway patrol is going to act upon the premise that anyone goinglover 60 miles per hour is not driving at a 'reasonable' speed."

"Motorists have got to pay more attention to safety measures if we are ever to reduce the frightening number of highway deaths," Bates said.

"The only way that this serious problem can be licked." he said, "is by getting the full cooperation of all drivers, as well as help from newspapers, rodios and local law enforcement officers. We have in Alabama a serious problem in these accidents, but it can be licked if our people will work together toward a safety program for our highways," Bates said.

Negro Trade School Opens At Powderly

Montgomery, - A new trade school devoted to the training of young Negro men will open Sept. 1 at Powderly, a Birmingham suburb. Registration for the school is August 1, and aplications are now being received.

The school is one in a series devoted to training young men for industrial jobs. It was provided for under a bill passed by the Alabama legislature. Already three trade schools for whites have been completed.

The ten courses to be offered as of September 1 will consist of auto mechanics, auto body and paint work, barbering, beauty culture, dry cleaning, laundering, baking, carpentry, general business, horticulture, and practical nursing. Seven other courses will be added at a later date

Boaz was not founded until 1878 when a group of 42 came from Georgia in covered wagons and dropped their roots in the soft rich soil to establish a town.

On The Farms Of Shelby County

B. F. Hatchett and G. C. Starcher

Crowds of farmers have thronged the Shelby County P.M.A. offices the first days of issue of purchase orders for winter legume and grass seed. Funds are limited and cannot last long. Since farmers are served on a first come first served basis, it is our hope that cooperators of the North Central Soil Conservation District needing this help to establish conservation measures will come in early.

Ky. 31 Fescue is to be bought on purchase orders for the first time this fall. Columbiana's stocks of Fescue were nearly exausted the first day.

The agricultural exhibits at the Shelby County Fair were excellent and we were pleased to see a good percentage of the exhibitors were cooperators of the "District".

Especially fine was the living model forms of the Veterans Vocational Agriculture Training Staff. On one farm a nice balanced program was in effect, on the other, for contrast, was the old one crop system, or "Living at home" versus "Just Living".

One Polio Case In Shelby County

Montgomery,-The 74 cases of poliomyelitis (infantile paralysis) reported in July from the entire state included 1 reported from Shelby County.

The announcement was made today by the State Department of Health. It stated that the June total for the state as a whole was only 13. That for July, 1949, it added, was 59.

One of the most outstanding artists who ever painted in Alabama was Nicola Marschall, a native of Prussia. He was a parttime faculty member of Judson Female Institute at Marion, and spent the rest of his time doing portraits of wealthy planters and their families. Marschall also designed the Confederate flag and uniform.

Belmont, a red-brick ante-bellum mansion in Tuscumbia, was the home of Gov. Robert B. Lindsay, and was later occupied by Gov. Anthony Winston.

Montevallo was settled in 1815 by James Wilson, a veteran of Andrew Jackson's campaign. An early settler, Edmund King, built the first brick mansion that was to be seen anywhere in central Alabama. It is still standing, and is today a part of Alabama College.

Parents of the great Indian chieftain, Tecumseh, were born at Sawanogi, a Shawnee trade town on the Tallapoosa, located a few miles down stream from Tallassee. In 1776 white traders noted the remains of an ancient walled town nearby, believing it to be the town DeSoto visited.

Football Kickoff Here Friday Night

Montevallo High opens its 1950 football season Friday night this week on the local field at 7:30, with Calera as the opposing team.

This is the first football team produced at Calera. However, according to the grapevine, some of their opponents are in for a surprise by this new aggregation.

Montevallo coach, Theron Fisher, has named the following as his probable starting lineup for Friday night's game:

L. E. Splawn; L. T. J. McGaughy, alternate captain; L. G. Pickett or Milstead; C. Battle or Lovelady; R. G. Captain Smitherman; R. T. S. Norris; R. E. D. Sanderson; Q. B. Lawley or Rhodes; L. H. Hammaker; R. H. Tensley or Pendleton; F. B. Litton.

The Montevallo High School Band under direction of Mr. Victor Young, will be on hand in the new uniforms to furnish music, color and entertainment.

Mentone, situated 2,000 feet high atop Lookout Mountain, is one of Alabama's leading resort areas. For more than 75 years people have been going there for rest and relaxation.

Thanks For Aid To Hospital Workers

The Montevallo Volunteer VA Hospital Workers of the local Legion Auxiliary wish to thank the following service stations for the contribution of 5 gallons of gas by each per month:

Lovelady Motor Co. Montevallo Motor Co. Shell Service Station Gulf Service Station Pan-Am Service Station

These contributions will enable the group of ladies to continue their work each week at the Veterans Hospital in Tuscaloosa.

Any person interested in making any contribution that will aid this worthy program is requested to contact Mrs. George Nix, phone 7278, or Mrs. Bessie Mitchell, phone 7285.

Water Board Has Raised Water Rates

The Montevallo Water Board has announced a raise of 50 cents per month for the minimum charge for water service, beginning October 1.

The following notice in explanation of the raise has been given to each water customer.

"Your Water Board finds it necessary to increase our monthly water rates in order to meet the requirements of cetrain demands that have been imposed upon us: (1) For recent extension and expansion of our system to some additional areas and (2) for relocation of our water mains from Montevallo to Aldrich to meet requirements of construction of the paved road from Montevallo to Boothton. "Therefore, beginning October 1st the minimum monthly rate for water service will be $2.50.

We hope this raise will be temporary and necessary only for such time as it takes us to overcome our present financial emergency."

Rotary Club Changes Meeting Time

The Rotary Club of Montevallo has changed its day of meeting from Friday to Thursday.

The regular meeting will be held Thursday night at 6:30 in the Elementary School. The program for this week will he by Cor Theron Fisher, giving a preview of football.

At the meeting last week the club was divided into two sides for the attendance contest. The side having the most absences for a three-month period will have to treat the winners to a scrumptious dinner or entertainment.

Nine contestants were entered. The judges chose Miss Jean Young of Centreville as the winner. Miss Young is a senior at the dent of Chi Omega Sorority.

Dr. Caldwell Urges "Keep The Faith"

The President of Alabama College, Dr. John T. Caldwell, urged the newcomers to the campus to "keep the faith" in his annual message to the students today.

Pointing out that if they wished to succeed in the growth and learning experience, Dr. Caldwell told them to "be not in haste to abandon the old and to grasp the new and untried, nor to be hesitant to examine and test the advanced idea which abandons an outgrown position."

Thursday's convocation was the President's first formal address to almost three hundred new freshmen, and marks the beginning of the regular Thursday morning sessions which all students will attend. Subsesuent Thursday will bring the World Culture Series to the student body.

Introducing his subject with the comment that much of the confusion in the minds of good men today "is attributable to a mistaken sense of and search for stability", Dr. Caldwell briefly outlined the views of the reactionary, the conservative, the left-winger. These views, he explained, serve as means by which men strive to find a constantly adaptable order, first "to the goals set by each succeeding generation of people, and second, to the circumstances, physical and mental which obtain at any time, and which change continually and continuously."

The President explained that capacity for orderly adaptation can become the one real stability possible for a free people."

"With this capacity", he said, "it becomes no problem to defend such basic institutions of the free Western World as constitutional government, widespread education, freedom of thought and individual responsibility in the economic system."

He indicated that our very system calls for many schemes, many theories, some that are sound, others not. By this means, he said, "our system of government attempts to guarantee the right of people to search for answers to advocate them, to agree, to defend and to criticize."

Dr. Caldwell stressed the importance of free minds, advised that "the test of the system lies in its capacity for orderly change."

He said that these facts obtain in the fields of education, where men will make errors but will pro-

"Let not our enthusiasm for the new or for the old, or sureness of the validity of cold reason or disdain of older beliefs and trusts in self-righteous humanitariasm, hide the real beauty and holiness of man as a child of God, whose power and love is never slackened or unavailable."

Dr. Sloan Reports Some Typhus Fever

Several cases of Typhus Fever having occured in Shelby County, it would seem appropriate to call the public attention to the means of preventing this infection.

Rats have this fever much as humans have measles. The rat flea living on the rat, becomes infected with the germ and when people come in contact with these fleas or the waste from their bodies, they catch the disease.

Rats will not live around any place unless a food supply is available. Therefore your garbage should be kept in a tightly closed metal container. Chicken feed, hog feed and feed for other domestic animals should be kept in rat proof containers.

Another essential for the rats happiness and contentedness on your premises is adequate shelter. Low floors, concrete slabs, poorly constructed out-buildings and piles of junk, brick, etc., will serve for shelter.

A fairly large percentage of Typhus cases originate from food and feed stores that are infested with sick rats. A merchant who harbors such rats can easily sell the disease to his customers along with food and feed stuff.

In order to prevent Typhus from gaining a foot-hold in a community the following precautions should be taken:

Buy and use poison for rats 3 times a year; keep garbage in a tight, rat-proof container; keep all food and feed in rat-proof containers; feed domestic animals only as much as they will eat up clean; burn or remove all junk that is not valuable; valuable materials or floor level; raise or remove low floors if possible; try to make food handling places rat-proof.

Local Chapter Plans Program

Montevallo F.F.A. boys under the leadership of Bobby Neal Smitherman, president, are looking forward to a successful year in 1950-51. Beginning the first part of the annual program 24 new members were enrolled this week. During the last two years the Montevallo Chapter has gained recognition as eighth place in Alabama of the 253 chapters in 1949 and seventh place in 1950. The state association looks forward to a membership of 13,000 in the state unit which has steadily grown for the past 22 years.

During the first part of the school term the F.F.A. members will be busy making out goals to be achieved in the annual program of work this year and each member will help to develop ways and means of reaching the goals. Twenty four different contests offer opportunity for special interest to be developed. Last year the chapter participated in the judging contest, speaking contest, quartet contest, chapter contest, beef cattle show, and radio program contest. This year Edward Holcombe will compete for a place among the Star State Farmers of Alabama. Dan Whetstone is working toward entering the speaking contest. Dan recently received the gold medal chapter award as chapter winner in speaking last year.

Among the items already planned in the program for this year are the following: Those enrolled in agriculture classes are to visit may be stacked well above ground | the Alabama Flour and Feed Mills at Decatur, Alabama; F.F.A.'s are to attend the State Fair: the Alabama Power Company engineers are installing special demonstration and teaching units in the department; the dairy judging team is to meet and form an advisory council for the chapter; and plans are being made to landscape the building and grounds this fall.

M. Thornton, adviser of the chapter, also announces that a special class for adult farmers and other interested citizens will begin in the vocational department Tuesday evening at 7:30 and will meet weekly.

26,620 Deaths In Alabama In 1948

Montgomery, - Approximately one American out of every 55 who died in 1948 died in Alabama.

The State Department of Health made public today a state-by-state tabulation prepared by the National Office of Vital Statistics, showing that 1,444,337 deaths occured in the entire United States during that 12-month period. This total included 26,620 that occured in Alabama.

Shelby 4-H Girls At Short Course

Ruth Naish, Mary Bell, and Reba Bailey represented Shelby County 4-H girls at the Thirtyfirst State 4-H Leadership Camp and Short Course held in Auburn last week. Ruth entered the State 4-H Dress Revue. Mary and Reba were voting delegates.

Helps in program planning and recreational work were given to these girls and other Alabama 4-H'ers. Ruth and Mary were two of the ten 4-H'ers wearing the most appropriate costumes to the Barn Dance Party last Thursday night. Mary was awarded a ribbon for 7th place and Ruth for 9th place. Both Mary and Ruth wore gathered skirts with off the shoulder blouses. Ruth wore a bonnet which matched her skirt and Mary wore a wide brimmed straw hat with a band tied under her chin.

These girls will enrich the 4-H program by using the information given at their 4-H clubs in the school and community clubs and at county meetings.

Shelby 4-H Members Are Prize Winners

Homer Walton, Jr., won second prize in the State 4-H Lamp Contest at Auburn last week. The prize was $10.00 an indirect light bulb and harp.

Judy Horn's lamp placed 5th in the contest. Her prize was $2.50, an indirect lamp bulb and harp.

Homer, Jr.'s lamp was a square wood column mounted on square blocks, covered in green plastic with nailhead trim and a red shade. The lamp is to be used for study and decoration. He made the lamp at a total cost of $4.79.

Judy used 2 rolling pins mounted on an inverted individual salad bowl. She used bell cord for the three bands on the lamp column which was finished with clear shellac. A green shade completed the lamp at a total cost of $4.46.

Homer, Jr., and Judy used indirect light bulbs and made the lamps 28 and 32 inches tall which is the recommended height for reading and study lamps. These excellent lamps will also add to the appearance of the room in which they are used.

The Alabama Power Company sponsored the Lamp Contest.

Keep Up With Latest Methods

To have top quality products, homemakers must keep up with the latest information on home canning and freezig.

"Keeping step with the newest methods will make it possible for Shelby County farm women to save valuable time and prevent food from spoiling," Extension agents are reminding homemakers.

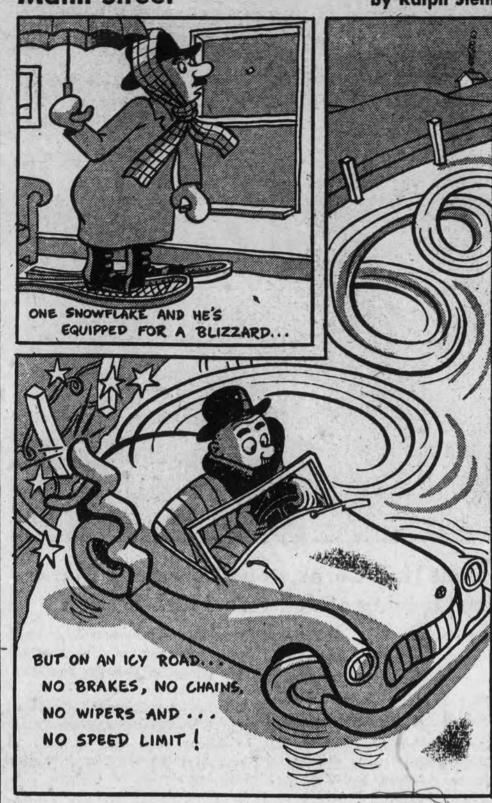

The workers say research specialists are constantly finding new and better ways of canning and freezing foods. Processing times change according to improved practices, and home canners will benefit by knowing latest recommended methods.

Ask at your county or home agent's office for the latest information on food preservation. Also ask for the new food preservation and freezing bulletin they have on hand.

for children and adults are coming on the market now, Home Agent, Marion Cotney reminded farm women this week.

Shoppers will find these materials in flannell, corduroy, rayon and other fabrics. Back-to-school wardrobes especially are featuring washable dresses, jackets, and other accessories.

Warm and attractively designed, these washable garments will please school children. And what's more important, says the agent, they will meet with the approval of mothers who sew as well as those who buy their children's outfits.

Dollar volume of net retail sales. in Alabama in June decreased 0.4 per cent from May interrupting the upward trend of the four preceding months. The final unadjusted index of retail sales in June decreased fractionally from May and at 100.1 was 10 per cent above the year-ago index and 2 per cent above the June 1948 index.

Alabama net retail sales in the first half of 1950 were 2 per cent above sales for the same period in 1949, the report points out.

Thirty-three of the state's 67 counties reported an increase in retail sales in June and 28 of these had the highest sales index of the year. Fifty-seven had a sales index higher than in June 1949.

Five counties recorded their highest sales index since the series began in October 1947. They were: Bibb, Chambers, Choctaw, Macon, and Pickens. June is the third consecutive month that Bibb County surpassed previous rec-

Sales by retail food stores in the state increased 8 per cent in June and were five per cent above June 1949. Increasing prices accounted for part of the rise in dollar volume, it was pointed out.

Retail sales of automobile dealers increased an additional 10 per cent in June and the sales index at 153.9 is the higest for this group since the series began in Oct. 1947. The June sales index was 43 per cent above the yearago index and 61 per cent greater than the June 1948 index.

Lumber and building materia retail sales continued to increase and the sales index at 107.9 was the highest since September 1948 and slightly higher than in June of that year.

The net retail sales for Shelby County in June showed a 11.2 per cent decrease from the previous month.

Plan A Good Roof For The Home

Women often talk about keeping a roof over their heads, but usually its the men folks who decide what that roof is to be made of and how it is to be put on.

Home Agent, Marion Cotney, brings that word from Stella Mitchell, A.P.I. Extension Service home management specialist. But she suggests that farm women help plan the roof repair job. Use the best and most economical materials.

In planning the job there are several things for the family to keep in mind. For example, experience has proven the wisdom and economy of using rustproof nails, the specialist emphasized in her report. Even, lightweight roofing will not give best service when lightweight steel nails are used.

Only hot dipped zinc nails, cooper or heavy galvanized cut nailsor those of the type recommended by the roofing manufacturershould be used. Moreover, nails should be long enough to penetrate about three-fourths the thickness of the sheating, it was pointed out.

For Mrs. Carpenter

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon for Mrs. Helen Elizabeth Carpenter at Montevallo Methodist Church, conducted by Rev. H. L. Tidwell. Burial was in Montevallo Cemetery.

Mrs. Carpenter died Monday in a Birmingham hospital after an illness of a few days. She is survived by her husband, Brewer Carpenter, Jr., and two sons, Robert and William; her father, Mr. R. A. Crew, of California; her mother, Mrs. R. H. Brown, and brother, Richard Brown, of Birmingham.

DAR Chapter Has First Meeting

David Lindsay Chapter, D.A.R., held its first meeting of the new year at the home of Mrs. E. D. Reynolds, Monday evening, September 18, in observance of Constitution Day. Mrs. W. J. Kennerly, the new regent presiding gave a report of the June Board meeting which she and Mrs. T. H. Napier had attended in Birmingham. In an inspirational talk she pointed out that D.A.R. promotes the American way of life she believes in and pledges her best efforts in carrying out its policies.

The nineteen members present heard with interest and appreciation that with chapter and state award the college will select a young woman of ability who gives promise of becoming a potential leader in the cultural life of the state. Mrs. A. W. Vaughan, member of the state scholarship committee, reported that the first award will be made for the fall of 1951.

Dr. Anne Eastman gave a stimulating talk on the worth and influence of the constitution of the United States with regard to other countries and more especially as a guide to the United Nations. This oldest written constitution, now 163 years old, is not perfect, she said, neither is it static but is adaptable to the changing needs of the time.

The hostess, with Mrs. W. H Lyman and Miss Julia Boyd, served delicious refreshments during the social hour.

The new officers are: Mrs. W. J. Kennerly, Regent; Miss Josephine Eddy, Vice Regent and Program chairman; Mrs. O. B. Cooper, Chaplain; Mrs. E. D. Reynolds, Secretary; Miss Ollie Tillman, Treasurer; Miss Julia Boyd, Registrar; Miss Eloise Meroney, Historian; Mrs. Robert Holcomb, Lib-

Mr. Hamilton and Miss Cotney Will Direct Crusade for Freedom In Shelby

Dr. John T. Caldwell, President of Alabama College, has accepted the duties of chairman of the Crusade for Freedom in the Sixth Congressional District, He is now going forward with organization of the movement at the county level throughout the District.

For Shelby County Dr. Caldwell has named Mr. L. S. Hamilton and Miss Marion Cotney as co-chair-

Scope-The Crusade for Freedom is an all-out effort to mobilize civilian America in the battle for men's minds. The Korean invasion and Malik's lies at the August sessions of the U.N. Security Council have combined to alert all thinking Americans. The Crusade for Freedom provides an effective means of channeling this public sentiment into a dramatic world demonstration of America's true aims of freedom and peace, in opposition to the continual and deliberate. misrepresentations of Communist propoganda.

Sponsorship-The Crusade For Freedom is sponsored by the National Committee for a Free Europe, a non-profit membership corporation of private citizens headed ring out by radio to the free peoby Joseph C. Grew, chairman; Allen W. Dulles, executive committee chairman; DeWitt C. Pool, president, and Frank Altschul, treas-

Radio Free Europe

The NCFE operates Radio Free Europe, which daily broadcasts from a transmitter in Western Germany to the prisoner peoples behind the Iron Curtain. These broadcasts, which are in the languages of the captive countries, nail communist lies with the truth, feature talks by leaders who have escaped from these countries, folk music which is banned in the Communist effort to break down nationalism, and news about what is actually going on in these countries. Being entirely a private operation, Radio Free Europe is not restricted by governmental protocol; it is therefore a most effective supplement to the Voice of America, and is so recognized in Washington.

Radio Free Europe at present is confined to a single short-wave transmitter located near Frankfort in Western Germany. It is hoped to expand Radio Free Europe eventually into a network of five to eight freedom stations. A high-power, medium-wave station is scheduled to go on the air early in 1951 as the first step in this expansion.

Montevallo Defeats Calera Team 41-0

The Montevallo High School Bulldogs defeated Calera High School 41-0 on the local athletic field in the opening game of the 1950 season last Friday night. Coach Theron Fisher's boys took the lead early in the game and continued to score throughout the game. The bulldags made up for their inexperience with weight, and played a high type of ball all through the game. Calera threatened once against Montevallo's B team and succeeded in running the ball over the goal line only to have the play called back on a pen-

This Friday night at 7:30 p.m. on the local field the Montevallo team will take on their arch ri vals, Thompson High School of Siluria, at 7:30 p.m. in what has promise of being a thriller. The Thompson team defeated Vincent High last Friday night at Siluria Day, October 24. The Rathaus towby a score of 37 to 0.

Basic Concept

Through neglect and apathy, we Americans have taken freedom for granted and have been caught napping while the Communists have been infiltrating the minds of peoples all over the world with the Big Lie and with falsification of our country's position and objectives in world affairs. Hence it is urgently important-if we are not to lose the battle for men's mind's -to provide the peoples of the world, including the prisoner peoles in the satellite countries and in Russia itself, that we actively affirm the Big Truth of freedom for all peoples as the only hope for their ultimate salvation and as the essential prerequisite to peace in the world.

Primary Objective

The primary objective in developing this demonstration is to give every man, woman and child in the United States an opportunity to sign personally a Freedom Scroll which carries a Declaration of Freedom (see below), and then to enshrine these Freedom Scrolls permanently in the base of the bell tower in Berlin, from which the Freedom bell (see below) will ples of the world. This is the tower on the Berlin Rathaus (City Hall).

Secondary Objective

The Crusade will also provide signers of the Scroll an opportunity to back up their signatures with free-will offerings in any amounts as contributions to the support and further development of Radio Free Europe. (Such contributions are deductable for income taz purposes.)

Freedom Scroll

The Freedom Scroll is being issued in sheets 11 x 20 inches. Each sheet, serially numbered has an identical masthead in which is printed this Declaration of Free-

- "I believe in the sacredness and dignity of the individual.
- I believe that all men derive the right to freedom equally from God.
- pledge to resist aggression and tyranny wherever they appear
- "I am proud to enlist in the Crusade for Freedom.
- I am proud to help make the Freedom Bell possible, to be a signer of this Declaration of Freedom, to have my name included as a permanent part of the Freedom Shrine in Berlin, and to join with the millions of men and women throughout the world who hold the cause of freedom sacred."

Freedom Bell

The Freedom Bell, which is the symbol of the Crusade, was cast on July 27, 1950, at the bell foundry of Gillett and Johnston, Croydon, England, with Ambassador Lewis O. Douglas in attendance. It has since been tuned to the musical note "G". At this writting it is going over the highways on a special prime mover from New York to Kansas City where it will be transferred to a flat car and railed over the Rockies to San Francisco. The return trip will be by rail.

Returning is will vsit Los Angeles, Phoenix, Dallas, New Orleans, Birmingham, Atlanta, Charlotte, Richmond, Washington, Baltimore and Philadelphia.

The bell will then be shipped to Bremerhaven and forwarded from there to Berlin in order to arrive in time to ring out its initial peal in the shadow of the Iron Curtain on United Nations

Polio Reported This Year

Shelby County is experiencing its worst year insofar as Infantile Paralysis, or Poliomyelitis, is concerned. To date 8 cases have occured in the County this summer. These have ranged in severity from very mild, abortive attacks to the very severe bulbar form with paralysis of the throat muscles and respiratory muscles as well as of muscles of the extremities.

Three cases have shown some paralysis, which is a rather high percentage.

None of the 8 cases have had any contact or connection with the other cases and it is thought that at least one case was contracted outside of the County.

Polio is a hot weather disease. With the coming of cooler weather the infection practically disappears. Its mode of transmission is still a somewhat moot question, but many cases are probably the result of contact with a healthy "carrier" of the virus. A great many of us have, no doubt, had mild, abortive and undiagnosed attacks which have rendered us immune to the infection.

During the acute stage of Polio the patient should be moved around as little as possible and kept at complete rest. Contagious technique should, of course, be employed during this stage. Hospitalization is necessary only for those cases with bulbar or respitory paralysis or where painful muscle spasms are present which require hot packs and considerable nursing care.

The isolation period recommended by the United States Public Health Service is one week for the average case.

Many hospitals place cases of Polio in their general wards using of course, the usual precautions for a communicable disease.

The majority of cases recover promptly. In the comparatively small number of cases that have residual paralysis, a good percentage will, with treatment, regain partial or complete use of the involved muscles.

There is no preventive "shot" against Polio and, as yet, no specific drug or drugs for treatment.

E. F. Sloan, M. D. County Health Officer

Promotion Day at Siluria Church Sunday is special Promotion

Day at the Siluria Baptist Church. An interesting and impressive Promotion Day Exercise is being planned according to W. A. Duke and pastor Joe R. Bancroft.

The Departmental Superintendents assisted by the Teachers are serving on the Program Committee to plan the exercise. The boys and girls of all departments from the Cradle roll and nursery on up through the Young Peoples' Departments will participate.

Following a brief class period next Sunday at 10:30 all the Sunday School will assemble in the new main auditorium of the church for the Promotion Program. A good number from the various Departments will be promoted according to their ages.

The pastor will bring a "Promotion Day" Sermon at the morning Worship Hour to the congregation. All parents, friends, and visitors are welcome.

The post office at Whistler did a beautiful business on Mother's Day when the new stamp bearing the picture of Whistler's Mother was issued. Stamp collectors wanted letters with the Whistler postmark, alongside the Whistler stamp.

er, a Berlin landmark, is now being readied to house the bell.

Around the body of the bell in bas relief are five figures representing the major races of man, each figure standing with arms outstreached. The joining hands hold torches symbolizing freedom. Above the bell's rim is the inscription: "That This World, Under God, Shall Have A New Birth Of Freedom", a paraphrase of Lincoln's words at Gettysburg.

How Crusade is Organized

General Lucius D. Clay, former military governor of Germany and leader of the Berlin airlift, is national chairman of the Crusade.

An overall advisory body-the National Crusade Council-assists in the guidance and development of the sampaign. This Cohncil consists of more than 130 leaders from all important segments of American life.

A Crusade field organization has been built up, composed of 14 Regional Chairmen, 48 State Chairmen and a growing number of City and other Local Chairmen.

Basic Approach

Although every apropriate channel will be used during the enrollment campaign, the basic plan is to make the Freedom Scroll available for signing in schools, retail stores, factories, large offices, passenger terminals, and the lobbies of hotels, banks, theatres and sports arenas. This will be the most intensive aspect of the sixweeks' campaign; as such, it will be restricted to a week in each community. Selection of the week is left to the Crusade's leadership in each community.

Mr. Hamilton and Miss Cotney have announced that all high school principals together with officials and members of Home demonstration clubs will be given organizing and supervising the execution of the plans of the Crusade in the various communities of this county.

College Enrollment Goes Over 700

The second largest Freshman class in a decade has completed registration at Alabama College.

Present total for the new class is 257, according to enrollment figures released today by the office of the registrar of the college. Total enrollment to date is 704 compared with a total student body of 709 last year.

Commenting on the large, new freshman class, Dr. John T. Caldwell, who begins his fourth year at Alabama College this Fall, stated:

"We are indeed pleased that this college is more than holding its own in the number of new students. It is gratifying that young people of today realize the importance of college work.

"Educators are more aware than ever before of the need for general education and for scientific and technical training, and we encourage all of it here at Alabama College. But the youth of today comes to college also seeking the answers to international problems, seeking new in spiritual strength, and moral courage, in the creative and expressive arts, as well as the sciences. We do here the best job I know of in meeting these needs." During the 1949-50 year, 15 students were enrolled at Alabama College from outside the continental United States. To this group, most of whom are returning to the and one from India.

Thompson 31 Montevallo 7

The Thompson High School Warriors put on a fine display of football here last Friday night to beat the Montevallo team by the losis and heart disease. score of 31 to 7.

Montevallo kicked off to Thompson in the first quarter and the boys from Siluria promptly marched down the field to score six points. A few minutes later the Montevallo center let the ball go over his punters head on fourth down deep in Montevallo territory where Thompson took over and made their second score. Montevallo came to life behind the accurate passing of Hammaker and scored 7 points which seemed to take the Siluria by surprise and kept them busy the entire second quarter.

Siluria recovered early in the third period and scored twice on long down field running by Brogdon, and made their final score in the last period.

Coach Theron Fisher's team put up a gallant fight all during the game but couldn't quite cope with the experienced men on the opposition. Montevallo looked good on offense and showed much promise of dealing someone trouble with that deadly accurate passing done by Hammaker.

This week Montevallo plays Clanton at Clanton and from news leaking out of Clanton they have a back named Easterling that can outrun any jack-rabbit in Chilton County, all of which is nothing unusual for Clanton.

Leonard Bearden Has Jersey Winner In Montgomery Show

Montgomery's 4th Annual Dairy Cattle Exposition was concluded at the coliseum Tuesday afternoon and proclaimed the most successful one ever held here.

"The show was outstanding," said Superintendent Harry S. Gilmore, "in the number of entries, the high quality animals and interest of exhibitors and the general public."

Championships in the Jersey class went to Dr. Joseph D. Wilson of Dutch Bend Farms in Autaugaville, Autaga County and to Leonard Bearden, 4-H Club member of Helena, Shelby County.

Jersey Is Winner

Winning the honors here for Dr. Wilson was a five-year-old Jersey cow which has already won state shows this year in Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Kentucky and Tennessee. Dr. Wilson also showed the champion Jersey Bull.

By winning for him the championship of the junior Jersey female division, Bearden's threeyear-old cow also won for the 4-H'er a trip to the All-American Jersey Show in Dallas, Texas, Oct. 15-20.

Local AAUW Studies On Shelby County

Mr. A. A. Lauderdale gave an interesting report on "Agriculture in Shelby County" to the Montevallo Branch AAUW Tuesday evening, introducing a series of programs in which the Branch will hear about many aspects of the economy and institutions of the county. On October 24 Mr. Fred Phillips will describe the cotton mill industry and Mr. Frank Baker will talk on the dairy business in the county. These talks will be followed later in the year by a discussion of Shelby County laws and legislation by Representative Karl Harrison and Senator Tom Phillips; Social Services of the county by the Social Studies Committee with Miss Jeanette Niven, Mrs. L. G. Fulton and Mrs. Mary Whatley in charge; explanation of the coal and lime business by Mr. Calhoun Roden and the education program of Shelby County by Mr. W. W. Elliott and Mr. Robert Johnson. Tours to various points of interest in the county have been planned in connection with each of these programs. Miss Josephine Eddy, Program Chairman of the Branch, is responsible for planning and arranging these programs. The first tour will be on Saturday, September 30, to see soil conservation and timber lands and will be in charge of Mr. B. F. Hatchett and Mr. Lauderdale. Mr. M. Thornton will accompany the

Get Instructions For Preparing Overseas Packages

The period October 15th to November 15, has been again designated by the U.S. Mail Service for acceptance of Christmas parcels for members of our armed forces serving outside the Continental United States.

It is expected that many Christmas parcels will be sent this year by persons in this country to their loved ones serving overseas.

A long and detailed list of instructions for preparing and packing have been issued to all post offices. The purpose of these instructions and regulations is to insure delivery in good condition. Persons who expect to send Christmas packages and other overseas mail should be sure they understand in advance how packing and Mrs. Willie Thompson. wrapping should be done. Therefore, we think it a good plan to inquire at the post office before you prepare your package and thereby make sure you get it done right.

It is better to do it this way than to get to the post office with your package and then find you have done it wrong and have to do it over again before it can be accepted for mailing.

Don't Be Satisfied With Symptomatic Relief!

RELIEVE THE CAUSE OF YOUR SICKNESS

Neuritis Pains, Stomach Disturbances, Indigestion, Gas, Constipation, Certain Nervous Disorders and a General Run-down Condition

When due to lack of Vitamins B, B, Iron and Niacin in your system! Read How These Folks Benefited Who Had Such Deficiencies

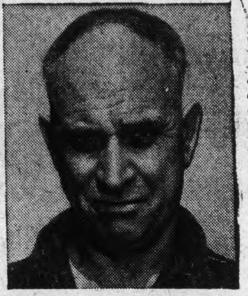

Mr. Anthamatten, 4731 South 32nd West Ave., Tulsa 7, Okla-homa, suffered from stomach distress for quite some time. He had spent much money trying everything possible for relief and was in bad health when he started taking HADA-COL. He says, "After taking three bottles of the $3.50 size, I've gained 27 pounds and now eat anything I desire and posi-tively have no trouble." (HAD-ACOL gives such wonderful results because it actually relieves the REAL CAUSE of stomach distress [gas pains, heartburn, indigestion after eating] due to such deficiencies. And continued use of this great HADACOL helps prevent such distress from returning.)

Mrs. Mabel Kitchen, 1650 Amsterdam, Cincinnati, Ohio. "Before I started taking HADA-COL I had aches and pains of neuritis in my shoulders, my back and arms. I could hardly move without having those terrible pains. Then I heard about HADACOL. After the second bottle the pains and aches were about gone. I'm now starting my fourth bottle and am on top of the world. I eat well and, best of all, the aches and pains are completely gone:" (Mrs. Kitchen is a work smart woman because the very smart woman because she relieves the REAL CAUSE of her neuritis pains due to such de-ficiencies. HADACOL often brings a wonderful improve-ment within a few days' time.)

Mrs. J. Scieszinski, 514 Kruger, Ottumwa, Iowa, writes: "My daughter, Marilyn Sue, is 5 years old and for some time lacked pep, had a poor appetite, was generally run-down. Since giving her HADACOL, we have noticed wonderful results . . . she has a much better appetite, eats everything on the table and doesn't seem tired table and doesn't seem tired like she used to. Incidentally, she likes to take HADACOL, too." (HADACOL is a great 'builder-upper' for sick, nervous, puny kids whose systems lack precious Vitamins B<sub>1</sub>, B<sub>2</sub>, Iron and Niacin. A big improvement in their well-being is often noticed within a few is often noticed within a few days' time after taking the great new HADACOL.)

Mr. Henry Angel, RD No. 1, Springfield, Ohio. "I used to suffer great pain from neuritis aches in all parts of my body, especially in my legs, arms and shoulders. I never got any real relief until I tried HADACOL. After taking several bottles, my pain is all gone. And I'm working every day." (Now there's a smart man! Mr. Angel took HADA-COL and relieved the REAL CAUSE of his neuritis pains because they were due to such deficiencies. HADACOL is helping thousands upon thousands of grateful men and women troubled this way. Why don't you give HADA-COL a chance to help you? Start taking it today!)

Why don't you get that wonderful HADACOL feeling everyone is talking about? In this modern age, wise folks are no longer satisfied with symptomatic relief — because now it's possible to relieve the cause of such deficiency sickness with that wonderful new HADACOL.

HADACOL not only supplies deficient systems with extra quantities of Vitamins B<sub>1</sub>, B<sub>2</sub>, Iron and Niacin but also helpful amounts of precious Calcium, Phosphorus and Manganese—vital elements every human being must have to maintain good health. You owe it to yourself to give HADACOL a fair trial. Many doctors recommend this great new HADACOL. It's sold on a strict money-back guarantee. Trial size, $1.25. B. F. Hatchett and G. C. Starcher

Tuesday, September 19, Robert E. Waters, a representative of the State Department of Conservation, Division of Game, Fish and Seafoods spent the day with the Shelby County S.C.S. Work Unit.

He was in the county to observe the progress of plantings of lespedeza bi-color and other bird food plantings.

The large patch of the new type bi-color, "101", planted on the outskirts of Columbiana by the S.C.S. for seed production was visited first. This planting yielded 80 pounds of seed last year. It was fertilized this spring with 0-14-10 donated by the North Central Soil Conservation District Supervisors, and is in superb condition. Mr. Waters estimated a yield of 200 pounds or more this year.

A large border planting on the farm of F. E. Williams was found to be growing well, but seed yield very low due to damage by cattle.

B.O.H. Lansford has a good seed crop on two borders on his place, and generously offered to allow the District to harvest the seed for plant production.

On the C. Cordes farm in Dry Valley, seed planted this past spring produced a fair stand of plants. Unfavorable weather had prevented cultivation, hence the plants are smaller than usually is

Health Officer Outlines Means Of Typhoid Control

Shelby County has had 3 cases of Typhoid so far this year. This compares favorably with the year 1936 when there were 41 cases in the County, but still 3 cases which could have been prevented.

One of the surest safeguards against Typhoid is good sanitation. A safe water supply, proper excreda disposal facillities and adequate screening of homes are a good investment in insurance against Typhoid, as well as other intestinal infections.

Rural sanitation is one of the major health problems in the County and Shelby County has a long way to go in order to have good rural sanitation. No open, rope, and bucket well is safe from contamination. If the well is cased at least 15 feet below the ground surface, is covered with an impermeable concrete slab and fitted with either a good hand pump or electric pump, it can be chlorinated and a safe water supply procured. Many rural homes have a surface privy and some none at all. There are no screens or adequate screens on many houses.

Milk can also be a carrier of Typhoid if it is handled by a Typhoid carrier. If you are not sure of your milk supply, ask your Health Department.

Many cases of Typhoid are contracted from healthy Typhoid carriers. Probably 2% of people who have had Typhoid remain carriers of the germ many years after they have recovered. These carriers are especially dangerous if they handle food of any kind. One should exercise care in eating away from home.

Last but not least you can be protected against Typhoid by taking your immunizing "shots" reg-

Two Hog Sales During October

Shelby County livestockmen and all others interested in Alabama's growing hog industry are invited to attend the two October hog sales scheduled by the Duroc Breeder's Association. The first sale will be held on the Birmingham Fair Grounds on October 7th. The other is set for October 19 at the Dothan stadium.

At each show, hog growers will have a chance to select some of the best foundation stock in the state, says Lauderdale, | county agent. A number of Shelby County farmers are planning to select gilts for brood sows. Well-grown gilts can be bred at eight to 10 months of age, he reminds producers. And well-grown boars may be used for light service at eight to ten months.

Tip On Planting Crimson Clover

Agronomists and county agents crops earlier than they do, according to D. R. Harbor, A.P.I. Extension Agronomist.

But this is not true when planting crimson clover on an established stand of lespedeza sericea, he adds.

Unless rainfall is heavy, a good stand of crimson clover usually will not survive if planted before Fair and visit this display. the sericea stops growing and removing large amounts of water from the soil. The sericea starves the crimson clover seedlings to

Therefore, it is safer to delay the planting of crimson clover seed on established sericea until rather late-around October 15.

Miss Betty Smith, Director, Reports on Swimming, Tennis and Summer Recreation

The activities sponsored by the | nate. summer recreation program included swimming from 2 to 5 at Big Springs, tennis on Monday, paid by the Recreation Program. Wednesday, and Friday nights from 7 to 9 at the High School, fore the program begins in the and Play Night in the High summer, a general schedule be set School auditorium on Thursday nights.

the first of the summer a Red the morning, 3 in the afternoon, Cross Life Saving Class was concourse. Rain interfered with the at the discretion of the leaders. Intermediate swimming lessons which followed the completion of the Life Saving Course. There were 25 enrolled in these classes. Following the swimming program in the line of events was the tennis practice in preparation for the tennis tournament.

Other activities at Big Springs were pitching horseshoes and pingpong. The large crowds at the creek averaging around 50 during the first two months of the summer made up for the smaller crowds the last few weeks of the summer. The fall in attendance is evident in every swimming season and may be partially due to the polio scare.

Tennis crowds were the largest in August when enthusiasm ran high among those participating in the tournament and those with not enough confidence to enter the tournament. Although there were only six girls entered in the tennis tournament, the players and spectators averaged from 20 to 25 a night. The figures given for tennis does not include the number who played on other nights and in the afternoons. This number would probably equal the given number.

An average of about 25 attended the Play nights held every Thursday. The High School Auditorium was opened and ping pong, dancing, chinese checkers, checkers, dominoes, and games of low organization were enjoyed.

The Town Picnic was planned and carried out by the Picnic Committee of the Recreation Board. Hot dogs, potato salad, cold drinks and watermelons were enjoyed by all. The watermelons and the ingredients for the hot dogs were purchased by the Recreation Board and a collection taken up at the picnic. Potato salad was brought by the picnicers and cold drinks were sold. An estimate of 200 attended the picnic in spite of the rain that preceded and followed the picnic. More would have attended if it had not rained.

Several groups, including the F.F.A., F.H.A. church groups, and private parties, from Montevallo and surrounding communities used the picnic grounds of the creek for their outings.

This need ducted with five completing the not be binding and may be varied completion of the Beginners' and Another method would be to set up a minimum number of hours per week and then the directors may work out their own schedules.

All year-round recreation programs need and should have a recreation center. For Montevallo, I would recommend the construction of a pavillion in addition to dressing rooms. The building should be as large as funds allow and include space for a concession stand, equipment room, juke box, dancing, games and one or two tables. The pavillion could be lighted for special occasions. Up keep could be the responsibility of the person in charge of the concession stand. This would also make possible a rainy-weather program. Table games, shuffle board, ping-pong, and other games could be played inside. This could be a start for a community recreation center.

I would recommend that a budget be set up at the beginning of the summer allocating definite amounts to tennis (enough to include payment of light bill), base- tions point out where this sumball and softball, 3 town picnics, mer's program has failed and and other games and activities to where next summer's program Board and Directors. After the program is set up, every means of publicity should be employed. One of the directors or one member of the Recreation Board should be in charge of all publicity which could include posters, circulars, write-ups in the newspaper, and notices in the church bulletins.

Joe and Jack McGaughy, FFA Members Have "Many Irons in the Fire"

Though Jack and Joe McGaughy have carried out a well rounded supervised farming program in vocational agriculture, they will have added duties this year serving as officers in the local chapter at Montevallo. During the last two years the McGaughy brothers have completed projects in beef production, poultry, pasture improvement, forestry, garden, and vineyard. At present they own two gilts which they plan to use to produce registered pigs for sale. This year Jack is serving as official chapter secretary, and Joe is serving as reporter for the chapyear and attended the state convention at Auburn during July. Joe plans to attend the national convention in Kansas City this shop laboratory. The program designed to train for more useful was made in May to see what the boys would like to do during the summer. Baseball was the first ranking sport-running far ahead of the others. Swimming ranked second with fishing, third.

Sports that were on the board to be voted on included these: Basketball, baseboll, football, tennis, softball, archery, horseshoes, washers, ping-pong, golf, badminton, touch football, dancing, checkers, track, camping or hiking, fishing, and volleyball. Whereas a sport that was not in demand we did not have; therefore saving the cost of equipment.

Baseball, being the greatest in demand, was run at a minimum cost because school equipment was

The morning program was for the 13 year olds and under. From 9 o'clock until 12, we had a fourteam league until the middle of the summer, playing 3 out of the city games. There were 103 different boys taking part and a daily attendance average of 27 until the first of August when attendance fell down to 15, due to church school (Vacation Bible School), which I feel was quite worthwhile.

Baseball for the American Legion group was held in the afternoon 3 days a week, with games twice a week. The number of boys who came out was 31 and daily attendance ran 19. This group won 8 games losing 1. We had 5 games rained out.

Monday night was devoted to the men's softball league, consisting of 3 teams from Montevallo and one from Boothton. Boothton won out. The total number taking part was 62 with 37 average attendance of players.

We had one all night fishing for our program. and camping outing with 29 boys on this trip to "Bulldog Bend" in walking distance-total mileage, 5.

Again, as in the past, a survey Harry Klotzman. This sport is gaining in popularity.

There was one large community picnic with about 200 people taking part. Hot dogs and watermelons were furnished free. Rain held up several contests on this picnic.

Directors Personal Notes

For the good of all, this program should be run throughout the year. Football, the band, and school work will give our children enough recreation during autum months. Basketball in winter and baseball in spring, furnish recreation. But volleyball or checker tournaments should be furnished more for the adults throughout the year.

Personally, I feel that the child is our biggest business, and we need to give him something that he will carry with him alwayscharacter.

After observing in cities that have similar recreational programs, I feel that Montevallo would rank high on the list. The cost of such a program is not too much when we consider that we are molding the characters of the citizens of tomorrow.

Baseball, swimming and fishing. our three ranking sports for summer (according to the boys themselves, not the adults) can be furnished without too great a cost.

Recommendations 1. That the directors help both churches in their recreation during their Vacation Bible Schools.

2. That certain phases of this program be held throughout the year.

3. That transportation for field trips be furnished provided the director notifies the proper authority one week in advance.

4. That we encourage games for adults-bridge, canasta, etc.

5. That we get more publicity

6. That a far-range program be continued at the Big Spring inand one fishing and hiking trip cluding rest rooms and dressing

7. That programs be set up during winter months for square dancing on Saturdays.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

Next week, October 7-15 Fire Prevention Week. The week is designated to focus public attention on simple catters of fire which are frequently overlooked.

Every family in Shelby County should use a few minutes to take active steps to remove fire hazards in our own homes and the places we work.

Careless smoking and use of matches probably cause more fires, Misuse of electrical equipment ranks second. The accumulation of rubbish, use of inflamable liquids for cleaning and defective chimneys are responsible for most of the home fires.

Lighted cigarettes tossed from car windows or thrown carelessly along foot paths start fires in leaves and brush. Campers and sportsmen are also responsible for a large share of forest fires.

Check your homes and business for fire hazards. (1) Be sure Electric circuits are sufficient to carry peak loads, (2) call an electrician to do any new wiring, (3) Store oily and wax rags and mops in closed metal cans or in cool open space, (4) Don't use kerosene for starting fires, (5) Don't leave small children at home alone, (6) Don't smoke in bed, (7) Use metal barrels for ashes, (8) Use reccommended size electric fuses.

Fire prevention Week is a time for you to think about the fire safety of your home. Take time out to make it safe from fire.

Montevallo Loses To Clanton 13-14

Montevallo High School's football team, a decided underdog in last weeks game against Clanton, came through to surprise everyone when they lost the game by only one point-13 to 14. The game being played at Clanton.

The Montevallo team showed great improvement over previous games, and should furnish some more surprises before the season is up. The Montevallo line was tough on defense and held the fast Clanton backs all during the game. Probably the most noticeable improvement in the team was the offensive blocking and running by several Montevallo backs.

This Friday night on the local field the Bulldogs will take on Vincent High School at 7:30 p.m.

Bailey Explains Reserve Status

According to Capt. Charles Bailey there are still several openings in the local Service Battery of the 912th F. A. Bn. (Reserve).

Capt. Bailey points out that the Department of the Army is now calling up, without their consent, enlisted reservists who are not assigned to a T/O & E unit. They are not calling up members of an organized reserve unit and cannot call such men unless the entire unit should be called. Men joining the local reserve unit can be sworn in and given a physical examination locally and do not have to go to Birmingham. The meetings are held twice a month in Montevallo and the reservists are paid month-

Men subject to the draft might also be interested in learning that they may join this local reserve unit with the same priviliges as other members and receive an indefinite draft postponment.

The local meetings are held at the Vocational Agriculture building at Montevallo High School on the 2nd and 4th Monday nights of each month at 7:30 p.m. Anyone interested in joining the outfit should see Capt. Charles Bailey or Capt. C. O. Nordan.

Sgt. John Mitchell Killed In Korea

Last week there appeared or the front page of the Birmingham News a story about Sgt. John Mit-

It was interesting to us to learn through Capt. Charles Bailey that Sgt. Mitchell was formerly an instructor for the local Reserve Service Battery of the 912th F A Bn.

"The Terrible Harpes" were two brothers who became notorious outlaws by robbing and kliling travelers on the Natchez Trace. One of them double-crossed a chell, and his five-year-old son friend, who thereupon, cut off his Johnny. Sgt. Mitchell was killed head with a butcher knife. The in action in Korea on September other was hanged after he took a head wrapped in clay to the authorities in Natchez, claiming it to be the head of Sam Mason, another outlaw who had a large reward over his head.

Senator LeBlanc Says South Has Great Industrial Future

Now Is the Time to Start Getting Somewhere, Says HADACOL Owner

Lafayette, La. (Sp.)—Senator Dudley J. LeBlanc, colorful owner of HADACOL, wants the South to sell its advantages to the nation just as he is selling HADACOL to the rest of the country.

The Senator spoke to about 500,000 people on his recent half million dollar good-will tour of 10 southern states. His theme was the fallacy of the South producing raw products, shipping them north for processing and then paying freight to bring the finished product back home.

The Senator pulled his hand-kerchief out of his pocket waving it to crowds that ranged from 25,000 to 60,000. "This handker-chief was made from cotton grown in the South," he said. The cotton was shipped to Massachusetts and made into this finished product. Then we in the South paid the freight on it back home where we grew the cotton.

"That mill in Massachusetts furnished employment to folks up there and paid taxes that created schools and improved their economy. Why couldn't those northern folks? #### Wispy Fleece, Seen on Rivers, Really Is Steam

MILWAUKEE, WIS .- That Wispy fleece seen on rivers and which looks like real steam—is real steam, according to a physics teacher.

Mothers who tell their children, when asked, that what they see is not steam, are all wrong, according to this teacher.

There's an explanation for this phenomenon says Manfred Olson, head of the physics department at Milwaukee State Teachers college. In fact, there are two of them-one for any body of water that steams in cold weather, and a special, additional one for the Milwaukee

"It's simply because cold air can't hold as much water as warm air," Olson says. "So the water that evaporates from the river condenses in tiny droplets on specks of dust in the air. That's the steam you see coming off the river."

Just how much water vapor can be carried in the air at certain temperatures is shown in a chart called the vapor pressure table. At 32 degrees, which is freezing temperature, water vapor pressure does not quite reach a pound per square inch.

Pressure Goes Up At 212 degrees, which is the boiling point of water, the pressure goes up to 15 pounds per square inch. At zero temperature, the air can hold only one-sixth the amount of water it holds at 32 degrees.

When a body of still water, such as a pond, starts freezing, here's what happens.

The top layer of water gets cold first. But as water gets colder, it also gets heavier, up to a certain point. That point is 39.2 degrees. When the top layer of water reaches that temperature, it sinks to the bottom of the pond and the next highest layer goes to he top. That, too, reaches 39.2 degrees eventually and sinks.

When the whole pond reaches 39.2 degrees, the top layer then freezes up. The top layer of water stays on top because water gets lighter as its temperature goes down below 39.2 degrees. And that's why water freezes from the top down instead of the bottom up.

Special Reason

Now, the special reason for steam on the Milwaukee river. It is the relatively hot water that pours into the river from the Commerce St. plant of the electric company.

According to company engineers, the plant takes in an average of 100,000 gallons of water from the river every minute of the day. This water is used to condense steam in the power plant, and then is discharged back into the river through a conduit about nine feet in diameter. The used water temperature is about 60 degrees, which is at least 20 degrees higher than the regular river water tempera-

Cub Scouts Hold October Meeting

The Cub Scouts of Den 2 Pack 59 met Tuesday, October 3, at the home of Arthur, Jr. and Bill Bob Garrett; keeper of the buck skin and Den Mascot. The meeting was cpened by the singing of America led by Den Mother, Mrs. Arthur Garrett. Each cub afterward repeated one of his Bob Cat requirements.

Two new members, Joe Glenn Clark, and Forrest Brown were welcomed to the den and told what was required of a good cub.

It was with regret that the den promoted Arthur R. Garrett, Jr. to the Scouts, he having reached his eleventh birthday. Arthur. Jr. also pased all of his cub achievements, entitling him to wear a Webelos badge.

The den was also sorry to lose its Denner, Bill Brown, who has moved away.

After the reading of the minutes the following were elected to serve for two months:

Denner, Tommy Plant; Assistant denner, Murphy McGehee; Keeper of the Buckskin, Denny Elliott; Song Leader, Forrest Brown; Reporter, Den Mother;

Games of bang and frozen tag were played. Also Capture the Flag.

Refreshments were served by Bill Bob, mascot.

The meeting was dismissed with the Grand Howl.

Denner Murphy McGehee is to be host at his home next Tuesday,

Farm Kids Rated as Having Better Chance Than Others

CHICAGO.-Farm kids have all the luck. They're healthier; their responsibilities build stronger character, and often by the time they're 20, they're capitalists.

That's the summation of a 4-H club official, G. L. Noble, director of the national committee on boys' and girls' club work.

"If cities had a youth program similar to 4-H clubs," he said. "juvenile delinquency would be greatly decreased."

Noble contends that city youngsters don't have the responsibilities of their rural cousins.

"We spend thousands of dollars on supervised recreation for kids in the cities," he said. "The kids are told what to do. They don't learn how to take responsibilityand if you don't learn that, oftentimes you turn out to be a weak-

Noble says that it is different with rural youngsters as members of 4-H clubs.

"Each club is a little democracy. The kids map out their own program. They take responsibilities." He said that the nation's cities need a 4-H club type of program even more than the rural areas. "Farm kids would be kept busy with chores even if there weren't a 4-H club," Noble said. "But city kids don't have an opportunity to work with their hands and with different gadgets."

Noble says that the 4-H club program gives rural youngsters a chance to gain recognition-an important ingredient in a well rounded personality.

Davis, Denny Elliott, Murphy Mc-Gehee, Forrest Brown, Joe Glenn Clark, George Screws, Tommy Cubs present Tuesday were: Plant, Arthur Garrett, Jr., and

Home Ec Class Visits Chilco Plant

On Friday, September 29, the members of Miss Old's Home Economics II Class and Agriculture boys who have been studying food preservation, made a visit to the Chilco Freezing Plant in Clanton.

The students saw the processing of beef from the time the hide was removed until it was cut or ground and placed in the deep freeze compartments.

Furthermore, they were shown the steps in preparation and packaging of pork sausage, curing of bacon, and the rendering of lard.

The students were especially interested in observing the operation of the machine that removes the feathers from chickens, and in seeing chickens dressed at a very rapid rate.

On the return trip the students visited in the home of Mrs. Luther McGaughy of Montevallo where they saw a well-filled home freezer, containing meats, fish, poultry, fruits and vegetables.

Thompson Loses To Prattville High

In 17 starts, Thompson lost a second game last Friday night to Pratville High of Autauga County by a score of 13 to 6.

Pratville is undefeated for 20 games and has been rated number 8 in the state high school first

Scoring came on a 15 yard dash through left tackle in the first quarter. The game was nip and tuck until the last quarter when Bush threw to Evans a 40 yard pass for a scoring play. An attempt for extra points was blocked by Patrick.

Thompson scored 6 points in the last quarter on a 40 yard throw from Davenport to Brogden.

Outstanding backs were James Davenport and Billy Durrett. Earl Wilson and Roger Patrick, linemen, played well.

Thompson meets Isabella Friday night at Buck Creek Stadium, in Siluria.

Founders Day At Alabama College Is October 12

Founders' Day at Alabama College brings Ian Stuart of Birmingham as guest speaker for the 11 a.m. Convocation in Palmer Auditorium Thursday, October 12.

Mr. Stuart, a director of the Alabama Educational Foundation, is at present engaged in establishing a new boarding school for boys under the terms of the will of Harvey G. Woodward.

He will speak to the students and faculty on education since the Middle Ages.

For all his brief years in this country-Mr. Stuart came from Ireland in September, 1947-he has become quite well known in this area. An Honor Graduate of the University of Dublin, a member of the Royal Society of Teachers, Mf. Stuart's background also includes an outstanding college athletic record. He represented Ireland as a track star, was a member of the All-Ireland Rugby Football team and the All British Rugby team of 1924.

Our Congressman Returns To District For A Few Weeks

Congressman Edward deGraffenried has returned to the District during the adjournment of Congress and has opened offices on the second floor of the Post Office Building at Tuscaloosa. Mr. deGraffenried plans to visit in as many counties as possible during his stay in the District. The Congressman announced that anyone desiring to see him about any matter could contact him at either the Tuscaloosa Post Office or while he is visiting in the various communities of the District. The Congressman stated that he plans to remain in the District until November 27th when Congress reconvenes, unless he should be called back to Washington in the meantime by Chairman Vinson of the Armed Services Committee in connection with the work of the Stock-piling Sub-Committee or Air Procurement Sub-Committee or other work of the Armed Services Committees. His office will be staffed by his Executive Secretary, Mr. Cleveland Tucker, and Mrs. deGraffenried, who accompanied him to the District. Miss Mary Ellen Higgins, Clerk, will remain in the Washington Office during the adjournment.

Negro High School Needs Books

The Montevallo Negro High School desperately needs books, magazines, and newspapers for its library.

Anyone having such publications suitable for high school libraries which they would like to donate to this school may phone the Montevallo Times, 5101, and we will see that delivery is made to the school.

The Montevallo Community Chest Board has completed plans for the 1950-51 drive. The drive will be under the direction of Mr. Victor Scott, Chairman; and Mr. Sidney Forsythe, Vice-chairman. This year's quota has been established at $2,000.00, and the date of the drive is October 25.

The overall goal of $2,000.00 is the same as last year. Not included in the budget is the Recreation program which is now financed by the Town Council.

Welfare is the largest item in the new budget in the amount of $1,000.00. This is the largest amount ever allotted to this phase of the chest program. However, it is felt that the coming year will produce enough welfare cases to justify this amount. It is anticipated that lunches will be provided for children in school whose parents cannot pay for lunches. Officials of the school report an increasing number of such cases and attribute the increase to the closing of mines in this area. Many children have been fitted with glasses and provided with medical care in the past, and it is anticipated that more will be required in the future.

The 1950-51 Chest budget is as Girl Scouts ..... $ 250.00 Boy Scouts ..... 100-00 Cub Scouts ..... 100.00 Negro Schools ..... 200,00 Elementary Schools ...... 150.00 Welfare ..... 1000.00 Operation Expense .....

Status of Women Is Subject of State Conference

Civic leaders and educators over the state will come to Alabama College on November 3 and 4 to attend a conference on the Status of Women.

The conference is the first in this state dedicated to the 1950 Status of Women. Texas, Arkansas, and South Carolina have held similar conferences recently.

Coordinator of the program on the campus is Dr. Katherine Vickery, head of the department of psychology at Montevallo and past state president of the AAUW.

Key speaker for the conference will be widely-known Lucy S. Howorth, Acting General Counsel of the War Claims Commission in Washington, D.C.

A former Mississippian and practicing attorney in that state, Mrs. Howorth is considered one of the nation's leaders in encouraging women to take part in the serious politics and economics of the nation and of the world.

Judge Howorth's years are filled with activity. A graduate of Randolph-Macon, she did post graduate work at Columbia, received her law degree from the University of Mississippi, later serving on the Board of Law examiners of that state, and in 1932 was elected to the Mississippi State Legislature.

Mrs. Howorth will give the banquet address on Friday, November 3, and will lead a discussion conference on Saturday. Conference leaders and speakers will include: Dr. John T. Caldwell, President, and Dr. T. H. Napier, Dean of the College. Both will speak to the conference on Friday morning, November 3.

Miss May Kyser, President of the Alabama Federation of Women's Clubs and Miss Katherine Cater, Dean of Women at Auburn, will speak in the afternoon.

Judge Howorth is scheduled to address the conference at 7:30 p.m. on Friday. On Saturday, November 4, at 10 a.m., Lt Governor Nominate James B. Allen will speak.

Miss Josephine Eddy, president of the Alabama Federation of Business and Professional Womens Clubs, will preside at the evening meeting on Friday.

DAR Meets At Home of Mrs. Wills

The David Lindsay Chapter, D. A. R., met at the home of Mrs. E. H. Wills Monday evening, October 9. The regent, Mrs. W. J. Kennerly, presided.

For the coming year the chapter will study the organization, history and general program of the D. A. R.

Mrs. Charles L. Gormley gave an interesting account of the founding of the society. Quoting: "On July 13, 1890, Mrs. Mary Smith Lockwood of Washington, aroused by the actions of the Sons of the American Revolution, in voting down a motion to admit women to their society, published an article entitled 'Women Worthy of Honor.' The society grew from this beginning."

Desiring to stress the influence of women from behind the public scenes in the development of our nation from its beginning, the founders of our society chose for their formal organization date the anniversary of the discovery of America because it was the sacrifice of her jewels by a woman, Queen Isabella of Spain, which made possible the first voyage of Christopher Columbus to the New World.

In these 60 years the Daughters of the American Revolution have acquired property amounting to many millions of dollars. Its membership has grown to 167,846. From the past, inspiration is derived to face the future.

The hostesses, Mrs. Wills and Dr. Peck, served delightful refreshments to the following members: Misses Emma Dendy, Anne Eastman, Josephine Eddy, Eloise Meroney, Ethel Reasoner, Ollie Tillman, and Mesdames Charles L. Gormley, W. J. Kennerly, H. D. LeBaron, W. H Lyman, T. H. Napier, E. D. Reynolds, Ben. F. Roden, C. G. Sharp, A. W. Vaughan.

German Teacher Visits College

The Home Economics student teachers had a very interesting visitor at their weekly general conference at the vocational building on Wednesday, September 27. This visitor was Miss Earnestine Staub, a teacher of Agricultural Home Economics in Munich, Germany.

Miss Staub, with a number of other German teachers, came to the United States to make a study of the Home Economics programs and to observe the teaching techniques used. She is visiting in a number of states and will be in Alabama six weeks.

Miss Straub talked very interestingly about the school program in Germany, from the first year through graduation.

In describing the present conditions of the schools in Germany, Miss Staub talked about the extreme scarcity of materials with which to work in Home Economics Classes; and expressed gratitude for the materials and supplies which have been sent by Future Homemake Chapters of this country to many Home Economics departments in Germany.

At the conclusion of Miss Strab's talk the student teachers described to her some of the ways in which they work with the high school pupils at school and in their homes. A tour was then made of the Home Economics and Agricultural Departments.

Later in the afternoon, Miss Staub was shown the Alabama College Campus, and made brief visits to several Montevallo homes.

Admission Tests For Medical College

University, Ala. — Admission tests for Medical and Dental College will be given at the University of Alabama Monday, November 6, Dean Marten ten Hoor of the College of Arts and Sciences, announced today.

Only University of Alabama pre-medical and pre-dental students who are bona fide applicants for admission to a professional school will be eligable to take the examination, the dean said. The examinations pertain to other medical and dental schools besides Alabama's it was announced.

"Some medical and dental schools have already begun to accept applications for admission to the 1952 class," Dean ten Hoor explained. "Students who expect to apply for admission to the 1952 class should take this test even though they have not completed the minimum entrance requirements."

Another Medical College admission test will not be given until May, 1951, it was said.

Concert - Lecture Series Opens Sunday, Oct. 22

Six outstanding lecture, musical and dramatic events will make up the 1950-51 Concert and Lecture Series at Alabama College.

Opening the program on Sunday afternoon, October 22, will be Mutual Broadcasting Company's Cedric Foster who will give a lecture on the far east. Foster will speak at 4 p.m.

A brilliant young violinist, Joseph Knitzer, who is under the sponsorship of the Association of American Colleges will present an evening concert on October 31. Knitzer has appeared as guest soloist with a dozen of the nation's leading symphony orchestras, and on the Ford and Kraft Radio Hours. He plans to remain on the Montevallo campus the following day for a lecture on techniques.

One of the highlights of the season will be dancer Jose Limon and a troupe of 10 South American dancers. This group comes to Palmer Auditorium on Thursday, November 9 for an 8 p.m. recital.

The popular Touring Players will be on the campus February 27 to bring to students and faculty an evening of drama. The players will present an old fashioned thriller "A Night in the House" which is an adaptation of a Hugh Walnole story.

The Dallas Symphony under the direction of youthful Walter Hendl is scheduled for a Monday evening Concert on March 5, 1951. Now in its 50th year, the orchestra is one of the few in the nation to boast a native Texan star at its helm.

Final offering of the season brings the modern dance team of Ryder and Frankle to the campus on April 18. Mark Ryder, who is considered one of the finest of the young male dancers, is a former soloist in the Martha Graham company.

The dance duo is signed this year as a replacement of a cancellation of the previous season.

Tickets for the season or for individual offerings are available through the chairman of the Series.

Dauphin Island was called Massacre Island when Iberville established a base there for the colonization of Louisiana in 1699. When the Frenchman landed on the island they foud human bones bleaching on the sands, but these grusome relics did not disturb them from settling the island. Settlers from Fort Louis de la Louisiane, on the Mobile River, joined the island colony in 1708 and it was renamed Dauphin in honor of Marie Adelaide of Savoy, wife of Dauphin Louis, Duke of Burgundy.

The Ameri-Congo World Wide Animal Exhibition, coming to Montevallo October 20 and 21 is strictly a clean show for the entire family, full of fun, excitement and extremely educational.

The management has never tolerated any type of games, gambling devices or any other games of chance. When you visit our exhibit bring your entire family as you may be sure we have considered all ages and have provided the type of show that will prove to be entertaining to all.

There will be fun and thrills to remember for years to come. Our employees are trained to be helpful, kind and courteous to our patrons and the lecturer will be glad to answer any questions.

We are proud that we have the finest collection of strange, odd, wild and unusual animals ever to tour this part of the country, and we have enough other interesting acts to make your visit a pleasure, including the troupe of Hollywood Trained Monkeys.

All prices have been reduced for this season and we are now no higher than the average movie.

This show has been acclaimed by press and public alike as the finest exhibit of its kind on the road today.

It takes a smaller share of your wages

to buy residence telephone service today than it did 10 years ago . . .

The price that you pay for residence telephone service in Alabama today actually takes a much smaller percentage of your wages than it did in 1940. Here are the facts:

In the past ten years, hourly wages in manufacturing plants have gone up 118% while, in this same period, residence telephone rates in Alabama have advanced on the average only 31%. Compare that also with a 72% rise in the overall cost of living during this same 10-year period.

In other words the price you pay for telephone service has gone up far less than wages, far less than family income, and far less than most commodities and services you buy.

Meanwhile, the amount of telephone service available at your local service rate has increased immensely. Today throughout most of Alabama you can call and be called from nearly three times as many telephones at your local service rate as you could 10 years ago.

Yes, any way you look at it, telephone service is still one of today's biggest bargains in Alabama.

Bearden Family Of Helena Are Among Cattle Raisers Going To Dallas, Texas

From Montgomery Advertiser

bama dairy producers, both junior and adult, will leave here (Montgomery) by special bus next Saturday morning to participate in the All-American Jersey Show.

The national pure bred exposition will be an attraction of the Texas State Fair in Dallas, October 14-20.

Some 35 people will go to represent Alabama, with many of

A prize winning group of Ala- | them entering cattle in the competition against other top Jersey animals from throughout the United

A leading contender for the national grand championship of the Jersey breed will be a five-yearold cow from Dutch Bend Farms at Autaugaville.

She is owned by Dr. Joseph D. Wilson, and Harold Martinson is herdsman of the big Jersey herd.

By taking top honors at the State Fair in Birmingham last week the cow added Alabama to the list of state titles already won this year in Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Indiana, Kentucky, and Tennessee.

Also in the Dallas-bound group will be the Bearden family of Helena in Shelby County.

Joel, Shirley and Frances will all show animals. Joel also won the trip by placing among the showmanship winners in the Montgomery exposition at the coliseum two weeks ago .In the same show Leonard exhibited the prize Jersey and won a trip.

Going along with the four Bearden 4-H Club members—and as chaperon for other girls in the group—will be their mother, Mrs. J. E. Bearden.

A Montgomery County family that will go is the Halls, of Hall Brothers Dairy in Snowdoun. Don Hall, Jr., will have a Jersey in the national show and was also a 4-H showmanship winner with Joel Bearden in the Montgomery exposition. Mr. and Mrs. Hall will also be along.

Four-H Club members who will have entries in the junior division of the show are:

Joel, Shirley and Frances Bearden, Shelby County; Don Hell, Jr., of Montgomery County; Don Alldredge, Madison County; Larry Easterwood, Randolph County; and Wynn Coleman, Hale County.

Expenses of shipping the club members' animals will be paid by the Alabama State Fair Show Committee, and the junior exhibitors will be guests of the Alabama Jersey Cattle Club.

The party of about 35 will leave Montgomery at 7:30 a.m. on next Saturday. There will be a midday stop at Vicksburg, Miss., for a tour through the Confederate Memorial Park and Cemetery. This will be the final resting place of a commemorative stone, when completed, for which Alabama has just paid $150,000.

After spending the night at Rushton, La., the group will arrive in Dallas Sunday. They will stay at the Travis Hotel. The return trip will begin immediately after "The Sale of the Stars" the following Friday afternoon.

Paul N. Glass, Greensboro, assistant form agent of Hale County will have charge of the 4-H boys, and J. L. Pritchett, vocational agriculture teacher at Thomaston, will have charge of the FFA boys.

Other winners in the Montgomery show who won trips as part of their awards are:

Showmanship: 4-H Don Hall, Jr., Montgomery County, and Joel Bearden, Shelby County.

FFA: (Frank Stewart, Montgomery County and Winford Collier, Elmore County.

Jersey junior division winner: Leonard Bearden, Shelby County. Guernsey junior division winner, Earl Bufford, Montgomery.

Who Runs America?

RUNNING AMERICA is the joint job of 150,000,000 people. It's the biggest job in the world today —keeping it running for liberty and for freedom. And the whole world's watching to see whether Americans can do it!

IN MUCH OF THE WORLD today, the people have resigned from running their own countries. Others have been quick to step in—first with promises of "security"—and then with whips and guns—to run things their way. The evidence is on every front page in the world, every day.

FREEDOM COMES UNDER ATTACK. The reality of war has made every American think hard about the things he's willing to work and fight for—and freedom leads the list.

But that freedom has been attacked here recently—just as it has been attacked in other parts of the world. One of the most serious threats to individual freedom has been the threat of Government-dominated Compulsory Health Insurance, falsely presented as a new guarantee of health "security" for everybody.

THE PEOPLE WEIGH THE FACTS. In the American manner, the people studied the case for Socialized Medicine—and the case against it.

They found that Government domination of the people's medical affairs under Compulsory Health Insurance means lower standards of medical care, higher payroll taxes, loss of incentive, damage to research, penalties for the provident, rewards for the improvident.

They found that no country on earth can surpass America's leadership in medical care and progress. They found that able doctors, teachers, nurses and scientists—working in laboratories where Science, not Politics, is master—are blazing dramatic new trails to health for Americans—and for the world.

THE "GRASS ROOTS" SIGNALS CONGRESS. In every community in the Nation, people stood up to be counted on this important issue. Thousands of local women's clubs, civic groups, farm, business, religious, taxpayer, medical, educational and patriotic organizations spoke out—giving the great United States Congress its unmistakable Grass Roots signal from home!

And ever watchful, ever sensitive to an alert people, The Congress saw that signal, and heard the people speak out, loud and plain. That's democracy in action. That's the American way!

Today among the 10,000 great organizations on militant public record against "Compulsory Health Insurance" are:

General Federation of Women's Clubs
American Farm Bureau Federation
National Grange
Veterans of Foreign Wars
National Conference of Catholic Charities
American Protestant Hospital Association

American Legion
National Association of Small Business Men
United States Chamber of Commerce
National Association of Retail Grocers
National Retail Dry Goods
Association
American Bar Association

Doctors of this Nation are grateful that the people refused to be wooed by the fantastic promises of this un-American excursion into State Socialism.
 Doctors of America are dedicated to serve their fellow citizens at home and their comrades in uniform, wherever service to this Nation may take them.
 And the thing they stand ready to fight for—to sacrifice for—to die for—is not the alien way of life of Socialism, but the prideful security of a free and self-reliant people!

THE VOLUNTARY WAY IS THE AMERICAN WAY!

• Throughout the Nation, free men and women, working and planning together, are finding the American answer to every question of medical service, care and cost. Hundreds of Voluntary Health Insurance Plans are in healthy competition—sponsored by doctors, insurance companies, hospitals, fraternal organizations—by industry, agriculture and labor. • Today in America—70 million people are protected by Voluntary Health Insurance! • Throughout the Nation, families are insuring themselves against the major costs of illness—at reasonable, budget-basis prices. Voluntary Health Insurance takes the economic shock out of illness. Protect your family now. • For information, ask your doctor—or your insurance man.

An American's greatest heritage is the right to learn the facts—and to speak his mind. Maintained with honor and used with sincerity—that right will guarantee forever that the theme offered this week by to visit any station in the county.' Dr. W. H. Y. Smith, Director of the Bureau of Preventable Diseases, for the X-ray and blood test program that will be in Shelby County betweeen October 23 through November 3.

"The four diseases that we will check for," said Dr. Smith, "all have one thing in common. If the person infected has any one of the diseases in the early stage, there is no way that he can tell that he is sick except by one of the tests that we are going to offer the people of Shelby County."

"The blood test for syphillis will be required by law for all those people in Shelby County between the ages of 14 and 50, the same way that it was required four years ago," continued Dr. Smith, "but now there has been added a test for diabetes that will be run on the same sample of blood that is drawn for the syphillis." Dr. Smith added. "The same X-ray that is read for tuberculosis will also be read for any signs of heart disease that might show up."

"I would like to take this opportunity to emphasize," said Dr. Smith, "the fact that not all types of heart disease can be picked up by this method. Enough, by far, can be picked up to make that part of the program well worth while."

Mr. W. L. Patterson, Field Dir ector of the Division of Tuberculosis and Veneral Disease Control, of the Senior class. said that everyone in the county | Six beauties and eight favorno matter what age, will be welcome at the station to take the tests or any part of them.

"Only those people in the age groups are required to take them by law, however," said Mr. Patton.

Dr. E. F. Sloan, County Health Officer, stated that the program will get underway October 23 and following local girls: continue through November 3. During this time the testing teams will move throughout the county | beauty. following a schedule that will be printed in the newspapers this

"These teams will spend enough time in each community to enable every person to get the tests," said Dr. Sloan. "Each person is requested, but not required to visit the station nearest his home, continued Dr. Sloan, and if, for the only candidate for dramatist any reason, a person should miss the team when it is in his com-

Dr. E. F. Sloan, County Health Officer, said that the doctors in the county voted at the last meeting of the Medical Society that they would take X-rays or bloods from their private patients for the survey.

"This action was taken," said Dr. Sloan, "in order to cut out any confusion that might arise from a number of people handling the blood. This does not mean that the doctors do not give their full cooperation to the program, they do endorse the program 100 per cent, but they feel that the personnel at the stations are fully qualified to take the tests, and the doctors ask the people to take the tests, and the doctors ask the people to show their full cooperation by going to the stations that have been set up for them at the various parts of the county."

Elite Night Brings Parade of Beauties

Beauty and talent will be in the spotlight at Alabama College next Saturday evening, October 21, when the Elite Night brings its annual parade across the stage of Palmer Hall Auditorium.

Each year the Montage, college yearbook, sponsors Elite Night for the selection of beauties and the election of the outstanding talent ites will be chosen by judges who will meet the candidates at an informal tea Saturday afternoon.

Students will ballot to choose senior class members talented in fields of art, science, fashions, language, music, drama, etc.

Among the candidates are the

Barbara Johnson, Montevallo is a candidate for Freshman Class

Edith Kendrick, Maylene, is a candidate for dietitian.

Dot Baumgarther, Montevallo is Doris Youngblood, Montevallo, is a candidate for secretary.

picture shows Montevallo FFA and FHA members, along with others in Shelby County, as they were guests of Alabama Power Company at Mitchell Dam. The educational tour resulted as a part of the cooperative effort of Alabama Power Company extension field engineers and the Shelby County units of FFA and FHA. During this week representatives of the Power Company have been assisting Montevallo FFA members in installing a special educational demonstration panel which will be used at regular scheduled periods to promote educational work in efficient use of electricity in the homes and on the farms. M. S. McGehee, manager of the Montevallo power program, has been interested in helping the FFA and FHA in this program. Students will study problems in proper wiring, lighting, efficiency in motors, and how to put electrical energy to profitable use or to add convenience. Efficient and profitable use of electric energy has its place in the improvement projects of the boys and girls and in the adult education program sponsored by the vocational department. It is the hope of the Power Company and the FFA - FHA members that those in this area will find the demonstration visit profitable and educational.

Business Men Met Last Monday Night

The Montevallo Chamber of Commerce had a most interesting and enlighting "pow-wow" at the High School Vocational Building Monday night.

Dr. John T. Caldwell, President of Alabama College, was the guest speaker. He talked about various phases of the relationships between Alabama College and the community of Montevallo.

After talking for a while Dr. Caldwell requested that the balance of the time be taken up by questions and answers. This brought many questions from the business men, all of which were answered by Dr. Caldwell in a forthright and impressive manner.

Proceeding from the discussion of College-Town relations, the meeting went into a general discussion of economic, business and industrial aspects of our community.

It was a worthwhile meeting in every respect. The attendance of local business men was much greater than has been usual for Chamber of Commerce meetings.

CEDRIC FOSTER

Cedric Foster At Alabama College Next Sunday P.M

Cedric Foster, nationally-known news analyst and commentator, will speak to the student body of Alabama College at 4 p.m., Sunday, October 22.

His lecture on the current Far Eastern crisis opens the 1950-51 Concert and Lecture Series on the Montevallo campus. He will speak in Palmer Auditorium.

A New Englander, Foster does a daily news commentary for the Mutual and Yankee Networks which is heard in every state in the union over more than 350 radio stations.

An extensive traveler in search of news, Foster spent three months in the battle zones of the Pacific during World War II and has covered more than 300,000 miles in the United States and Europe since the end of the last war.

His broadcasting career began in 1939 when he began analyzing the European war for a local station in Hartford, Conn. His listening audience grew quickly and, eight months later, he joined the Yankee Network in Boston.

After his Montevallo lecture, Foster will talk informally with tinction of being the only comstudents interested in political science and world affairs. The Dallas Symphony, Violinist Joseph Knitzer, Spanish Dancer Jose Limon and the Touring Players are among other concert attractions slated for the Montevallo

Publishes Article on Budget Accounting

RAYMOND D. FOWLER

Raymond D. Fowler, business manager of Alabama College is the author of an article in the current issue of College and University Business entitled "Budgetary Accounting."

The article, prepared from an address given before the Southern Association of College and University Business Officers recently held in Miami covers the budgetary processes recommended for small colleges.

Mr. Fowler did his undergraduate work in Business Administration at the University of Alabama and spent several years with the State in budget and fiscal work in Montgomery. Mr. Fowler came to Alabama College in 1946.

College and University Business is a magazine of national scope, devoted to problems of colleges.

Chest Drive Begins Wednesday, Oct. 25

Next Wednesday, October 25, a solicitor representing the community Chest will call upon citizens of the Montevallo Area and request their contributions to the 1950-51 Community Chest.

The Community Chest will continue to support emergency relief, scouting, and school needs during the coming year. The Recreation program is not included in the new budget for the next year as that phase of the program is now supported by the Town of Montevallo.

More emphasis is being placed on emergency relief, 50% of the proposed budget is appropriated to welfare. The Chest Board anticipates a much greater demand on this phase of the program in the months ahead than ever before. This is due principally to the closing of mines in the area. Reports have reached the board that many children are attending the schools of Montevallo who do not have lunches or lunch money, and are in need of clothing. The request for more funds for welfare is expected to relieve this condition.

People contributing to the Chest are reminded that they are asked to contribute only once each year. The Chest Board also requests that contributors notify the board of anyone who they think may be in need of emergency care, so that the cases may be investigated and aid given where warranted.

Montevallo has the unique dismunity of its size in the state which has actively supported a community chest for the past 12 years. Montevallo also can point with pride to the many improvements and recreational facilities which have been made possible by the Chest.

The Turkey Trot event is beginning as an annual event and is expected to be held each year preceeding Thanksgiving. Those receiving the turkeys and chickens will have them as a gift from the business men of Montevallo. M. S. McGehee, president, Montevallo Chamber of Commerce announces that additional information will be given in next weeks issue of the Times. A special committee headed by Don Lovelady and including C. H. Chism, R. E. Whaley, W.E. Lovelady and M. S McGehee is actively completing plans for this gala event.

Alabama College Conference On Status of Women

Civic leaders and educators over the state will come to the Alabama College campus on November 3 and 4 to attend a conference on the Status of Women.

The conference is the first of its kind to be held in this state and is dedicated to the 1950 Status of Women. Texas, Arkansas, and South Carolina have held similar conferences recently.

Coodinator of the program on the campus is Dr. Katherine Vickery, head of the department of psychology at Montevallo and past state president of the AAUW.

Key speaker for the conference will be widely-known Lucy S. Howorth, Acting General Counsel of the War Claims Commission in Washington, D. C.

A former Mississippian and practicing attorney in that state, Mrs. Howorth is considered one of the nation's leaders in encouraging women to take part in the serious politics and economics of the nation and of the world.

Mrs. Howorth will give the banquet address on Friday, November 3, and will lead a discussion conference on Saturday. Conference leaders and speakers will include Dr. John T. Caldwell, President, and Dr. T. H Napier, Dean of the College. Both will speak to the conference on Friday morning, November 3.

Miss May Kyser, President of the Alabama Federation of Women's Clubs and Miss Katherine Cater, Dean of Women at Auburn, will speak in the afternoon.

Judge Howarth is scheduled to address the conference at 7:30 p.m. on Friday. On Saturday at 10:00 a.m. Lieutenant Governor Nominate, James B. Allen will be the speaker.

Discussion leaders for other parts of the conference will include Miss Elizabeth Carmichael, of the Extension Division of the University of Alabama; Dr. J. I. Riddle, President of Judson College, Marion; Mrs. George A. Averitt, of Dora; Mrs. A. G. Finlay, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Alabama College, Guntersville; Miss Nina Miglionico, Birmingham; and Mrs. S. D. Moxley of Birmingham.

Miss Josephine Eddy, president of the Alabama Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, will preside at the evening meeting on Friday.

WHAT THEN?

According to his primary campaign promise, Hon. Karl C. Harrison. Democratic nominee for the House of Representatives, announces to the voters of Shelby County:

"At the November, 1950 general election, there will be provided for you ballots so that you can vote whether or not you wish the Board of Revenue and Control Act repealed."

Considering this question we think it appropriate to ask:

If the majority of the voters are in favor of repeal of the present Board of Revenue and Control Act, what then will we get in its stead?

Will it be the re-enactment of the Board of Revenue law as it was before the present law was made?

Thanks for Books

The Montevallo Negro High School expresses thanks to the Montevallo Branch of the American Association of University Women for 25 books and to Mr. and Mrs. W. P. McConaughy for Magazines.

These were promptly given to the school in response to the appeal in last weeks Times.

The School needs many more books and magazines. Your donations will be helpful and duly appreciated.

Applicants Wanted For Housing Project

Residents of Montevallo who are interested in securing better housing facilities are urged to express their interest to Mr. R. D. Fowler, chairman of Montevallo Housing Authority or to Mr. John Foshee, attorney for the Authority.

This does not mean that anyone is asked to make a binding obligation or agreement. The Housing Authority is not yet ready to go into that phase.

Expression of the interest of prospective tenants at this time toward obtaining better housing is an important factor that is necessary in further progress of the public housing plan.

In other words if Montevallo does not have the required number of residents who would be interested in using the facilities of a public housing project, then, there is no use in having it.

Both white and colored residents are asked to express themselves.

Jones and Hardy Get Town Contract

Contract for the construction of a new office building for the Town of Montevallo was awarded last Thursday to Jones and Hardy, Contractors, of Montevallo, for the sum of $25,757.53.

The building will occupy the site of the old Town Hall on Main Street.

Friday, October 27 Is Band Night

Band Night this year will be observed on Friday, October 27, when Isabella High School plays Montevallo on the local field. Proceeds of the game go to help the band pay off the remaining few hundred dollars still owed on the new uniforms. The band is very proud of these new outfits and is anxious to pay off the debt as soon as possible as there are other projects to be organized as soon as this debt is cancelled.

Those giving a donation to the band for this game can be sure of a seat in the bleachers. Those whose names are already painted on the new bleachers are of course entitled to their seats without a donation to the band.

The band will try to put on the best show possible at the half for this occasion. Your support will be appreciated.

Tillery Attends Atlanta Conference

F. C. Tillery of Montevallo, staff manager for the Life Insurance Company of Georgia, is attending a five-day staff managers conference on agency management during the week of October 16 at the Atlanta home office, Division Manager G. P. Hewett in Tuscalcosa announced.

Forty staff managers from eleven Southern states were appointed to attend the school. This is the fourth in a series of management conferences.

Mr. Tillery became associated with Life of Georgia in 1947. During the war he served with the Air Force for three years, part of which was spent in the China-Burma-India area.

He is a member of the Life Underwriters Association and of the American Legion. Mr. Tillery is married to the former Carolyn Abernathy of Tuscaloosa, and they have four children.

Cahaba Post 138 Host to Conference

The Fifth District Conference of the American Legion was held at Oak Mountain Park Sunday, October 15. Cahaba Post 138 of Siluria was host to this meeting and they wish to express their ap preciation for the large attendance, and also to the merchants and business men who helped to make it possible by giving refreshments.

We also express our appreciation for the large and orderly attendance at our dance and box supper Saturday night, October 14. The officers and members of this fast growing post have a fine program mapped out for the future. Anyone interested in joining and helping us is welcome to do so. This post has passed the peak of its previous membership. Our membership now is 64.—Alvin J. Greene.

be Dean Swindal, Madeline Paepke, Francine McElvey, Carol Cleveland, Barbara Searcy, and Ruth Brandenburg.

The play, one of several by Thornton Wilder, starred Tallulah Bankhead, Frederic March, and Florence Eldridge during the run on Broadway.

It is the story of the survival of the human race, "by the skin of its teeth" through the ages. Symbolizing all human beings is the family Antrobus, which has survived the Ice Age, wars, flood, an Atlantic City Convention, and the other misfortunes which have befallen men. In spite of situations which would seem to be beyond human endurance, this family still shows great optimism.

School Trustees To Be Elected

Blanks are being sent out by the Montevallo Public School for nomination of school trustees. Each parent is requested to make nominations of three "discreet, reliable and mature" citizens.

Citizens who are registered voters but not parents of school students may make nominations at the school on October 24.

It is hoped that every parent and interested citizen will participate in this important election.

Present trustees of the Montevallo schools are Raymond D. Fowler, M. P. Jeter and F. P. Giv-

Mr. Payne Author Of New Biography

Robert Payne, British writer who is now head of the Department of English at Alabama College, is the author of a new bicgraphy of one of the world's most controversial figures, Maio Tse-Tung.

Released this week, Payne's book deals briefly with the events which brought Mao to power, and tells with infinite precision the forces of his great strength and rapid growth.

Author Payne has spent a number of years in the Orient, knew many of its leaders well, and is able vividly to portray Mao, the man, who may well be the most important force in the Far East-

The book, prominently figured in the current issue of Saturday Review of Literature, is the first biography published of Mao since he has become the dominant figure of China.

Mr. Payne has sought to do an accurate job of research and reporting in this important work, and while he holds no brief for Communism in China or elsewhere he has clarified many hitherto obscure factors in this complicated problem of the Far East.

Will You Do Please?

FOREST, brush and grass fires frequently endanger power lines and occasionally have damaged them to such an extent that electric service has been interrupted.

This results in not only inconvenience to homes, stores, hospitals and schools, but also causes loss of time in industries engaged in vital military and civilian production.

You can help prevent such interruptions to electric power service. You will also help prevent destruction of, or damage to, forests—an important natural resource. When you observe a fire which is endangering a power line, it will be appreciated if you will go to the nearest telephone, put in a call to our nearest office (charges collect) and report the location of the fire. That may enable us to get men to the scene of the fire in time to prevent an interruption to electric service.

Benefit Payments Low In September

October 16, 1950- Unemployment insurance benefits paid to Alabama workers in September reached the lowest level since December, 1948, said S. Fleetwood Carnley, Director af the Department of Industrial Relations.

The total of $774,906 represented more than a 25 per cent decline from the August total.

Carnley attributed the downward trend to generally improved economic conditions. Employment throughout the state is at a high level, with most industries operating on a full-time basis. Harvesting of field crops is absorbing much of the surplus labor force.

Well over one-half of the total decrese in payments was concentrated in manufacturing industries, There was a drop of 2,700 in the number of payments made to textile workers.

Displaced coal miners received more than 18 cents of each benefit dollar paid during September. Textile workers were the second largest group of recipients, with 12 per cent af the total.

The decrese was reflected in 65 counties. For the second consecutive month, no payments were recorded for Lowndes County.

International Friendship Arts and Crafts Community Life October 29-November 4 Homemaking Agriculture GIRL SCOUT Literature Dramatics WEEK-1950 Nature Music Dancing Out-of-Doors Sports and Games Health and Safety GIRL SCOUTS OF THE U.S.A.

Sunday, October 29 will open the seven-day celebration of Girl Scout Week. This annual event, which continues through Saturday, November 4, will be observed by Girl Scouts everywhere in the country. It is a nation-wide occasion for the whole Girl Scout family, one and a half million strong, to honor the memory of the founder of Girl Scouting, Juliette Low, and to tell the world what Girl Scouting is all about.

Girl Scout Week is always celebrated during the week which includes October 31, the anniversary of Mrs. Low's birth.

On Girl Scout Sunday (October 29) Scouts and leaders go to church in uniform. Monday is Homemaking Day. Tuesday is Citizenship Day. Wednesday, health and safety. Thursday, International Friendship Day. Friday, Arts and Crafts Day. Saturday is Out-of-Doors Day.

We would like to invite all Montevallo to "Come along with us," and help celebrate Girl Scout Week. A million and a half members of a voluntary democratic youth group, such as the Girl Scouts comprise, dedicated to the principles of service and friendship, can wield a great influence in shaping the world of tomorrow. Women—and men too—who help make such youth groups possible, are serving their country and the principles of freedom for which it stands in a way far beyond the ordinary

Days for Girl Scouts to remember in November:

November 1, All Saints Day; 5-11, National Cat Week; 7, Election Day; 11, Armistice Day; 12-18, World Fellowship Week; 19-25, Book Week; 30, Thanksgiving Day.

Mrs, J. Leslie Nall of Route 2, Georgiana, has been chosen Alabama Farm Woman of the Year in a contest sponsored by the Alabama Council of Home Demonstration Clubs and the Alabama Farm Bureau. Mrs. Nall organized the first home demonstration club in Butler County in the Independence Community. She devotes much time to Farm Bureau, P. T. A., church and other community affairs.

Legion and College Sponsor Program On Armistice Day

Representative Ed deGraffenried of the Sixth Congressional District will address a community Armistice Day program sponsored by Hendrick-Hudson Post of the American Legion and by Alabama College November 11.

The Tuscaloosa Congressman will speak in Palmer Auditorium on the Alabama College campus at 11:00 a.m. on Armistice Day.

His audience will include Alabama College students and students of the Montevallo schools. Members of the Legion Post, the Legion Auxiliary, the Montevallo Town Council and citizens also will attend.

Armistice Day ceremonies will begin with a parade in downtown Montevallo beginning at 10 a. m. Takking part will be students, the high school band, council members, legionairres, auxiliary members and Rep. deGraffenried.

During the program in Palmer Auditorium Winifred Black, Alabama College soprano, will lead singing of God Bless America and The Star Spangled Banner. She will be accompanied by Mr. Putnam Porter, college organist.

Fred Frost, Jr., commander of the Montevallo Post of the Legion, will introduce Congressman de-Graffenried.

The arrangements committee includes Dr. John T. Caldwell, president of Alabama College; W. F. Fullman and Charles Bailey.

This Friday Night Is Band Night

Band Night this year will be observed on Friday, October 27, when Isabella High School plays Montevallo on the local field. Proceeds of the game go to help the band pay off the remaining few hundred dollars still owed on the new uniforms. The band is very proud of these new outfits and is anxious to pay off the debt as soon as possible as there are other projects to be organized as soon as this debt is canceled.

Those giving a donation to the band for this game can be sure of a seat in the bleachers. Those whose names are already painted on the new bleachers are of course entitled to their seats without a donation to the band.

The band will try to put on the best show possible at the half for this occasion. Your support will be appreciated.

Recreation Program Saturday Night

The following persons have been asked to assist with the Recreation Program at the Montevallo High School next Saturday night, October 28, from 7 to 9 o'clock:

P. S. JACKSON

P. S. Jackson, president of the Peterman Agricultural Company, Peterman State Bank, and Peoples Exchange Bank of Beatrice, was elevated to the presidency of the industrial association after serving as vice president for one year.

WARREN WHITNEY

Named as chairman of the board was Warren Whitney, vice president of James B. Clow & Sons. Mr. Whitney is in charge of the Birmingham plant of the National Cast Iron Pipe Co.

TIDWELL TO TALLADEGA

Rev. H. L. Tidwell is moving to Talladega this week where he will be pastor of the Trinity Methodist Church. He will be be succeeded in the pastorate of the Montevallo Methodist Church by Rev. Minor L. Triplett, of Langdale.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Edmund Pendleton announce the birth of a daughter, Marsha Leah.

Montevallo Plans Big Time Saturday For Everybody

Everybody in this part of the country is invited to come to Montevallo next Saturday as guests of the business people of the town.

The event is sponsored by the Montevallo Chamber of Commerce.

There will be something doing all day long to interest every person from one to a hundred years old.

Fifty turkeys, chickens, guineas and other fowls will be turned loose from the tops of buildings and from airplanes. The fellow who is fleet enough to catch one or more of them can have what he catches.

Who can catch a greasy pig and hold on to him? We will see that tried during the day Saturday.

Little Johnny will jump out of Cooper Shaw's flying machine a thousand feet in the air without a parachute. Who can guess where he will land and what will happen to him?

Every person who comes to town is asked to register your name in each and every place of business in town. This will give you participation in the award of some article of value that will be given away by each store.

On top of that there will be a grand award made after all the registration slips from each store are put together in one barrel.

There will be free balloons for the children at Luke's Restaurant.

Community Chest Started In 1937

The Montevallo Community Chest drive which is now under way had its beginning in 1937 and has been in continious operation for fourteen years. It is said that Montevallo is the smallest town in the state to conduct a community chest as comprehensive as this.

The Community Chest was not the first attempt to collect funds for public use in Montevalo. During the depression there had been the West Shelby Emergency Relief Fund, which provided help in "preventing a great deal of distress and protected merchants and others from receiving calls for relief that as individuals they could not investigate." Most of this money had been spent on cases that state and county money could not be spent for.

Out of this grew the Community Chest. Miss Myrtle Brooke, beloved founder of the training program for welfare workers at Alabama College, was the moving spirit behind it. It was the Civic Club, however, that in September 1937, called the meeting of Mon tevallo citizens to discuss the general idea of a community ches' organization. A number of decis ions, which became permanent were set up at this first meeting the annual election of the ches board, an annual campai n for funds, an audited report of fundaspent and that the Board organize itself.

On that first board were: Z. S Cowart, W. M. Wyatt, Dr. A. W Vaughan, Rev. A. J. Cox, Mrs. E.P. Hood, Mrs. Margaret Walburn, F. P. Givhan, Mrs. Fred Frost, and Miss Ethel Harris. Mr. Givhan was chairman; Dr. A. W. Vaughan directed the first drive for funds. Many of these people have served the Board repeatedly in some capacity since.

The budget of that first drive was $1600 which was to be spent mostly on relief and recreation, 45% in emergency relief to cases that were thoroughly investigated by trained workers; the remaining 55% to recreation in the schools, both white and negro. The Scouts and P.T.A. shared in this.

Since the beginning fourteen years ago, the budget has grown and so have the number of participating agencies. While there have been many changes, the main emphasis is still on welfare-relief and recreation-educational organizations.

Montevallo can justly be proud of her record in having such an organization. There are many visible results of money spent in the town; it prevents repeated requests for money from the participating agencies.

Spanking No Worse Than 'Yakyakking,' Expert Says

LONG BEACH, Calif. - At last one expert does not disapprove of spanking.

Dr. Frank Tallman in a report to the Southern California Society for Mental Hygiene, reports:.

"The youngster understands the righteous wrath aroused in the parent because he's felt the same way himself. But despite this understanding no youngster really appreciates a spanking."

Spanking leaves a child "sore in skin and soul" and hostile toward the parent. "Cold, needless spanking" can breed resentment and harm, he said, advocating a firm but not too harsh attitude.

Spanking is no cure-all but neither is it worse than the practice of sparing the rod and "yakyakking and explaining all the time," which can also breed hostility, he said.

Set of Chimes To Honor Bishop McCoy

In memory of the late Bishop James Henry McCoy, beloved minister of the Highlands Methodist Church in Birmingham, friends had a beautiful set of chimes made for the church. There are thirteen bells in the set, and on each bell words are inscribed in his honor. On the largest bell are the words the angels sang on the first Christmas night:

"Glory to God in the highest; and on earth, peace, good will toward men."

4-H Club Boys Demonstrate Use For High Life

Among the many 4-H clubs over the county, the Mayberry boys' club, Marvel Route 1, has done one of the most outstanding jobs of demonstrating the highlife method of corn and pea weevil control this month, says assistant county agent, G. C. Moore.

These boys studied their parts and stood upon their feet and told the main points about the various steps in the preparation for and application of the correct amount of highlife to the corn crib, as well as, if not better than most other clubs. Mrs. Carrie Daly, Montevallo, is the teachersponsor for this club while Alfred Herren, Route 1, Marvel, is the president. Congratulations to these leaders of a splendid club.

All 4-H clubs this month are showing how our valuable corn crop or small amounts of corn or planting seed, such as peas and beans, may be saved from weevil damage this winter. Each boy is handed a copy of the demonstration and urged to carry it home to parents for home application of the job learned at each club meeting. They are learning that the carbon disulphide (commonly known as highlife) treatment is very efficient if used properly and while it is a poison, it is perfectly harmless, if simple safety instructions are followed.

It requires about one gallon of this fumigant per 1000 cubic feet size corn crib. For treating planting seed to carry them through the winter it takes one teaspoon full per gallon of seed placed in a bucket with the lid shut tightly for 48 hours, then allow to air out for 24 to 36 hours. The same principle applies to the corn crib. That is, make the crib as near air tight as you can, apply the correct amount of highlife, close up the doors and windows for 48 hours, then air out for 24 to 36 hours beore feeding.

The cost of the carbon disulphide is about $2.50 per gallon in bulk. This means that the value of about two bushels of corn will save around 300 bushels from serious weevil damage, if used in time and properly. See your drug store or insecticide dealer for the fumigant.

Let's join the 4-H members in their slogan, "A dollar's worth of corn saved in 1950 is like a dollar's worth made in 1951."

Before the War Between the States, slaves were auctioned from a platform put up for that purpose in Court Square, located in the heart of the downtown business district of Montgomery. This was the main slave block; others were erected on either side of Market Street, which after the war was renamed Dexter Avenue.

The flagpole on the west lawn of the capitol at Montgomery was made from the mast of a Spanish cruiser sunk at Santiago in 1898. The flagpole was presented to the State through the efforts of Rear Admiral Richmond Pearson Hobson, of Greensboro, naval hero of the Spanish American War.

Blood Test Program Off To Good Start

Dr. E. F. Sloan, county health officer, announces that the X-Ray and blood test program got off to a successful start Monday when nearly 1,000 people went through the lines.

Dr. Sloan stated that this was not enough to make up the daily average that will be necessary for Shelby County to make the estimated total, but he said that light stations were scheduled the first day to give the local clerks time to get familiar with their new

Dr. W. H. Y. Smith, director of the bureau of preventable diseases, who was in the county on Monday, said that he was specially pleased with the attitude of the people as they went through the lines to get the checks for heart disease, tuberculosis, diabetes and

Even though the law requires everyone between the ages of 14 and 50 to take the blood test, and everyone between the ages of 13 and 50 to take the X-Ray for tuberculosis, the only way that the program can do the most good is for the people to give the program their full cooperation."

Mr. W. L. Patton, field director of the X-Ray and blood test program, said that in about three weeks after the program is over, a follow-up team will come into the county to make the necessary re-checks on the people that the first test indicates that something might be wrong.

"The test that we run during the primary survey are hair triggers, said Mr. Patton. "There will be a few people, we hope not too many that we will call back that will have nothing wrong with them, but their first test will make further checking necessary."

"At this time a close check will TAXI with GREGG | be made to see that everyone has complied with the laws requiring the tests," continued Mr. Patton. "If large numbers of people do not take the tests during the first survey, it will be an expensive job getting them in and a large part of the good that the program can do will be lost. We sincerely hope (and Shelby County has shown so far) that we will not have to spend a lot of time on this phase."

Friday Last Day For Blood Test

Friday will mean the last day of the X-ray and blood test program in Shelby County. According to an announcement by Mr. W. L Patton, Field Director of the Division of Tuberculosis and Veneral Diseases Control, the turnout in Shelby County has been well up to expectations.

"We wish to thank the people of Shelby County for the fine cooperation that they have shown so far in the survey," said Mr. Patton, "it is a pleasure to work with them, and we hope that we are giving them the kind of program that they want."

According to Mr. Patton, over 7,000 people had gone through the lines by Monday Night.

Dr. W. H. Y. Smith, Director of the Bureau of Preventable Diseases, said that he wished to emphasize again the fact that not all types of heart diseases can be picked up by the X-ray picture that is taken in the survey.

"A good number of the different types can be picked up by the Xray, but the only way that a person can be completely certain about his heart is to have a complete checkup by the family physician," continued Dr. Smith.

The survey teams will be at the Columbiana High School this Thursday and Friday, as well as other places.

Alabama Baptists In Convention

Alabama Baptists' state executive board will close its books November 1, in preparation for their annual state convention. Body meets at Decatur, November 14-16

Anticipating receipts in excess of $900,000 for the fiscal year ending Tuesday, the board will recommend a goal of one million dollars for 1951. This was revealed recently by Dr. A. H. Reid, mission secretary, with offices in Montgomery.

Principal speakers for their convention have been chosen. Dr. B. Locke Davis, Anniston, is program chairman.

Dr. B. R. Justice, Enterprise, is state director of evangelism, will discuss plans for a proposed simultaneous revival crusade next March 25-April 8 in all the chur-

Two pre-convention meetings are slated for Monday, November 13, when a state Baptist pastors' conference will meet and the convention's executive board holds its annual convention session.

Presiding at the two auxiliary meetings will be Dr. T. M. Hamby, Guntersville, for the pastors and Dr. R. A. Tuck, Boaz, at the board meeting.

Farm Bureau to Seek Members November 6 to 11

The Shelby County Farm Bureau officers and directors met on October 17 at the old courthouse auditorium, Columbiana, to plan the county-wide membership drive for the week of November 6-11.

Beat chairmen and workers will meet Monday night, November 6, to organize work for the drive.

A. C. Adams, Sterrett, is county membership chairman. District chairmen are Roy Downs, Calera; Douglas Kent, Siluria; J. M. Denson, Helena; F. Jackson, Harpersville; and Royce Morris, Columbiana. All workers in each Beat are urged to be present for this supper and meeting promptly at 7 o'clock. You will be given definite instructions and materials to complete the work.

This year much stress is being put on directors in each Beat being responsible for their quota and in selecting workers for that

The local Farm Bureau is represented in Biloxi this week at the annual state convention which began Monday night with a general session. At this meeting plans will be made for the state work and resolutions adopted for the next year. The following are representing Shelby County: Mr. and the members during the Morning Mrs. H. A. Pauly, Montevallo; W. A. Fulton, Siluria; S. M. Tatum, Siluria; P. A. Garrett, Calera. Those attending the annual convention of the Alabama Council of Home Demonstration Clubs in Biloxi this week are Mrs. J. G. Lacey, Siluria; Mrs. A. D. Wilson, Columbiana; Mrs. P. W. Kendrick, Marvel; and Mrs. Harry Anderson, Calera.

May we again remind Beat workers and chairmen to be present Monday night at 7 o'clock for the kick-off meeting and supper.

Hon. Karl Harrison Makes Statement On Board of Revenue

In a statement to the Times this week Representative - elect Karl C. Harrison, further clarifies and emphasizes his position with regard to the present County Board of Revenue and Control law in Shelby County which was enacted in the early days of the present legislature.

According to his promise during his campaign last year. Mr. Harrison is providing for the voters of Shelby County in the General Election November 7, to vote on the question: "Do you wish to have the Board of Revenue and Control Act repealed?"

Mr. Harrison says that he understands that if a majority of the voters vote "yes" on the question it will mean that they want the County Board of Revenue put back under the same plan of operation that existed before the present law was enacted, and that in such event, he will use his efforts and influence in the House of Representatives to repeal the present law and have the old law reenacted.

If, on the other hand, a major, ity of the voters vote "No" on the present question, then Mr. Harrison will know that they want the present law to stand as it is, and in which event, he will take no action upon the matter in the House.

Mr. Harrison promised the people he would let them express themselves upon this question, and that he would act according to their expression. That is what he is doing now, and he will be governed accordingly when the next legislature meets and he takes his seat as Shelby County's Representative.

So now it is up to the people to decide this question. You wanted to vote on it before the present law was enacted, but did not have a chance. Mr. Harrison is now giving you that chance just as he promised he would.

Alabama Highlights

In Selma there is a Gingko tree 100 feet tall and 3 feet in diameter that extends through the roof of a cotton warehouse. The plant brought to this country by a missionary returning from China, was presented to a Selma girl, who planted the tree in her yard in 1879. It grew and flourished. When a warehouse was built on the site, suggestions for moving the tree were rejected. The gingko is a rare tree of eastern China, where it is considered sacred.

Bayou La Batre, west of Mobile Bay, received its name because Jean Lafitte, the pirate, kept a heavy battery mounted on its shore. Here his ships landed under protection of these shore guns, and the crews were allowed to go to Mobile and spend their gold.

The LaFayette bell, over one hundred years old, occupies a place of honor in the State House in Montgomery. It is referred to as the independence Bell of Alabama for it was rung when General LaFayette visited Montgomery.

Miss Julia Tutwiler became inspired while visiting in Germany to write a song about Alabama in hopes that the people of Alabama would forget their troubles if they had a song to sing about their great state. A contest was held among the musical composers to see who could write the best music for her words. The law-judges and voted Mrs. Edna Gussen the winner. They voted that "Alabama" should be the State Song.

The first typewriter was invented by John Pratt, of Centre, Alabama. When it was finished he took it to England where the Queen gave him a patent for it. However, word of the new invention was made known and on his arrival to the U.S. he found that two men from Detroit had copied his idea and had a similar machine already on the market.

Rev. Lem G. Ingram of Brierfield was in Montevallo this week doing some work trimming trees for Mr. W. L. Brown. Mr. Ingram is prepared to do work of trimming and removing trees and he guarantees to do so without damage to property or facilities.

On the north lawn of the State Capitol in Montgomery is the Confederate monument, the corner stone of which was laid by Jefferson Davis, April 26, 1886. The monument, completed after 12 years of work, was unveiled on December 7, 1898. It was designed by Gorda C. Doud, a Montgomery artist, and executed by Alexander

Bill Bob Garrett Has Birthday Party

Bill Bob Garrett was host to his friends Saturday afternoon, October 28 at his home on King Street. The occasion being the celebration of his sixth birthday.

Games of Drop the Handkerchief, Farmer in the Dell and other "Small Fry" favorites were played in the front yard. Afterward the guests were ushered into a gaily decorated living room, with small Halloween paper cutouts, and spooks hanging and peeping from each nook and corner. A large assorted bunch of balloons were suspended from the center of the room and each one was presented the color of their own choosing.

Prizes for Pinning the Tail on the Donkey were won by Charles McGehee and Gail Price.

The dining room table was adorned with an orange cloth featuring witches, pumpkins and other pictures suitable for the season.

The center of attraction was a white birthday cake centered with a chocolate icing cat surrounded by small orange icing pumpkins with jacko-lantern faces. "Happy Birthday Bill Bob" and six green candles completed the decoration. The cake was a gift from Bill Bob's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Branch Tarpley of Birmingham.

Refreshments and favors were presented to: Gail Price, Martha Carol Price, Amy Orr, Johnny Crowe Thornton, Danny Thornton, Charles McGehee, George Will Morgan, Phillip Hubbard, Leslie Hubbard, Jr., James Wyatt, Jr., William Bell, III, Kenny Hinton, Johnny Morris Stephens, Emily Anderson, Bobby Brown, Arthur Garrett, Jr., brother of the host; Bill Bob Garrett, Mesdames Percy Hinton, Radford Price, Milton Orr, Jr., Frank Morgan, M. ### Should I be A FARM BUREAU Member?

I should be a Farm Bureau Member

BECAUSE

WORKING TOGETHER Farm Bureau Members

- 1. Increase farm income.
- 2. Help shape agricultural policies.
- 3. Work for equitable taxes.
- 4. Fight unfair tax rates.
- 5. Secure good rural roads, schools, and health facilities.
- 6. Speak for ourselves.
- 7. Maintain adequate credit at fair interest rates.
- 8. Develop services for members.
- 9. Supply ourselves with fire, life, auto and hospital insurance at cost.
- 10. Encourage better marketing systems.
- 11. Raise rural living standards.
- 12. Seek wider opportunities for Rural Youth.
- 13. Obtain non-partisan, non-sectional legislation.
- 14. Encourage farmer-owned cooperatives.
- 15. Support and use the land-grant college system in agricultural agencies.

WORKING ALONE I can not

- 1. Be in Washington each day Congress is n sesision.
- 2. Be in Montgomery throughout the legislative session,
- 3. Influence factors which determine how much I get for what I produce.
- 4. Provide services for myself at lower cost than I can obtain elsewhere.
- 5. Meet in conference with leaders of labor, industry and government.
- 6. Uphold my interests as an individual farmer alone against organized interests of other groups.

THE FARMERS SHARE

If the farmer gave away the wool for a $50 suit, it would still cost $44.30.

If the farmer gave away the hide for a $10 pair of shoes, they would still cost $8.63."

If the farmer gave away the cotton for a $3.00 shirt, it would still cost $2.65.

If the farmer gave away tobacco for a 20c pack of cigaretts, it would still cost 17 and 3-5 cents.

If the farmer gave away the beans for a 10-cent can of beans, they would still cost 8.7 cents.

If the farmer gave away his milk, it would cost consumers 12 cents delivered to the door.

If the farmer gave away the wheat for a 16-cent loaf of bread, it would still cost 14.7 cents.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF THE FARM BUREAU

- 1. Maintained National Farm Program with price supports.
- 2. Prevented enactment of the Brannan Plan, which would make farmers dependent on uncertain Government payments for a big part of their income.
- Obtained law to prevent dumping of farm products, which would prevent farmers from receiving parity prices.
- 4. Led successful fight to increase operating capital of Community Credit Corporation.
- 5. Got provisions in Defense Production, Act of 1950 that protect farmers against unfair price ceilings.
- Defeated proposed law which would have centralized power in USDA to federalize county and home agents and other Extension Service employees.
- 7. Sponsored law which gave Alabama producers fair share of National cotton and peanut allotments for 1950.
- 8. Won court suit to maintain original purposes of Alabama Milk Control Act. This gave dairymen $17,000.00 per day additional income.
- 9. Won fight for refund of 5c per gallon state tax on gasoline used in farm tractors.
- 10. Got larger appropriations for Extension, Experiment Station and other services for farmers.
- 11. Helped to pass school lunch bill and Hill-Burton hospital bill; supported TVA and Rural Electrification and other farm programs.
- 12. Provided fire, life, automobile and hospital insurance service to members at cost.

OBJECTIVES

- 1—Full employment, high production and good incomes for all, with an expanding economy at home and abroad.
- 2—Full mobilization of Agriculture to protect and advance Democracy, and to secure proper safeguards for Agriculture.
- 3—Bipartisan development of farm programs that are self-supporting when feasible, employ controls and supports only when needed, and afford the greatest degree of farmer-participation in formation.
- 4—Better production, processing, storage, marketing and distribution of an expanded seed, feed, beef, dairy and poultry program, with expanded outlets at home and abroad for all farm products, including the development of new sources of income.
- 5—Knowledge of, utilization of any support of the agricultural institutions, agencies and organizations which provide the farmer with information and research, or which administer programs for his benefit.
- 6—Increase and improvement of rural roads, rural telephones, rural electrification, and other necessities for good and safe rural living.
- 7-Intensified effort to improve rural education.
- 8—Acquaint every Farm Bureau member with the Farm Bureau services.
- 9—Build strong community and county Farm Bureau having well-rounded dynamic programs.
- 10-Enlist 80,000 farm families in the Alabama Farm Bureau Federation,

THE HEAT IS ON

It's going to be hard for the farmer to obtain need-ful legislation when so many are against him. Only 18 per cent of the Uuited States population are farmers. Its going to be hard to preserve price supports. It's going to be hard to maintain a long-range farm program that will stabilize agriculture and save it from the ups and downs it has suffered for so long. The situation calls for strength and unity. It calls for a strong Farm Bureau. It calls for at least 80,000 members.

The F.F.A. and F.H.A. are working cooperatively in financing the beautification of the grounds around the building

F.H.A. Hobo Day, Wednesday, November 15

Grab your pack and hit the rails 'Hobo Day' is almost here. Get your mops and grab your pails, Hear those housewives give a cheer. We'll wash the dishes Or sit with the baby, .Or do what e'er the housewife wishes. . This is what we have to say 'Get ready, aim, and fire', Because upon this 'hobo' day We're ready for you to hire.

Such is the chant of the members of the Montevallo Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America who are all in a dither over the idea of "Hobo Day". Plans are well under way by the committee of Barbara Taff, chairman, Doris Cunningham, Betty Boyd, and Jay Holcombe. They are assisted by Sara Pat Baker, president of F. H. A.

"Hobo Day", which is an annual event, is an occasion on which the F. H. A. members "hire out" to the housewives in town either for a short time or for the whole day. The girls will dress in blue jeans and carry their lunch in a pack over their shoulders. They will do most any type of job from washing dishes to baby sitting. One of the girls will contact the homemakers in town about the jobs that they would like to have done. If any homemaker should not be contacted by an F. H. A. the Vocational Building, phone 6791.

The money which is made will be used to help buy shrubs for landscaping the grounds around the Vocational Building.

Thompson High Mauls Clanton

By Billy Hoskins, Sports Reporter Thompson High School

Gerald Brogden sparked his teammates to a 33-7 win over the Chilton County High at Clanton last Friday night.

The hard running left half scored the first three touchdowns himself on runs of 20, 35, and 9 yards.

The win was the seventh out of eight games for Thompson this year and Clanton's loss dropped her from the undefeated ranks. Chilton had whipped Parrish of Selma only last week. The losers only score came in the second quarter on a beautiful pass play with Easterling, half back, taking the pitch and swivel-hipping his way 75 yards for a tally.

Thompson scored in all four quarters; tallying 13 points in the first, seven in the second; six in the third and seven in the final period. Billy Durrett, right half, and Bobby Lee, fullback, crossed paydirt on runs of 15 and 10 yards, respectively. Thomps on has won 22 of its last 24 games.

The Thompson Warriors meet Jemison on their gridiron Friday evening, November 10, and wind up their season with a pre-Thanksgiving game on Wednesday evening, November 22, taking on a strong Greenville High at Greenville, Alabama.

Speeding Fine Leaps Up, Up As Driver Spouts $5 Words

MILWAUKEE - A Milwaukee motorist talked himself into a fine -at $5 a sentence.

Charles Olecik was charged with speeding 40 miles an hour across a viaduct. He argued that the patrolman who arrested him couldn't have clocked him properly. The judge heard both sides and accepted the patrolman's testimony. "Ten dollars and cost," he ruled. "But, judge," Olecik said. "The officer was too far back to clock

"Fifteen dollars and costs," said the judge.

"But, your honor," said Olecik, 'I waited a long time at a stoplight before the officer came along."

"Twenty dollars and costs," said the judge. "I still say that he was too far back." said Olecik.

"Twenty-five dollars and costs," said the judge.

Olecik still argued, but the judge didn't raise the fine. He had reached the maximum.

'Talking' Tomcat Declines To Converse With Newsmen

BALTIMORE, MD.-Dr. Clara B. Fishpaugh, retired college professor, has a big black tomcat named Kiki. She and the cat get along very well. In fact, she says, she and the cat hold frequent conversations.

According to Dr. Fishpaugh, Kiki first talked about four years ago. She says she had brought him some lamb kidneys and informed the cat that a "Mr. Will" had sent them.

Dr. Fishpaugh says she asked Kiki if the cat didn't think he should thank Mr. Will for the kidneys.

"Kiki distinctly replied 'yeah,' " says Dr. Fishpaugh. Since that time, so the story goes, the cat's vocabulary increased enormously. Dr. Fishpaugh says that often on hot days, Kiki will come crawling home, collapse on a cushion and remark that he's "aw in."

Each day, November 13 through 16, Dr. Swor will talk on some subject relating to "Christ's Challenge To You" and will be available to the student body during the afternoon for personal conference.

Dr. Swor, who received his L.H .-D. from Baylor University, has been abroad three times and since 1942 has devoted his time to work in youth assemblies and conferences, traveling an average of 45,-000 miles a year.

The Religious Emphasis Week program at Alabama College, under the direction of Teressa Collins, chairman, will include "platform hour" at 11:00 each day at which Dr. Swor will be the speaker. The afternoons will be free for personal conferences between students and Dr. Swor. Each night there will be discussion groups at which Dr. Swor will answer questions placed in a question box by the girls. The library is co-operating with special display of books carrying out the theme of the Week.

Change In Social Security Law Gives Credits To Veterans of World War II

may now be able to disprove the belief that "you can't be in two places at the same time.

This comes about because of recent changes in the social security law giving World War II veterans credit on the social security records for each month of their war service. Even though they may actually have been in far-away places, the veterans get social security credit as if they had been in civilian work in the U.S.A. at the same time they were in the armed forces.

M. C. Folmar, Manager of the Birmingham Social Security Office pointed oht today that World

Don't Shoot Near A Public Road

Montgomery, Ala.-With the hunting season open statewide on rabbits, raccoons, squirels, and possums and shortly to open on bobwhite quail, deer and turkeys, Conservation Director Phillip J Hamm has issued a warning to hunters: Don't shoot across or within 100 yards of a public road, public highway or railway track

A law passed in 1935 prohibits such action, classifies it as a misdemeanor and makes a $25 to $50 fine mandatory upon conviction for the offense.

The law-Section 105, Title, page 813 of the 1935 General Acts -reads: "Any person who hunts within a distance of one hundred highway or railroad, logging railroad excepted, in this state, or who explodes any firearms while huntshall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than fifty dollars for each offense."

World War II veterans, it seems | War II veterans now receive credits on the social security books for wages of $160 for each month of war service. "This applies," he said, "even to veterans who have never had a social security card."

> "These wage credits," Mr. Folmar explained, "represent valuable protection to veterans and their families. For example, we recently began making payments to the young widow and children of a veteran who was killed in action. He had never worked at all on jobs covered by social security, and had been in service about two years at the time of his death. Under the new law, he had enough social security credits, based on his war services, to make his family eligible for survivors' insurance benefits. Dozens of such families in this area, who were unable to qualify for benefits before, can now begin getting regular monthly payments. They should get in touch with our office promptly and make application. The address is 1825 First Avenue, North, in Birmingham.

"These war-service social security credits may be used by veterans themselves toward Old-Age benefits at age 65 or later. They cannot be added to a veterans record for either retirement or survivors benefit purposes, however, if his military service is counted toward other Federal benefits or annuities. Dishonorable discharge is a bar. Otherwise, the credits apply generally to veterans who were on active duty sometime between September 16, 1940, and July 24, 1947, and who either had yards of any public road, public 90 or more days active service, died in service, or were discharged because of service-connected disability."

Soil Conservation Assembly Meets

At one-thirty p.m., November 9th, the gavel of Association President John M. Lile will call to order assembled Soil Conservation District supervisors of Alabama. The Whitley Hotel in Montgomery is scene of the annual meeting of the association, held to study the progress of the Soil Conservation Districts in the state in 1950.

Montgomery's mayor John L. Goodwin will welcome the group, and Mr. Lile will respond.

A brilliant series of addresses will be heard Thursday, the speakers including such notables as E. P. Grant, W. J. Terry, Frank Stewart, and A.P.I. President Ralph Draughon.

Every supervisor will serve on some committee dealing with various subjects such as "Wild-life", "Agronomy", "Conservation Education", "Forestry", et cetera.

A banquet in the Blue and Gray Room of the Whitley on Thursday evening will give the group an opportunity to hear Channing Cope, noted Georgia farmer-writer and exponent of conservation.

Friday, November 10 will offer a business session with speeches by J. W. Sargent, S.C.S., and J. P. Gilbreath, conservation enthusiast and District supervisor.

This meeting is a highlight of the Soil Conservation program, and developments will exert considerable influence on the future of the work. Shelby County will be represented by F. E. Williams, of Columbiana, District Supervisor.

Methodist Women In Mission Study

The W.S.C.S. of the Methodist Church will have a mission study on "The Near East". The meetings will be held from 3 until 4:30 o'clock on the afternoons of November 6,9,13,16, in the church parlor.

All members and friends of the Church are cordially invited to attend these meetings.

The annual turkey dinner and Christmas bazarr will be in the Church dining room on the evening of November 8.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

Appeal Is Made For Negro School

In order to help the Montevallo Negro High School meet the requirements of an accredited high school, the Social Responsibility Commission of the Alabama College Y. W. C. A. is trying to raise money for books for its library.

The Commission, according to Chairman Virginia Harrison, can not take money out of the "Y" budget for this purpose or sponsor a drive, so it must be raised by "sacrificial giving" from the students. She also said that she hoped to interest clubs and civic organizations in donating books in their particular field or in raising money.

The Negro school faculty itself has worked out a program by which it will raise $1,000 for improvements. Each faculty member will seek to raise $100 by means of socials, talent shows, and the

At a meeting of the Commission November 7, Mrs. Penn, the county supervisor for the Negro schools in Shelby County, spoke and gave the students a general idea of the ways they could help the school to come up to an accredited rating. They are planning posters to put up on the campus explaining the need.

At the meeting Mrs. Penn also brought out that only three teachers in the county had less than 3 years of college.

Alabama Power Co. Contracts For New Building Here

Mr. M. S. McGehee, district manager for Alabama Power Company, this week announces that a contract has been let to construct a large warehouse at the intersection of Selma Road and Highway

Jones and Hardy, Contractors, were awarded the contract to construct the concrete block building which will contain a large storage room for materials, foreman's office, and crewmen's locker and shower room. In addition to the new building, Alabama Power Company will construct a poll handling crane and other improvements. Total cost of the building, grounds and improvements will be approximately $30,000.00. Construction will start immediately and will probably be completed in 90 days.

Mr. McGehee also announces that Miss Carolyn Carpenter of Winfield, Alabama, has been employed by the local office as lighting representative. Miss Carpenter is a graduate of Alabama College with a major in Home Economics. She will assist customers in residential lighting problems.

The local office has also employed Mr. John C. Murphree of Centerville, as an additional engineer. Mr. Murphree is a graduate of the University of Alabama with a degree in electrical engineering. He will work in the local

Three additional line crewmen will also be added.

The Montevallo District consists of Shelby, Bibb and a portion of Chilton and Tuscaloosa Counties, serving over 10,000 customers and employing 26 persons at present.

Mrs. Peterson Attends Conference Of English Teachers

Mrs. Charlotte Peterson, Elementary Supervisor, Montevallo Elementary School, this past week attended the fall meeting of the Association of College English Teachers of Alabama at Alabama Polytechnic Institute in Auburn. An informal reception was held on Friday night, November 10, from 8:00 to 10:00 p.m. in Smith

Mrs. Peterson addressed the Association at the Business Meeting Saturday morning. The title of her talk was "The Language Arts Program in Elementary Schools", after which the session went into a general discussion of the subject.

The program centered almost entirely on the subject of the coordination of college and secondary school teaching of English. Dr. William Calvert's -committee, the membership of which includes Mrs. Peterson, recommended to the Association a complete primary-grade-through-college English instruction. The Association hopes to adopt and subsequently sponsor a systematic coordinated state-wide program of instruction.

Mrs. Peterson also spoke last week to the Ashland Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, honorary society for teachers, on Thursday. The title of her talk at this meeting was "Selection and Recruitment of Elementary Teachers."

Frost Discusses The Building Situation

The volume of home repair and improvement probably will set a new record locally during the next year, judging by numerous inquiries received from home owners, according to Mr. Fred Frost, local lumber and building materials dealer, and member of the Public Affairs Committee of the National Retail Lumber Dealers Association.

"Although the federal government is attempting to reduce new housing construction sharply to conserve materials for the rearmament program, the only emergency restriction on residential maintenance and modernization is the requirement that in most cases owners must make a down payment of at least 10 per cent, and must pay the balance within 30 months," Mr. Frost said.

"Federal officials obviously realize that the existing supply of homes in Shelby County and elsewhere must be kept in good livable condition if housing standards are to be maintained during the period when new residential building is being curtailed.

"Some types of plumbing and electrical work may be delayed by plans to reduce the supply of strategic metals available for non-defense use, but there should be a plenty of other materials, such as lumber, roofing, flooring, wallboard and cement to permit a large amount of repair and modernization work to go ahead here in the coming months.

"Local home owners who inquire about improvements to dwellings are showing special interest in repairing or replacing roofs, installing insulation, finishing extra rooms, building or enlarging garages, and remodeling kitchens and bathrooms."

Christmas Seal Sale Starts Next Monday

The annual Christmas Seal sale opens throughout Alabama and the nation Monday.

For more than forty years the Seal has made possible the farflung fight against tuberculosis, according to Roy D. Hickman, of Birmingham, president of the Alabama Tuberculosis Association.

Hundreds of volunteer tuberculosis association workers representing every county in Alabama, are behind the move to pep up the program of TB prevention and control. They have been working for weeks on mailing lists in an effort to see that every person who can afford a dollar or two will receive Seals in the mail on next Monday.

This is one campaign in which the urge to give or refuse to give is left entirely up to the individual. No high-pressure methods will be employed to insist on a contribution, Mr. Hickman said.

Tuberculosis leaders, instead, are stressing the use of Christmas Seals on all holiday mail packages. They believe the little Seals are the foremost missionary in reminding the public if a disease that kills needlessly — a disease that can be prevented.

In spite of this scientific knowledge and know-how, nearly 1,000 Alabamians died from TB in 1949.

To stop this needless dying is the message of the Christmas Seals. Funds from the sale are used to treat and hospitalize patients as well as to educate people on ways to prevent the spread of this contagious disease.

Every person-who receives the Seals next Monday is urged to look at them carefully and then resolve to use them so their message can be spread. What the receiver gives for the Seals is a matter for each to decide, Mr. Hickman said.

Shelby County Has 117 TB Patients

Tuberculosis has long been a major health problem in Shelby County. Although the public health workers have labored diligently with this problem, little progress has been made in the control of the disease. This was, in a large measure, due to lack of funds to hospitalize and thereby isolate infectious cases.

One hundred and seventeen cases of Tuberculosis are now carried by the County Health Department and a very recent countywide survey, in which more than 12,000 chest x-rays were made, will add many cases heretofore unsuspected.

The Shelby County Tuberculosis Association and the Shelby County Board of Revenue and Control, realizing the great need, have now combined forces to materially aid in remedying the existent condi-

Each of those organizations will pay one-half of the expense of sanatorium care for those patients who are unable to meet this expense. This will give these patients their opportunity to get well and will also remove them from constant contact with their families and others who might also become infected.

Paper napkins and other much needed supplies will be furnished tuberculosis patients by the Tuberculosis Association.

Three sanatoria are available for use by patients from this County.

The present facilities cooperating with these services of the County Health Department's weekly X-ray clinic and "refill" station, whereby indigent patients under collapse treatment can receive regular pneumo-thorax or pneumo - peritoneum injections, gives Shelby County a tuberculosis program equaled by few counties in the State.

On The Farms Of Shelby County

(B. F. Hatchett, G. C. Starcher)

Nearly a hundred Columbiana fourth grade students were attentive observers Monday when a chalk talk on soil conservation was presented by conservation aid Starcher. Teachers Ellis and Taylor have done an excellent job in developing this group of youngsters to an understanding of the relationship of the people to the soil. If the attitude of these children can be continued and reflected in their parents, the agricultural future of this county is indeed bright.

An indication that this will be true is found in the higher grades such as the 30 F.F.A. boys under vocational agriculture teacher Lansford, who made a half - day tour with the local work unit staff Friday, November 10. These boys showed enthusiasm for farming as a life work and for modern mediods as a means to make farming worth while. They studied many new crops and methods in practical use on these farms in the Wilsonville area: G. H. Estis and his brother; Brown Evans and Homer Jackson.

Nurse Tells How Hadacol Was So Helpful To

Supplied Vitamins B<sub>1</sub>, B<sub>2</sub>, Iron and Niacin Which Her System Lacked

Mrs. Jennie Lee Adele, 412 N. 27 St., East St. Louis, Ill., a nurse, says she wishes she had found out about HADACOL sooner because since taking HADACOL she feels so good. Mrs. Adele was suffering a deficiency of Vitamins B, Ba, Niacin and Iron which HADA-COL contains.

Here is Mrs. Adele's own statement: "I have been a nurse for over 14 years. My food never seemed to agree with me. I heard one day how so many folks were being helped because of HADA-COL. I tried it and after 3 bottles I could tell a big improvement. Now I eat anything I want-sleep well and I am full of energy."

Why HADACOL Gives Such Fine Results

HADACOL does not bring just symptomatic relief. HADACOL now makes it possible to actually relieve the cause of aches and pains in the shoulders, legs and arms, certain nervous disturbances, and a general run-down weakened condition due to deficiencies of Vitamins B, B2, Niacin and Iron in your system.

HADACOL not only supplies deficient systems with extra quantities of Vitamins B<sub>1</sub>, B<sub>2</sub>, Iron, and direct from The LeBlanc Corpora-Niacin but also helpful amounts of tion, Lafayette, Louisiana.

-elements so vital to help maintain good health and physical fit-

Why These Vitamins and Minerals Come In Liquid Form

There's a very good reason why HADACOL comes in special liquid form. These precious Vitamins and Minerals are more easily and quickly absorbed into the blood stream this way—ready to go right to work. A big improvement is often noticed within a few days.

Don't Be A 'Doubting Thomas'

After reading Mrs. Adele's wonderful experience with HADACOL -how can you doubt that this great new nutritional formula will help you if your system lacks Vitamins B, B, Iron, and Niacin?

What HADACOL did for Mrs. Adele, it can do for you if you're troubled with aches and pains in the shoulders, legs, and arms, certain nervous disturbances, insomnia when due to an upset stomach, stomach distress and a general rundown weakened condition due to such deficiencies.

So what are you waiting for? Don't you see that HADACOL is the kind of product you need - the kind you should buy and the kind you should start taking immediately!

Sold On A Strict Money-Back Guarantee

HADACOL even helps build up the hemoglobin content of your blood (when Iron is needed) to course through your body, carrying these great health-building elements to every body organ. No wonder HADACOL helps you feel wonderful.

Be fair to yourself! Give yourself a break if you have such deficiencies! Why continue to drag yourself around—a burden to yourself and your family-when relief may be as close at hand as your nearest drugstore if you suffer a deficiency of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron. This great HADA-COL is inexpensive, too-costs only a small amount a day. Trial size, only $1.25. Large family or hospital size, $3.50. If your druggist does not have HADACOL, order it

Thompson Topples John Carroll High

By Billy Hoskins, Sports Reporter Thompson High School

Siluria, November 13 - Led by halfbacks Gerald Brogden and Billy Durrett, Thompson High's Warriors whipped John Carroll of Birmingham by the decisive score of 32 to 13 here last Friday night. John Carroll had been picked to win by a 13-point margin.

Durrett drew first blood by scooting 50 yards for a touchdown in the first quarter. He also kicked the extra point. Brogden scored the next touchdown for Thompson on a 60-yard jaunt. Durrett failed to convert and the score at the end of the first period stood Thompson 13, John Carroll 0.

In the second quarter Brogden added another 6 points on a tenyard plunge and again Durrett failed to convert. The score at the half was Thompson 19, John Carroll 0.

In the third quarter Durrett scored again on a five-yard touchdown plunge and again was unable to convert. "Peanut" Davenport, brilliant Thompson quarterback, scored the final Thompson tally in the fourth period, slicing over from the one. Durrett made good his second extra point.

The line play of both teams was outstanding. Capt. Tom Roberson and guard Roger Patrick were particularly effective, smearing the John Carroll linesmen in play after play.

Steve Shader, right halfback, scored both of John Carroll's touchdowns on thrilling 90 and 60 yard runs. Both touchdowns came in the third quarter. Fullback Ray Gustin ran the extra point.

Thompson goes against powerful Greenville High in their finale next week. Coach Fagan Canzoneri has led the Warriors to 8 wins out of 9 starts this season.

2,252 Dogs Get Rabies Treatment

During the past summer a total of 2252 dogs were immunized against Rabies by the County Rabies Inspector. This represents probably one-half the dogs in the county.

The Rabies Inspector made tworounds of the County with his Clinics and later made a house to house canvass, making it possible for everyone in the County to have his dog immunized.

This is a service rendered the people at a nominal cost, for their protection.

When it is realized that 381 animal heads, examined at the State Health Department Laboratories. last year, found to be positive; that dogs come in very close contact with the family, and that Rabies is invariably fatal once it develops, the danger is a real one. No effort has been made to penalize those who failed to have their dogs immunized and this should not be necessary since this work is for the protection of the dog owner and his family. However, for the protection of the community as a whole, it would appear that the regulations governing the immunization of dogs will have to be more strictly enforced in the future.

Here Are Some Facts About Provisions Of the New Social Security Regulations

ial security law in 1950. How long will it be before I will be insured?"

That's a question social security officers are being asked every day since the amended Social Security Act became a law.

In most cases, the answer is a year and a half for survivors' insurance, longer to qualify for oldage insurance payments if you're not already aged 65 or over.

The amended law makes provision for a new benifit formula for workers retiring in the future. This formula is applicable to those who have at least six calendar quarters of coverage.

For example—a person already 65 at the time the amended Social Security Act became a law is fully insured for befit payments if he has at least six quarters of coverage. Also any person who becomes 65 before July 1, 1954, will be eligable for benefits at retirement if he has six quarters of coverage. Any person who was living on September 1, 1950, and dies before July 1, 1954, will be fully insured so that payment can be made to his survivors if he has six quarters of coverage.

A "quarter of coverage" is a qualify much more quickly.

"I was first covered by the soc- | calendar quarter in which the wage earner has been paid at least $50 in a job covered by social security. For social security purposes the year is divided into four quarters. January through March, April through June, July through September, and October through December are calender quarters.

The maximum annual wages to be counted toward social security has been raised from $3,000 to $3,600 beginning January 1, 1951.

It is the six quarters of coverage provision of the new law that will give immediate or early oldage and survivors insurance protection to numbers of workers not qualified for social security before. Many people now 65 or over will be enabled to draw retirement benefit payments right away. Some people who filed a social security claim under the old law but did not have enough social security credit to qualify then, may now be eligible for payments. These persons should contact the Social Security representative who is in Calera at the Employment office each Thursday at 9:30 a.m. Workers in groups coming under social security for the first time in January will be enabled to

The local Social Security Office is a very busy place these days, with a big boost in activity due to the recent widespread changes in the Old-Age and Survivors Insurance system. Nevertheless, Mr. Martin C. Folmar, Manager, today issued a special invitation to people in several groups to get in touch with his office promptly, if they have not already done so since the new law went into effect. He gave the following list:

1. People age 65 or over who have worked as much as a year and a half on social security-coverer jobs. Those in this group who are age 75 or over can now get monthly benefits even though still regularly employed.

2. Mothers, or other persons in charge of minor children of deceased World War II veterans. Also dependent parents of deceased World War II veterans.

3. Wives under age 65, in families where the husband and one or more minor children are receiving benefits. Under the new law, the wife in these cases can zard roost".

also qualify for peyments, even though she is under age 65.

4. Fathers, or other persons caring for children of deceased women workers. Children formerly could not get monthly benefits from their mother's social security account if their father was a member of the same household at the time of her death. Now in many cases, those children can be

"There are many people in this vicinity," Mr. Folmar said, "who are in one of these categories and who can qualify for benefits upon making application. They can get all necessary blanks and information by getting in touch with our representative who is at the U. S. Employment Office each Thursday at 9:30 a.m. in Calera.

Alabama Highlights

Some of the older people who live on the road to Little River Park celebrate Old Christmas on January 6. On the eve of Christmas, they say, cattle in the fields go down on their knees, lowing their adoration of the Lamb, and you can hear chickens, dogs, and mice talking like human beings.

During the year 1847, the region where the Talladega National Forest now stands was the gold-fining center of eastern Alabama. Miners spent their dust freely and trade was conducted on the "pinch" basis. A drink of whisky cost the amount of dust the bartender could pick up and hold between thumb and finger, roughly reckoned as a dollar—bartenders and store clerks with broad fingers were in great demand.

Sylacauga got its name from an Indian phrase meaning "buzzard roost".

Rankin Elected State President

James L. Rankin, Decatur insurance executive, was elected president of the Alabama State Chamber of Commerce at the Annual Meeting of the group in Birmingham last Thursday.

Other new officers selected during the session included the election of three vice presidents and the reelection of W. C. Bowman, Montgomery banker, as treasurer. The three vice presidents are: O. J. Henley, general manager, Sumter Farm and Stock Co., Tuscaloosa; Basil Horsfield, vice president, Reynolds Metals Co., Listerhill; S. H. Youngblood, Alabama manager, Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Co., Birmingham.

Rankin succeds Gordon D. Palmer, Tuscaloosa, as president of the State Chamber. He is a native of Tennessee, and was graduated from the University of Tennessee. He moved to Alabama in 1930, and is president of the Tennessee Valley Insurance Co., Decatur. He is past president of the Decatur Chamber of Commerce and has served as vice president and a member of the Board of Directors of the State Chamber of Commerce Long active in civic affairs in Decatur and Alabama, Rankin is a member of the National Council Boy Scouts of America, and has also served as District Governor of Rotary International.

Corn Crop Has Price Supports

Alabama's 1950 corn crop will have price support protection at $1.23 per bushel for corn grading No. 3 or better, or No. 4 solely on the factor of test weight.

H. C. McDanal, Chairman of the Shelby County PMA Committee, states that the above price only represents 75 percent of the parity price, such level being mandatory for all producing areas. However, according to Mr. McDanal, this year, with acreage allottments in effect in the commercial area but not in the non-commercial area, support at a 90 percent level is available only to the commercial area.

Mr. McDanal states that loans and purchase agreements will be available to producers on corn stored on their farms or stored in approved commercial elevators. These will be available through the office of the county PMA committee and will be available to farmers from time of harvest through March 1, 1951. On farm stored loans corn may either be shelled or on the ear. However, it must be shelled at the expense of the producer before Commodity Credit Corporation will accept delivery next year. For ear corn, placed under a farm stored loan, the moisture content may not exceed more than 20.5 percent and for shelled corn 13.5 percent. The loans and purchase agreements will mature July 31, 1951. However, said Mr. McDanal, deliveries may be made to CCC during the first 10 days of April, providing a borrower notifies the county PMA committee at least 10 days prior to April 1 of his intention to deliver.

The support program is not for the purpose of buying corn but to assist farmers in obtaining a satisfactory price for their corn. Mr. McDanal says the loan program provides farmers with an opportunity to obtain cash for their corn now and later to dispose of the corn through orderly marketing.

HALL

LONDON, England-Sir James Barrie, the playwright, loved children so much he gave all the earnings from his fairy tale Peter Pan to a children's hospital in his home town. When he died he made the royalties a perpetual bequest.

Because of that gift, the London hospital for sick children, also known as Peter Pan Hospital has been made richer by 100,000 pounds ($280,000)—and the money keeps coming in.

Peter Pan and his playmatesthe Darling children, Captain Hook and all the other inhabitants of fairy land-have helped the people who run the hospital to build one of the finest, most modern hospital buildings in the world. They also help to pay for research by doctors and skilled technicians to study the costly and baffling diseases that strike at children.

Some of the money this year is coming from the pockets of Americans whose reverence of Sir James has made a revival of Peter Pan a current Broadway success.

Construction Delayed

When the author died in 1937 the hospital was building a structure on the site of the old one in London's Bloomsbury district. It is not yet finished and probably won't be for a number of years. Building material shortages, then a change in plans, have held up the work.

The war stopped construction after the seven-story in-patient building had been completed. That's a many-windowed, H-shaped building with balconies running around every floor.

There are 326 beds, with almost 400 nurses to look after the youngsters night and day. There are 40 staff doctors and 30 consulting specialists who visit the hospital almost daily.

In addition, there are another 100 beds at the hospital's country branch, a former large private home on a 75-acre estate at Tadworty, Surrey, about 20 miles south of London. Then there are two convalescent homes with 18 beds each -one at the seashore near Brighton and another in rural Oxfordshire.

The royalties from Peter Pan help run all these, as does the government, which took over the control of virtually all British hospitals a few years ago.

Government Pays Part

Because the hospital for sick children is a teaching hospital, its funds do not come under the control of the Health Ministry, but are administered by the hospital authorities solely for research and treatment. The government pays all maintenance costs.

There is a Peter Pan ward—the eye, ear, nose and throat section. Like the other wards, it is gaily painted and cheerful. There is a miniature surgery for each unit of eight beds. Every unit also has its playroom, with rocking horses, fire engines, trains and dolls for convalescent patients. Every Christmas season Peter Pan is presented in one of the London theaters. And members of the cast pay an annual visit to the wards to entertain the children.

Rates Cut At Gulf State Park

Montgomery,, Nov. 22,—Cabin rates at Gulf State Park, on the Gulf of Mexico, have been sharply slashed for the winter months, Conservation Director Phillip J. Hamm has announced. Reduced rates will remain in effect through next March 31.

Rentals on all cabins for the first night—whether weekend or a mid-week night—will be the same as the summer rates. Each night's rental for two nights or more, will be one half the regular summer rate, according to Parks Chief James L. Segrest. The summer-time restriction limiting rental of a cabin to one person for longer than a week is lifted until April 1, 1951.

Motorists' Taxes Raise More Money

Montgomery Nov. 12— Special state taxes collected each year from Alabama motorists will jump by at least $4,300,000 because of the 1950 increase in motor vehicle ownership, Jim Britton, executive secretary of the Alabama Petroleum Industries Committee said today.

His computation is based on preliminary estimates of 1950 car, bus and truck registrations recently released by the U.S. Bureau of Public Roads.

ent tax rates, the increase in present tax rates, the increase in vehicle ownership expected during 1950 should mean a 10 per cent increase in registration fee collections and a minimum increase of $3,168,000 in gasoline tax revenue to Alabama. Increased use of motor vehicles and new registrations in future years will further increase state highway-user tax collections," he said.

The Bureau of Public Roads estimated that Alabama will have 646,000 registered motor vehicles at the beginning of 1951, compared with 586,209 at the start of the year 1950.

"In the coure of this year the Alabama motorist will pay an average of about $102 in state and federal levies just because he owns and operates a car or truck. And government receives more and more each year in motorists' taxes as motor vehicle ownership increases and each vehicle travels more miles with the passing of years, he said.

Fight TB With Christmas Seals

Christmas Seals have been placed on sale by the Shelby County Tuberculosis Association and an opportunity is given each one of use to contribute to the welfare and happiness of those unfortunate victims of tuberculosis who are battling to regain health.

The funds derived from the Seal Sale will materially aid many of the helpless and medically indigent patients to receive the benefits of sanatorium care which would otherwise be denied them. These indigent patients are furthermore given supplies which are much needed in preventing the spread of the infection.

Under the able leadership of Mr. R. J. Ozley and Mr. Roy Downs, the Tuberculosis Association, in cooperation with the County Board of Revenue and the County Health Department, has perfected an organized fight on tuberculosis, which is a major health problem in this county. No one of us is safe so long as this infection goes uncontrolled. It can eventually be eradicated.

It is earnestly hoped that each individual will buy Christmas Seals and Bonds to the limit of his or her ability. This will not only give many patients their only prortunity to get well and return to a normal life, but is an investment in self-ro ection.— E. F. Sloan, County Health Officer.

Let us give thanks!

Dear Lord, how can we thank Thee half enough
For all Thy gifts to us this fruitful year!
For spring's bright promise gloriously fulfilled
This harvest-time; for these that are more dear
Than bread assured; all the sweet joys of life —
Home, work, love, friends — that gild the passing days;
And children's laughter on the evening air —
For all, dear Lord, we give Thee grateful praise.

But most of all, O God, we thank Thee for Our cherished heritage of freedom. Here Where men walk safely, surely; speak and pray As each one wills, and freely, without fear, Lord make us strong to hold and spread this boon! From our abundance help the weak to raise Their hearts and come to share our brotherhood, And join with us in songs of thanks and praise!

Christmas Seals Placed On Sale

Have you received your 1950 Christmas Seals, the little seals health?

If not, you can obtain a supply and get in the fight against tuberculosis by contacting Mr. Richard J. Ozley, of Columbiana, chairman of the drive in Shelby County.

The 1950 Christmas Seals picture three small children singing carols and looking happy as all children should. The design is a reminder that children everywhere look at the adult world to provide happy and healthy living, protection against contagious dis-

The most deadly of contagious diseases, tuberculosis, kills more people than all other contagious diseases combined. Moreover, TB deaths are needless deaths, because medical science has proved it can be prevented and can be cured.

The Shelby County chairman pointed out that Christmas Seals have been fighting tuberculosis more than forty years, during which time the national death rate from the disease has been reduced 85 per cent.

"There's still a long way to go, however. We must remember that no home is safe as long as there is one case of TB among us. You can do your part by buying Christmas Seals. The money you give helps hospitalize and treat victims of the disease in our own county.

"And be sure to USE your Christmas Seals. This year more than ever before we want to stress that you stick Seals on all letters and packages. This is the best way to remind everybody everywhere that TB can and must be whipped."

Lakes Provide Good Fishing

Montgomery, Nov. 17-As of September 30, nearly 29,000 fish weighing about four and one-half tons had been taken from Butler, Crenshaw and Fayette County managed public lakes since they were opened last summer, Conservation Director Phillip J. Hamm has announced.

Average weight of the 24,669 bream caught was 4 plus ounces; of the 2,670 bass 8 plus ounces; 1,625 other fish weighing 788 pounds, 7 plus ounces per fish, according to James L. Segrest, Chief of the Conservation Department's Parks Division.

The twin Butler County lakes, opened June 14, yielded the most fish, 12,423, and attracted the most visitors 27,392. The take at Crenshaw Lake, opened July 13. was 8,675 fish; visitors numbered 4,408. The total at Fayette Lake was 7,866 and visitors, 6,997.

The Conservation Department's Division of Parks, Monuments and Historical Sites is responsible for administration of Alabama's managed public lake program. The lakes are built with Game, Fish and Seafoods Division funds in counties which lack sizable natural lakes and streams.

Montgomery, November 17-Officials and game technicians of that spread good cheer and good the Conservation Department's Division of Game, Fish and Seafoods are still worried about continuing deaths of doves in Alabama from a parasitic organism known as trichomonas gallinae, according to Conservation Director Phillip J. Hamm.

Hopes that the die-off would subside during the winter months have not materialized so far, George W. Allen, Federal Air Coordinator in Wildlife Restoration with the division, states.

"Dead and dying doves are being reported to the Alabama Cooperation Wildlife Research Unit at Auburn just as often now as they were when the deaths first came to the attention of the Conservation Department last May," he said.

The research unit, of which Dr. Arnold O. Haugen is leader, was one of several agencies joining literally she did. Her long "proin initial investigations of the deaths during the spring and sum-

"Besides seriousness of the disease to the state's dove population, another danger we have to consider is that cold weather in the north-central United States may drive concentrations of these migratory game birds to Alabama where they may suffer heavy mortality. Infected birds which don't die may carry the disease back to their breeding-grounds," Allen

"I don't want to be an alarmist," he continued, "But something like this could possibly be the beginning of the end of the species. Unfortunately, we have no idea how to control it. But we hope that a cold winter might be a big help in curbing the disease."

Allen said that "discouraging" reports about the state's dove population were being received from

POPULATION GROWTH 8% TELEPHONE GROWTH 188%

A good gauge of Alabama progress and prosperity, and of the size of the telephone job that's been done, is a comparison of population growth with telephone growth. While the number of people in Alabama was increasing 8% in ten years, according to the census, the number of telephones jumped 188%.

A large part of this telephone growth has taken place in just the last five years. During that short time Southern Bell has built $62,171,-000 of new telephone facilities in Alabama ... more than doubled the number of telephones . . . more than doubled long distance circuits and nearly quadrupled rural telephones.

We've spent far more to expand Alabama telephone facilities in the last five years than we had invested in the state five years ago. And we're going right on doing our best to meet the continuing heavy demand for service in town and on the farm.

New Course of Study For Public Schools Announced By State Superintendent

proved by the State Board of Education marks another milestone in educational progress in Alabama the boys and girls of the state.

The above is a statement from State Superintendent, Dr. A. R. Meadows. Following are further extracts from his statement:

The new course of study provides more guidance and helps in the teaching of reading. It emphasizes direct instruction in reading and setting forth guides to be followed in effectively teaching reading. It also points out ways in which boys and girls may be taught to develop interests and skills that will encourage them to read during their leisure.

The new course of study places additional emphasis upon teaching of citizenship and American history. Citizenship is taught from the first grade through twelfth grade. Increased emphasis is given to Alabama history and geography.

This is the first course of study in Alabama that has included a course in driver training. This course will be taken by many pupils immediately prior to the time when they are old enough to obtain a driver's license.

The new course emphasizes the offerings.

The new course of study ap- | teaching of conservation, giving suggestions as to how it should be taught. It recognizes that we must cease to exploit our natural in providing better instruction for resources and intelligently find ways and means of using them to meet our present needs and safeguarding the rights of future generations to use the basic resourc-

Speech is emphasized along with reading and listening.

Suggestions are given to principals and teachers to meet the needs of students who should have courses in advanced mathematics, advanced science and foreign language.

Greater emphasis than ever is being placed on the three R's, but parents are demanding far more education than reading, writing, and arithmetic.

Appended to the document containing the above statements of Dr. Meadows, is the following paragraph:

"The new course of study will be used by the Montevallo High School in a program of the faculty to improve the quality of its teaching during the session 1951-52. The Montevallo High School will thus continue to lead the schools of the state in its instructional techniques and curriculum

Report Made For Negro Recreation the stars. Past Summer

The Negro division of the Montevallo recreational program has just closed an enjoyable summer of varied activities. The program, although new to us last summer, had better cooperation from the adults as a whole, and it is the opinion of the writer that as time passes, wholehearted cooperation ed the day and there were expreswill be given by the community as they realize the need and benefit | ing trip". It never did materialize. of such a program.

The directors of the program taught fair play, cooperation in teamwork, and duty toward civic responsibility. The response was good from the viewpoint of recreation toward these goals which they hope will help the youngsters to overcome many difficulties that may arise in their lives.

On June 15 we began our part of the program with a large number of adults as well as children who participated in the activities on the program, from singing to big muscular games. Quiet games such as checkers, dominoes, and cards for those who did not care to join the tiring activities.

Besides hardball for boys and softball for girls, the director tried to enliven the program so it would be interesting and meet the approval of all concerned. Since adding an assistant to take care of the small children, our activities led us to the creek where fishing, swimming, and volley ball were the main attractions twice a week. Three days a week on the usual playground for other activities.

Several games of baseball and soft ball were played between Boothton Aldrich, Almont, and West Blocton. A soft ball series was on program for the closing activity with West Blocton. After the first one, rain caused the postnonement of the others. Many other activities not mentioned here drew attention and were well attended.

Several activities took us out of the city. One, a hayride to West Blocton, where the girls and boys recreational program of that city prepared for us an outdoor entertainment which was attended by a large number of children and ad-

Games, dancing, and sandwiches featured an evening of fun under

Our next trip took us to Beeswax Fishing Camp on the Coosa River. A large group of adults went with us, which pleased the director very much, and children galore. Some very good fish were caught. Boating, swimming, all were enjoyed. A big watermelon cutting featured this program on the river. A game of soft ball endsions of "let's have another fish-However, we do hope to go again when our program gets underway.

A moonlight picnic on Shoals Creek drew the largest attendance of the year. Roasting weiners featured this activity. There was swimming and a game of volley

The financial part of the prog ram failed to make its quota this year, owing its director the sum of $37.50. We hope to get more aid from our city next ytar.

Self-Employed Persons In Own Business Will Have Benefits of Social Security

"John H. was a corporation official with an upper bracket salary. Now he's retired and getting social security benefit payments monthly. I have my own business and make a modest income. When I retire, my income stops. I don't come under social security."

That statement, made before the President signed the amended Social Security Act, would have been wholly true. However, under the new law, and beginning in January, 1951, you may have social security protection.

The self-employed-people who work for themselves, may begin building toward old age and survivors insurance on the first of the year. They, like the salaried worker, may get monthly insurance payments when they retire; their families may get survivors insurance if the self-employed worker should die.

The self-employed person will be covered by social security if his net earnings are at least $400 a year. He will be given a quarter of coverage for each $100 of his yearly earnings, but not more than four quarters of coverage can be credited to any one year.

The self-employed person (who is in effect both employee and employer) will pay a social security tax of 21 per cent of his net earnings where the amount is $400 or more a year, beginning with his net earnings for 1951. He will not pay on earnings of over $3,600 a year. His first report for social security purposes of his earnings from self-employment will be made as part of his income tax return filed by March 15, 1952.

The kinds of trades and business enterprises in which self-employment will count toward old-age and survivors insurance benefits are varied. As sole owner or partner you may operate a store, beauty parlor or filling station. You may have a barber shop, a tavern or operate your own taxi. You may be self-employed in your own manufacturing plant, or you may have a shoe shine stand. The size ation. Again, you may be a freelance writer, artist, sign painter

To determine more quickly if your self-employment work will be under social security in January, scan the following list of excldued professions and business operations. Your earnings will not be covered by law if they come from self-employment as a physician, Worren, of Brent.

Perhaps in the past you have dentist, osteopath, chiropractor said or have heard someone say optometrist, naturopath, Christian Science practitioner, veterinarian, funeral director, lawyer, as a certified, licensed, registered or fulltime practicing accountant, or as a professional engineer or architect. Farm operators also are not covered by social security.

> For further information you may contact the social security representative who is at the employment office in Calera every Thursday at 9:30 a.m.

Edward Holcombe Is Star Farmer Of the FFA Here

Because of his outstanding record in supervised farming and vocational agriculture, Edward Holcombe has been chosen as the Star Future Farmer of the Montevallo Chapter. Edward and Pete, his brother, have carried out an unusually fine program as beginners in the F. F. A., and are enrolled in vocational agriculture for the third year. According to the records submitted by the boys, they have realized a net profit of $858 from their poultry projects, and when their own labor is counted, the total income runs to $929.85.

The boys have constructed three concrete block poultry houses and now keep 200 laying hens and have grown and sold 1,000 fryers. Edward had an income of $263 from his swine project. His gilt farrowed 11 pigs the first litter and 14 the second. In addition to the productive projects, four heifers are being grown out and the first of the four is to calve in December. A new water pump has been installed and the family now has running water in the kitchen and at each of the poultry houses. Edward is now vice president of the F. F. A. Chapter Farmer unit and is chairman of the supervised farming committee.

Mrs. Whatley Goes To Youth Conference

Mrs. Mary H. Whatley, associbama College, will attend the Midcentury White House Conference on Children and Youth in Washington, D. C., December 3 to 7.

Mrs. Whatley, Alabama Colconference, will go as a member of the state advisory committee on children and youth.

Among the 5,000 delegates at the conference will be approximately 50 from Alabama. They will include parents, teachers, doctors, clergymen, and social workers.

Four White House Conferences. one in each decade, have been held under the auspices of the President of the United States. The first conference was held in 1909, then in 1919, 1930, and 1940,

The 1950 conference is centered on children and will be the first White House Conference in which young people will take part fully and responsibly. They will participate in the policy making, sit on committees, national, state and local, and contribute their ideas, abilities, and skills.

Mrs. Whatley states that those going to the conference from Alabame have planned it so that one to three of them will be at each panel discussion and in each work group.

The Tour Of Holiday Houses

The Independent Presbyterian Church of Birmingham will have "Welcome" on the mat more than ever during the tour of Holiday Houses, December 9 and 10.

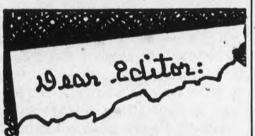

Beginning at 11 a.m. December 9, doughnuts and coffe will be served to those coming to the church to take the bus for the tour. Boy Scouts will have marked the route of the tour but guides will be on hand to accompany those who prefer to go in their own car but who want a guide to go with them.

The church will delight the eye with the beauty of its Christmas decorations, both inside and out. For those making the tour in the afternoon and early evening, tea will be served in the church parlors from beautifully appointed tea tables until 6 o'clock on Saturday and until 8 o'clock on Sunday.

Organ music will be played continuously in the sanctuary in keeping with the spirit of Christmas. Tours within the church will be conducted for those interested in the stained glass windows.

The Men's Club of the church will have placed a large and well lighted Christmas tree in the church yard, and carolers will be on hand to add their welcome to those coming for the tour.

Ebenezer Home Club Miss Joanna Sharp Spend - The - Day

The November meeting of the Ebenezer Home Demonstration Club was a spend-the-day at the home of Mrs. W. A. Nolen on the Smoky Road. The demonstration was Christmas Food Suggestions. During the morning the club food leader, Mrs. Gladys Allen, assisted by Mrs. H. A. Pauly, prepared jellied meat and cranberry salad, angel pie, several kinds of candy, spiced nuts and fruit punch. These with ham, salad sandwiches, and open-faced cheese sandwiches were served from a decorated table at noon. A large red candle on silvered cedar sprays, intermingled with small Christmas balls was used as a centerpiece.

There were seventeen members, cne guest and several children present.

In the afternoon Sgt. Charles O'Givin of the Safety Education Service gave an interesting talk on highway safety. The club is sponsoring a plastic party early in December. The next meeting is a Christmas party at the home of Mrs. H. A. Pauly on Tuesday, December 19.

44 Are Killed In September Wrecks

Montgomery - The Highway Patrol reported this week that 44 people died from 511 highway accidents during September.

Drunken driving jumped 30 per cent over the previous month. There were 314 drivers licenses revoked during the month due to driving while drunk.

One strange fact about the many accidents is that 73 per cent of them occurred on straight road, not on curves. Twenty - six per cent of the drivers killed held no drivers license. Clay is the only county without a road fatality during 1950.

Entertains

On Wednesday night before Thanksgiving the football team, with their dates, after the "M" Club Dance which followed the last game of the season, were invited to Joanna's home for a midnight snack.

On Thanksgiving Day, Joy Holcomb and Joanna were co-hostesses at a breakfast at the Sharp home, after which the group motored to Birmingham where they attended the Crippled Children's Clinic's Game. The two girls again entertained the group with a beautiful Thanksgiving dinner at the Sharp home. The party finished the day with a picture show party at the local movie.

On Friday night Joanna was again hostess for a waffle supper honoring Sara Pat Baker of Red Acres and her house guest, Bobbie Brown, of Demopolis.

On Saturday night, Joanna, assisted by Miss Martha Ann Cox, gave a dance. The lower floor of the home was lighted by red candles. Large white chrysanthemums with red button chrysanthemums were used in decoration.

The dining table was covered with a hand made imported lace cover and centered with a large red horn of plenty with an artistic arrangement of fruits and vegetables and nuts spilling out onto the table. Four crystal candlesticks held the red candles at the corners. Silver and cut glass howls held the mints and nuts. Misses Anita Bradley, Ouida Byrd, and Marcia Trumbauer served hot doughnuts and hot spiced punch to the guests.

Those who enjoyed the hostess' hospitality were: Sara Pat Baker, Red Acres; Bobby Brown, Demopolis; Betty Boyd, Donald Tinsley, Anita Bradley, Ouida Byrd, Jack McGaughy, Joy Holcomb, Buddy Rhodes, Lois Hoffman, Albert Lee Pickett, Annette McBurnette, Garland Splawn, Eleanor Mitchell, Charlie Lovelady, Mary Lawley, Bobby Neil Smitherman, Martha Anne Cox, Eddie Roberts, Marvel; Marcia Trumbauer, Joe McGaughy; Jane Triplett, Edgar Givhan; Joan Smitherman, Clayton Smith; the hostess, Joanna Sharp, her date Bobby Saunderson; and the stag line-Bobby Milstead, Harry Klotzman, Donald Litton, Agee Kelly, Marion Hamaker, and Pat Kelly.

Edison's incandescent lamps were used for the first time in Alabama at the old Anniston Inn (later destroyed by fire in 1901) in Anniston, Alabama.

F. F. A. President Goes To Washington

Winford Collier, State F. F. A. President, from Wetumpka, has been invited to attend and represent Alabama's Future Farmer members at a youth meeting in Washington, D. C., Dec. 3-7.

President Truman has called a mid-century White House Conference on Children and Youth. This will be the fifth in a series if such conferences, under sponsorship of the President of the United States since the beginning of the century.

Other such conferences were in 1909, called by President Theodore Roosevelt, another in 1919, called by President Woodrow Wilson, another in 1930 by President Herbert Hoover, and another in 1940 by President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Representatives of the various youth groups from Alabama and from all over the nation will take part in the 1950 conference.

Winford will leave for Washington Saturday, December 2, and will return to Alabama Dec. 9.

The November meeting of the David Lindsay Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, was at the home of Mrs. A. W. Vaughan with Mrs. O. B. Cooper and Miss Leacy Newell as co-hostesses. Mrs. W. J. Kennerly, the regent, presided.

The message of the President General was read calling upon the members to remember their heritage and let no opportunity pass to uphold the principles and precepts of the early patriots.

Mrs. E. H. Wills gave a most interesting and quite humorous account of the struggles, trials, and triumphs of the David Lindsay Chapter, D. A. R.

Mrs. Wills was the organizing regent of this chapter. She stated that at no time since its organization had David Lindsay been without at least one member serving as a state officer or state chairman of an important committee. Mrs. T. H. Napier has served in almost every one of the state offices as well as chairman of committees, one of the national, vice presidents, and chairman of national committees.

At the conclusion of the program a most attractive and delicious plate was served to the following: Misses Julia Boyd, Emma Dendy, Eloise Meroney, Leacy Newell, Ethel Reasoner, Anne Eastman, Ollie Tillman, Mesdames O. B. Cooper, Charles L. Gormley, W. J. Kennerly, H. D. LeBaron, W. H. Lyman, T. H. Napier, E. D. Reynolds, Ben F. Roden, C. G. Sharp, A. W. Vaughan, E. H. Wills, and Dr. Willena A.

Finish Survey On X-Ray, Blood Tests

The State Health Department, cooperating with the Shelby Coun-X-ray and blood test survey. More than 12,000 X-rays and blood Delaware. tests were made during the primary phase of this survey.

Of this number, 590 people are asked to return for a recheck on their X-rays; 850 were found to have a high blood sugar, suggesting the possibility of diabetes and indicating the need for a second test to eliminate or diagnose this condition.

Approximately 400 were asked to come back for a recheck on the syphilis test. Not all of these will require treatment.

At one time syphilis was a major health problem in this county The County Health Department clinics treated more than 1,500 patients and many others were treated by their doctors and at the rapid treatment center.

When this survey is completed in the near future it will represent the greatest case finding program ever conducted in this county. Many unsuspected cases of tuberculosis, heart disease and diabetes will be found and sent to their doctors for treatment before the more serious effects of these diseases have developed. Syphilis will be almost completely eradicated .- E. F. Sloan, M. D., County Health Officer.

Christmas Seal Sale Started 43 Years Ago On Small Scale in Wilmington, Delaware

On December 7, 1907-43 years ago, eight victims of tuberculosis ty Medical Society and the Coun- lay dying in temporary shacks in ty Health Department, is this which they were isolated because week finishing the county wide they had a dread and "catching" disease. This was in Wilmington,

> At the same time, 43 years ago, there were hundreds dying of TB in Alabama also.

The eight in Delaware are singled out for a special reason. Their plight started a crusade against tuberculosis which has gained momentum every year since, in Alabama, and throughout the nation.

The eight were going to die because money to feed them, treat them and keep them warm during the winter had run out. Their case was hopeless, it seemed.

DR. MARGARET McCALL

Dr. McCall, head of the Department of Health, Physical Education and Recreation at Alabama College, will serve as one of the three consultants at the fourth annual college conference for health and physical education on December 11 and 12 at Woodrow Wilson Rehabilitation Center at Staunton, Virginia.

The purpose of the conference is to make a study of the health and physical education programs in the institutions of higher learning in Virginia, in the light of the present-day needs.

Other consultants include Dr. William Hughes, director of the department of physical education at Temple University, and Simon McNeely of the United States Offices of Education.

But a welfare worker who was looking afer them had a vision. She hit upon a plan to keep them going.

She hit upon the idea of an American Christmas Seal Sale. In the first Seal Sale contributions amounted to $3,000, instead of the $300 the welfare worker needed for her eight patients.

This week commemorates the anniversary of an American tradition which has resulted in the saving of thousands of lives. When the first Christmas Seal Sale was held, TB was the leading cause of death in the United States. Today it has been forced down to seventh place.

"This is no time for complacency, however," said Richard J. Ozley, chairman of the 1950 Seal Sale in Shelby County.

"Tuberculosis still is taking severe toll of American lives, with an annual death count of more than 40,000. At the time of the first sale little was known of the disease, how it could be treated, and what the chances were for its cure. Today we know a great deal about the way in which TB germs strikt and destroy.

"We know it is possible to cure tuberculosis in almost all stages, although it is easiest to cure in the early stages. Increased knowledge about tuberculosis on the part of the people has armed them with the knowledge of how to protect themselves against the disease and how to take measures to prevent its spread.

"But there is still a lot to be done if we want to make our community and our nation safe. Even today, one American dies every 13 minutes. The disease is killing over 40,000 every year, and it still ranks as the first major cause of death among young people between 15 and 35.

"A great deal has been accomplished since the first Seal Sale. Yet the toll of lives and suffering and economic loss which TB still exacts' leaves no room to waste time in stopping it. This is why I say the 1950 Seal Sale is an important as the first one in 1907. That is why I urge everyone to buy Christmas Seals. And when you buy them, use them. They carry with them a health message that is vital to every resident of this county."

Montevallo Times The New Chevrolet Here Next Saturday

New 1951 Chevroltt passenger cars and trucks will go on display simultaneously at 7,690 dealerships on Saturday, December 9.

Announcement of the showings by W. E. Fish, general sales manager of the company, was coupled with an estimate that more than 10,000,000 people will inspect the latest series during the introductory period.

"Reports from the field indicate one of the most successful showings in our history," said Fish, "Not only have we found widespread interest in connection with the event. In many centers the showings will take on all the aspects of a civic celebration.

"For the Chevrolet retail organization the presentation of the 1951 series will come as a climay to its greatest year. Sales during 1950 will establish a new record and once again will top all competition by a substantial margin."

Mr. Victor Scott invites everybody to see the new 1951 Chevrolet at Montevallo Motor Company next Saturday.

Late Marriage Is Reason For Fewer Children, Report

NEW YORK-College graduates, averaging around 49 years old and out of school a quarter of a century, have a deficiency of 26 per cent in the number of children born to assure replacement, according to findings of Dr. W. A. Anderson, Cornell university rural sociologist.

Dr. Anderson studied 1496 graduates (1,126 men and 370 women) of the Cornell classes of 1919, 1920 and 1921, and found the deficit of men graduates was 21 per cent, and for women, 41 per cent.

He based this on the fact it takes 2.22 live-born children for each college graduate for the son or daughter to reach college graduation age of mother or father. The Cornellians averaged 1.64 children.

Of the entire group studied, 85 per cent were married, 11 per cent single, 1 per cent divorced, and 2 per cent widowed.

Men established their families at about 29 years of age, and the women at about 28. This late age of marriage is given as a chief reason why college graduates do not on the average have enough children to replace themselves. The students received their diplomas at the average age of 23 years.

The reproduction rates of Cornell graduates are practically the same as those of other colleges, says Dr. Anderson.

British Health Service Refuses to Buy Bath Salts

LONDON, England-The British health service, which supplies free medicines, spectacles, wooden legs, hearing aids, glass eyes, false teeth and wigs, has finally called a halt. The service refuses to buy bath salts.

Neither, said the health ministry, would it honor prescriptions for smelly lotions to make mosquitoes go away.

This also applies to vanishing cream, shaving soap, tooth paste, talcum, and hair tonic.

In other words, brother, no soap. "Prescriptions for such preparation have not actually been submitted," said a ministry spokesman, "but the point was raised because there are borderline cases. A man with an itch, it might be argued with reason, needs a cake of soap."

McGowin Plans Few Changes

Lumberman Earl McGowan says he is planning no major changes in the state's Conservation Department when he takes over as director next January.

The former legislator from Chapman issued a brief statement at Gov.-Elect Persons' headquarters Monday confirming that he has accepted the appointment.

"I have accepted the position of director of conservation offered me by Gov.-Elect Gordon Persons," his statement said. "I think his approach to government in Alabama is so sound that it deserves the support of everyone in the state.

"I have had no opportunity to go into the problems of the department, but I do not contemplate any major changes. Although my experience has been largely in the forest products field, I certainly recognize the importance to the State of a sound program in all divisions of the department."

Chick Production

Montgomery, Dec. 4-The chick production for October in Alabama was more than twice what it was for the same month a year

During October, 1,800,000 chicks were produced, an increase of 15 per cent over September, and 52 per cent over the production of 1,182,000 for October, 1949.

The Alabama Co-Op Crop reporting service states that the demand for broilers continues high and most of the chicks produced were used for that market.

The price for chicks on Novemmer 1 averaged $14.50 per hundred for light breeds; and $14.00 for crosses.

Brundidge, Alabama, settled as early as 1810, was then known as Collier's Store.

4 Alabama 4-H'ers Win Watch Awards

HANDSOME gold-filled watches were awarded four club members for achieving highest rating in Alabama for work in the 1950 national 4-H dairy foods demonstrations and meat animal programs. A review of their records follows.

William Boyd Mary Adams

Winning state honors in the 4-H Meat Animal program climaxed a busy and eventful seven years in club work for William Boyd, 16, of Gadsden. Starting with five animals, Bill has "grown" into the cattle business, and now has a fine herd of 26 head. Since last year, he's added to his herd by purchasing a registered bull and two registered heifers. Bill's ambition is to have the best beef cattle farm in Alabama, and should be able to do it with several champion and grand champion awards to his credit. With two years behind him as president of his club, Bill continues to demonstrate showmanship in his meat animal exhibits and projects. He received his watch reward from Thos. E. Wilson, Chi-

Barbara Thompson Bobbie Jean Wilcon cago meat packer, who has provided awards in this program for 21 years.

A thorough understanding of the importance of dairy foods plus the many new ways to vary the diet by their use, brought top honors to Bobbie Jean Wilcox, 19, of Talladega, and the team of Mary Adams, 15, and Barbara Thompson, 16, of Selma. Bobbie's prize-winning demonstration was "Milk is Life." The team demonstrated "Cottage Cheese in the Diet." Their project, Dairy Foods Demonstration, is sponsored by the Carnation Co., who presented each with a watch. The girls admitted that a lot of planning and practicing were necessary before they were ready to give their finished demonstration.

All of these activities are conducted under the direction of the Extension Service of the State Agricultural College and USDA cooperating.

How Social Security Laws Apply To Veterans and Their Survivors

An important phase of the amended Social Security law—one that went into effect on September 1, 1950—is that relating to the World War II veteran, and to survivors of both men and women who served in World War II.

Survivors of servicemen who died within three years after discharge from the Armed Forces, already know of the 1946 change in the Social Security law made for their protection. It was applied only to service people who died within that 3-year period. Second, it did not apply if the Veterans Administration could pay a pension or compensation based on the period of active service, Third -and most important-it did not give credit for service pay toward old-age insurance benefits. This provision remains in effect for the survivors of such servicemen. However if larger benefit payments can be paid under the 1950 Amendments to the Social Securitv Act. the new section of the law will be used.

What are the new provisions for World War II servicemen? Well, to begin with, they give $160 wage credits for each month of active service between September 16,1940 and July 24, 1947. Recomputation to take these wage credits into account will be made, and such recomputation is used in all cases where it will result in higher oldage or survivors insurance payments.

Unlike the 1946 temporary measure, the new provision is not affected by any compensation or pension that may be paid by the Veterans Administration. The only cases where the $160 service connected wage credits will not be given are those in which benefits, other than a lump sum, are payable under some other Federal plan, for instance, Civil Service or Railroad Retirement.

The $160 wage credits will be given to every serviceman who had 90 days or more of military or naval service, within the dates mentioned, and whose discharge or release from service was not dishonorable. The 90-day provision does not apply if discharge was caused by injury or disability, or death occured while in service.

Siluria Baptist Church Activities

Sunday night at 6:30 p.m. the "HOLY NATIVITY" Christmas Pageant will be presented at the Siluria Baptist Church under the direction of Mrs. J. G. Lacey and Mrs. Louise Hoskins.

The beautiful and impressive Pageant includes: The Prophecy, The Taxing at Bethlehem, The Shepherd's Vision, The Adoration of the Shepherds, The Story of the Wise Men and The Christ.

The special Christmas offering will be given during the Pageant for the Children at the Baptist Children's Home at Troy where over 200 boys and girls are cared for.

Sunday Morning the regular Church Choir will present special Christmas Music at the Church Hour under the direction of Mr. Ray Benefield.

Next Thursday, December 21, The Annual Christmas Tree celebration will be at the Baptist Church. The picture: "The Child of Bethlehem" will be presented at 7 p.m. The public is invited.

Obviously, this $160 a month service connected wage credit of the new Social Security law will bring larger benefits to present survivors of servicemen and to families of veterans who die within the next few years. Also, many World War II ex-servicemen, now in the 50-60 age group, will acquire old-age and survivors insurance status through these service earned wage credits.

In its broader aspect, this provision of the amended Social Security Act will enable many veterans to regain social security status built up before the war. Also, it will help establish these insurance rights for veterans who never worked in social security covered jobs before entering military service.

Help Fight TB

Buy Christmas Seals

105 TB Cases In Shelby County Now

To stress the importance of buying Christmas Seals to help fight TB, these figures, based on a report published by the State Health Department, were cited this week by Mr. R. Z. Ozley, Columbiana, chairman of the county seal sale.

These are only the cases actually known by health officials to exist, the chairman said. Many people have the disease and do not know it, because in the early stages TB gives no warning sign.

"But TB is curable, and it is preventable. And the prevention and cure of the disease is the purpose of the annual Christmas Seal Sale.

"Christmas seals help stamp out TB because they not only raise the money to fight it, but they remind everybody who sees the tiny stamps that no home is safe until all homes are safe.

Please use your Christmas Seals more than ever this year. Decorate all your cards and packages with a plentiful supply of them. Help them tell their story."

Club Council Officers Meet

Presidents of all boys and girls 4-H clubs in Shelby County will meet Thursday, December 14 at 2 o'clock in the old courthouse auditorium in Columbiana.

Council officers for 1951-52 will be elected, activities for 1951 will be planned, and demonstrations for January through May will be shown.

It is important that every club be represented at this meeting.

Farmers Voting On Marketing

All Alabama farmers are urged by W. B. Crawley, chairman of the Alabama Production and Marketing Administration State Committee, to vote during the county and community committeemen election December 14.

He explains that this is an important election since those who are elected will be responsible for deciding how and what kind of farm programs are to be carried out in their respective counties.

It is up to the farmers of the state to make sure that the men elected are the ones they think can do the best job, adds Mr. Crawley.

High School Studies Its Needs For A School Cafeteria

The Shelby County Board of Education at a meeting recently voted to survey, investigate, and report on the needs of the Montevallo High School for a cafeteria, at the recommendation of the principal. The Board appointed two of its members to meet with the Trustees and principal of the high school, visit the school's lunch room, and report to the next meeting of the board.

Other news from the school concerns a safety campaign begun at a meeting of all bus drivers recently. Drivers have voiced concern about the number of motorists passing stopped buses at high rates of speed endangering lives of incautious youngsters on several occasions. Drivers have been instructed by the county sheriff to report violations of the law to the principal. Drivers also are being instructed to watch all safety devices on the bus, inspect them regularly and report any defects. Buses have been organized with captains and assistant-captains to guard the safety of the children who ride the school conveyances.

Letters have been written to all parents concerning some Shelby County Board of Education regulations. All appreciate the great improvement and cooperation that has been noticed.

5.00 If You Want Gas, Make Deposit Now

It now appears that the construction of Montevallo's natural gas system will be sufficiently advanced to begin service installations by the first of January.

It is yet possible for gas customers to get service installations made upon the original requirements of a $5.00 meter deposit, but in order to do so the deposit must be made in the next few days.

Those interested may make deposits at the Town Office in the Alabama Coach Company building.

Dodge Trucks Win National Roadeo

R. E. Bowdon, Jr., of Bowdon Motor & Implement Co., Calera, Dodge dealer, has received word that 49 of the 86 state champions who competed in the three major events of the 1950 National Truck Roadeo in New York chose Dodge "Job-Rated" trucks to drive in the spirited contest for national title.

Six of the nine national championships awarded in the straight truck, the tractor single-axle semi trailer and the tractor tandem axle semi-trailrer classes were won by drivers of Dodge trucks.

Richard Wold, of Minneapolis, drove a Dodge GA-152 (1½-ton) truck to win first place and the national title in the straight truck event. R. D. Wallace, of Charlotte N. C., drove the same truck to win third in that event.

All three places in the tractor tandem axle semi trailer event were won by drivers who drove a Dodge YA-142 (4-ton) truck. O. E. Chapman, of Denver, won first place and the national title. Robert Rudesill, of Minneapolis, won second, and Harry W. Pollock, of Baltimore, won third.

Frank Kirkpatrick, of Portland, Oregon, drove a Dodge JA-128 (2½-ton) truck to win third in the tractor single-axle semi trailer ev-

Twenty - one state champions who had won their titles in state eliminations while driving other makes of trucks switched to Dodge in the national finals. Their decisions were made after they drove Dodge trucks on a New York practice course. The manufacturers offered trucks for the 86 contestants in the national finals. Thus more champions chose Dodge than all other makes combined.

"St. Stephens, though dead, still Speaketh!"

Those were the words of historian Peter J. Hamilton, fiftyone years ago in a speech on the site of St. Stephens, first territorial capital of Alabama. Even as he spoke, St. Stephens on the Tombigbee had become only a memory to many, and was unknown to still more.

As in 1899, so in the intervening years and in this yearand in this week which marks the beginning of Alabama's 132nd year as a state-"St. Stephens, though dead, still speaketh." As in the day of St. Stephens, and in later days when historical Huntsville, ill-fated Cahaba, and beautiful Tuscaloosa were capitals of the state, the descendants of earlier settlers (mostly from Virginia, the Carolinas, Georgia, Tennessee and Kentucky) have held to the vision that Alabama would achieve her rightful place in the vanguard of progress. In later years, and particularly in the last half century, others came from other states to join ranks in the quickened pace of educational, cultural, agricultural and industrial achievement.

Today their descendants-native Alabamians-as well as newcomers, are in the triumphant parade toward economic leadership.

Figures are but a symbol of progress which bas been made.* The real story and the inspiration for the future are in the lives of men who kept their faces forward in dark days and bright. They were those who kept up the struggle despite obstacles which would have caused weaker men to give up in surrender. They are those who today firmly hold to the ideal of "Ever Onward!" born in the days of St. Stephens which-"though dead, still speaketh."

On the Farms of Shelby County

B. F. Hatchett and G. C. Starcher

Numerous severe freezes since Thanksgiving have destroyed or severely damaged much of Shelby County's winter grazing. The degree of damage varied greatly with age of crops, variety, type of soil, exposure and amount of mulch and cover of vegetation.

One clear fact has emerged from our own observations and reports coming in. Ky. 31 Fescue in established stands is Shelby's "ace in the hole" in such an emergency.

Howard Hall, Lorick Stephenson, Roy Easter, Leon Baker, Brown Evans, and dozens of others tell us their cattle would be without green grazing without fescue and all plan heavy planting next

Terracing requests have been few this fall. Farmers are urged not to neglect their conservation measures.

However, first must come first, and meadows should be established on all row crop land where needed, before concentrating runoff with terracing.

Contact this office if you wish to have either job done.

Onion Flavor

Heating chopped or sliced onion in a little fat helps draw out and distribute the onion flavor in stews and stuffings. Many good cooks let sliced onion stand in French dressing awhile before mixing the salad, as a means of stretching flavor.

Calera Club Installs Officers

Calera Home Demonstration Club officers were installed at a very impressive candle lighting ceremony Friday afternoon, December 8 at the home of Mrs. Beecher Finley. Mrs. E. C. Knight and Mrs. R. L. Holcombe, outgoing president, conducted the installation service.

The light of the central candle symbolized the enlightenment of women through the home demonstration program. New officers lighted their candles from the central candle signifying that they would help carry the message of good homemaking and good citizenship into every home in Shelby County.

New officers installed were:

President, Mrs. Marion Jones; Vice President, Mrs. J. A. Armstrong; Secretary Treasurer, Mrs. H. C. Baker; Reporter, Mrs. R. L. Holcombe; County Council Director, Mrs. R. E. Bowdon, Jr.; Farm Bureau Chairman, Mrs. Josh Sorrell; Citizenship Chairman, Mrs. Chester Cofer; Rural Youth Chairman, Mrs. M. W. Jacks; Community Activities Chairman, Mrs. Lorene Maddox.

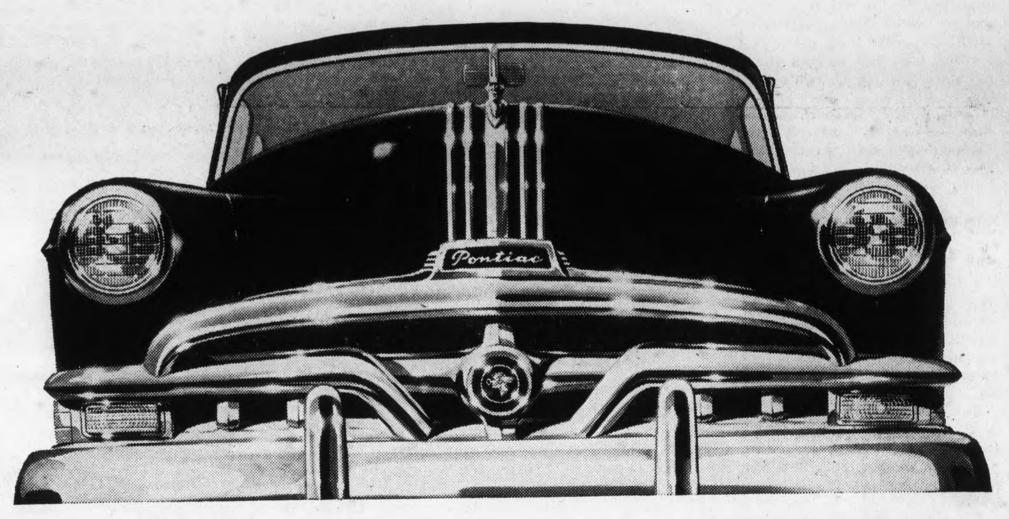

The town of Anniston, Alabama was to be called Woodstock, but when application was made for a post office in 1879, it was found there was another Woodstock in Alabama. The name Anniston (Annie's Town) was then chosen in honor of Mrs. Annie Scott Tyler, wife of Alfred L. Tyler, early industrialist.

4-H Boys Study Culling Poultry

The 1,000 4-H club boys over the county are studying the timely subject of culling the farm flock, reports assistant county agent G. C. Moore, Jr.

They are studying this subject from two angles: First, they see color picture slides on culling as provided by John Weeks. extension poultryman, Auburn. Next, they go outside and actually look at and feel of the qualities of a good and a poor layer, the chickens being brought in by interested members of the club.

Finally, they are given a sheet of instruction on culling, covering subjects like this: (1) Culling is profitable (2) Time of year to cull your hens (3) Catching birds (4) Holding birds (5) Culling precautions (6) Qualities of good or poor layers, etc.

The clubsters are learning that crippled or diseased birds should be culled out at any time of the year, when detected. This prevents spread of disease and further injury, and less of feed, too.

They are surprised to learn that usually the pullet or hen in their first two years of life that waits till late fall to molt and then molts rapidly is the best layer. Conversely, the one that sheds the feathers early and slowly are the poorest layers.

They are seeing pictures that show how the yellow pigment in the yellow skinned varieties and breeds leaves the beaks, eyes, and shanks as a hen begins laying and how it comes back after she has layed out.

All these rules will help the club boy learn how to pick out poor hens, sell them or kill them for home use, thus saving feed costs, and yet retain those good layers that keep paying their board bill—Clubs that will already have had their meetings as this paper goes to press are Sterrett, Vandiver, Mayberry, Boothton, New Hope, Dunnavant, Calera, Montevallo, Chelsea, Shelby High, and part of Thompson High Clubs.

35 Boys and Girls At Club Congress

A group of 35 outstanding 4-H club boys and girls represented Alabama at the 1950 National 4-H Club Congress and the International Livestock Exposition in Chicago the last week in November.

Hanchey Logue and Ann Barr, A. P. I. Extension 4-H club leaders, say that the boys and girls were given the trip on the basis of leadership and project achievements.

The leaders further state that the boys and girls were an honor to their state as they participated in discussion meetings, banquets, parades, and a tour of the city, along with 4-H members from 17 states, Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and guests from 11 foreign countries.

The 26 Alabama counties sending representatives were Cleburne Mobile, Etowah, Perry, Calhoun, Franklin, Elmore, Fayette, Coosa, Houston, Marshall, Lee, Lamar, St. Clair, Jefferson, Tuscaloosa, Geneva, Randolph, Jackson, Talladega, Lauderddale, Baldwin, Dallas, Marengo, Limestone and Sumter.

DAIRYING

Factors favoring development of small dairy herds are artificial breeding, better market facilities, better forage and pasture programs, and a greater need for a regular income necessary for high living standards.

Now Is Time To Plan Pastures

Now is the time to look ahead and plan for more and better pastures in 1951, according to County Agent A. A. Lauderdale.

He believes that many Shelby County farmers have bottomland that should be cleared or hillsides that need to have briars and bushes removed. Also, some pastures that were improved a few years ago may need attention now.

Lauderdale adds that lime need should be checked also.

Gadsden, Alabama was given the name Double Springs when it was first settled in honor of two large springs in the vicinity, but the name was later changed when General James Gadsden visited the area and praised it. Grateful for his encouragement, it was renamed the village Gadsden. General Gadsden had achieved prominence in negotiating the Gadsden Purchase from Mexico in 1853.

Neighbor's 'Play by Play' Account Breaks Up Robbery.

LOUISVILLE, Ky .- A "play by play" description to the police switchboard of a burglary attempt on a tavern ended with arrival of police and capture of the burglars.

A neighborhood woman phoned police. "One of them just pulled out a ventilator fan and he's climbing in through the hole," she said. "Another man is just standing on the corner."

The lookout stared in disbelief when four police cars disgorged 10 patrolmen who took him into custody along with his partner in the tavern, who hadn't touched a thing yet.

Churchill Paintings Appear On Christmas Greeting Cards

NEW YORK-Winston Churchill's paintings will appear on Christmas greeting cards this year.

Twenty paintings by Mr. Churchill for reproduction on cards have been selected by a greeting card company. Another group, including two holy land scenes, a sunset over Jerusalem, and a village landscape, have been selected for next year.

Joyce C. Hall, who selected the paintings, said: "Mr. Churchill is a very vigorous painter. His work is surprisingly professional, and he has done a lot of painting. There are several hundred which he did while he was in his conutry home and at his London house. And there is a stack of others that he doesn't rate highly."

Diane Boothe

Diane Boothe, 15, Fairhope, was selected by the State Club Office for outstanding recreational leadership and achievement. Learning that all work and no play will make anyone dull, she charted a carefully planned course to bring recreation into the lives of fellow club members as well as to grown-ups in the community. A charter member of the Teen Club, Diane serves the decorating, refreshment, publicity and recreation committees. This club was formed to plan and carry out parties and wholesale recreation for teen-agers. They also have built a baseball diamond, outdoor fireplace and given a benefit performance for PTA. Diane serves as junior leader of an under teen-age 4-H Club, calls square dances and teaches folk songs.

Her record will be judged for national honors, which includes a trip to the 4-H Club Congress in Chicago, provided by the United States Rubber Co.

Annual awards of $25 are given to each county on its overall recreational program as well as the records of its local 4H Clubs. The award is used to buy recreational equipment. Counties winning cash awards are: Baldwin, Coosa, Lamar, Marion, and St.

Plumber Works 17 Years at Hobby To Build Railroad

CRESTON, Iowa—Byron Hiatt has been working on his hobby for 17 years. In that time he has built a real railroad, complete with two locomotives, two freight cars, a mail and baggage car, a passenger car with an observation platform and four trestles.

He operates it for passengers on Sundays and holidays.

The train also has a box car and a caboose. The locomotives are about 8 feet tall at the smokestacks and about 36 feet long, including the coal tender.

Everything is built to scale, the result of Hiatt's handicraft. One of the four trestles on his route is steel reinforced and about 70 feet across. Another spans a gully about 80 feet wide. Hiatt has them numbered so passengers will know they are riding on a railroad line with four trestles.

Hiatt fell in love with railroading when he was a boy. After high school, he went to work for the Burlington railroad. In 1944, he decided to build a miniature train of his own. As a railroad pipe fitter, he had gained much of the "know how" for the job, so he started to work

At $2 a foot, Hiatt estimates he has invested about $6,400 in roadbed alone, and that's just one of the less costly items. He assembled the locomotives from parts he made or ordered from machine shops. The track was bought from coal mines. The passenger and freight cars were used to advertise the Burlington railroad before Hiatt bought and rebuilt them.

There is a regular roundhouse and train shed arrangement in the center of the area where the train is parked during the week.

Most of the work on the railroad has been done before work in the morning or in the evening.
"I get up at 5 a. m. and work on the railroad about two hours," Hiatt explained. "That way I gain an extra day every week."

Care of Poultry

Good care of the poultry flock calls for sanitation, declared A. A. Lauderdale, County Agent.

Another important thing to remember, he adds, is that the amount of heat required depends on kind of house, kind of brooder, and age of chicks. Keep chicks comfortable; avoid overheating. Allow at least one square foot floor space for every two chicks. Never place over 250 to 350 chicks around one brooder.

one brooder.

One 4-foot hopper for each 100 chicks should be provided, says Mr. Lauderdale. Increase hopper space as chicks grow older. Provide two half-gallon jars of water per 100 chicks and plenty of green feed.

Teach chicks to roost as soon as possible after they are received, advises the county agent. Turn them out early so they will get plenty of sunshine. Separate pullets and cockerels as early as possible and place pullets on clean range at an early age. Vaccinate pullets against fowlpox when 10 weeks old.

Human Carriers Of Polio Virus, Science Believes

NEW YORK—Human beings are the spreaders of polio, scientists are beginning to believe. The shrewdest work has failed to prove anything except that other sources of polio are infected from people.

Scientists observed that in polio outbreaks the disease is spread along railroad routes, bus routes, rivers, and valleys. There sometimes did not seem to be much in uplands.

Mosquitoes were suspected. Other bugs, too. Something had to be carrying it along these routes. But nothing at all was proved against insects, not even the flies, though polio virus, sometimes was found on, and inside flies.

The human chain explains easily. Polio spreads along these routes because that is where people live in the largest numbers.

Another mystery is why polio epidemics occur only in hot weather. The disease runs the year round. If hot weather alone were the explanation for epidemics, these outbreaks would be expected to last longer in the South than in the North. But they don't.

In the South the epidemics start earlier. They reach their peaks earlier. But after about two months, even though hot weather may be far from over, the southern epidemics begin to decline.

The short duration of the epidemics can be explained on the theory that human beings are the spreaders.

In two months the infection may spread to most of those who are susceptible, keeping in mind that its real spread, to the silent cases, is 200 times more than among the openly sick. The chain reaction begins then to break down from lack of enough susceptible victims.

Vegetables have been suspected because epidemics begin soon after the start of the fresh-vegetable season. Early cases are often found on farms. But no sign of polio virus has been found in vegetables.

Occasionally a polio outbreak has been traced along a milk route. But the virus has yet to be discovered in milk. All trails, except the human pathway, so far end in blind alleys.

Buy Toys That Are Safe To Use

The National Council of Safety offers this advice to gift givers who are buying toys for the baby or toddler:

Avoid stuffed animals with glass or button eyes. Examine toys to see that there are no removable parts which could be swallowed. Buy sturdy rattles, blocks with rounded corners, soft balls and dolls, and push-an-pull toys with rounded handles.

Elta Majors, A. P. I. Extension Service child care specialist, joins with the council in urging parents not to endanger a child with shooting or target toys, sharp scissors or poorly built wagons or carts. Also, buyers should pass up toys that are too heavy or complicated for the receiver.

300-Mile Tunnel Planned To Drain Huge Coal Field

WASHINGTON — A 300-mile-long twin bore tunnel to open vast hard coal reserves now under water in central Pennsylvania is being planned by the bureau of mines.

S. A. Ash, chief of the bureau's safety branch, said the tunnel—the longest of its kind—should be constructed from the central Pennsylvania coal field to Tidewater near Havre de Grace, Md.

The project would cost from 300 to 500 million dollars, Ash said, but would have a double barreled purpose. While opening new anthracite reserves in an area now producing more than 500 million dollars worth of coal a year, it also would carry 600,000 gallon of water a minute through a heavily populated industrial area which is frequently threatened with water shortages.

This water would provide a new source of electric power to supplement supplies in an industrial area roughly from Jersey City to Baltimore, Ash said. He added that the drainage would double the remaining life of the Pennsylvania anthracite field.

Keep Home Clean By Planning

The pressure of other jobs may make it impossible for the homemaker to keep her home as clean as she would like.

When this is the case, says Marian Cotney, try using a definite but flexible plan.

Remember, she cautions Shelby County homemakers, that a thin layer of dirt is easily and quickly removed, but an accumulation is hard to remove because it cakes and requires extra time and also equipment for cleaning.

Another aid is to enlist the cooperation of all family members adds the agent. A cheerful attitude on tht part of the homekeeper makes it easier to get other family members to help.

Give children responsibilities suited to their ages. Even a very small child can hang up hes own clothes if low hooks are provided.

Archeologists say that DeSoto's Caves, near Mentone, were natural caves improved by the Indians to provide shelter and protection when they came to hunt and fish. Several large rooms open on a narrow ledge 70 feet above the river.

LeBlanc Thanks Newspapers for Cooperation

Senator Dudley J. LeBlanc

Oklahoma City, .. (Special) Senator Dudley J. LeBlanc, manufacturer of Hadacol, thanked more than 400 members of the Oklahoma Press Association at their meeting here this week for the important part played by weekly and small daily newspapers in the tremendous success of Hadacol.

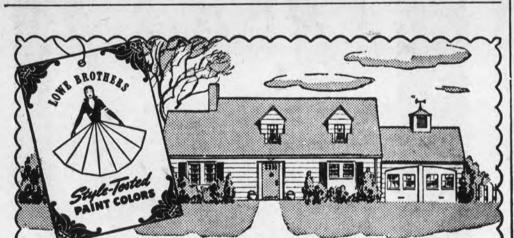

The Senator described how he had parlayed $2500 in borrowed money into the $7,000,000 in assets LeBlanc Corporation, of Lafayette, La., in two and a half years.

"One big reason for my success was that I kept pouring my money back into advertising just as fast and sometimes faster than I made it," said Senator LeBlanc.

He explained that Hadacol uses more than 6500 weekly newspapers on monthly schedules and announced plans for increasing his budget in this field.

Young Executives Parlay $10,000 Into $1 Million

CHICAGO - Four youthful executives, atomic physicists who helped develop the original Abomb project at the University of Chicago, have run a $10,000 investment to more than a million dollars with a company that designs and manufactures nuclear gadgets.

The company's products range from machines costing upward of $10,000 down to small portable Geiger counters in the gadget-toy classification. The concern also processes for industrial and medical use the atomic-generating raw materials produced by the government atomic plant at Oak Ridge, Tenn.

The four youthful executives are James A. Schoke, 26, president; John L. Kuranz, 28; Thomas E. Mitchell, 27, and Emil W. Hinspater. 39, vice-presidents.

Going through the factory and laboratories is like taking a peek at the awesome future. Complicated testing apparatus, wiring setups and precision tools face one from every direction. Precision is so refined employees and vistitors may not even wear radium-dial wrist watches in some areas.

Makes Nuclear Toys

Consumer-type goods, those available to "just folks" that the company produces, so far are pretty much confined to portable Geiger counters for experimentation or for prospecting for uranium ore.

The smallest of the company's Geiger counters is one being aimed at the forthcoming Christmas trade by a toy maker and distributor. It is enclosed in a cabinet which looks like a school lunch bucket, yet is claimed to be fully adequate to trace uranium ore deposits or lost radioactive materials.

It will be offered for two markets. The "boy" trade, starting at the age of nine, can use it in specially designed games. Older boys and adults can use it for various types of actual experimentation in radioactivity. The company has a manufacturing capacity of 500 of these sets a day and expects to produce 15,000 for the toy company.

The company has a more complicated counter which is sold by a large mail-order house. Ten thousand of this design will be produced.

New School Study

Soon to be in production is a static eliminator for newspaper presses. At present, the friction of rapidly moving paper in modern high-speed presses builds up so much static electricity the machines would stall if it weren't removed. To eliminate the static, presses now are equipped with a series of gas flame jets, the heat of which relieves the static condition.

The company's device will consist of a strip of radioactive isotopes which will serve the same purpose as the flame without the fire hazard and fuel expense.

A little more on the technical side is a classroom demonstrator called the "classmaster." This is aimed at adding a fourth "r" to the proverbial three in high schools, colleges, universities, namely radio-

LET'S STOP KIDDING OURSELVES

From St. Petersburg (Fla.) Independent

American people and the administration in Washington to stop kidding themselves. We can no longer afford to promulgate and augment the delightful theory that we can win friends and influence people in the international society of nations by endless dolling out of our substance in an attempt to buy friendship.

Call it isolationism if you will. Call it what you may. It all adds up to the same thing. We're facing a fight for our very survival and in spite of the billions we've spent in an attempt to win allies, we have few friends who are going to come to our defense,

We may as well acknowledge the fact and act accordingly. If we are going to survive we'll have to be armed to the teeth. And until we are, everything else must go by the boards.

Last week President Truman asked Congress for an emergency appropriation of $18,000,000,000 to help rebuild our military department. This is only a drop in the bucket compared with the regular budget the military leaders will ask for the next fiscal year.

That's all to the good. But if we are to be properly armed and prepared for any eventuality we can't afford frivolities. This is not the time to spend billions for foreign economic aid and billions more in a vain hope of winning allies.

Perhaps in a less critical moment we could afford to play the role of international do-gooder. Perhaps we could afford billions to feed the starving Hottentots and bring the glories of President Truman's point 4 program to the underprivileged peoples of the world. Perhaps. But this is not

The time has come for us to spend more money and more ef- about who is going to fight our fort on our national defenses and battles. We are. And let's not forless in mending our international

During the last few years the left-wing hierarchy within and without the Federal Government has expounded an ear-tingling slogan. It says you can't fight ideas with bullets. It's a fine theory. It makes good listening over cocktails or after-dinner liquers.

But the men who are on the receiving end of the bullets right back in Korea, who never have a the boys.

The time has come for the chance to sip cocktails or liquirs -know that ideological theories of government make a damned poor armor when the hot stuff is flying their way.

What peace have we gained by playing international big brother to the rest of the world?

We spent billions and much of our blood to save the Soviet Union from Germany. Where are our friends in Russia today?

We spent billions of dollars and much of our blood to save China from Japan. Where are our friends in China today?

We spent billions of dollars and much of our blood to rescue Czechoslovakia and the Balkans from the Nazi yoke. Where are our friends among them today?

We still have friends in Greece we hope. At the moment it serves the purpose of Tito and Yugoslavia to be our friends, but no one knows for how long. Lets' not kid ourselves. If worse comes to worst, we're not even sure of Great Britain and France.

Perhaps it is impossible to destroy ideas with bullets. But in a world caught betwen two major ideologies, and seething with unrest, nothing succeeds in winning friends and influencing people like strong military power and the ability and willingness to use it, if necessary.

Today there are many nations in the world engaged in the business of international fence-sitting. Our concepts of freedom and democracy mean little to them. No matter who wins, they want to be on the winning side. We can't buy their friendship through international uplift programs. But we can win their friendship and respect if we have the military power to assure them we're going to come out on top of the heap.

There's no use kidding ourselves get it. And to fight those battles it is vital that we spend every cent we can raise to arm ourselves with the necessary guns and planes and ships.

In converting our billions from foreign economic aid to our own military strength we may divorce ourselves from some nations we now count as our friends.

If so, so be it. The chips are down. As they say in the army, now-the American troops falling | it's time to separate the men from Progress along all lines during recent years has been nothing short of astounding. Progress in the field of medicine and public health has been outstanding.

When this writer first began the practice of medicine, it was not uncommon to be called to see a case of smallpox. This was in the days of the old "pest house", where these critically ill patients were sent to be isolated, and was also before the masses of our population realized the extreme urgency of vaccination.

Typhoid Fever was very prevalent and even small towns would have a dozen or more cases each summer and fall. This was before the days of protected and supervised public water supplies, enforced regulations governing food handlers and distributors, and immunization of large numbers of people.

Diseases of Children

Scarlet Fever, which is usually easily managed, was much dreaded childhood infection and frequently complicated by serious kidney involvement, abcessed ears and abcessed glands in the neck. The mortality was high.

Most doctors treated 40 or 50 cases of Malaria a year.

Of those who developed Pheumonia about one-fourth would not Insulin was discovered. Hookworm was a common cause of disability.

Diptheria killed many babies and children before it was found to be preventable.

Septic sore throat, "blood poison" and other Streptococcal diseases took their toll.

One of Each Two Died

Of every two children born, only one was expected to live to reach the age of 5 years. These deaths were due mostly to "colitis" and other intestinal infection, respiratory infections and the acute infectious diseases.

"Childbed fever" was still fairly common. When a person was bitten by a suspected rabid animal, it was Now Totals $236.17 necessary for him to go to the Montgomery Laboratory and stay three weeks so that he could take preventative treatment.

These are only a few of the previously existing conditions that come to mind.

Changes in Recent Years

We all know of the change in the picture in more recent years. Surgery has made as rapid strides as medicine. Patients no longer die of "cramp colic" when the acute appendix can be removed in a matter of minutes. Abdomina surgery, chest surgery, brain surgery, have all been perfected.

Diagnostic procedures have been greatly improved.

Man's life expectancy has been increased a whole generation.

All this has been accomplished under a system of free enterprise. There has been no political meddling, as in some foreign countries and you and I, when we become ill, can be assured of the best medical care obtainable by any people in the world to-day.

way Department Will Let Contract On Dry Valley Road

The State Highway Department has announced that bids will be received and contract let on January 5, 1951, for the construction of the new paved highway from Highway 25 near Montevallo, to connect with old Highway 31 at Willie Shaw's place.

This project will be done by federal and state funds. The connecting road will be a little more than six miles long, with about 2 miles in Shelby County and about 4 miles in Chilton County. It is what is known as the Jemison cut-off and runs through the Dry Valley Community of Shelby Chilton Counties.

Christmas Jamboree Held At Vincent

Christmas was well underway for about four hundred FHA and FFA members in Shelby County who met for their annual Christmas Jamboree, Wednesday night, December 13.

The Jamboree which was held in Vincent had representatives from schools in Montevallo, Columbiana, Siluria, and Vincent. About ninety three Future Homemakers and Future Farmers from Montevallo attended. The Future Homemakers and Farmers of the teacher, were host and hostesses for the occasion.

Mr. Lansford, Agricultural teacher at Vincent was Master of Ceremonies for the talent show presented which included singing, pantomine, instrumental playing and skits. Each school gave a part of the program.

After the talent show the group joined in square dancing and during the evening peanuts and cokes were served.

The high point of the evening occured when the group formed a huge circle around the auditorium, at one end of which was a beautifully decorated Christmas tree. As Christmas music was played, each person was presented with a gift which was passed on to the next person on the right. When the music stopped everyone kept the gift which he was holding at that time. Much merriment prevailed as the gifts were open-

Woman Bank Teller Chases And Captures Holdup Man

SEATTLE, Wash.—The bank robber just didn't have a chance. The lady was determined to get her money back.

Mrs. Mae Natori, teller in the Seattle First National bank, obeyed when a man poked a pistol under her nose and demanded that she "put all the money in a paper bag." She did, but stepped on the burglar alarm at the same time.

Then, screaming that she had been held up, she chased the fleeing bandit. With two bank customers at her heels, she chased him into a hotel half a block away and cornered him.

He offered to swap the bag of money for his freedom, and although he still waved the gun, she refused. She kept him cornered until the police arrived.

Last of Chinese Emperors Held Prisoner by Russians

of China, who has been without a throne since the 1912 revolution which transformed the celestial empire into a republic, is being held prisoners by the Russians at Khabarovsk in eastern Siberia.

General Mitani, former Japanese governor of eastern Manchuria, home from Soviet captivity, said he met the former emperor in Siberia. Suan Tung Khan was the "boy emperor" when he was overthrown. He is now 44 years old.

This is the same man who was set up by Japan as puppet ruler of Manchuria under the name Henry-Pu-vi

The Russians never have informed the western nations that they hold the former monarch nor have they given any indication of what role they intend for him.

New Apparatus Makes Barnacles Commit Suicide

LA JOLLA, Calif.—Henry T. Burkey, an inventor, has developed a shocking device which causes mussels and barnacles to commit suicide. It may someday save ship owners and seashore industries millions a year.

The apparatus is essentially a series of vacuum tubes which generate timed electrical pulses in water. The pulses, too weak to electrocute the sea creatures, forces them to suicide.

In the case of the bivalve mussels, the current causes their shells to snap shut. Continuing pulses cause a muscular reaction which keeps them shut. Death occurs when the mussel either starves or is unable to eliminate wastes, succumbs to auto-intoxication.

In a test all of a group of 100 mussels exposed to the pulses died within two weeks. Seventy died within one week.

Applies for Patents

The single-shelled barnacles, says Burkey, are equally vulnerable. They eat by fishing about in the water with tiny feelers. Preliminary tests indicate that the pulses paralyze these feelers.

Millions of dollars are spent annually to scrape barnacles from the hulls of vessels ranging in size from battleships to rowboats. Burkey says his apparatus can be rigged so it will not only kill barnacles already present but prevent further accumulations.

He has already applied for patents on an adaptation of the device designed to clear underwater pipe-

Power plants, oil refineries and other industrial plants near the oceans use sea water for cooling machinery. The huge pipes through which the water is drawn quickly become lined with clogging mussels.

A New England power station, he says, removes 300 tons of shells annually from its intake lines. A San Diego plant with four-by-eight-foot intake tunnels found after an inspection that the intake line was coated with two feet of mussels. This reduced its amount of salable electricity by $25,000 yearly.

Present Methods Expensive

Systems using water hot enough to kill the bivalves, or slaughtering them by heavy chlorination, have proved to be extremely costly, he says.

The microscopic mussel eggs, which are fertilized while they float in the water, attach themselves to some solid object after 44 hours. If they find no such object, they die. They cling by means of sticky threads and a single "foot," which must be protruded.

One of the many effects of the jolts of current is to make it impossible for the mussels to stick this neckline foot out.

Thomas Blanchard (1788-1864) invented the first profile laths, an automatic tack-counting device, and a steam carriage.

58 Persons Die in Grash Of DC-4 in Lake Michigan

ST. JOSEPH, Mich. — About 19 miles northwest of St. Joseph, at the bottom of Lake Michigan, is the remains of a giant DC-4 which crashed and carried 58 persons to their death in the worst air disaster in the nation's history.

It probably will never be known what caused the crash. Debris scattered over the area indicated a tremendous crash or explosion. Most pieces of wreckage were no more than inches square.

Searchers found hundreds of pieces of the foam rubber cushions. Coastguardsmen, using boat hooks, fished wreckage from the lake. They brought up a pair of brown wool trousers, the pockets empty and the buckle ripped from the belt.

There were some flight kits, maps bearing the name of Northwest Airlines, a man's white handkerchief, a bank book of the National City Bank of New York, a green jacket of a woman's dress, a man's shorts and parts of bodies.

Among the debris was a child's shoes and a little girl's rag doll. The doll was one of the few things that came out of the crash complete and intact.

Disintegration must have been complete when the plane struck the water. That was all that remained of a giant, proud airliner.

Picnic Trays

Handy serve-yourself party trays can be easily made from rectangular cooky tins. New metal has an oily coating which should be removed with a rag dipped in turpentine. Gloss or semi-gloss enamel can be used for the background—gloss enamel for the design.

Insecticides

Nearly all insecticides are classed as poisonous. J. O. Pepper, extension entomologist of the Pennsylvania state college, warns users of insecticides to keep these materials out of streams where they might be harmful to fish.

Increased Demand For Child Care

Montgomery, Dec. 19, 1950-The demand for institutional care for children has exceeded the supply furnished by public and private agencies in the state, Public Welfare Commissioner Broughton Lamberth said this week.

Explaining why institutions are asked to care for larger numbers while there remain long lists of families waiting to adopt children. Lamberth said: "Most children who receive institutional care in Alabama are not children eligible for adoption placement. In fact, most of them are children whose family ties are not permanently broken and a large number are family groups of two or more brothers and sisters."

He added too that the institutions are affected by the rise in food costs and other high living expenses.

come a long way in recent years, according to A. W. Jones, A.P.I. Extension Service marketing spe-

He explains that only 18 per cent of the people in the United States live on farms, compared with 35 per cent in 1910 and 80 per cent a century ago. This fact means that many crops, once grown in small amounts for home use, are highly specialized cash crops now. And the prospects are that this trend will continue.

Jones believes each farmer will want to keep these facts in mind as he plans his operations for 1951 and future years.

Refinish Furniture

A successful job of refinishing depends on removing the old finish carefully and thoroughly.

According to Marion Cotney, Shelb County home agent, only a good quality commercial paint and varnish remover should be used on valuable pieces of finer woods.

The cost of refinishing furniture, she adds, may be kept down by using homemade lye paste on large pieces such as a bedstead, corner cupboard, or chest with thick, gummy finishes. Most of the thick finish may be removed with the lye paste and the final layer next to the wood taken off with commercial paint and varnish re-

Girl Wins Fight to Stay In Malay With Foster Mother

SINGAPORE - Thirteen-year-old Bertha de Hartogh, who grew up in the jungle, won a high-court appeal against a decision to return her to civilization in Holland.

The Singapore court of appeal reversed an earlier decision that the girl should be handed back to her parents, who left her with a native governess when they fled from Japanese invaders in 1942.

Bertha, one of six children of a Dutch army sergeant and his wife, grew up in a Malay jungle village with her foster mother, Aminah, after her parents were interned by the Japanese.

Released in 1945, the parents were unable to find the child. However, a traveler in northern Malaya saw her running naked with brownskinned village children and reported her presence to authorities.

Dependent Husband Eligible for Benefits

A dependent husband, as well as a dependent wife, is eligible to old-age and survivors insurance payments under the amended social security law.

Beginning this September, the dependent husband of a woman who, through her own work in a social security job became entitled to old-age benefit payments at any time after 1939, is also entitled to insurance payments.

This gives to the dependent husband the same old-age and survivors benefits that the dependent wife has always had under social security. To qualify as a dependent husband, he must have the status of a husband of the insured woman worker under State law and be the father of her son or daughter, or have been married to her for not less than three years immediately preceding the day on which the application was filed.

Our Government

Washington Correspondent

Washington, D. C. December, 1950-Congress has taken swift action to deal with Red China in the Korean War, because it has reached a crisis. The Congress is having a hard time with itself tokeep from raising a terrible racket with President Truman. They are telling and telling-the Chief to fire Secretary of State Acheson.

Senator Knowland, Republican from California has returned from a visit, and talks with General Douglas MacArthur in Tokyo and he is urging Congress to force a demand to give MacArthur immediate authority to hit the Chinese Communist bases in Manchuriaand he called upon the United States, recently, for the expulsion of Solviet Russia from the United Nations. That is real STATES-MANSHIP.

Why are we playing ball with Russia, anyhow? The Russians are our enemies and they are responsible for what is going on in Korea. Aren't we going forward as Americans-hind-end-first? In Washington most people believe that the United Nations are notand never will be "United." From the very first day of the sessions of that organization the Russians vetoed the action of the other Nations. No wonder Senator Knowland told the Senate a few days ago a startling truth: "No Appeasement should be shown the Chinese Communists" and he declared: "This is the fateful hour in the history of Our Nation and the entire free World."

OUR YOUTHS ARE BEING SHORT-CHANGED

At the White House Conference a few days ago, six thousand delegates were told by top educational authorities, led by Dr. Benjamin Spock, famous child specialist, that "America is knowingly shortchanging" the children in education. He told the White House audience that our schools are too few and too small; much of the equipment is antiquated; most classes throughout the country are shockingly large, so large that the best teachers are frustrated; there are too few teachers.

Dr Spock emphasized the terrific fact that "America spends less for education than for tobacco, for liquor, for cosmetics." Not a single person disputed this famous speaker.

So-what ails us? This Washington correspondent cannot answer his own question-even though his office windows face the Blair House, and our staff sees the Presidential procession come and go practically every day in the week.

News Service reprints it for the benefit of our readers across the Nation. Editor Brady says that former Secretary of Labor Perkins was the originator of the slanderous nickname "The Shoeless South."

The Mississippi Editor resents the attempt of the New York scribbler to slander the Beautiful South. Editor Brady says:

"Business is going on as per usual. We see the frightening headlines that the mercury dropped to 32 in Florida, but are reassured that a $100,000,000 vegetable and fruit crop was only slightly damaged. Bejabers-We didn't know that there were $100,-000,000 in all these Rebel Statesaccording to what Life magazine tells us!

We also note that there are no power line difficulties down this way, traffic has gone on unimpeded (for we are blessed with good weather, if not wealth), no floods to speak of (we leave that up to Old Man River, and we have him pretty well curbed these of the Smith and Wesson line is where."

negligible.

And we were also pleased to note that there is no looting of homes in any of our Southern cities, and we believe if conditions such as these mentioned existed down here that you wouldn't find such crime present. Why back at Vicksburg in the 1860's when the natives suffered from a siege that brought on pestilence and starvation, when many families were reduced to eating rats-what happened? Each family at least stuck to its own household share of rats and didn't go around the neighborhood robbing the other guy's larder-just because his lights were off. But of course such conduct on our part is merely a myth elsewhere. Facetiously they may call that Southern Chilvary!

Yes, we have much to be thankful for down here in the Deep South, much that others do not know of, much that even we do not realize, for besides a happy climate we have gentility, real friendship and understanding, and a freedom and ease of living that days), and the loss of life South | aren't always prevalent else-

Although it is fairly new in this country, the idea of Memorial day is a very old one. It stems from the solemn Greek rite of "Zoai," and the Roman "Parentalia." There are special days for honoring the dead throughout the world. #### How To Measure Window Curtains

Curtains and draperies are not hard to make if correct measurments are taken and accurate cutting is done, says Home Agent Marion Cotney.

She reminds Shelby County hamemakers that the best way to estimate the amount of material needed is to measure from the bottom of the rod to the desired length at the bottom and then add the allowance for hems, casings, heading, and shrinkage.

For example, explains the agent, a window may be 72 inches long and the curtains are to have a three-inch hem, a one-inch finished casing, and a one-inch finished heading. This means that two inches each have to be added for both casing and heading, since the measurment was taken from the bottom of the rod. One inch is allowed for turning in the two raw edges, and the width of the hem is allowed for shrinkage.

Powerful X-Ray Reduces Cancer Inside Bodies

LONDON-Cancers growing inside human bodies are being reduced or wiped out by a powerful new X-ray, medical scientists re-

The X-rays are 2,000,000 to 23,-000,000 volts in power, the strongest ever used medically. They come from super X-ray machines of various kinds.

They can reach deeper into the body, with more punch. They don't affect all cancers, for some tumors resist X-rays or at least have not been affected by less powerful rays.

One machine, a Van de Graaf generator, produces 2,000-volt Xrays. This means X-rays with double the power of all the medical radium in the world, Said Dr. John G. Trump of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

The rays can deliver 60 percent of their tremendous energy to cancers three or four inches deeper inside the body, he said. They speed through the skin, bone, and other tissues without doing much damage to these healthy tissues. They don't slow down enough for damaging work until they have gone a few inches.

A rediscovered trick of treatment makes the beam even more potent, Dr. Trump said. This is to put the patient on a turntable, revolving slowly, to change the angle of the X-ray bombardment.

The cancer then gets the X-ray from all sides. There is far less chance of injuring the skin where the beam enters, or other healthy tissue. This rotating idea was first tried in England nearly 40 years ago, but at a time when there were no X-ray beams that would concentrate deep in the body.

In 100 patients treated since last October, the cancers have shrunk each time, and some still are shrinking, Dr. Trump said. These included cancers of the head, neck, breast, lungs, and pelvic organs.

It still is too early to know whether anyone has been cured, but "we are hopeful the results will show more cures than by conventional methods of X-ray treatment," Dr. Trump said. The patients are far less likely to suffer from radiation sickness, he added.

Shrinking of deep cancers with 23,000,000-volt X-rays was described by Dr. Roger A. Harvey of the University of Illinois. These rays come from a betraton, a doughnut-shaped atom-smashing machine.

In 23 patients, all with advanced cancer, the cancer has shrunk each time, so far as can be observed, Dr. Harvey said. Whether any of the 23 will recover can't be pre-

Wisconsin Town Loses Tax Revenue Over Technicality

WAUSAU, WIS. - Sam Nigar has the town in an uproar. And it is through no particular fault of his

Sam's property sits astride the city limits. His barn is in the city of Wausau and his house is in the county of Wausau. Last year he asked the Wisconsin Fuel & Light company to hook him up to the gas mains. It meant a 300-foot extension of the mains, but the company obligingly made the connection, Sam's gas hookup has had far reaching results. Previously the company serving only city customers, had been classifed as a private utility and paid its taxes directly to the city. When the company first started serving Sam, outside the city limits, it became a public utility. From now on it will pay its taxes to the state, the department of taxation has ruled.

That's good for the gas company but bad for the city. Last year the company paid $14,900 in taxes on a city tax rate of $36 per $1,000 valuation. This year the company will have to pay only $11,205 in taxes, because the state rate is $27 per $1,000 valuation. Of this tax money collected by the state. the city will get half, or $5,600.

Wausau officials, aggrieved at the prospect of an annual $9,340 revenue loss, are reported to be toying with the idea of "annexing" Sam Nigar's house.

Way Is Opened By Court Action For Letting State Highway Contracts

...........

opened this week to proceed with the building of eight proposed state-financed road projects which had been stopped when W. B. Timmons, Alabama Motorists Association executive, enjoined the highway department from opening bids on the projects.

Circuit Judge Walter B. Jones of Montgomery dissolved the injunction in his court Thursday.

The action was taken by Timmons who contended that the state would lose several million dollars in federal matching money if the projects were built without federal aid.

Officials of the state highway department argued otherwise in the court pleadings.

Attorneys handling the enjoinment asked the State Supreme Court to reinstate the injunction against the highway department. The court listened for three hours to snappy lawyer talk pleading for both sides. Then at 8:30 in the evening, the eight-man court ruled that the highway department could move ahead with the construction jobs.

Highway director Ward McFarland announced plans to readvertise projects which were to have been opened December 1. Four other state financed projects involved in the court action had bids let on them here Friday.

Meanwhile the highway departmen announced that the following 10 projects costing $1,225,000 will be open for bids on January 5:

If You Are Planning To Build or Remodel, Get It Started Now, Says Fred H. Frost

Anyone in Montevallo desiring | most modest new homes. to build or modernize a home or other building is advised to start at an early date, according to Mr. F. H. Frost, local lumber and building materials dealer, and a member of the public affairs committee of the National Retail Lumber Dealers Association.

"There are three reasons for getting an early start," Mr. Frost said. "In the first place, there is no reason to believe that material prices or building costs will decline to any important extent in the months ahead. In fact, some increases are likely.

"Secondly, some essential building materials, notably those containing strategic metals, such as steel, copper and aluminum, are certain to be less plentiful from now on, owing to the large quantities being set aside for the rearmament program.

"Other materials probably will be in full supply, but some metal is required in building even the early date."

"In the third place, there always is the possibility that defense officials in Washington will decide to restrict construction of houses still further as a means of conserving materials for defense production. Should that happen, some local families who have good cause to build may face delays in obtaining the necessary approvals and in obtaining all of the requirred materials.

"Furthermore, there always is the possibility that mortgage credit restrictions will be tightened by the Federal government, in which case some families might find difficulty in meeting the higher downpayment requirements.

"Limitations on the use of copper and aluminum for construction and other civilian use already are in effect and the supplies of building materials containing those metals will be curtailed at an

Television Stations The United States has a little more than 100 television broadcasting stations, and three-fourths of them are operating at a loss.

NEW YORK-America's old folks will be healthier and happier in the next generation.

That's the report from Dr. Charles E. Dutchess, medical director of Schenley laboratories and one of the nation's experts on geriatrics, the new medical specialty concerned with diseases of the aged.

"Medical science has added years to the human lifespan," says Dutchess, "and now is in the process of adding life and vigor to the added

Modern medicine has made the age of longevity a reality, raising the average life expectancy nearly 20 years. Today there are over 11 million Americans in the 65-andover age group, as against only 3 million in this category in 1900. Present estimates are that there will be at least 20 million Americans 65 and over by 1980.

This striking increase in life expectancy has been accomplished by a combination of new and potent medical weapons - such "wonder drugs" as penicillin and streptomycin, better care and treatment methods, and preventive medicine as practiced by the geriatricians.

According to Dutchess, the next generation will see increasing numbers of healthy men and women of 100 matching the economic and social accomplishments of today's 40-year-olds. "The chief threat to the aged at the present lies in the so-called degenerative diseases," explains Dutchess, "which cripple and strike down people of 40 and over.

"Recent research indicates that arteriosclerosis, coronary thrombosis and degenerative diseases in general are caused by nutritional deficiencies. There is reason to believe that new drugs will soon be available to combat this disturbance of cellular nutrition."

But the Schenley executive does not believe the entire problem of happier and healthier aged can be solved by drugs alone.

"Old people must have a sense of participation and continued purpose in life," he says. "They must feel that they are useful citizens, not a burden on their family, friends and country." Dutchess believes that the experts in human and industrial relations must help the aged "in making a successful emotional adjustment to the oncoming years." He feels, too, that a way must be found to employ the able-bodied aged in useful economic services. "When we solve these problems," adds Dutchess, "we will begin to realize the full potential of our long-

Corn Yield of 100 Bushels Per Acre Goal of Science

COLUMBIA, Mo.—How would you like to harvest 100 bushels of corn per acre on the average? Sounds impossible, but C. H. Woodruff of the soils department at Missouri university believes not.

In fact, he says it may be possible to push those yields up to 150 bushels per acre during some of the best years. Other years, the yield may drop considerably below the 100-bushel mark because water shortage may be the limiting factor.

There's no secret to these night corn yields, says Woodruff. The key is a relatively cheap source of nitrogen. In the past, crop yields have been limited to the amount of nitrogen supplied through legume fixation. But legumes do not have the capacity to fix nitrogen for record yields. Woodruff believes that the best anyone could expect from that system is 50 bushels of corn to the acre.

Woodruff has been working with the idea of 100-bushel an acre corn crops since 1946. On the soils and crops experimental fields at Columbia, more than 100 bushels of corn per acre have been harvested for the past three years. And this has all been done on one field.

Former ammunition plants are fixing synthetic nitrogen. And it is easy to get nitrogen to do the job. Indications are that anhydrous ammonia will supply nitrogen to the soil cheaper than other forms of nitrogen carriers. And he says that anhydrous ammonia can be applied rather easily.

Experimental results at Sanborn field at Columbia show that two pounds of nitrogen are required to grow a bushel of corn—one pound to grow the stalk and one pound to grow the ears. Therefore, Woodruff says that 200 pounds of nitrogen must be available to the plants for 100-bushel-an-acre yields.

Boy Puts Pail Under Cow; Talented Animal Milks Self

FINDLAY, Ill.—Blondie, Herbert Bricker's cow, has learned to milk herself.

"All I do is set the pail under her," the 11-year-old boy said, "She does the rest."

Herbert said that, like other farmers, he milked only half the cow at a time when he got her as a present from his father. He noticed that Blondie produced from the other half with no help from him.

"I tried just putting the pail under her," he said. "Sure enough, she milked herself."

Fearing Blondie was sick, the boy's father called a veterinari-

"There's nothing wrong with her," the veterinarian reported. "She's just talented."

Decatur, Alabama was originally known as Rhodes Ferry. In 1820 President Monroe directed the Surveyor General of the United States to reserve a site for a town in Alabama on the Tennessee River to be named in honor of the naval hero, Commander Stephen Decatur. The site chosen was at an old Cherokee crossing on the river known as Rhodes Ferry, established by Dr. Henry Rhodes.

The City of Montgomery was named for General Richard Montgomery of Revolutionary fame who lost his life in the Arnold expedition against Quebec, while Montgomery County had been named earlier in honor of Major Lemuel P. Montgomery, who was killed in the Battle of Horseshoe Bend while serving with Andrew Jackson in the Creek War.

Plague

Coming out of Asia, plague first invaded Europe, via Byzantium, in the sixth century, during the reign of the Emperor Justinian. It was then that Procopius, the Byzantine historian, gave a precise description of the effect of plague on the human body, observing that it brought about blood-poisoning and inflammation of the lymphatic glands.

Look Out For Banded Doves

Montgomery, Dec. 4—Alabama hunters are urged by Conservation Director Phillip J. Hamm to be on the lookout for bands on the legs of doves brought down during the dove season, December 17-January 15.

If the dove is banded, the band should be removed, flattened and sent—with the hunter's name and address and date and place the dove was killed—to either the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Washington, D. C., or the Game, Fish and Seafoods Division, Department of Conservation, Montgom-

More than 5,200 doves have been banded at 17 banding stations in the state since the Mourning Dove Research Project began in 1948, according to Project Leader James E. Keeler. Keeler is assigned to the Pittman-Robertson Federal Aid in Wildlife Restoration pro-

Purpose of the banding program is to collect information to be used as a basis for establishing a biologically sound open hunting season on the dove. Before an effective restoration program on the bird can be set up, a great deal of information about the migratory habits, routes traveled, speed of migration, survival ability and population of the species must be obtained.

"Alabama's sportsmen can become important parts of this project by sending in bands promptly," Conservation Director Phillip J. Hamm said. "The result will be more doves and better shooting tomorrow."

Nurses Wanted For U. S. Army Duty

Twenty nurses from Alabama are needed immediately for extended active duty in the U.S. Army Nurses Corps, according to an urgent call sent by the American Nurses' Association, New York to the Alabama State Nurses' Association headquarters at Montgomery.

The Alabama quota, to be composed of 13 general duty nurses, 4 nurse anesthetists, 2 operating room nurses and 1 psychiatric nurse, is based on the nurse population of the state as established by the American Nurses' Association in response to the Army's demand for 3,000 professional nurses at once to provide adequate nursing care for the casualties in army hospitals.

The ANA Committee on Nursing Resources to meet Civil and Military Nursing Needs, in an emergency meeting, December 19th urged State Nurses' Associations throughout the country to do everything possible to facilitate enrollment of professional nurses in accordance with the quotas given them.

Mansion Ready For Governor Persons

Montgomery—The redecoration of the newly purchased governor's mansion on South Perry Street has now been completed. New draperies, rugs and pieces of furniture were moved in this week, and all is in readiness to receive the new governor and his family upon inauguration, January 15th.

Governor Folsom's wife and children are moving out of the old mansion and to Cullman shortly after Christmas in order for the children to enter school.

Plans have been made to use the old mansion for state offices, provided the plan is not ruled out due to the residential zoning of the district.

COTTON GINNING REPORT

Census report shows that 2,962 bales of cotton were ginned in Shelby County from the crop of 1950 prior to December 1, as compared with 4,374 bales for the crop of 1949.

This report is official from Ruth O. Jones, district supervisor, of the U. S. Department of Commerce, Bureau of the Census.

Exhibited in the Department of Archives and History museum is a pocket-knife with which an Alabamian, Jessie Stedman, fought his way out of Fort Mims when that garrison was attacked and massacred almost to the man on August 30, 1913. The description of the episode said that Stedman plunged into the Alabama River and swam to safety with the knife clenched between his teeth.

Dr. Clarence Poe Explains Point Four Program

South To Benefit, Says Progressive Farmer Editor

Birmingham, Ala., Dec. 20-Addressing a group of agricultural leaders from Alabama, North Carolina, Kentucky, Tennessee, and Texas in Birmingham recently, Dr. Clarence Poe, President and Editor of The Progressive Farmer, and recently appointed by President Truman as a member of the Advisory Board of the Point Four Program, said the whole South should profit from development of under-developed areas of the world under the Point Four program.

The program, stated Dr. Poe, is not a "give-away" project, but aims to help foreign nations help themselves through industrial and agricultural development. Dr. Poe defined the immediate objective of the program's committee as providing of employment in industry and progress in agriculture with the aid Capus Waynick of North Carolina, of technical assistance and sound and groundwork for its activities investments by American capital. It is hoped that the program will achieve a degree of agricultural progress in many rural regions of of North Carolina. Dr. Henry G. the world comparable to that accomplished in our own South A. & M. #### Train Wreck Started Vestavia Hills Evergreen Industry

A train wreck near Evergreen in 1883 caused the beginning of a new industry in the country around the city. A northern woman who was traveling through the south was delayed there several hours by the wreck. She strolled off into the woods near-by and was impressed by the beautiful flowers and green plants to be found there the year round. In a magazine article she described the beautiful evergreen country in Alabama and one of her readers came to the state to see for himself. He created an industry when he began shipping the evergreens to florists in the north. He was later joined by others who helped to make the business one of the most thriving and profitable in Conecuh County.

The first county to be organized in present Alabama was Washington County with McIntosh Bluff as county seat. It was formed in 1800 to include all of the Mississippi Territory between the Pearl River and the Chattahoochee River. Its population consisted of 733 white persons, 494 Negro slaves and 23 free Negroes.

The Mardi Gras Carnival, celebrated annually for five days ending on Shrove Tuesday, was instituted by Bienville, first governor of the French colony of Mobile, on August 24, 1704, as the Masque de la St. Louis. The carnival was almost a century and a quarter old before the first semblance of the modern decorative float was added.

Army Chaplain Gets DSC For Valor in Korean War

TOKYO, Japan — A chaplain has been awarded the distinguished service cross for his work in the Korean war.

Chaplain Herman G. Felhoelter, of Cincinnati, voluntarily stayed behind to give spiritual comfort and aid to seriously wounded men who could not be evacuated in the face of an overwhelming night attack by superior North Korean forces on the Kum river north of Taejon.

"When last seen, Chaplain Felhoelter was still administering to the wounded," the army said. "He is believed to have been killed. His valorous deed was an inspiration to every member of the regiment."

Prices Irk Cherry Grower; Orders Trees Gut Down

TRAVERSE CETY, Mich.-George Washington, so legend says, cut down one cherry tree. Fred E. Reed of Sutton's Bay did better than that, down his orchard of 250 trees.

It all came about when Reed was offered only 4 cents a pound for his crop of Michigan sour cherries. strawberries," Reed declared flat-

Last year's crop of Michigan sour cherries brought 9 cents a pound. Packers are offering 4 cents for this year's early crop, but promised growers additional payment (possibly up to 3 cents a pound) later if the price of the processed pack warrants it.

But Reed isn't interested in subsidy prices.

"When I can't raise cherries and make a profit without depending on price supports I'll quit growing them," he declared.

The only trees he left standing were a few for his personal use.

Switzerland Using Alpine Lakes as 'Deep Freezers'

NEW YORK-A dispatch from Switzerland reports the people of that country are again using their icy Alpine lakes as huge "deep freezers" to store food against the possibility of a new war isolating the mountainous little republic.

The dispatch said the first batch of reserve staples-1,000 tons of coconut oil in metal drums-has been lowered 40 feet below the surface of one lake.

The drums are laid upon a foundation of cement and are tied to each other with steel cable.

Toy Bridge Plays Important Part in Construction Work

PRINCETON, N. J. - A toy bridge, replica of a 312-foot section of the $40,000,000 Delaware memorial suspension bridge under however. He ordered workers to cut | construction near Wilmington, is playing an important part in the construction work.

The model's dimensions are 26 feet in length, 20 inches deep and 61 "T'll clear the ground and raise inches wide. It weighs 600 pounds. Every rivet and connection that will appear in the Delaware bridge has been reproduced in detail.

Construction of the 26-foot model was prompted by the failure of the famous "Galloping Gertie" the Tacoma Narrows suspension bridge that snapped in half in a storm. "Galloping Gertie" could not withstand the twisting caused by the wind and its uneven weight distribution.

So far the construction of the model and the tests have cost $4,000. The miniature is subjected to various loads which produce twisting. Engineers then alternate the system of horizontal bracings to determine which give the greatest stiffness. The stiffer the span is, the less will be its tendency to rotate. Tests indicate that by using braces across both the top and bottom, stiffness can be increased about 20 times.

The Delaware bridge was begun in 1949 and is scheduled for completion next summer. Located in the southern end of the New Jersey turnpike, the 2,150-foot suspended span will be the fifth largest such bridge in the world.

Liquor Profits Big Source of Revenue

Montgomery-One of the largest single sources of revenue for the State of Alabama is derived from profits made by the state operated liquor stores.

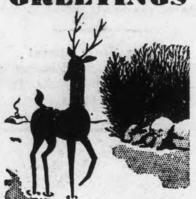

During November, these profits amounted to $995, 733. Profits are just slightly under those of a year ago. Profits for the first eleven months of 1950 ran to $10,246,201, somewhat less than a million dollars per month.

The ABC Board members announced this week that lincenses will be allowed to start sales at one minute after New Year's Day rolls in, instead of at the customary hour of 8 a.m. Sales also will be allowed to continue until 2 a.m. the following morning.

Blue-Gray Game At Cramton Bowl Saturday, Dec. 30

Montgomery - Alabama's own bowl game of football rivalrythe classic Blue and Gray - will be played in Montgomery's Cramton Bowl December 30.

Unlike other bowl games, the Blue and Gray will be made up of the finest players from many of the schools throughout the North and the South.

A capacity crowd of 22,000 is expected for the tilt.

One of the pleasing features of the game is that it is played on the ast Saturday in December instead of on New Year's Day, thus giving football fans an opportunity to see other bowl games on that day.

The Blue and Gray idea was fathered by Col. Champ Pickens. It has in the past received widespread publicity in papers thruout the nation.

Gov.-Elect Gordon Persons has invited all members of the newly elected Alabama legislature to be his guests at the bowl game.

A delegation of several hundred is coming from Pennslyvania and will be accompanied by high ranking state officials, including the lieutenant governor.

SAM KLOTZMAN MONTEVALLO

The first English school in Alabama was established at the beginning of the Nineteenth century at the Boat Yard on Lake Tensas by a New Englander, John Pierce. Pierce's school was known as the "blab" type as the pupils studied by repeating the words of their lessons out loud. The school building was a crude log cabin with puncheon benches, and the student body consisted not only of English children, but also those of French, Spanish, and Indian parentage.
